ROCK HALL

Our national holiday, July 4th, is now a thing of the past. The occasion was celebrated by a community gathering headed by the Rock Hall Progressive Association and the base ball team, which were ably backed by the large band of wind instruments. The morning baseball against St. James was won by our team 10 to 9 and the 2 o'clock game was lost to Westport's splendid team 10 to 1. A quite large parade at 2 o'clock was headed by the town officers, Charles Smith, who was accompanied by two boys, Harry Skirven and Leslie Clark with gay holiday decorations. A handsomely trimmed truck provided by Fred Williams carried the white-clad band. Prizes for decorated cars were won by Tighman Hubbard 1st, Mrs. Joshua Thomas 2nd, and John R. Dowling 3rd. Games of various kinds and contests were part of the entertainment with prizes for winners. The evening gathering was on the M. E. Church lawn where lights and seats were provided, the Rock Hall address was made by the Rev. John R. Diehl, our former boy comrade who with his wife, is guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Diehl. A fine program they were thoroughly appreciated by the many spectators.

Flights across the ocean are becoming a thing of the past. The first was made by a man named Lindbergh. The Enterprise is helping by printing last week "Lindy's Landed Home." It has caught the attention of music lovers and will soon be in the repertoire of the Rock Hall band.

The Methodist Episcopal Church services were of a most interesting character Sunday. The school was well attended and the morning service on the second coming of the Christ from Rev. T. H. The pastor, Rev. W. S. Grant is a most interesting and convincing speaker. Epworth League at 7 o'clock was led by the president, Miss Lillian Orr, and was characteristic of a patriotic program combined with a religious one. Two of the musical numbers were "How Etsy Made the Flag" sung by Miss Orr and her brother, Carl, and a sextette, "In the Garden." The pastor announced that during the hot weather there would be only sermons. Well Sunday night was fine. It was "Trying to Borrow Religion," from Matt. 23:8, "Give us of your oil." Class was announced for Monday evening of the house of Mr. Frank Mariner; prayer meeting this evening at Mrs. Minnie Durdings and the first quarterly conference will be held Friday evening, 15th.
