

County Correspondence

ROCK HALL

The weather Friday evening prevented the opening of the Volunteer Firemen's Carnival but Saturday evening there was a great crowd present and the financial proceeds were considered a great success. The arrangement of the booths is fine, the grounds well lighted, the prizes and gifts excellent, the participating officials attentive and courteous, the crowds light hearted. A gift goes to someone each evening, the fortunate one Saturday being Mr. Fred Williams and Monday's being Virginia Wilson after it was found that the owner of the first name drawn had left the grounds. All the county should try to spend at least one evening with us.

Mrs. Katherine Stewart, county health nurse will be at Rock Hall Elementary School by 9:30 o'clock tomorrow morning. It is supposed that the designation of Edesville as an error since there is only a building but no white school there. The colored folk will take the children to their own school.

Professor Arlington Judefind, of Baltimore, sang beautiful solos at Sunday School and church at Wesley Chapel last Sunday. His son, Arlington, Jr., played some wonderful music on the violin. Mrs. Judefind accompanied them on the console. Prof. Judefind passed his boyhood and young manhood at Edesville and attended Wesley where he is now a welcome guest at all times. The family and Miss Lillie Gale were present at the evening services at the M. E. Church.

There were eight visitors at the Methodist Episcopal Sunday School. The pastor being absent the sermon was missed but he present next Sunday and expect a splendid sermon at 10:30 a. m., and another at 7:45 p. m. Epworth League was led by Miss Alice Thompson who included several numbers of inspiring music. The topic was discussed by Miss Lillian Orr. An address was then made by Rev. C. E. Prettyman of the Anti-Saloon League, who solicited funds to carry on the work.

Mrs. Henrietta Rodney had a fall Monday at the home of Mr. Townsend in Swan Creek when going down a porch steps. An arm was dislocated at the shoulder and the bone splintered. She was taken to Eastern Emergency Hospital where it was recommended that the patient return here to the home of her daughter, Mrs. Augustus Warner. It is not thought advisable to try to replace the arm bone in the socket but a surgeon will come to attend it so Mrs. Rodney will have the use of the forearm and hand.

Mr. James Taylor took his son, Cecil, to Eastern Hospital Sunday for an operation for appendicitis, which has been postponed until Wednesday as his test showed his blood in very poor condition.

Gertrude, daughter of Mrs. Nettie Westcott, has returned from Mercy hospital where she was X-rayed for broken leg. She will return two weeks later for further treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. James Vansant have moved from Piney Neck into part of Mrs. Mary E. Dickinson's dwelling.

Miss Marie Purser, from Baltimore, and Miss Helen Carpenter, from Owings Mills, are spending the week with Mrs. G. P. Orr and daughters.

Capt. and Mrs. Joshua Thomas and family, Mr. and Mrs. Lucien Thomas and children were home from Kent Point over the week end. They were unexpected hosts over Saturday night and Sunday to Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Bramble, family and party of friends, of Oley, Pa., Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Stubbs, and family from Greensboro, Md., numbering in all thirty persons besides the family. Little Elma Thomas is getting along very well with her broken leg.

Miss Margaret Holmes, of Baltimore, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Wheat.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Warner had as guests Mr. and Mrs. Wm. C. Rollison and grandson, Milton Rollison, Mrs. Warner and daughter, Mildred, returning to Baltimore with them. The party later went to Bustleton, Pa., where they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Dawson Rollison, the latter Mrs. Warner's sister, then to Atlantic City. Returning via Baltimore, Mr. and Mrs. Warner entertained over the week end Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Rollison, Mrs. Roy Rollison and children, Milton and Marie.

JR. O. U. A. M. HALL Rock Hall, Md. PICTURE PARLOR

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 3
Carl Lammie presents
BILLIE DOVE and HUNTLEY GORDON in "SENSATION SEEKERS"
A powerful, dramatic romance of the girl of today. Rich in color, startling in its revelations. A picture that will stir you to the depths of your emotions—and one that you can't afford to miss!
Also Comedy.

WEDNESDAY, SEPT. 7
Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer presents
JOAN CRAWFORD and OWEN MOORE in "THE TAXI DANCER"
Here is the true story of a girl who comes from a sleepy, little Southern town to conquer Broadway. What befalls her in a jazz-mad world makes a picture at all times fascinating!
Also Chapter 3 of "The Return of the Riddle Rider." And Comedy.

ROLLISON

The Reverend and Mrs. C. Richmond, the former, the pastor of Union Bridge M. E. Church, Md., and his wife, the sister of Rev. C. L. Dawson, pastor of Wesley Chapel, are visiting the M. P. Manse for a few days.

Prof. Arlington Judefind, his wife and son, Arlington, Jr., are guests of Mrs. Annie Gale and family this week.

Mr. William H. Jones, Mrs. Sallie Chance and daughter Nora, and Celeste Jones, of Baltimore, spent the week end with Mrs. John Jones, and are guests until Friday of Mr. Jones' nieces, Mrs. James Walbert and Mrs. Wm. Collison.

Mrs. Millard Shreck and son, William, are guests this week of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Shreck. Mr. Shreck returned to Baltimore Sunday as did Mr. Judefind Carmine who was accompanied home by his wife and daughter.

Miss Clara Williams, Mrs. Alvin Shreck, Miss Mildred Shreck, Mrs. Rose Jones, Mrs. James Walbert and Mr. Thomas Wilson visited Wilmington Wednesday and went to Shellport Park where they were guests of Mrs. Wallace Wheat.

Mr. and Mrs. William Bishop, of Ridgewood, are spending the week with Mrs. J. B. Wilson. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Wilson, the former of whom just returned from Ireland, were Sunday guests of the former's mother.

Mrs. T. B. Willson and other friends visited Miss Thelma Downey Sunday at Eastern hospital. Miss Downey's leg is at last in normal shape but is not yet in a cast.

Miss Mary Downey and Mr. Maurice Messick returned to their homes in Philadelphia after spending a week with the former's parents, Capt. and Mrs. James Downey.

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Downey entertained over the week end the former's sister, Mrs. Ernest Warram and children, of Philadelphia. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Davis and daughter Lillian Davis, Mrs. William Davis, and niece, Miss Esther Rhoebach, all of Reading, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. William Biggs had as guests over the week end their grandson, Mr. Biggs Harrison and friend, Mr. Elmer Aiken, of Baltimore. Miss Mildred Harrison spent the days with her aunts, Mrs. William Collison and Mrs. James Walbert, and was accompanied home by her sister, Irma, who has been here throughout the summer. Mrs. Allie Harrison spent from Tuesday to Friday with her sisters because of illness of her daughter Rebecca. Mr. Williams Stewart was a guest Saturday at the home of Mr. Collison.

Mrs. Reba Bedwell and Miss Clyde Ashley made a trip to Philadelphia Friday, returning Saturday. Mrs. Bedwell's husband is an officer, and Miss Ashley's brother, Joseph Ashley, are employees of the Erisson line between Baltimore and Philadelphia.

Mr. and Mrs. David C. Ashley are entertaining for a week Mrs. Denny and Miss Edith Denney, of Baltimore. Mr. Ashley spent Saturday and Sunday with his sister, Mrs. Thomas Elburn, and Mr. Elburn in South Rock Hall. Miss Carrie May Ashley has returned to her home in Piney Neck from a two weeks visit with friends in Baltimore.

Mr. William Mercer has a great deal of trouble with constriction of muscles in the throat.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Hummel and son, Norman, and Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Bender and son, William, all of Cape Charles, Va., were over night guests Monday of Mr. and Mrs. Harry A. Wright.

Mrs. Jesse Downey and Mrs. Eden Bryden have returned to their homes having completed a twelve weeks course at State Teachers College, Frederickburg, Va.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sewell and daughter and Mrs. Charles Crouch were guests Saturday of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Blackiston.

Mrs. Ella Middleton will go to Baltimore Friday to remain for a long time.

Mrs. John Wood and son, Mr. Franklin Wood, who returned Saturday from Waterbury, Conn., and Mr. and Mrs. W. James Downey visited Miss Thelma Downey in Eastern hospital Sunday.

Mr. George Ashley went to Philadelphia a few days ago and was accompanied home by his niece, Miss May Ashley, who will remain through the carnival week. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ashley will come over the week end and Labor Day and all return together.

Mrs. Ralph Blackiston has returned from Ocean City where she had a cottage for three months of the season.

Mrs. Frank Akers and daughter, Miss Louise Akers, were visitors to Baltimore yesterday. Miss Elizabeth Rodenhi is at present a guest of her sister, Mrs. Akers, whose mother and sister, Miss Louise Rodenhi still remain here over the carnival.

Charles and Stewart Littlepage of Baltimore, are guests of their aunt, Mrs. Tilghman Hubbard, and other relatives. Miss Charlotte Hubbard has had as guest Miss Grace Voigh, of Baltimore.

Officer and Mrs. Charles Davis with their son and daughter, Edward and Helen, of Baltimore, are spending ten days with Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hersh and enjoying the evening at the carnival.

Mrs. Sarah Whaland is visiting her grandson, Mr. Granville Davis, and wife in Baltimore.

Mrs. Rutherford Malties spent the week end here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Coleman and took home her sons, Bill and Louis, after their summer vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Wood, of Shiloh, N. J., will be guests of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wood next Friday and over the holiday.

Rev. and Mrs. Alonza Travers are spending the week until Friday, from

WILLIAMSBURG, with Mrs. Traver's mother, Mrs. James E. Middleton.

The reopening of their church after improvements will occur shortly.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Pochman, Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton, Wade and baby Mr. Henry Peregrin and Mr. James Heller, of Baltimore, were guests from Friday until Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Millard Rodney, having made the trip by motor.

Officer James Szamski, wife and four children, of Baltimore, are guests for a week of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cannan.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Mason, of Washington, D. C., spent the week end with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Coleman and were accompanied back by Mrs. Joseph Jones and daughter, Miss Delma Jones. Miss Jones will attend school there beginning next Sept. 1st. Mrs. Coleman recently entertained a niece, Mrs. William Ford and daughter Miss Beatrice Jones, of Baltimore, who were much impressed by the many changes and improvements in the town since five years ago.

Mrs. Agnes Ashley, of Baltimore, is spending several days with her sister-in-law, Mrs. George Davis, and Mr. Davis. Her daughter Miss Frieda Ashley will spend the week end with her sister, Mrs. Howard Happersett and husband.

Officer Elmer Kendall and friend Officer John Small, of Baltimore, were guests from Friday to Sunday of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kendall.

Mrs. John Casey, of Baltimore, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Thomas Hogans and Mr. Hogans.

Mr. and Mrs. John Diehl and guests, Rev. and Mrs. John R. Diehl, were three-day guests of friends in Dorchester County.

Miss Horace Willson is enjoying a vacation at the home of her mother, Mrs. Howard Willson and making much of the carnival before returning to Baltimore.

Reverend and Mrs. W. S. Grant have returned from a much needed vacation and their M. E. congregation hopes they have benefited for they were sorely missed.

Mrs. Frank Turner and daughter, Margaret Ann, of Chestertown, are guests for several days at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Judefind. Mrs. Judefind and sister, Miss Dolly Coleman, are spending a couple of days at Ocean City, Md.

Miss Hazel Greenwood, of Broad Neck, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Allan Urie and Mr. Urie.

Miss Mary Duhamel, of Washington, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. Walter Sutton and other relatives here.

Mr. Michael Schwartz, running to escape a heavy shower Monday morning, fell and badly injured, possibly broke, a thumb.

The Daughters of America will enjoy a straw ride to Betterton next Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. William Clark visited their son, Mr. Owen Clark, Monday at a Baltimore Hospital, finding him with lowered temperature but still very weak.

The canning house was open yesterday afternoon for the third time. Tomatoes seem scarce.

All the stores of the town will close this evening to allow proprietors, employees and customers unrestricted enjoyment of the presence of visiting fire companies. If last night's weather holds an unprecedented crowd is expected.

BETTERTON

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Horsey visited Baltimore last week.

Rev. and Mrs. Clifton Owens and daughter, Maxine, of Baltimore, are visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Owens.

Mr. Earle Stone, of Amble, Pa., has been spending some time with his parents, Dr. and Mrs. Walter Stone.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Brice, of Philadelphia, spent the week end with the parents of the former, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Brice.

Mr. John Owens visited his mother, Mrs. L. M. Owens in the Union Memorial Hospital, Baltimore, last week and reports her condition as about the same.

Mrs. Charles Brice is showing sign of improvement.

The members of St. Johns Auxiliary held a successful bazaar on Turners Pier last Wednesday evening. This is the second one to be held by them lately.

Mrs. Lotan Rasin spent part of last week with her son-in-law and daughter Mr. and Mrs. Walton Redmile in Baltimore.

Mrs. George Linthicum, of Annapolis, has been spending a few days with relatives here.

Mr. Walter Greenwood, of near Kennedyville, spent the week end with his aunt, Mrs. Mary Moore.

Mr. and Mrs. Earle Crew, of Philadelphia, spent the week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Crew.

Mrs. Harry Meeks and sister, Miss Anna Wilmer, visited in Annapolis last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Silcox and daughter have moved into their attractive new home located on Chesapeake avenue adjoining the home of Mrs. Cora Mann.

Mrs. Oscar Wilmer and son, of Lansdowne, Pa., spent part of last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lotan Rasin. Other guests for the week end were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Worrell and Miss Martha Rasin, of Philadelphia and Mr. Russell Finley of New York.

Mrs. Walter Stone and daughter, Miss Iona, were among visitors to Baltimore the past week.

Mr. Littleton Moore, of Philadelphia, is spending two weeks with his family on Bayside.

Mrs. Estelle Crew Groves was a week end guest of her uncle and aunt Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Crew.

STILL POND

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Storey and children have returned to their home in Hottshoro, Pa., after visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Bramble.

Mrs. Eva Porter, of Millington, spent last week with her daughter, Mrs. Paul Jones.

Miss Ann Bonwill has returned home after a very enjoyable trip to Sumner, Va.

Miss Alice Shingard has returned to her home in Baltimore after spending the summer with Mr. and Mrs. Carson Greenwood.

Mr. and Mrs. John Schofield, of Wilmington, spent several days this week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Crowding.

Mr. Carlton Thompson and family, of Philadelphia, visited his mother Mrs. Emma Thompson this week.

The monthly business and social meeting of the Epworth League will be held in the Sunday School room on this Thursday evening, Sept. 1st. Don't forget your talent money. Each member is asked to bring $1 and tell how they got it.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wheeler and daughters have returned to their home in Baltimore. Mrs. Wheeler and daughters have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Carl Norris for the past 10 days while Mr. Wheeler spent the week end. All returning home Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Wm. Krusen, of Philadelphia was a welcome visitor here on Monday with a jolly smile and hearty hand shake for his many friends.

Mrs. S. B. Parrott returned home Sunday after spending the month of August with her aunt in Wilmington.

Mr. and Mrs. Roland Crew, of Huntingdon, Pa., have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Roseberry.

Mr. Harry Bidwell, of Philadelphia, with Mrs. S. B. Parrott and Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Harper left here Monday for an automobile trip to Virginia, where they will visit Mrs. Parrott's sister, Mrs. Miller and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Erwin, of Philadelphia, Pa., spent several days this week with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Meeks.

Miss Alice Clayton, of Baltimore, spent several days last week with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Thompson.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Wilmer and family and Mrs. Kershaw, of Baltimore, spent Sunday with Mrs. Susie Toulson and family.

Miss Willis, of Chestertown, visited her friend Miss Anna Clark this week.

Mrs. Fred Ford and family have returned to their home at Staten Island, N. Y., after spending some time with her mother, Mrs. Emma Thompson.

On last Friday after noon the King's Herald Band with their superintendent and her helpers went on a picnic to Crystal Beach. Mr. John Robinson kindly lent his truck for the occasion although it rained some during the afternoon, they had a jolly time and returned home a little wet but happy.

Every one is talking about the beautiful dahlias that were in church on Sunday morning. They were grown by Mrs. L. P. Atwell and were extra large and beautifully colored. Mrs. Atwell has some very pretty flowers in the church every Sunday but these dahlias surpassed any we have seen.

Mr. John Johnston and family, of Barrington, N. J., spent Saturday and Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Clark and family. Mr. Clark returned home with them on Sunday for a week's vacation.

Mrs. L. B. Harper is spending this week with her grand children in Turner's Creek.

On Tuesday evening of last week the children of Mrs. Emma Thompson gave her a surprise birthday party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Jarvis in fact it was a double celebration as it was also the birthday anniversary of her son, Mr. Wm. Thompson. Both received a number of pretty and useful gifts among those present were Mrs. Fred Ford and family, of Staten Island, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Thompson and family, Mr. and Mrs. Jewell Thompson and family, of Rock Hall, Mr. and Mrs. John Jarvis, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Thompson, Miss Cora Harding and Mr. G. S. Boulden, of Still Pond.

Mr. and Mrs. B. Auspin and sons, of Washington, D. C., are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Davis.

Rev. C. W. Clark is attending the Summer School for ministers at Washington College, Chestertown this week.

The Devotional Service of the Epworth League will be lead on Sunday evening by Mrs. Gaylord Anthony. You can be a big help to these Sunday evening services by being present. Mr. F. B. Harper had a very good talk on last Sunday evening.

Mr. Gale Rasin is spending some time at his house here.

KENNEDYVILLE

Mr. and Mrs. Quincy Morrow and daughter, Betty, of Baltimore, are spending sometime with his uncle's family, Mr. and Mrs. G. Richard Rasin, and his aunt's family, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Van Dyke.

Mrs. Etta Lane is visiting the Misses Scotten for a few days.

Miss Alice Walters, of Philadelphia is spending some time with her cousin Mrs. J. Roger Kennedy and Mr. Kennedy.

Mrs. Josephine Hachell, of Philadelphia, spent Friday with Mrs. Augusta Hesser.

Miss Gladys Archibald returned home on Sunday, after spending a week with her sister and brother-in-law at Crumpton.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Dunlap, of Philadelphia, were guests on Wednesday of his sister, Mrs. Henry Boggs and Mr. Boggs.

Mr. and Mrs. George Davis returned to their home in New Jersey on Friday after visiting relatives here for some time. Mr. and Mrs. Gus Nickerson went home with them to visit there for a short while.

Miss Carrie May Lipscomb and Miss Anna Cooper Wiltbanks left on Sunday for Wilmington where they will take a business course at Goldens.

Mrs. Mary A. Green, of Church Hill, spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Archibald.

Mrs. Maggie Coverdale, of Wilmington, son and daughter-in-law and friend, spent Friday with Mrs. Sue J. Shallcross.

Mr. George Clayton, of Kenton, Del., is visiting Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Othosen and other relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Jones, of Wilmington, spent a few days with Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Dempsey.

Mrs. Acca V. Crew has returned home after spending two weeks at Ocean Grove, and visiting friends in Baltimore.

Mrs. John Hesser visited Philadelphia relatives last week.

A party of young folks enjoyed themselves at Tolchester on Thursday last. The girls took the lunch and the boys watermelons and all had a delightful time. Those in the party were, Misses Anna C. Wiltbank, Anna C. Rasin, Mary Jane Hill Edith Walls, Harriett Walls, Catherine D. Urie, Della Ford Spry, Mary Olliffe, Messrs. Walter Wiltbank, Ross Wiltbank, Frank Estes, Joe Olliffe and Walter Robinson.

Mr. Harry Walls is now on the sick list, suffering from a sore throat.

Where Are Your Deeds

If lost—burned—stolen—destroyed—they cost money to replace. If not decreed you may never be able to replace them.

By keeping them in a Safe Deposit Box here, they are safe against every risk they are NOT safe against when kept elsewhere.

We Pay 4 1/2% on Savings Deposits

The Citizens Bank

CHESTERTOWN, MARYLAND.
GEO. D. LOPLAND, PRES.

DIRECTORS

- |                   |                 |
|-------------------|-----------------|
| HARRY NICOLS      | JAMES E. MORRIS |
| D. THOS. HURLUCK  | WM. M. CULP     |
| S. T. PIPPIN      | E. L. REDMILE   |
|                   | JOHN W. BARROLL |
| GEORGE D. LOPLAND |                 |

The Season's Newest FELTS

Charming combinations of velvet and felt mark the newest feature of Fall hats. Chic Models $2.50 to $5.75

"The Woman's Shop"

Harry F. Jefferson

Chestertown, Md.