ROCK HALL

Although it isn't noticeable, yet the long June days have topped the hill and begun the descent, so Rock Hall is planning a celebration of the glorious Fourth. The entertainment is sponsored by the Rock Hall Progressive Association and the baseball club. Community and guests are invited to see the ball games and participate in the parade, contests and games. Our local team was defeated last Saturday 15 to 10 by St. James. Come root for them at 10 o'clock in the morning of the 4th and boost their spirits, then eat your luncheon under the big trees at the elementary school and spend a pleasant afternoon staying to enjoy the music in the evening.

Raum Chapel of which Rev. C. L. Dawson is pastor, has services as follows: Sunday School at 9:30 a. m., James Boulter, superintendent; Christian Endeavor Society at 1:00 p. m., followed by a sermon at 7:30 o'clock. There was a fine attendance at the service and Sunday everybody is asked to come to it and to the church service to hear the word of God. Everyone welcomed by the pastor and attendants.

Wesley M. P. Chapel, Rev. C. L. Dawson, pastor; S. E. Burgess, superintendent. Sunday School opens at 9:30 a. m., church service at 10:45 a. m., Christian Endeavor at 7:30 p. m. Wesley Chapel now has a nursery presided over each Sunday by two girls detailed from Mrs. Elmer Leary's class. This is for the benefit of mothers who cannot otherwise attend. A tactic of the pastor who is trying to eliminate excuses for people not attending church. So mothers, come. Your children will be cared for while you enjoy the sermon.

The Methodist Episcopal services, which were held in Junior Hall Sunday, showed 197 at 9:30 Sunday School. The sermon at 10:30 by the resident minister, Rev. W. S. Grant, was listened to by a large congregation. The text Psalm 110:7, "He shall drink of the brook in the way" and spoke of the free water of life. The evening sermon was from Matthew 7:13 and took up six gates; Repentance, a low gate where one must stoop; faith, a difficult gate; obedience, hard to enter; eternally open; Heaven and Hell. The Epworth League was led by Mrs. Olive Downey, the subject being "Reeroofed Recreations." There were some pretty songs at these services including solos by Mr. Smith, of Sudlersville, who sang as one selection, "Face to Face." There was a young lad a visitor, who favored the audience with a delightful solo. A class meeting was attended Monday evening at the home of Capt. and Mrs. Charles Thomas and prayer meeting will be held this evening at the parsonage.

Mrs. Edward Heinz, Mrs. Clara Heinz, Mrs. John Heinz, Jr., and daughter, Dorothy, and mother, Mrs. Lanahan; from the Rock Hall were Mrs. Elizabeth Casey, Mrs. John Dowling, Jr., and sons, Casey and Albert, Mrs. Reuben Rodney and son Walter. The oldest and youngest members of the party to say nothing of others, found amusement as well as work in thinning corn by the latest style—seated on a sled drawn slowly along by a lazy mule while they grabbed what extraneous things they could and yanked it out by the roots like a dentist extracting obstinate molars from a yelling patient's jaw. Well, anyway, there was much yelling—a pleasant kind—done. Dorothy was so delighted she wanted to stay to try it again next day. And next day the mule might have been in a bad humor, Dorothy, but come again, anyway.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Thompson, of Chestertown, were recent callers at the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Casey.
