

County Correspondence

ROCK HALL

The town election last Saturday resulted in the choice of Melvin Kendall, Charles Judefin and Joseph Davis as commissioners for the next year. The bond issue for $10,000 for a water supply and fire fighting equipment received the approval of the tax payers of the town.

Congratulations to our volleyball champions. Having won the county championship we hope they will win more.

The mention of next Monday, Rally Day, brings a universal smile among the boys and girls. They know, of course, that they cannot win all but they will justify our faith that they will gain a fair proportion.

A most interesting session, 1st quarterly conference at the M. E. Church, was held Saturday evening at the church. The shad supper held by some of the girls classes was well attended and the did nicely. The Mothers Day discourse by the pastor, Rev. W. S. Grant, was listened to by a full house, the audience expressing themselves as much impressed and inspired by it. The text selected was Isaiah 66:13, as one whom his mother comforteth, so will I comfort you, and ye shall be comforted in Jerusalem. The church had been beautifully decorated with flowers and the audience wore flowers in honor of their mothers.

Was given over to the Epworth League, led by Miss Beatrice Donnelly. There was a very good audience despite the rain. The address was made by Dr. Paul H. Titsworth, of Washington College who spoke in "Duty to your Community."

Roses are beginning to open and the next few weeks will be glorious to sight and scent.

Mr. Raymond Hersch is improving from his operation at St. Agnes Hospital and hopes soon to be home. His wife and son, Sterling, visited him since his operation.

Mrs. Harry Hudson has been suffering for some time with a succession of styes on her right eyelid.

Mrs. Mary Collyer, who has been receiving medical attention for some time, became quite ill Sunday afternoon. She was somewhat improved and conscious the next day.

There were many expressions of sorrow heard when it became known that a former resident of Pineson, Mrs. Earle R. Strong, was dead. She had many loving friends in Lower Kent and in her church circle of St. Paul.

The body of little Calvin Walls was accompanied from Baltimore last Friday by the parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Walls, Mrs. Alice Harrison, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Moran, Mrs. Minnie Moran, Mr. and Mrs. Harry McWilliams, Mr. Oscar Nalls, Miss Lorne Hart, Miss Mildred Harrison, Miss Erma Harrison, Mr. Biggs Harrison and Mr. Nelson Thomas.

Mrs. Anna Weaver is making a visit with her daughter in Baltimore. Mr. and Mrs. Louis F. Gesswein have as guest their daughter, Mrs. Rose Newell from Saturday to Wednesday. Over the week end their son, Mr. Guy Gesswein, wife and son, Louis, all of Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Culley had as week end guests, Mr. and Mrs. Coffey, of Baltimore.

Capt. and Mrs. Joshua Thomas are entertaining Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Taylor, of Baltimore.

Mr. William Stewart, of Baltimore was a recent guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Collison. Miss Gladys Collison spent last Saturday to Monday with her aunt, Mrs. Alice Harrison in Baltimore.

Mrs. William Biggs is quite sick of heart, nervous and other troubles. Among the elderly people at Mother's Day service at the Methodist Episcopal Church were Mrs. Annie Kendall and Mrs. Susan Carter. It is hoped that they and others will be enabled to come often.

Mr. Romie Crouch went to Baltimore yesterday on a vacation trip of a couple of weeks in honor of his birthday. The holiday will be marked by the misfortune of his granddaughter, Beulah Taylor, having gotten her arm broken several days ago when playing ball.

Concher College senior class visited Rock Hall past at Graduation Monday afternoon and had a pleasant time that included a hearty meal at one of the boarding houses near. They were brought to the harbor by the "Geisha," Marlowe and Sotter's former yacht.

Churches and individuals hear are contributing to the relief of the Mississippi flood sufferers.

It is now quite the usual thing that young people should go to Sunday School. Some attend two schools. Sunday morning there were 231 present at Wesley Chapel and the afternoon saw 254 at the Methodist Episcopal School. The latter had fifteen visitors.

JR. O. U. A. M. HALL

Rock Hall, Md.

PICTURE PARLOR

SATURDAY, MAY 14th

Carl Laemmle presents

FRED HUMES in

"THE STOLEN RANCH"

A gripping story of a ranch stolen from a shell-shocked war veteran by the treachery of a supposed friend. A mad whirl of stirring horse-manship—straining fist battles—and tender romance. A whole of a western drama.

Also comedy.

WEDNESDAY, MAY 18th

Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer presents

RENIE ADOREE and

RALPH GROVES in

"BLARNEY"

Never have love and adventure been so skillfully brought together as in this great film of the day when men fought to a finish with bare fists. The most thrilling ring fight picture you ever saw.

Also Chapter 7 of "Silent Flyer" and comedy.

KENNEDYVILLE

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Parsons, of Baltimore, the former recuperating from an operation on nose and throat, have been guests for some days of Mr. Parsons parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Parsons of Sparrows Point.

Mr. Price Orr spent Sunday at home from Sparrows Point.

Capt. and Mrs. Frank Davis had as Saturday and Sunday guests their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Smith and children, of Denton.

Mrs. Percy Downey and son, Neil, of Baltimore, spent a recent week-end with her parents-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Downey.

Mrs. S. Elwood Burgess and son, Randolph, Mrs. Charles Wood and Miss Jennie Hadaway were Sunday guests of Rev. and Mrs. A. F. T. Raun, Sharptown and attenders Mothers Day services at the Methodist Protestant church there.

Mrs. Howard Wentworth (nee Miss Helede Taylor) of Baltimore, is visiting her uncle, Mr. Joseph Taylor, and wife. Her sister, Miss Delores Taylor is guest of her aunt, Mrs. Robert Shallcross.

Mr. Leo Williams, of Baltimore, spent Saturday and Sunday with his father, Mr. Fred Williams and family.

Mrs. Charles Keiche, of Chestertown, has been a guest of friends here including the families of Mr. Joseph Ryan and Mr. James Walbert. Mrs. William Hudson was in town a few days ago.

Capt. and Mrs. Hilry Akers have as a guest Mrs. Frank Satterfield. Recent guests were Mrs. Franklin Akers and Mrs. Andrew J. Stevens. Capt. Akers has left Wilmington for Eslington, Pa., as captain of Mr. Ernest du Pont's yacht, Alberta II.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hyson, of Baltimore, spent the week end among relatives and friends here.

Little Thelma Mench has been home from Washington nearly a week as a guest Mrs. Frank Satterfield. Recent guests were Mrs. Frank Akers and Mrs. Andrew J. Stevens.

Miss Venie Kirby has been home from Baltimore a week and seems much improved in health.

Mr. Trew Durdin and Sterling Hersch visited the latter's father, Mr. Raymond Hersch, yesterday in a Baltimore hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Marion Downey are spending several days at Atlantic City.

Mrs. Joshua Thomas, Mrs. Carroll Davis, Mrs. Lawrence Davis and daughter, Elsie, accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Charles Taylor to their Baltimore home Tuesday where they will be guests until Thursday.

Mrs. Charles E. Davis is improving in health in Baltimore and probably will be home some time this month.

Mrs. Howard Creighton and daughter, Miss Etta Creighton, of Salisbury, visited Mrs. David B. Joiner from Thursday to Monday. They were guests also of the former's mother, Mrs. Beck in Piney Neck.

Mr. and Mrs. Noble Jones have moved to Chestertown. The latter's mother, Mrs. David E. Joiner is their guest.

Mrs. Agnes Ashley, of Baltimore, was Sunday guest of friends here.

Capt. and Mrs. Charles O. Kendall entertained over the week end their children, Mr. and Mrs. John Pinder of Centreville, and on Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bratt and children, Mr. and Mrs. Millard Gibson and daughter, and Mrs. Elmer Kendall, the latter of Newark, Del.

Mr. Preston Smith returned from Florida last week. The family will return after the close of school in June. Mr. Smith is now in Baltimore.

Mrs. Josephine Vansant is visiting her son, Mr. Melvin Warner and wife.

Mrs. William Boyer returned Sunday from her visit to Wilmington, accompanied for the day by her children, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Kelley and Mrs. Gladys Willson.

Miss Olivia Stevens has returned from a visit of several days with friends in Philadelphia.

Mr. Wilmer Crouch will shortly remove to Baltimore where he is under constant care of a physician.

Mr. and Mrs. James T. Taylor, Miss Bessie Taylor, Rev. and Mrs. W. S. Grant, will visit Wilmington, Del., today and be present at the funeral services for Arthur Richardson who has been an invalid for years following injuries in an automobile accident.

Mr. John Secone who has had a slight stroke of paralysis last week, is able to be about again.

Mrs. Ella Satterfield is convalescent from the flu.

Mrs. Roland Bedwell has been a guest of Mrs. Harry Lake who is not very well.

Mr. S. Elwood Burgess has been reappointed magistrate and Capt. Charles R. Kerr police justice for this district.

Miss Ella Wirts will conduct the Epworth League meeting at seven o'clock next Sunday evening at the Methodist Episcopal church and will present a pageant on "Light." A very interesting program has been arranged.

Wesley Chapel was the scene of an impressive Mother's Day service. The chancel was suitably decorated with carnations and other flowers. Mother was remembered in song with selections by male quartettes and the choir. A special sermon, "The Greatest Memorial Day" was preached to the mothers, who sat in a group. The congregation was visibly impressed by the entire service, especially the recitations and songs by the children. All are invited to be present at the growing Sunday School. Mr. S. E. Burgess, the superintendent, has classes which need your worship and study. The pastor will preach on "Sure Knowledge." Have you a certain proof that Christ lives? All welcome to this friendly church. Christian Endeavor at 7:30 P. M. will have a fine leader.

Raum Chapel services are held—Sunday School at 2:00 P. M., James Boulter superintendent, a class for Christian Endeavor at 7:00 P. M., preaching and worship at 7:30 P. M. Come. Last Sunday the church was trimmed in flowers and services held in honor of "Mothers", many of whom were present and the influence of others was felt. The sermon and special musical selections all bodied the same theme.

Mrs. Henrietta Rodney has returned from a stay if a couple of months in Baltimore.

Little Merritt Price is getting along finely with the arm he broke three weeks ago.

KENNEDYVILLE

Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Hill entertained on Sunday her sister, Mrs. Chas. L. Gill, of Chestertown and nephew, Mr. Mrs. Hepburn Gill and family and Mrs. Mary Hunter, of Philadelphia, Pa.

Mrs. Carl Price, of Middletown, and daughter, and son-in-law, of Philadelphia, visited the Misses Coates on Sunday.

Mrs. Pearl Walls and son, Harry, are spending some time in Baltimore.

Miss Alvie Divine, of Elkton, spent the week end with Mrs. W. T. Jewell and family.

Mrs. Edith C. endall, of Baltimore, visited her aunt, Miss Lula Van Dyke on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Granville Ward and children, of Philadelphia, spent the week end with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Caldwell.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Pennington of Chestertown, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Hill, of Philadelphia.

Miss Clara Bryan, of Millington, visited her friends Mr. and Mrs. Howard Clendaniel on Friday.

Mrs. Barbara Elliott is back to school again after being absent a few days on account of sickness.

Miss Emma C. Shafer substituted for Mrs. Elliott during her absence.

Miss Mary Robinson is visiting relatives in Philadelphia.

Mr. Wm. R. Price, of Baltimore, and Mrs. Starr have returned home from Florida having spent the winter in the Sunny South.

Mr. Donald Myers, of Philadelphia, spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Homer N. King.

Mr. W. T. Jones and son, Urnie, of Cecil, spent Tuesday here with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph T. Van Dyke and daughter, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Van Dyke and children, Mrs. Thomas Van Dyke is now visiting their parents on Sunday.

spending a few days with her daughter Mrs. Williams, near Worton.

Mrs. Williams and son Marvin are still quite sick.

Mr. W. C. Dempsey is suffering very much from lumbago.

Mr. John E. Hessner is able to be about again, after being in bed for several weeks suffering from rheumatism.

Mr. and Mrs. Hyde Wiltbank, spent several days in Philadelphia and attended the graduation exercises of their daughter Miss Mary. Her brother and wife Mr. and Mrs. Wright Wiltbank also attended the graduation commencement.

Mrs. Annie Reese, of Wilmington is spending some time with relatives in our village.

Dr. J. W. Trout is spending a week in Washington at his daughters Mrs. Chas. Sieman and Mr. Sieman. He is much better now, his daughter had been here for the week end for the last two weeks and they all returned to Washington by way of Tolchester boat.

Mrs. Marcie Schaffer, Mr. Albert Trout and son, Albert, of New York went with Dr. Trout, to Washington.

His grandchildren had the mumps and measles while staying at the parsonage.

The game of base ball here on Saturday between St. James and Kennedyville players resulted in a victory for the St. James team. Score 14 to 5.

There will be service Sunday at 2:30 P. M. in Grace Presbyterian Church. Sermon by the Rev. D. Stone of Betterton. Come out and worship.

Mr. Harry R. Rasin, of Millington spent Sunday here with his parents, Mrs. Rasin spent mothers day with her parents at Chincoteague.

The Christian Endeavor leader for Sunday, May 15th will be Mrs. Edgar E. Pennington, topic "How to become a leader." 11 Timothy 2:1-7.

The play given here by the Senior Class of Chestertown High School last week was much enjoyed by a full house.

Proceeds amounted to about fifty-five dollars.

We are looking forward with much pleasure for the play from St. James which will be given here on Thursday of this week, May 12th.

This is for the benefit of the school to help purchase chairs for the assembly hall which is badly needed.

Miss Anna Wallis spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wallis.

Mr. and Mrs. John Atwell spent Sunday with Miss Jennie Coleman, she returned with them and is now visiting them for a short while.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Wiltbank and family, visited their daughter in Cecil County on Sunday, M. and Mrs. Jacob Bramble.

Miss Anna C. Wiltbank had an interesting meeting Sunday night at the Christian Endeavor.

Mr. Wiltbank and Mr. Estes of Chestertown sang a duet which was much enjoyed also the quartette "Love at Home" was sung by the choir which was very appropriate the subject of the evening being the ideal home life and love in the home.

STILL POND

Miriam Cornelius of Lynch, spent the past week end with her cousin, Catherine Norris.

Mrs. B. Parrot and Mrs. L. B. Harper spent Monday with their sister Mrs. J. N. Bennet in Chestertown.

Mrs. Jennie Atwell who has been quite sick is improving. The Epworth league will observe their Anniversary with a special program, and the officers for the year will be installed. Everybody is urged to be present to help make this service a success.

Mr. and Mrs. Penn Toulson returned to their home in Vineland, N. J., on Tuesday after spending several days with his mother, Mrs. Susie Toulson attending the funeral of his uncle, Mr. Millard Witmore, Mr. and Mrs. Julian Toulson, of Philadelphia, also spent the week end here.

Mrs. W. Tomb, of Wyoming, Pa., spent the week end with her father and Mrs. C. W. Hague and Miss Laura Hague.

Friendship Rebekah Lodge will hold their regular meeting on this Thursday evening. Come out.

BETTERTON

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Elliott and sons, of Eagle Heights, Pa., were week end guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Laughlin. Mrs. Florence Clark was a Sunday guest.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Robinson and son, of Pennsylvania, have been spending some time with the former's father, Mr. Ervon Robinson.

Mrs. Emma Hughes, of Washington, D. C., has been spending the past two weeks with her sister, Mrs. Arthur Emerson.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Boone spent the week end with the parents of the latter, Mr. and Mrs. Goodman in Quaker Neck.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Crew and little daughter, Sylvia, of North East, were week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Crew.

Dr. Thos. Cottam, official representative of The Community Welfare Association of The Swarthmore Chautauqua addressed an assemblage at the school last Wednesday evening. Dr. Cottam talked ably on the different stages of childhood and the difficulties arising from the improper use of leisure time. Proceeding the lecture a short program was rendered by local talent consisting of vocal and instrumental music and reading.

Mr. Henry Price of the Ericsson Line spent the week end with his family here.

Mr. Talbot Brice, of Washington College was a week end guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Brice.

Mrs. Ewell Wilmer and daughter, Mrs. Norman Crew attended the funeral of their aunt, Mrs. Minner in Millington last week.

Miss Catherine Wheeler of the Maryland State Normal School was a week end guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Wheeler.

Mr. Walter Greenwood of near Kennedysville spent the week end with his aunt, Mrs. Mary Moore.

Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Owens are the parents of a fine baby boy. Mr. Owens was formerly of Betterton but is now residing in Middletown, Del.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Biggard and sons, of Ambler, Pa., were week end guests of the parents, of the latter, Dr. and Mrs. Walter Stone.

Miss Virginia Owens and friend, also Mr. John Owens, of Baltimore, spent the week end with their mother, Mrs. L. M. Owens at The Chesapeake.

Miss Lillian Leager visited Wilmington last Saturday.

The Ladies of the Methodist Church held their annual supper in the church basement Saturday evening. They were very successful.

The Women's Auxiliary of St. Johns Church was entertained at the home of Mrs. Harry Meeks on Thursday evening of last week.

Mr. John E. Hessner, of Edgewood, spent the week end at his home here.

Mr. Andrew Moore, of Wilmington visited his sister, Mrs. Elwood Bramble over the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. William Davis and the parents of the former, all of Phoenixville, Pa., were week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Archibald Miss Naudain Moore, of Washington College, was a week end guest of her grandmother, Mrs. George Moore.

Mr. Rhotan Crew, of Edgewood, spent the week end with his wife at their home here.

Mrs. Scott Crownhart, is spending some time with her son, Mr. Floyd Crownhart.

The teachers of the Elementary School attended the reception and Card Party given by Miss Helen Jane Woodley in Chestertown last Saturday evening. Those from here were Miss Florence Jewell, Mrs. Baynard Crew, Mrs. Arthur Brice, Miss Lillian Leager and Miss Louise Hepburn.

Mr. William Warfield, of Baltimore, is having a home erected on one of his recently purchased lots on Chesapeake Avenue. The lots were sold by Mrs. Cora Mann.

GALENA

Ernest Towler, of Philadelphia, spent the week end with his brother, Mr. and Mrs. William Towler.

Dr. and Mrs. E. A. Scott entertained their daughter, Miss Theresa of Delaware College, over the week end.

Keith Cochran, Jr., of Baltimore, spent the week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Keith Cochran.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Cannan, of Camden, New Jersey, visited his mother, Mrs. Josephine Cannan, over the week end.

Mr. Harry Todd is visiting her niece, Miss Lucille Parr and nephew Mr. and Mrs. Holton Parr in Baltimore, this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Craddock and son, Jr., of Moore, Pa., spent the week end with her mother, Mrs. Josephine Davis.

Mrs. L. E. Vansant who has been visiting her daughter and son-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Terry Mitchell at Waynesboro, Pa., for two weeks returned home on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter McIntyre, of Porters, were guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McIntyre on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jefferis and little grandson, Donald Barlow, of Wilmington, spent Saturday and Sunday with her uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Redding.

The Galena base ball club played the Massey Club on Saturday at Galena. Score 19 to 11 in favor of Massey.

Vic Stradley and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Carroll and son, Frampton, of Easton, and Mr. and Mrs. Ole Ford and family, of near Chestertown, spent Sunday with their mother, Mrs. Emma Stradley and brothers, William and Charles.

William Holden, of Baltimore, spent the week end at home.

Mr. and Mrs. John Dodd Boyd entertained on Sunday, her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Spencer, of Kennedyville.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Jones and Mrs. Fred McKinsey, of Richardson Park, spent Sunday with their sister Mrs. Ora M. Davis.

Miss Ethelie Prettyman, of Baltimore, spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Prettyman.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Jones, of Cecilton, are visiting their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Deshane.

Miss Emma Phipps, of Marshallton, is spending a few days with Rev. and Mrs. Ivanhoe Willis at the parsonage.

Mr. and Mrs. George Nicholson, of Waits Corner, Cecil Co., visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Mulford, on Sunday.

Miss Eva McCauley, of Philadelphia, and Alvin McCauley, of Baltimore, spent a few days this week with their mother, Mrs. Eva McCauley.

Mr. and Mrs. James D. Davis and children, Edward, James and Clara Virginia, spent Sunday with their parents in town.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry A. Bolton and

OUT OF THE FRYING PAN

Nell C. Westcott

Continued from Page 1

Miss Marjorie Trick married Mr. Lawrence Smart. It must have been a clever wedding.

Plans for Commencement festivities are in the air; frocks are being designed and discussed before the rush of exams. come along.

Good things in the last number of LITTLE JOURNEYS: poems by W. C. Thurston, Frank Ruth of Galena and Peter Dale Winbrow also the story of Patty Cannon and an interesting tale of children about some Eastern Shore Indians of long ago;

—Read "The Enterprise," it's the newest newspaper in Kent.

OUT OF THE FRYING PAN

Nell C. Westcott

Continued from Page 1

Miss Marjorie Trick married Mr. Lawrence Smart. It must have been a clever wedding.

Plans for Commencement festivities are in the air; frocks are being designed and discussed before the rush of exams. come along.

Good things in the last number of LITTLE JOURNEYS: poems by W. C. Thurston, Frank Ruth of Galena and Peter Dale Winbrow also the story of Patty Cannon and an interesting tale of children about some Eastern Shore Indians of long ago;

—Read "The Enterprise," it's the newest newspaper in Kent.

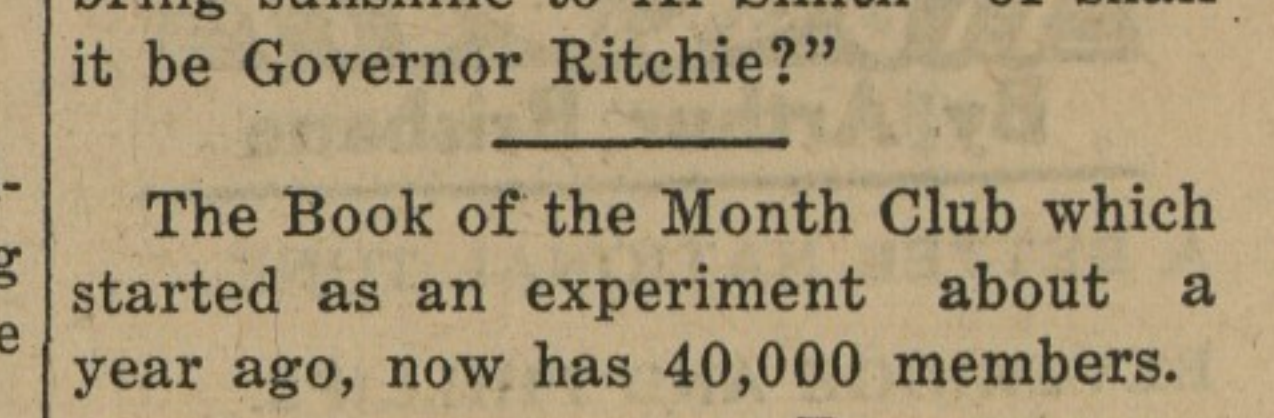

these are just a few of the features in this one issue. We congratulate the editor.

A letter from a man in St. Paul, Minn., to TIME reads, in part, "The old adage is: 'The more rain the more corn, the more corn, the more whiskey; the more whiskey, the more Democrats.' Rain, lots of it, will bring sunshine to Al Smith—or shall it be Governor Ritchie?"

The Book of the Month Club which started as an experiment about a year ago, now has 40,000 members.

A letter from a man in St. Paul, Minn., to TIME reads, in part, "The old adage is: 'The more rain the more corn, the more corn, the more whiskey; the more whiskey, the more Democrats.' Rain, lots of it, will bring sunshine to Al Smith—or shall it be Governor Ritchie?"

The Book of the Month Club which started as an experiment about a year ago, now has 40,000 members.

Send your contribution to Howard Turner, Acting Chairman for Kent County, hand it to a local committee or leave it at your bank.

Where Are Your Deeds

If lost—burned—stolen—destroyed—they cost money to replace. If not recorded, you may never be able to replace them.

By keeping them in a Safe Deposit Box here, they are safe against every risk they are NOT safe against when kept elsewhere.

We Pay 4 1/2% on Savings Deposits

The Citizens Bank

CHESTERTOWN, MARYLAND.

GEO. D. LOFLAND, PRES.

DIRECTORS

HARRY NICOLS
D. THOS. HURLUCK
S. T. PIPPIN

JAMES E. MORRIS
WM. M. CULP
E. L. REDMILE
JOHN W. BARROLL

GEORGE D. LOFLAND

Commencement Time!

Preparing For Commencement

Between mothers and daughters the question of frocks for Commencement ceremonies are uppermost. THE WOMAN'S SHOP offers materials at all prices which, made from BUTTERICK PATTERNS, assure the girl graduate of a smart outfit at moderate cost.

White Flat Crepe	: $1.95
White Pongee	: $1.50
Voile	: .29 .35 .59 $1.00
Silk Broadcloth	: $2.50
Tub Radium	: $1.50

Flat Crepe in all pastel shade guaranteed washable; Beige, Red, Rose, Green, Canary, Blue, Orchid and Steel : : : $1.95

PONGEE Tan, Green and Blue : : : $1.50

"The Woman's Shop"

Harry F. Jefferson

Chestertown, Md.