

The Enterprise Published every Wednesday by THE ENTERPRISE PUB. CO. Chestertown, Maryland

L. BATES RUSSELL, Editor and Manager HARRY S. RUSSELL, Associate Editor

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 20th,

On page six, of this issue, will be found a reprint of the bill passed by the recent General Assembly...

For some reason, unknown, unless it be that there were some parts of the bill that they wished to keep in the dark...

Late yesterday afternoon, an advertisement containing the list of improvements which the bond issue would undertake...

We, as was stated above, are publishing on page six a reprint of the bill as a whole...

If the next of Chestertown wish to bond the town to the extent and for the purposes proposed by this bill...

There are some reports that this bond issue would take care of the much needed sewerage disposal plant...

Yesterday, Mr. George W. Rash, announced his withdrawal as a candidate for Town Commissioner...

Secretary Hoover says the railroads are now in fine condition, supplying "completely adequate service."

"It shows, at least, that private ownership is working well, as it well may when government guarantees railroad owners good earnings..."

It should not be overlooked, and Secretary Hoover knows it, that the United States Post Office also gives "completely adequate service..."

Buick is in a Value Class

Buick's position of leadership is founded on value. Its constant aim is to build each Buick better than the last. And today, despite that leadership well won and firmly held, Buick is constantly seeking to improve its design—constantly searching for the new and better thing—constantly striving still further to increase the value on which Buick's leadership is based.
