COOLIDGE WILL RUN, IF ALIVE YOU CAN BET

Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler, head of Columbia University, is an able man, a very good speaker and his views always are interesting—but as a political prophet he is "not so good"—the country at large now seems agreed.

Dr. Butler's Riverside speech wherein he positively stated that President Coolidge would not be a candidate for another term; that only a wet can be elected; and that the "third term" factor was against the President brought forth adverse opinions from all over the nation in the press and news comment, also open ridicule from Republican leaders particularly in regard to the third term issue.

Senator Borah's quick acceptance of the Butler challenge on the necessity of the Republican party facing the guns on prohibition was only a side light. In an open letter to Mr. Butler, he said: "I agree with you perfectly that we should not dodge this issue. I shall contribute in every way I can to force the issue to a final conclusion in the next convention." If Borah does this, well and good. We shall then have decisive wet and dry battles in both the Democratic and Republican conventions—and maybe get somewhere in knowing the real desires of the people.

However, President Coolidge has refused to comment on the Butler speech. There is no good reason why he should. A year from now, or even later, if conditions in the country and in the party are not exactly to his liking, he may himself decide not to let his name go before the convention. But no one but the President himself can decide that question, now or then. If alive and he decides to be renominated—then he will be renominated and no one can defeat him for the nomination—and he will run against Smith—or McAdoo—or, how about Jim Reed of Missouri?

There are a lot of cave-men in this nation of ours. You can always know them. When trouble starts they run for a cave.

LISTEN TO THIS—OR YOU WILL PAY TO LISTEN

If there is any one thing the American public should watch closely at this time, it is the Dill-White radio bill in congress. Although fixed up in conference before being passed by the House, there are still jokers galore in it. It has been held up by the Senate because of its failure to formally vest ownership of the air or other above the United States in the National government. This is well. It should be held up forever unless that provision is specifically included, and this too, despite all arguments to the contrary.

Here is the reason. The first step in a deliberate attempt to rob the American public of the rights of the freedom of the air has seemingly been made. Such legislation as allowed by the original bill would have made possible a corporation that would have taken at least five hundred millions of dollars a year from the people. The original bill allowed, or would have allowed, the Radio Trust to impose a service charge upon every person who has a radio or who listens in. There would have been a device (already available) which eliminated all from listening in, unless the charge was paid. There are estimated to be 10,000,000 radio sets in the United States. At a charge of $1 weekly, per set—the trust would have founded a very profitable business—and growing daily.

If you think the air above you is part yours—then write to your Congressman and Senator and tell them so—today.

It is a cinch the farmers were desperately in need of help—else they never would have gone to Congress for it.

GIVE THEM INTELLECTUAL LIBERTY

Radicals opposed to the rights of school teachers to intellectual liberty and free speech received a bloody nose when they went to listen to President S. S. Menken of the National Security League. He said: "No man is good enough to do another's man's thinking, and teachers, who are in the main hard-working, self-sacrificing, grossly underpaid public servants, should not be humiliated by being denied the rights of free thought and free speech."

Isn't there a world of truth in those few words? If any class of people should be able to stand on their own feet, hold their heads high do their own thinking and have the right to express their opinions, it is the teacher. Humiliation such as some of our teachers throughout the nation are subjected to is bad for society, bad for the teachers, bad for the taught. We want no moulding of the minds of youth by sneaks or slaves.

HAVE FAITH IN GOD.—And Jesus said unto him, Go thy way; And immediately he received his sight, and followed Jesus in the way. Mark 10:52.

PRAYER:—Daily, O Lord, we thank Thee that we live by the faith of the Son of God who loved us and gave Himself for us.

What did Jesus say about the power of faith? Answer, read—Matt, 17:20.

Letters to Editor

To the Editor of The Enterprise:
Fox Hunters of Kent County have asked to have a bill introduced in the Legislature, repealing certain sections of the present law governing the Dog Tax, one dollar each. The new measure instead of taxing each dog will be levied according to the number of dogs in a pack of hounds. Instead of reducing the tax on a pack they should be increased as the fox hound does quite as much damage, if not more than any other dog. Several hundred turkeys, other poultry, sheep, and lambs have been killed or mutilated, in the past few years by dogs. A number of women losing as many as thirty or forty in a night that would have brought several hundred dollars, received one dollar from each turkey, from the County.

The dog tax in Kent County is a joke, as a good third of the dogs are without license, and the income collected isn't enough to compensate for damages. I believe the county taxes must help out. Very lately dogs killed a number of lambs and practically ruined the flock as most every lamb dropped since was dead or died soon after birth.

As for the bill passed by the Senate last week making it unlawful to kill a fox, a law which will GIVE ONLY a few men a chance to spend their time chasing the fox, which the dogs may kill or if caught gets its tail cut off, and while this noble sport is going on farm women are working hard over their poultry for these worthless foxes to eat.

Poultry is such an important income in these strenuous times, it is a shame to pass any law that protects an animal that destroys this source of income.

Editor,
The Enterprise, Chestertown, Md.
May I say a word about the proposed scheme to have our town borrow money in order to make certain improvements. Summing it all up, it seems that the situation is about as follows: Politicians in order to make the appeal of low taxes have been cutting down the budget and letting the certain amount of improvements, that should come in healthy sequence, go unmade until the citizens sorely feel their need. Now we seek to remedy this by plunging our town in debt and leaving it to be paid in the future. Putting off paying a debt will not lighten the burden—every cent of it must be paid in the future and until it is, interest must be paid.

My point is this—Let's pay for what we get as we get it. Raise taxes a trifle to include a few thousand dollars for improvements each year—AND USE DISCRETION IN LOCATING THESE IMPROVEMENTS.

Very truly yours,
A TAXPAYER WHO LIVES IN AN UNIMPROVED SECTION.
