ALFALFA

ASK ME ANOTHER

By County Agent, H. B. DERRICK

1. What are some common causes of failure to get a good stand of alfalfa?

Answer—The five most common causes are: (1) Poor seed or unadapted seed; (2) lack of inoculation; (3) poor seed bed; (4) sour or (5) soil not of sufficient fertility.

2. What do you mean by unadapted seed?

Answer—Nearly all foreign seed are unadapted for Maryland conditions. That is, the chances of failure would be greater, or the alfalfa would yield little because the seed came from regions where the climate was so much different than that of Kent County.

3. What about the Grim variety or the variegated strains of alfalfa? Do they not prevent freezing out better than the common varieties?

Answer—Common alfalfa from the middle West does not freeze out under Maryland conditions any more than do the so-called hardy strains such as the Grim. On soils that have badly, the Grim may do better, but even that is not sure. Given a good stand, the common alfalfa outgrows the Grim under Maryland conditions.

4. Why is it necessary to inoculate?

Answer—It is important that the nodules forming bacteria are in the soil, for if nodules are not formed in the alfalfa roots, the plant cannot take nitrogen from the air but has to get all of it from the soil. The yield would then be less, the hay would not be so high in protein and no fertility would be brought to the farm, from the air.

5. What difference does a poor seed bed make?

Answer—An alfalfa seed is small, and the little alfalfa plant emerging from it has little resistance to hardships. Therefore, the seedbed should be finely pulverized, mellow and well firmed. Weeds rob the little plant of food and water. Therefore, to obtain a good stand and one that has any chance of lasting for a number of years, the work of preparing a seed bed should be started long before seeding time, so that most of the weed seeds that are found in most soils may be brought to the top and after germinating may be destroyed by the repeated disking and harrowing that should take place.

6. How does sour soil effect alfalfa?

Answer—For alfalfa to thrive there must be a surplus of lime in the soil. Soil is sour when it lacks lime. Every ton of alfalfa takes about 100 pounds of limestone from the soil. Also, if the soil lacks lime the nodules will not develop on the roots of the plant, in which case there can be little growth except if plenty of nitrates are present.

7. What should I do to secure a good stand of alfalfa on my farm in Kent County?

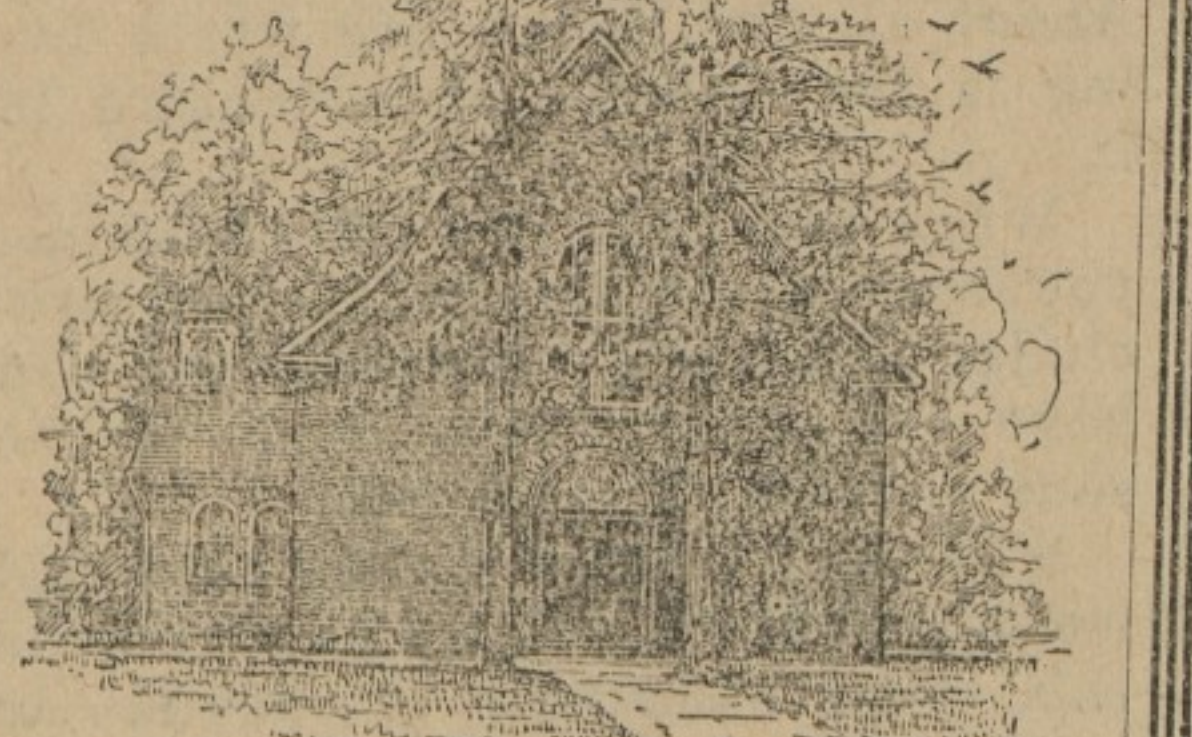

Answer—(a) Select a fertile, well drained piece of land. (b) If well rotted manure is available, that may be applied, reinforced with about 50 pounds of acid phosphate to each ton of manure. If no such manure is available use about 300 pounds of a 2-8-5 or 2-12-4 commercial fertilizer. (c) Take a sample of soil from the field and place it in the hands of the County Agent, who will test it for you for lime requirement. (d) Order inoculating material. (e) Plow early, disk and harrow a number of times to kill weeds and form seed bed. (f) Sow as near middle of August as weather will permit, broadcast seed and covering by rolling.

Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer presents

John Gilbert

with Joan Crawford

and Ernest Torrence

in "Twelve Miles Out"

Sing hey for the dashing pirate of today—the hi-jacker—bold and bad and exciting as the sea-hawk of the Spanish Main! The always-stirring picture of a youth who tried to forget a girl in the excitement and danger of Rum Row, and of how love won him his regeneration.

This has been hailed as John Gilbert's most thrilling picture since "The Big Parade." The year's dramatic sensation. Notable supporting cast! Adapted from the great Broadway success.

FOR SALE—Lot Seasoned Oak Cord Wood, in woods near Lankford. Address L. BATES RUSSELL Chestertown.

I WILL SELL AT ABSOLUTE AUCTION 50 Choice Building Lots 50

Part of the late Hope H. Barroll Estate on Campus Avenue, in that fast developing and most beautiful section of CHESTERTOWN, MD.

AT YOUR OWN PRICE AND ON EASY TERMS MONDAY, AUG. 8th AT 10 A. M. ON THE GROUNDS, RAIN OR SHINE

LOCATION: This property is on Campus Avenue, just one block from the high school and two blocks from the Washington College. This section is almost entirely built up with an excellent type of homes.

IMPROVEMENTS: Chestertown being developed right up to this property, all modern improvements are there and are available to those wishing to start building now. A wonderful opportunity for either the builder, homeseeker or investor.

ELEVATION: This property lies high, is well drained and overlooks Chester River's broad expanse of water. Ideally located for the most discriminating homeseeker.

REMEMBER: EVERY LOT OFFERED WILL POSITIVELY BE SOLD TO THE HIGHEST BIDDER

CHESTERTOWN, THE HUB: Populated by some of the best people in the State of Maryland, progressive, good and substantial citizens; with roads leading to all directions from Chestertown, make it the Hub of the Eastern Shore. It being only about thirty miles from Baltimore to Chestertown over the new route that will be made possible when the huge bridge to Tolchester is completed many thousands of new people will daily pass through Chestertown to all points on the Eastern Shore, and numbers of them will no doubt locate here. Chestertown will also surely benefit by the millions of dollars of labor and materials that will be necessary for the erection of this bridge.

RESTRICTIONS: Reasonable and sensible restrictions will be placed in the deeds to the purchasers of these homesites to protect the good dollars that you invest and to insure the proper class of development to continue this as Chestertown's most beautiful residential section.

A PREDICTION: I predict that in the next few years, because of the rapid growth Chestertown is sure to experience, owners of real estate will reap large profits and buyers at this time will find the value of their realty holdings double and thrifble that it is today.

SUBDIVISION: I am cutting this property with each lot fronting on a wide avenue and am making Campus Avenue sixty feet wide throughout the property and each building site on this street will have already on it and along the sidewalk line fine maple shade trees that would require years to grow. The late Hope H. Barroll having anticipated the future growth of Chestertown, planted these trees for the purpose of adding to the beauty of his city when it became necessary to subdivide to take care of its growing need for homes.

TERMS: Every lot offered can be purchased on terms of one-third cash together with $5.00 per lot auctioneer's fee, and balance in four, eight and twelve months.

LUNCH WILL BE SERVED ON THE GROUNDS Ladies are especially invited to attend this sale, Music will be furnished by a good band

Simply as an advertisement and to secure a large attendance at this sale I will give souvenirs to those attending including $100.00 in gold. All that is required is that you be on the ground promptly Monday, August 8th, at 10 a. m., to participate for these souvenirs which will be FREE:
