LINDBERGH. THE WHALE AND ATHEIST WHO FIGHTS ALONE.

ANKS BE FOR LINDY. Needs of individual courage still are the world more than any other achievement.

Any man is courageous with many around him. With a crowd, it is easier to go than not to go.

The great crowds that howl for Lindbergh, and they were asleep when he started off in the fog, alone, at daybreak, know why they applaud him.

Lookout on the cruiser Memphis, bringing Lindbergh home, called out, "There she blows, broad on the starboard bow."

Nothing could have made that bull whale believe that the tiny man on the bridge had flown across the Atlantic Ocean, in the other direction.

How can you hope to make an atheist believe that there exists a Divine intelligence flashing from one universe to another, pervading all space?

Thank heaven for Lindbergh. He may make this Government realize that to be defenseless in the air IS TO BE ABSOLUTELY DEFENSELESS.

He reminded New York of the disgraceful fact that the richest city in the world has no air port, and must travel far off to Long Island to find one.

And he said in substance this: "They talk about anti-aircraft guns as a defense against airplanes. A hundred fast planes would soon clear a battleship's decks of its anti-aircraft guns.

Much of woman's trouble has been caused by her prejudice against her own sex, her lack of mercy for other women that go wrong, her contempt for women generally.

Real life is THOUGHT, not MATTER. Prisoner. "In serving your number, I took the money, but you know the more a man gets the more he wants."

Judge: "Well, you're getting seven years. How much more do you want?"
