ALL STARS GO TOO FAST FOR JR. VARSITY

Kibler's Team Scores 35 To 23 Win In Season's Final Game

The curtain was rung down on the 1926-27 basketball season in Kent County last Friday evening when Coach Kibler's All Stars outsmarted the Washington College Junior Varsity to win 35 to 23.

Starting with a rush the All-Stars piled up a lead of 21 to 9 in the first half of the game. The second period found the teams battling on even footing when each tallied 14 points. Carrington with 7 field goals and Dopsen with 4, were the scoring aces for the All-Stars. The work of Coach Kibler, however, in bringing the ball up the floor and into a shooting position for these two forwards was responsible for their high scoring.

Kibler, though not up to his usual shooting form, was here, there and everywhere. To those who thought the Washington College mentor was slipping his work was a revelation. For the full forty minutes he led his team at a speed that had the youngsters on the Junior Varsity gasping for breath at each opportunity.

Coach Phil Brown, who side-boarded Kibler at guard played a strong defensive game and tossed a pair of ringers for his team.

Billy Usilton, a Chestertown boy, was the one bright spot on the Junior Varsity. He played the best game of his career.

The Junior Varsity did not play the game it was capable of producing. They did not pass the ball in their usual style. It may have been nervousness, and again, and most probable, they were being ridden just a trifle harder than they had been accustomed to. The All-Stars were a stronger organization than the one that the Jay Vees had been battling to a stand still for several weeks.

Carroll and Dumschott closed their Washington College basketball career by officiating the contest in big league style.

The lineup and summary:

Dumschott On All Star Five

Cavanaugh on Second Team

Two members of the Washington College varsity basketball squad were picked on all star teams chosen by the Catholic University Tower from players who performed on the Washington, D. C. court.

Dutch Dumschott was chosen as a guard on the first team along with players from Fordham, Yale and Navy.

Bobby Cavanaugh was selected as a guard on the second team, which had other members from Fordham, Stevens, Yale and American University.

Carroll and Giraitis were given honorable mention.

Old Colored Mammy: "Ah wants ticket fo' Florence."
Ticket Agent (after ten minutes of wearily thumbing over railroad guides): "Where is Florence Madam?"

Old Colored Mammy: "Settin' over dar on de bench, suh."

"Did you ever know that you look like Helen Brown?"
"That so? I look even worse in blue."

He: "Darling, would you like to help me choose a suit?"
She: "No, dear, but I'll pick the pockets."

He parked the car in the darkest part of the road. As her arm stole around his neck, she asked, "Do you love me still, dear?"
"Ces, sweetheart, but you never are."

Upland: "Does Jack make a good policeman?"
Down: "Shucks no. He couldn't even arrest your attention."

A wonderful swimmer named Mark Went swimming one day in the Dark A splash and a Swish
And on the poor Fish
"Cause Mark is inside of a shark."

TRACK SQUAD WORKS HARD

Faries Prepares For Season About To Open

The Washington College track team under the leadership of Coach Faries and Assistant Coach Makoskey is undertaking the most ambitious schedule that a Washington College track and field group has ever faced.

The meet for which the present work is being pointed is the University of Penn Relays, on April 29 and 30. It is the intention of Coach Faries to enter a team in the mile relay for colleges.

The runners and jumpers will participate in a three cornered meet with Johns Hopkins and St. Johns at Homewood on May 14.

Entrants will be sent to the Middle Atlantic States Intercollegiate meet on May 21.

It is expected that the team will again enter the University of Maryland Dental School meet in which all the colleges of the state take part.

For the past two seasons the Washington squad has romped away with the honors.

The squad so far is composed of the following men:

- 100 yds.—C. Crouse, D. Crouse.
- 440 yds.—Capt. Al. Lovesy, T. Norris, Kirby, Marth, Chapman, C. Vansant, Brice, Mason, Boston.
- 220 yds.—T. Norris, Kirby, Brice, Powell, Mason, Wood.
- One half mile—Lovesy, Vaughn, Bosman, Boston.
- Hurdles—C. Vansant.
- High Jump—Usilton, Giraitis.
- Broad Jump—T. Norris, Vansant, C. Crouse, D. Crouse.
- Shot Put—Lovesy, T. Norris.
- Pole Vault—Chapman, Usilton, Ensor.
- Javelin Throw—T. Norris, Al. Lovesy.

KIBLER NINE BEGINS TO HIT STRIDE

Team Of Veterans And Youngsters Looks Good

The Washington College baseball team is rapidly beginning to assume the shape in which it will make its initial appearance on April 8, when Schuylkill College comes to Chestertown to assist in raising the 1927 curtain.

With Jack Carroll, Bennett and Purcell, three veterans, available for mound duty the pitching end of the team is well taken care of.

Jacobs will probably receive the catching assignment.

Two new faces and one not so well known, although it appeared in several Washington games last season, will be seen in the infield. Cavanaugh a veteran of several campaigns will remain at his first base station.

Present indications point to Seib, at second, Jess at short, and Wright at third.

Seib played in several of the games last season and in one contest batted a single thru the infield for the winning tallies. He is a fine fielder and a fair hitter.

Jess, who at present is leading the field at shortstop candidates fields well and has a fine arm.

Wright, a member of the last season's football team, is the class of the third base aspirants. A good fielder, he runs to the slugger type when at the plate.

Tilden's Choice

Wilbur F. Coen, Jr., of Kansas City, Mo., Boys' Tennis Champion of the United States, has the best net form in the world, says America's ace, William Tilden. He created a sensation in Southern tournaments—and is looked upon as a future star for the American team.

"You keep a dog, don't you?"
"No; if we hear a noise in the night, we bark ourselves."

SPLASHES IN SPORTS

By H. S. ARE

A big three ring sports circus gets into action every day up on the Washington College Athletic grounds.

And soon, when the tennis courts are put into shape the number of rings will jump to four.

On the main athletic field, that one with the board fence around it, Coach Kibler put his diamond artists thru their paces each afternoon.

On the fringes of the baseball diamond is a cinder path. Here "Doc" Faries paces his veteran and colt track aspirants.

Down on what is becoming known as the South field, that is back of the power plant, Coach Phil Brown does tricks with the pigskin chasers.

Baseball, being the major sport at this season of the year, receives the most attention from the spectators.

The more rabid of the specie, those who watch the practice session each afternoon, seem to think that Kibler is going to have the strongest nine in several years.

The main trouble is with the catchers, or rather the catcher's arms.

They can all catch, but so far a thrower has not been uncovered.

If a happy medium could be struck among some of the candidates everything would be jake.

Some throw wide, some long and some short.

The infielders around the middle cushion are kept in a stew as to whether to start in, or turn and head for the fence when the backstops turn loose.

Several remedies have been suggested, such as, building the fence higher and making the one guilty of the wild toss, chase it.

Down on the football practice field Coach Brown is preparing for a forward passing season.

Each man on the squad must catch a pass before he can head for the showers.

It's rather hard on some of the over-stout linemen, for when Brown leans back and lets fly the football travels well out.

The squad makes out pretty well.

Eddie Keenan would have enjoyed this style of practice.

Last week this three ring circus was really a four-py affair for each afternoon, late, the two basketball teams that closed the season on Friday evening practiced.

The lid is on the basket now for another season. Kibler's All Stars were just that and the youngsters on the Jay Vees seemed bewildered.

The fact that Kibler's head is hairless is surely no sign that he is joining the ranks of the has beens.

In Friday's contest none played harder, nor kept going at half the pace he employed thru out the full forty minutes.

Captain Colosanto of the Jay Vees says the power of draft won the game for the All Stars.

A is for Apple they're hoping to crash,
B is for Babe who gets plenty of cash,
C is for Connie who says he will land,

D is for Dough that the holdouts demand,
E is for Eagerness, shown by the fans,
F is for Fanatics coming in clans,
G is for Grace, which some ball players lack,
H is for Homer, the old four-base whack.

I is for Indians, Cleveland's great pride,
J is for Jinx, which hurts players that slide,
K is for Kibler, Washington's hope,
L is for Lucere that makes boys lops,
M is for Muzzle, worn by the ump,
N is for Nothing, the brains of the chump,
O is for Orioles, Baltimore's pride,
P is for Pep by the rooters supplied.

Q is for Quarrel, which sometimes breaks out,
R is for Riot and also for Rout,
S is for Smooty, the "lay 'em down" boy,

T is for Tally, source of great joy,
U is for Umpire, thief is his name,
V is for Vendor, who dampens the game,
W stands for the nice, juicy Winnings
X is for fans greatest joy, Xtra innings,
Y is for Youth with his blood all a-tingle,
Z is for Zoop, who wrote this here jingle.

Bertha: "Tom says he'll go crazy if I don't marry him."
Her Friend: "Poor Tom! There's not much hope for him either way."
Barking: "Did you catching that fox on horseback?"
Dog: "How silly! Foxes don't ride horses."

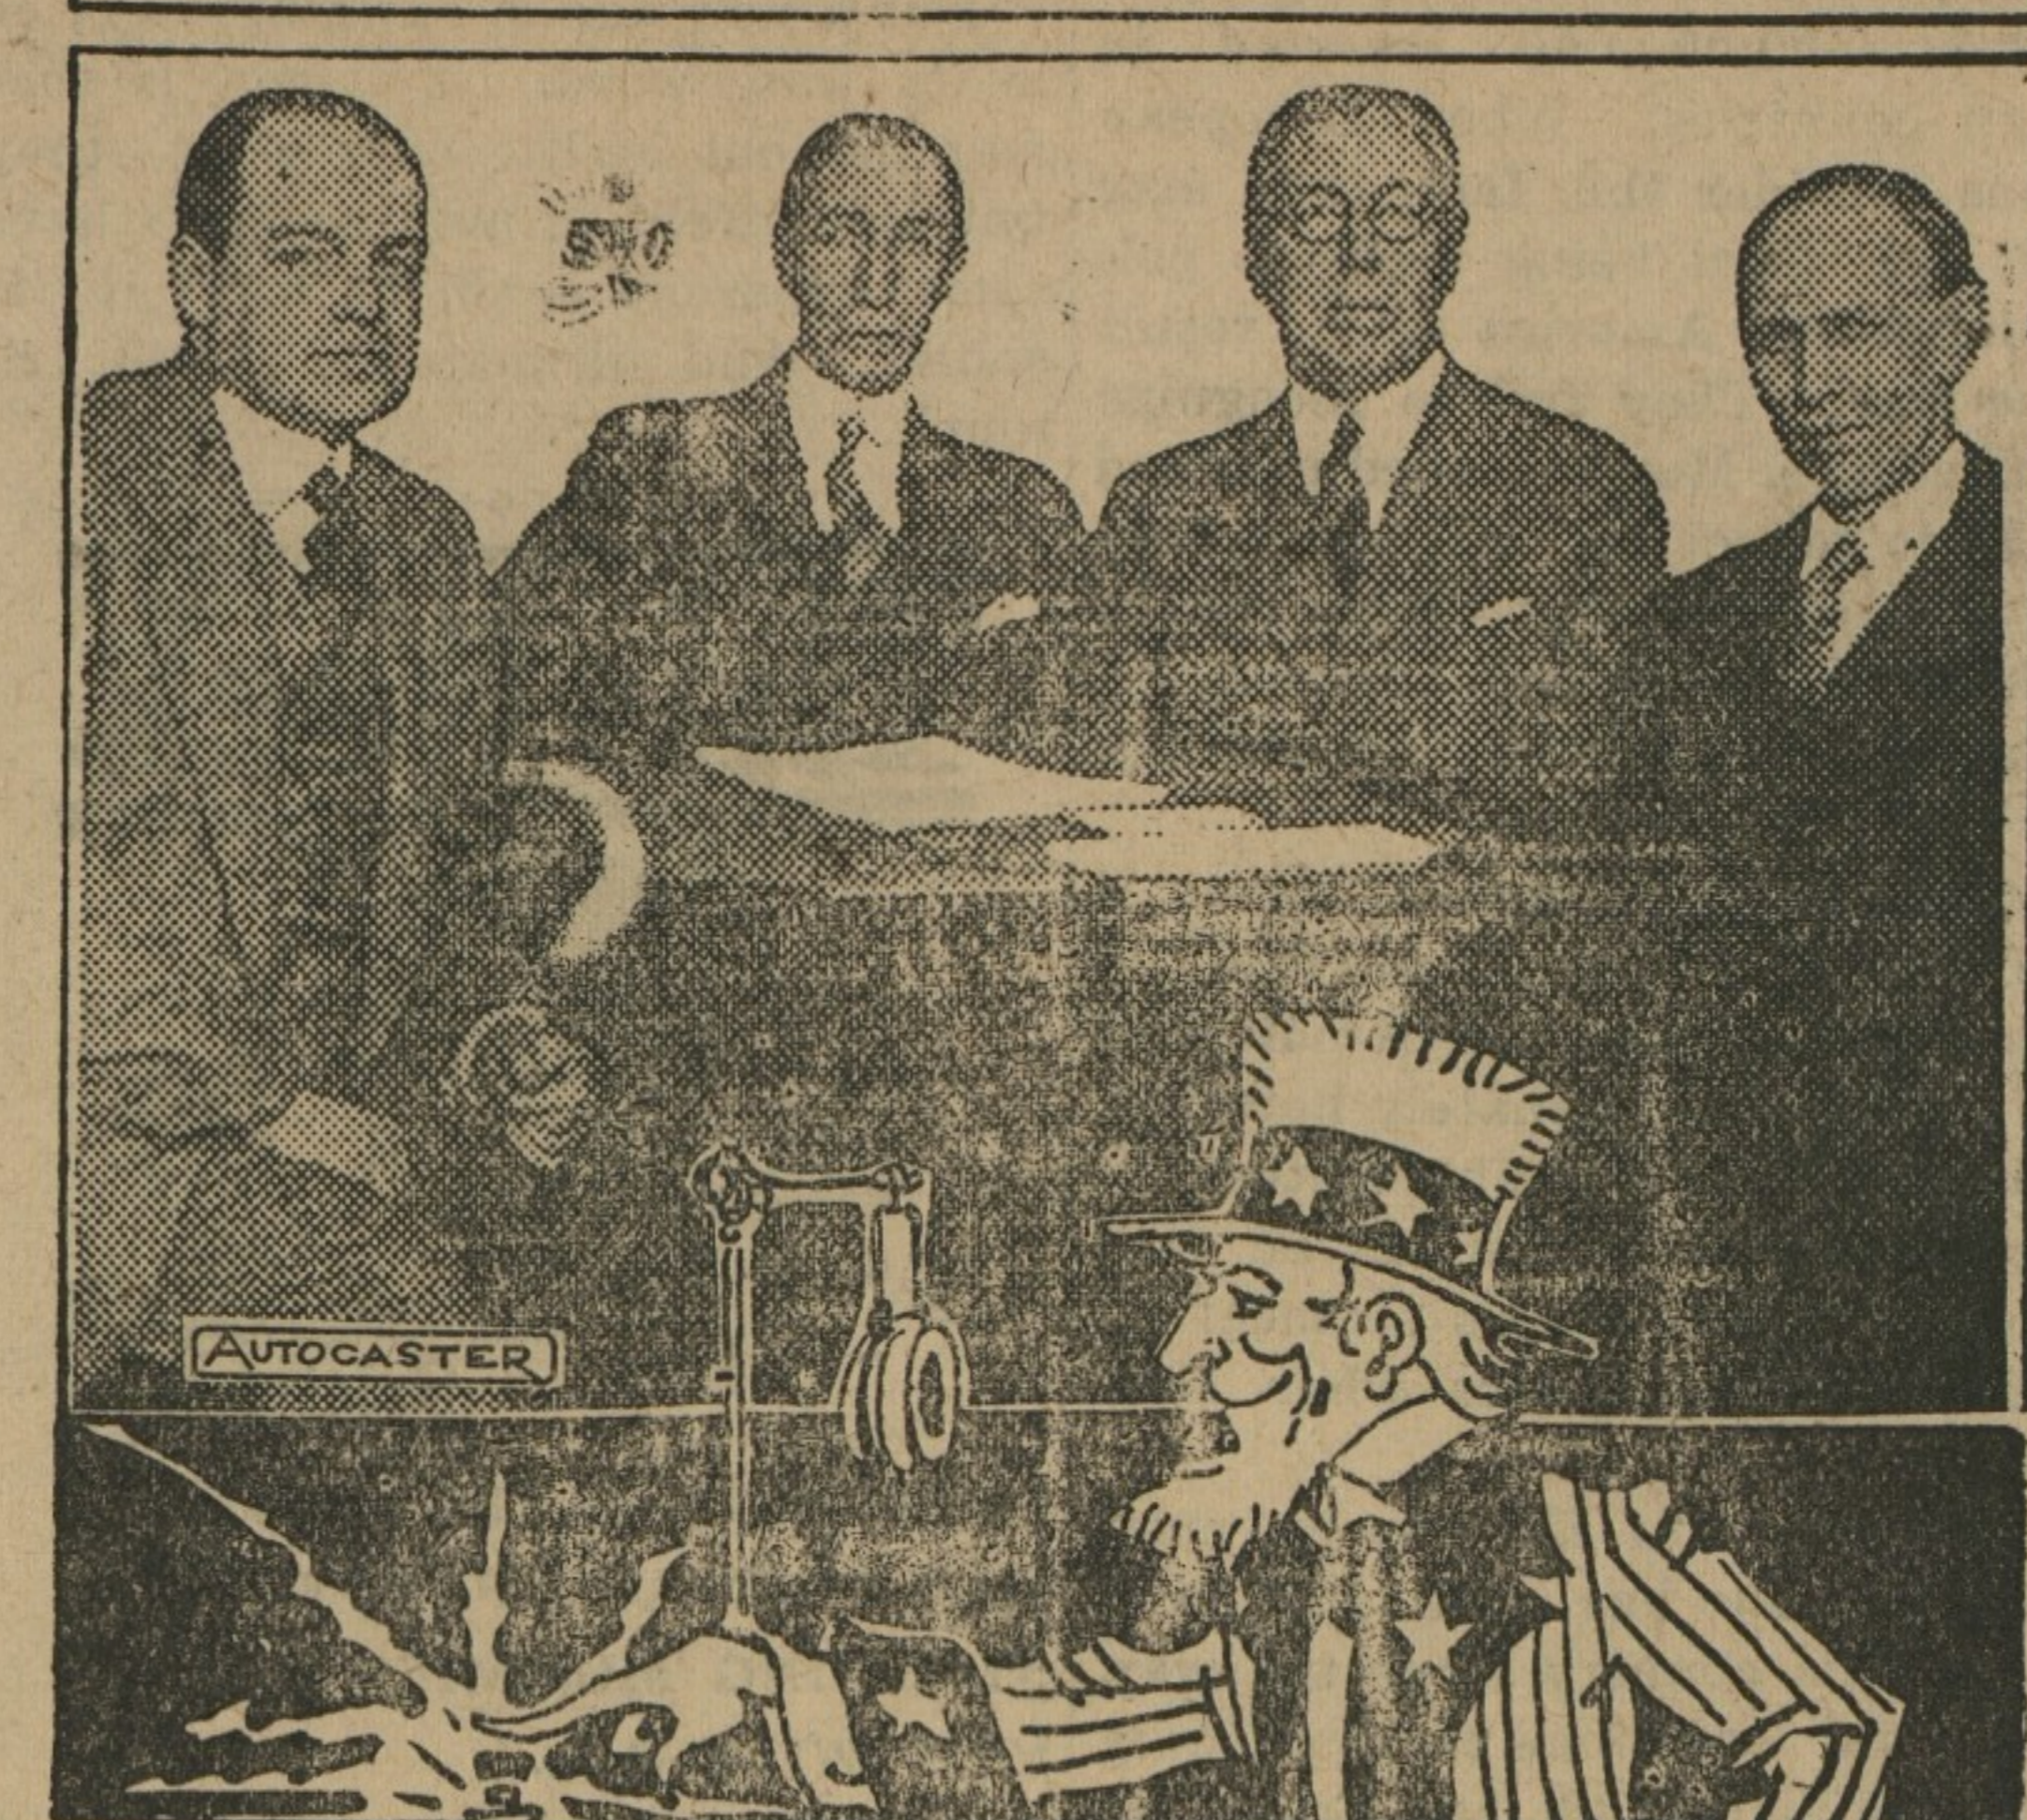

And also remember, Archibald, just because a man may be of very high calibre, doesn't say he's a big gun.

Billings: "Why does Arthur call his girl Gold Medal?"
Fillings: "I suppose it's because she's been through the mill."

"That a good gag," exclaimed the robber as he stuffed his victim's mouth."

Sans Chairman, Radio Board Meets

New Federal Commission

Although Admiral W. H. M. Bullard, U. S. N., retired, chairman of the newly created Radio Commission under the Department of Commerce, is in China, he called this first meeting of the new board by radio to meet in Washington last week. From left to right they are: O. H. Caldwell, New York; Eugene O. Sykes, Mississippi; John F. Dillon, California; and H. A. Bellows, Minnesota.

He: "Marie must think quite a bit of her chin."
She: "How come?"
He: "Well, she's growing another one."

Young Bride on phone: "Hello—Jones butcher shop? Please send me a pound of mince meat, and be sure it's a nice young mince"

RHEUMATISM

While in France with the American Army I obtained a noted French prescription for the treatment of Rheumatism and Neuritis. I have given this to thousands with wonderful results. The prescription cost me nothing. I ask nothing for it. I will mail it if you will send me your address. A postal will bring it. Write today.
