

County Correspondence

ROCK HALL

A great cheer went up Thursday evening at Joseph Downey's store when Dempsey won the ring-side battle from Sharkey...

The large troop of Boy Scouts, with Thomas Hubbard, Sr. in charge, spent a couple of weeks at Ferry Park, were taken to Baltimore Monday morning by Capt. Lewin Blackiston...

Mrs. Belle Seone's Sunday School Class was taken on an enjoyable straw ride Tuesday evening by Mr. Elwood Taylor...

The comparatively cool weather of Sunday increased church attendance to splendid proportions. With eight visitors the Methodist Episcopal Sunday School numbered two hundred twenty-five...

Miss Mary Seene, who has sung here before, will come from Price. The pastor will preach at 10:30 a. m. Dr. W. F. Corkran, of Chestertown will deliver the sermon at 2:30 p. m. and Rev. Charles W. Atkins, of Concord, at 8:00 p. m. Sunday School at 9:30 a. m. and Epworth League will be led by Miss Alice Thompson at 7:30 p. m. Heartiest invitations are extended to you to be present at this church where generosity and brotherhood reign.

The Volunteer Fire Company is continuing with its plans for the projected carnival and the Rock Hall band is practicing to add all they can to the eclat of the occasion. The ferry is missed from her usual run and from Baltimore. All sorts of rumors are rife as to what comes next. There seems little prospect of a resumption and we are accommodating ourselves to existing conditions.

The Seventh Day Adventist Church had present Sabbath morning an Armenian who addressed the congregation on Near East conditions and asked contributions for his countrymen who are oppressed by the Mohammedans, his own parents and grandparents having been massacred in the name of religion.

commented on in every direction. Mr. Benjamin Durdin's house is beginning to loom large and high. It is now just where each day's work shows up well.

The Misses Minnie Jacob and Ella Wirtz have developed quite a talent for swimming, they having made the distance from Huntingfield to Gratitude Wharf last Wednesday morning.

Mrs. Franklin Wood has returned from a visit of two weeks near Saratoga Springs, N. Y., where she was a guest of Mrs. James Malcolm, nee Madeline Sappington, whose health has greatly improved since she has been in that section.

The Misses Bessie and Helen Warner and Thelma Downey were overnight guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jasquette at "The Shipyard."

Mrs. Ray Wallace was a guest Sunday of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Blackiston. She brought with her from her home at Aberdeen Proving Grounds, her son, Ray, Jr. and brother, Laurel Blackiston, who had been their guest for a month.

Mrs. William Biggs' health has improved and she was able to attend Divine services Sunday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Sewell and son, Vernon, of Shiloh, N. J., are guests of Mrs. Sewell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Hyland. Mrs. Mollie Sewell is visiting her sister, Mrs. James Baker.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wright are spending a couple of weeks at Cape Charles. Mrs. Wright's mother and sister, Mrs. Abner Heller and Miss Emma Heller, of Wilmington, are making a visit of some weeks here.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Downey, Sr., has rested fairly easy for several days. Mr. William E. DeFord seems to be improving in health.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jacob, Sunday they all visited Mr. and Mrs. Hayward Urie at Tolchester.

A motoring party consisting of the Misses Alice and Fannie Wilson and Wilhelmina Tyson, and Messrs. Samuel Benjamin and Frisby Willson, visited Ocean City, Md., Wednesday and were overnight guests of Mrs. Ralph Blackiston.

Mr. John Scott is ill of appendicitis and ulcerated stomach at East-town hospital.

Mrs. Hannah Atkinson is able to be out of doors a little.

Miss Kate Brown, of Baltimore, is visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Jacquette.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Juedfnhd have as house guests the latter's sister, Miss Dolly Coleman, of Swarthmore, and brother, Mr. John Coleman, of Chester, Pa.

Mrs. Joseph Apsley, of Rasperburg, is spending the mid-week with her sisters, Mrs. Elizabeth Casey and Mrs. Sallie Legg, the latter at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Gale, calling also to see her father-in-law, Capt. J. E. Apsley.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Elwood Burgess, their son, Randolph, Miss Jennie Hadaway, and Mrs. Nelson Wood, have returned from a visit to Rev. and Mrs. A. F. T. Raum, at Sharpstown, and Mr. Brewington, at Salisbury.

Rev. and Mrs. T. C. Smoot, of Denton, were overnight guests last week of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Culley and dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Hubbard, besides calling on numerous former parishioners.

Mrs. Irvin Smith and four children, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wynn, and Mrs. Charles Coleman and children, Mrs. Hilda Greenwood, of Baltimore, were Sunday guests of the former's brother, Mr. Joseph Downey, Sr., and sister, Mrs. John Dowling, Sr.

Mrs. Charles Thomas is recovering from acute indigestion.

Pearl, youngest child of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bratt, is quite ill of ulcerated stomach.

Mrs. Martin, nee McPherson, a former teacher of the S. D. A. Church School and now residing in Washington, D. C., was a guest from Thursday to Tuesday of Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Downey.

Capt. and Mrs. C. O. Kendall entertained from Thursday to Thursday their children, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Reeder and little Dorothy Kendall. Sunday guests were Mrs. James Dowling and Billy Kendall. All of Baltimore.

Miss Emma Ritter, of Baltimore, was Sunday guest of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Sewell.

Mr. Nelson Hackett, of Norfolk, Va., spent last week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Hackett.

Mrs. R. A. Bowers is visiting her sister in Wilmington, Del.

Mr. Alfred Jervis, of Wilmington, Del., spent last week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Jervis.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Ford and daughter, Catherine, Mr. and Mrs. Pauline Sutton and Mr. Nelson Hackett spent Sunday at Atlantic City, N. J.

The Devotional Service of The Epworth League will be held on next Sunday evening by Mrs. L. B. Harper, topic, "Contemporary Prophets - Kagama."

The many friends of Miss Lucille Perry are glad to see her home again.

Mrs. Emerson and little daughter from Chestertown, are spending some time with her mother, Mrs. Wm. Anderson.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Oliphant and daughter, of Paltaka, Fla., spent several days last week with her father, Mr. W. K. Hackett.

Miss Rachmel Parrott is spending some time with her friend, Mr. McCready in Cambridge, Md.

Master Galen Clark has returned home after visiting his friend John Johnston in New Jersey.

Miss Esther Robinson is visiting her aunt in Baltimore.

Mrs. Coleman, of Baltimore, is spending some time with her daughter, Mrs. Ernest Robinson.

A good congregation was present Sunday morning and the singing by Oversea Choir from Baltimore, was very much enjoyed.

Mr. and Mrs. John Johnston, of Barrington, N. J., spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Clark.

The W. F. M. S. are planning to go to Port Deposit on an excursion on next Monday, August 1st.

Mrs. Jessie E. Lreland and Miss Lucy Morgan, of Cecil County, have returned home spending a pleasant two weeks with relatives and friends at University, Virginia.

Major and Mrs. Chapin and two children of Kansas, were callers in town on Friday of last week.

Chapin will be remembered as Miss Marie Jervis.

After spending two weeks in Atlantic City, New Jersey, Miss Margaret McCauley has returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. David Levy, of New York, N. Y., are the guests of their brother, Mr. and Mrs. Levy, at the "Old Field Point Farm" near town.

Mrs. Craig, of Pittsburgh, is spending some time with her daughter Miss Linda Craig at Chesertown.

Mr. and Mrs. Florence and family who have been spending some time with her sister, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Shaw, have returned here.

Mr. Bernard Jones, of Atlantic Georgia, is spending some weeks with his family at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel G. Caldwell.

The American Rescue Workers, of Baltimore, held an open air service on our streets last Friday evening.

These discussions were interspersed with appropriate songs sung as solos, duets and choruses.

At this meeting it was decided that the Mite Society would serve lunch at the sale of Mr. Gerald Myers sometime in the near future, the date has not yet been named.

At the morning services at the Methodist Protestant Church the Rev. Mr. Hager preached a strong sermon from the text, "Fear not," said Jesus. In the evening his subject was "Home." He showed that in a well-ordained home there must be holiness in the form of Bible reading and prayer with faith.

There must be industry to provide the material needs of the family, and there must be tolerance respecting the opinions and tastes of each member of the family.

The services closed with the hymn "Every Day, Every Hour."

Preceding the preaching service, however, the Christian Endeavor on the subject, "The Cause and Remedy for the Unrest of To-Day," was led by Miss Anna Rasin.

The scripture selection was read by Miss Ruth Newton. The leader gave a talk explaining the subject and Mrs. Hager further talked on it. These discussions were interspersed with appropriate songs sung as solos, duets and choruses.

The subject was "Home." He showed that in a well-ordained home there must be holiness in the form of Bible reading and prayer with faith.

There must be industry to provide the material needs of the family, and there must be tolerance respecting the opinions and tastes of each member of the family.

Where Are Your Deeds... If lost—burned—stolen—destroyed—they cost money to replace. If not recorded, you may never be able to replace them. By keeping them in a Safe Deposit Box here, they are safe against every risk they are NOT safe against when kept elsewhere. We Pay 4 1/2% on Savings Deposits. The Citizens Bank, CHESTERTOWN, MARYLAND. GEO. D. LOFLAND, PRES. DIRECTORS: HARRY NICOLS, D. THOS. HURLOCK, S. T. PIPPIN, JAMES E. MORRIS, WM. M. CULP, E. L. REDMILE, JOHN W. BARROLL, GEORGE D. LOFLAND.

SPECIAL SPORT RAYONS in stripes and plain colors. Ideal for combinations in Sport Frocks, The Season's Smartest Mode. Specially Priced 39c PER YARD. "The Woman's Shop" Harry F. Jefferson Chestertown, Md.