

County Correspondence

ROCK HALL

August is passing and the weather keeps ideal.

A number of fishing parties had great success Sunday evening near Tolchester, taking several fine striped bass each while trolling.

Camping parties report a splendid time and boy scouts are numerous in the town. Yet a fatal accident occurred last Saturday when a fourteen year old boy drowned.

The carnival begins Friday. Come help make it a success. Rock Hall baseball team played at Crumpton Saturday and were defeated 5 to 4.

George DeFord will tenant the farm that has been under the management of Harry White this year. The latter expects to go to Chester town.

Herman Berg has bought Charles Wood's half of what was formerly known as the "Wickes" property in Piney Neck and will farm it next year.

The moving picture parlor is showing some interesting pictures lately, particularly on Wednesday evenings, one of the late numbers being "Faust" from Goethe's famous story.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Kendall and Mrs. Mary Hayes went to Wilmington Saturday and spent the week end with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Roland Warner's baby is quite sick of gastric indigestion. Mrs. David B. Joiner has been very sick the past ten days.

House guests from Thursday to Sunday were Mrs. Samuel Armstrong and three children, her cousin, Mrs. Ida Bookman, and Mr. Harry Shoemaker, of Baltimore, who are now in Philadelphia and will return here Friday.

Miss Mildred Cannan, of Baltimore, is visiting her cousin, Miss Beatrice Donnelly, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Donnelly.

Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Kendall had as guests last Sunday Mr. and Mrs. John Pinder, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bratt and children, Mrs. Millard Gibson and Jean, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond East, their child and brother from Virginia. Guests Tuesday were Mr. Charles Reeder, Mr. Carl J. Doederlein, of Baltimore and Mr. Hedley, of Virginia.

Week end visitors were Mrs. Emma C. Kendall and daughter, Dorothy, of Baltimore. Mr. and Mrs. Reeder will be overnight guests today.

Mr. Homer Larrimore and children spent Tuesday with Mrs. Wilbur Cannan.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Downey, Mr. G. P. Orr, Miss Lillian Orr, Miss Frances Orr and Miss Louise Akers visited Miss Thelma Downey at Easton Friday bearing with them as birthday remembrance flowers from friends, fruit from the Epworth League and $5.00 in gold from the M. E. Sunday School. She received also a cake with eighteen candles from Mrs. Herman Jacob and offerings from Wesley Chapel School to say nothing of scores of birthday cards.

Mrs. John Briers is spending a month with relatives in Baltimore. Mrs. John Glenn has been quite sick the past two weeks at her home in Piney Neck.

Little Virginia and Henrietta Rodney are making a fortnight's visit to their aunt, in Baltimore. The children of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. DeFord are spending part of their vacation with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Collyer.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Downey, Mr. and Mrs. Bertie Coleman and children attended a birthday party at Worton Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Clark visited Mr. Owen Clark Saturday at a Baltimore hospital.

Mrs. Joseph Davis and Mrs. Joseph Taylor visited Mrs. Charles E. Davis at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Willard Dodson in Worton and found her quite ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Jacob and family, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Sewell and Mrs. Elizabeth Casey visited Easton last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Gesswein have had as guest their daughter, Mrs. Rose Newell, and grand-daughter, Miss Elizabeth Weaver, both of Baltimore.

Mrs. Ada Hopkins, of Baltimore, spent last week with her sister, Mrs. Frank Mariner and Mr. Mariner. Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Warner and son, Thomas, and Miss Louise Kendall spent last Sunday at a summer resort in New Jersey, making the trip via the ferry at Newcasttle.

Mrs. Harry Tyson, her sons, James and Warren, and a friend, of Baltimore, spent last week with Mr. and Mrs. Walter Briers.

Miss Ivy Rodenhi, of Hamilton, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Franklin Akers and Capt. Akers.

Mrs. Clarence Hensch and nephew Sterling Hensch are in Baltimore where the latter will participate in the "Baltimore News" outing for their employees at Carlin Park.

Charles, of Sharptown, have been guests at the home of Mr. Walter Hadaway and are visiting other friends.

Mr. and Mrs. David Ayres' guests Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Willson, Mrs. Leonard Disney and two grandchildren have returned to their home, the former Camden, N. J., and the latter to Baltimore.

Mr. Clifton Taylor, of Baltimore, is a guest of his uncle, Mr. James Taylor and wife. Mr. Elwood Taylor had as guest over Sunday night Mr. Harold Keatley, a schoolmate who was graduated at Dickinson College last June with the B. A. degree.

Mr. Keatley, who was supper guest of Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Orr, was Y. M. C. A. secretary at Shanghai, China, the year of 1925, and secretary to Governor General Wood in the Philippine Islands in 1926. He is now in Washington closing up, with Mrs. Wood, the late Governor-General's work with the Bureau of Insular Affairs, War Department. Next week he will go to New York in the same interests and later return to his home in Unionville, Pa.

Mrs. Joseph Carmine and daughter, Miss Florence Carmine, of Baltimore, are spending a week with Mr. and Mrs. Alin Shreck. Last Sunday guests were Miss Yulu Shreck and Mr. Elwood Wood. Next Sunday Mrs. Millard Shreck and son, William will be their guests.

Mr. Owen Clark continues very ill with possibly a slight improvement, of typhoid in Baltimore. His wife remains with him. Their little son Bobbie, is far from well at the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Norris Ashley.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Kendall and Mrs. Mary Hayes went to Wilmington Saturday and spent the week end with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Roland Warner's baby is quite sick of gastric indigestion. Mrs. David B. Joiner has been very sick the past ten days.

House guests from Thursday to Sunday were Mrs. Samuel Armstrong and three children, her cousin, Mrs. Ida Bookman, and Mr. Harry Shoemaker, of Baltimore, who are now in Philadelphia and will return here Friday.

Miss Mildred Cannan, of Baltimore, is visiting her cousin, Miss Beatrice Donnelly, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Donnelly.

Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Kendall had as guests last Sunday Mr. and Mrs. John Pinder, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bratt and children, Mrs. Millard Gibson and Jean, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond East, their child and brother from Virginia. Guests Tuesday were Mr. Charles Reeder, Mr. Carl J. Doederlein, of Baltimore and Mr. Hedley, of Virginia.

Week end visitors were Mrs. Emma C. Kendall and daughter, Dorothy, of Baltimore. Mr. and Mrs. Reeder will be overnight guests today.

Mr. Homer Larrimore and children spent Tuesday with Mrs. Wilbur Cannan.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Downey, Mr. G. P. Orr, Miss Lillian Orr, Miss Frances Orr and Miss Louise Akers visited Miss Thelma Downey at Easton Friday bearing with them as birthday remembrance flowers from friends, fruit from the Epworth League and $5.00 in gold from the M. E. Sunday School. She received also a cake with eighteen candles from Mrs. Herman Jacob and offerings from Wesley Chapel School to say nothing of scores of birthday cards.

Mrs. John Briers is spending a month with relatives in Baltimore. Mrs. John Glenn has been quite sick the past two weeks at her home in Piney Neck.

Little Virginia and Henrietta Rodney are making a fortnight's visit to their aunt, in Baltimore. The children of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. DeFord are spending part of their vacation with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Collyer.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Downey, Mr. and Mrs. Bertie Coleman and children attended a birthday party at Worton Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Clark visited Mr. Owen Clark Saturday at a Baltimore hospital.

Mrs. Joseph Davis and Mrs. Joseph Taylor visited Mrs. Charles E. Davis at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Willard Dodson in Worton and found her quite ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Jacob and family, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Sewell and Mrs. Elizabeth Casey visited Easton last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Gesswein have had as guest their daughter, Mrs. Rose Newell, and grand-daughter, Miss Elizabeth Weaver, both of Baltimore.

Mrs. Ada Hopkins, of Baltimore, spent last week with her sister, Mrs. Frank Mariner and Mr. Mariner. Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Warner and son, Thomas, and Miss Louise Kendall spent last Sunday at a summer resort in New Jersey, making the trip via the ferry at Newcasttle.

Mrs. Harry Tyson, her sons, James and Warren, and a friend, of Baltimore, spent last week with Mr. and Mrs. Walter Briers.

Miss Ivy Rodenhi, of Hamilton, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Franklin Akers and Capt. Akers.

Mrs. Clarence Hensch and nephew Sterling Hensch are in Baltimore where the latter will participate in the "Baltimore News" outing for their employees at Carlin Park.

Mrs. Tilden Willson visited friends in Baltimore from Friday to Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Bartis Wilkins and daughter, Miss Elise Wilkins, of Bellefont, near Wilmington, Del., were Sunday guests of the former's sister, Mrs. Charles Jewell and Mr. Jewell.

Mr. and Mrs. George Cooper and daughter, Miss Beulah Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Romie Taylor and little son, Jimmie, of Baltimore, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lake, and Mr. Romie Crouch, the first three coming from Salisbury and the last had been camping near Tolchester. Mr. Mark Pettibone is erecting a nice bungalow on his recently purchased lots in the town.

The U. S. Government is constructing new observation towers at Huntingfield and Swan Point to replace the worn out ones.

The co-operative canning house opens today.

The Epworth League is holding a social on the church lawn tomorrow evening.

The Bureau of Child Hygiene of the Maryland State Department of Health is sending a movable baby welfare station to Edgewood school on September 1st to examine babies and children under seven years of age.

White from 9 to 12 A. M., and colored from 2 to 4 P. M. Parents are urged to have their children examined by competent employees of the State.

The M. E. Sunday School had fewer than two hundred present Sunday. It is hoped that will not happen again in such splendid weather. There was a splendid lesson in which five visitors joined.

Epworth League at 7 P. M. was led by Mr. Elwood Taylor who program follows: Songs, "Thine for Service," and "Give of Your Best to the Master"; prayer; duet, "Alone," by Misses Laura Porter and Esther Grant; instrumental duet by Misses Ella Wirts and Catherine Ayres; scripture reading and discussion of the topic by Mr. Taylor, duet by Misses Lillian and Frances Orr; address on "Religious Life of the East" by Mr. Harold Keatley who spent a year in China and a year in the Philippine Islands; song, "The Service of the Lord Means Victory." The morning sermon was preached by Rev. T. S. Barrett, of Piney Neck who gave a splendid discourse on "Love" from the thirteenth chapter of I Corinthians.

Wesley Chapel congregation had the pleasure Sunday of listening to a sermon by a former pastor, Rev. A. F. T. Raum, of Sharptown. A lady and gentleman from Pittsburgh who are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Winfield Wilson sang solos and a duet that were much enjoyed. Christian Endeavor was led by S. Elwood Burgess with an interesting program.

Sunday School at Raum Chapel was well attended at 9:30 Sunday morning. Christian Endeavor at 7 P. M. will be led next Sunday by Miss Mary Hill. The sermon at 7:30 was delivered by Rev. A. F. T. Raum for whom the chapel was named. Next Sunday the pastor, Rev. C. L. Dawson, will deliver his postponed sermon, "The Man in the Iron Cage." Everybody welcome at this church.

GALENA
Mrs. Lena Burnham, of Townsend, is spending some days with Mrs. Joseph Davis.

Miss Mary Smith, of New York City visited her mother, Mrs. Kathryn Smith over the week end.

Rev. C. W. Moore and son, Bowen, of St. Michaels, a former Galena pastor, visited friends in town last week and conducted the Wednesday night prayer service.

Mr. and Mrs. George Nicholson, of Cecil County, spent Sunday with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Mulford.

Misses Elizabeth and Frances Ruth are the guests of Miss Sophie Glenn in Baltimore.

Miss Ethelie Prettyman and Mr. Carvil Lucas, of Baltimore, spent Sunday with her parents, Rev. and Mrs. A. P. Prettyman.

Mrs. Thomas Jones, of Cecil County, are spending the week with their son Dr. George R. Jones. Miss May Scotten is spending the week with relatives in Baltimore.

Rev. and Mrs. Harry King, of New Jersey, are visiting his aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Jones, near town.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jefferies, of Wilmington, and Mr. Daniel Vermilion, of Washington, D. C., visited Mrs. Linda Walls on Sunday.

Rev. Eugene Hungerford and wife and Robert Pennington, of Georgetown, Del., spent Thursday with her mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Walmesley.

Mrs. Mary Richards, of Philadelphia, is spending some time with her nephew, Mr. and Mrs. James Mulford.

Miss Ora Virginia Davis has returned home after a pleasant visit with relatives at Richardson Park and Bear.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Caldwell, of St. Michaels have been visiting his brother, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Caldwell.

Miss Blanche Williams has returned home after a week with relatives in Chesapeake City.

Mrs. Annie Moore spent the week end with relatives at Worton. Rev. Frank Willis, of near Rock Hall, preached in the Olivet M. E. Church Sunday morning, while the pastor Rev. Ivanhoe Willis preached at Middletown, Del.

Mr. and Mrs. Irving L. Dempsey and children Esther and Irene, of Wilmington, were visitors at the home of his brother, Mr. H. S. Dempsey on Sunday.

Messrs. Lemuel Mark, William Steele, James Hicks and Robert Fogwell motored to Salisbury on Saturday and attended the Cambridge and Salisbury ball game.

Mr. Curtis Ford and family, of Marshfield, visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Merritt Ford on Sunday.

Miss Catherine Haley, of near town a member of the 4-H girls club of Sassafras has returned home after a pleasant week's stay at College Park and near Atlantic City.

Miss Pearl Plummer, of near town is spending some times with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hickman and family at Port Penn.

Messrs. William LeCates, Bernard Cochran and Earl Ochoon, spent last week in Atlantic City.

Mr. Henry Caldwell has returned home after a pleasant two weeks in New Hampshire.

Miss Arlene Gale returned to her home in Millington on Friday after spending a few days with Miss Elizabeth Jarvis.

Mr. and Mrs. William Wood, Jr., and son, Arthur, of Bloomsfield, N. J., spent a few days with his parents Mr. and Mrs. William Wood last week.

Mrs. Catherine Foxwell has returned to her home in Chestertown after visit with Mrs. Linda Walls.

Miss Mary Cruickshank has returned home after a visit with her sister Mr. and Mrs. Edward Morgan in Cecil County.

Rev. Harry King, a member of the New Jersey Methodist Episcopal Conference, preached in the M. E. Church Sunday-Eve.

Misses Winnie and Elizabeth Smithers have returned to their home in Chesapeake City after spending a few days with Miss Theresa Scott.

Mr. Hubert Ford and family and Mr. Norman Ford have returned from a motor trip through New York and Canada.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter McIntyre, of Porter, Del., visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. McIntyre on Sunday.

Quite a large number of our town folk attended the Farmer's Annual Picnic at Tolchester last Thursday.

Miss Sophie Glenn has returned to her home in Baltimore after a ten days stay with Misses Elizabeth and Frances Ruth.

Dr. J. Earl Gilliland, T. C. Pindick, Julian Cochran and Walter D. Hadley, spent Saturday last in Washington, D. C.

Mrs. Alice Woodall and granddaughter, Alice Cruickshank have returned home after spending a delightful week in New York.

William Jones has returned home after a six months course at an embalming school in Cincinnati, Ohio.

Miss Maggie Harper, of Chesapeake City spent last week with Dr. and Mrs. George R. Jones.

Mrs. Frank Johnston, of Wilmington, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Wood.

KENNEDYVILLE
Mr. Ralph Clark, of Philadelphia, spent the past week at home with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Harry Clark.

Misses Regina C. Rasin and Anna C. Rasin spent the week end at Swarthmore, Pa., visiting their cousins.

Miss Della Spry, returned on Saturday from her motor trip with her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Ford. They thoroughly enjoyed the Niagara Falls and many places in Canada where they motored and would camp out for a short while, at many places of interest.

Rev. Harry C. Hager and Mrs. Hager, were not able to be at home for church service on Sunday, on account of sickness in their parents homes in Baltimore. Mrs. Hager's sister and brother, Mr. and Miss Hoover are much better now.

Rev. Colvin Randall filled the pulpit here on Sunday evening and sang a beautiful solo, at the close of Christian Endeavor, which was led by Mr. W. L. Ford.

No leader for next Sunday has yet been appointed. The subject for that evening is "Why is Missionary Work Needed in a Christian Country?" Isa 55:1-7 verses.

The Ladies Aid and Christian Endeavor Societies held their Annual picnic at Betterson on Tuesday.

Mrs. Hilda Bennett has returned from a two weeks trip to Elktion, and Atlantic City where she was visiting relatives.

Mr. Samuel Wiltbank, Mr. Walter Wiltbank and sister Miss Anna and Miss Edith Walk spent Friday in Wilmington.

Mrs. Walter S. Hill returned home on Sunday, after spending the past week with her sister, Mrs. Norman Hitch and Mr. Hitch at Queenstown, Md.

Mrs. Robert H. Van Dyke visited relatives in Baltimore and Yorktown, Va., this past week, returning home on Saturday. Her mother, Mrs. Rice and cousin, Miss Eleanor returned with her for a few days.

Mrs. Thomas Van Dyke and daughter, spent the week with her son, and grandchildren on the farm.

Miss Gladys Archibald is visiting her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. E. Porter at Crumpton.

Mrs. Emma Shafer and daughter, Miss Emma, attended the funeral of their cousin at Oxford, Pa., on Tuesday.

Miss Anna Simons, of Baltimore, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Redmile.

Miss Frances Hill and cousin Miss Hester Boyer are spending the week with their aunt, Mrs. Norman Hitch at Queenstown, Md.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Irving, of Philadelphia, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Harry Scotten and the Misses Scotten.

Mr. and Mrs. George Baldwin, of Chestertown, visited his aunt, Miss Emma Baldwin on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Starkey spent Sunday with their home folks at Massey.

Miss Bernice - Scotten returned Continued on Page Five

Where Are Your Deeds

If lost—burned—stolen—destroyed—they cost money to replace. If not drecored you may never be able to replace them.

By keeping them in a Safe Deposit Box here, they are safe against every risk they are NOT safe against when kept elsewhere.

We Pay 4 1/2% on Savings Deposits

The Citizens Bank

CHESTERTOWN, MARYLAND.

GEO. D. LOFLAND, PRES.

DIRECTORS

- HARRY NICOLS
- D. THOS. HURLOCK
- S. T. PIPPIN
- JAMES E. MORRIS
- WM. M. CULP
- E. L. REDMILE
- JOHN W. BARROLL
- GEORGE D. LOFLAND

Important Reduction On All RUGS.

The Women's Shop presents a between-Season Sale of Rugs, of various types and sizes:

- Matting Rugs
- Grass Rugs
- Crex
- Rattania
- Brussels
- Dimitie with Chenile Borders
- Congoleum

Lovely in color and designs, these rugs may be purchased at a saving of twenty-five per-cent during this sale.

"The Woman's Shop"

Harry F. Jefferson

Chestertown, Md.