Adhering To Ideals Is No Mistake

Dear Miss Flo:

Mine is the eternal man problem—how can I attract them? I have just about everything a girl needs to make her happy—but I haven't a boy friend. Because I will not drink, smoke or pet I never have a date. Do you think I am right in adhering to my ideals? Do you think that some day I will find a man who can love and appreciate a girl who has a higher ambition in life than just to have a good time? I don't mind waiting, but sometimes I become rather discouraged when I see the type of girl men seem to fall for and marry.

I am no prophet where men are concerned, and I don't know whether your Prince Charming is on his way to you or not—but I can tell you one thing for certain, and that is that even if your Prince Charming never makes his appearance you will be a lot better off than you will be if you take, in your despair, a callow little jellybean without two ideas in his head. It is only the woman who is fortunate enough to make a good marriage who is better off than the girl who does not marry.

While love and marriage are highly desirable blessings they need not be the whole of life, and any girl who sacrifices her high ideals in her effort to win a husband, pays too high a price for the sort of a man she might attract—for he certainly could not be of the type desirable as a husband.

No girls makes a mistake by adhering to her ideals. Personally, I doubt very much if the girls who pet drink and smoke outmarry the modest, self-respecting girls. Although I have no statistics in the matter, I am of the opinion that their chances are equal. Men do not love girls because they drink, smoke or pet—they may love them in spite of it. Neither does a man love a girl because she doesn't do these things—although he may be very glad she doesn't. He loves her because there is something kindred in their natures that strikes a spark. After that nothing else matters.

One of the mysteries that has never been solved in why certain girls are magnets that attract every man they meet, while other girls, probably just as charming and good looking in every way, never have a date. Frankly, I believe that if a girl is attractive to men, it doesn't make the least bit of difference that she will not drink, pet or smoke. He finds her companionship sufficiently interesting and stimulating. It's a sad fact, but it's true, that there are many women who would never be popular with the opposite sex regardless of the concessions they might make, and my advice to those girls who do not make a spontaneous hit with men is to stop wasting their time and their energies in trying to attract them, and find some real interest.

The queer thing about it is that as soon as you reach the point where you are indifferent to men and don't care much whether they notice you or not, they will probably be crazy about you.

And if you have everything else in the world to make you happy, why worry so much over the man problem, anyway? It seems that girls put the attentions of men above everything else on earth, and feel that if they are not being rushed by some men—be he ever so insignificant—everything else is dust. And that is truly tragic.

However, if we try, we can find many worth-while consolation prizes when we miss getting the thing we wanted most.

Dr. Frank Crane Says

Too Much Bad Mothering

Most mothers are good. But many mothers are too good, that is, they lean backward, and they do more harm than good for their children.

For instance, there is the too-indulgent mother. Everything her child does is right and she cannot ever bear to reprove him. I recall an incident of the wife of a prominent man who was out walking with her child. For some offense she slapped him, and she immediately knelt down in the snow and asked his pardon and promised never to do it again. Piffle.

It is all important to the young human being that he shall learn to recognize and respect the laws of the universe, moral as well as financial. This is no pink tea world. Sooner or later he is going to run up against it.

Unless a mother recognizes these limitations and teaches her child to recognize them, she is doing him harm.

I know a son who has lied, stolen and done almost everything wrong, but who yet is the apple of his mother's eye. What he needs is to get some good stiff punishment for his sins, but he always appeals to his mother and is saved from paying for his crime.

Another kind of mother who wrongs her son is the one who will not let him go when he has reached the age of manhood and chooses a wife. This mother tries to continue her hold on him with the result of making the wife jealous.

One essential element of good motherhood is to let the fledgling try his own wings when he is old enough.

A mother should control herself and should know the inevitable laws that govern souls. She should be wise and see that her son obeys them. It is to his interest to find them out soon and to govern his life by them. She must not prevent him from doing this.

Very often the devoted mother sees that her son is patted gently when he really needs a swift kick. In the end the heavy kick does him more good than the gentle pat.

YOUR BIRTHDAY

MARCH 20-26

If your birthday is this week, you are enthusiastic, warm-hearted, emotional, and impulsive. You are a strong thinker and reasoner, and not likely to go to extremes in your viewpoints. You are somewhat opinionated and obstinate, and will fight and argue for your rights. You have very strong convictions, and you are proud and self-reliant. You have a rather caustic nature, and can be unpleasantly sarcastic when your anger is aroused. As a general thing, though, you are affable and pleasant, and make many friends who have great confidence in your character and ability. You have a deep insight into human nature, and your intuitions amount almost to inspiration. You are witty, original and vivacious, and fond of all sorts of entertainment and sports.

You have much executive ability, and your judgement is shrewd and accurate. You are conservative in your commercial ventures, and as a result your undertakings are usually successful. You also have an excellent memory, which aids you considerably in a business career. Men born during these dates become politicians, lawyers, judges, business executives, orators, salesmen, and brokers. Women born during these dates become musicians, actresses, designers, teachers and writers.

George Francis Train, financier, was born March 24.

A Tire Chain that protects your Tires

The Goodyear Rubber Non-Skid Chain PROTECTS YOUR TIRES as well as you and your car.

The flat cross links of rubber fit the tire snugly and prevent a great deal of the wear that tread and sidewalls normally get—especially curb and rut wear. Being of rubber the links cannot dig into your tire.

This Goodyear Chain wears far longer than ordinary chains and gives maximum protection against dangerous side-skid because of its unique construction.
