ROCK HALL

Rock Hall has had a great carnival. It began on Sept. 27th with a big crowd of enthusiasts present. It closed last night with another. Wednesday evening five fire companies and three bands joined in the parade of those who want protection from the distinctive element of fire, Chestertown winning for the best band and Centreville on equipment. The cups were presented by Herbert Urie, chairman of the local fire company.

Each evening the free tickets drew a valuable prize for a fortunate winner. There were a number of special devotees, the "bean-o" square being usually the most crowded.

Considering that the season has been very close in money matter the financial success has been very gratifying, people seeming to realize that they must support the fire company in its effort to protect the little town, but the exact returns are not yet available. We are wishing Chestertown success with theirs.

Elder Wiertz, of Baltimore, conducted services at the Seventh Day Adventist Church at 11 A. M., Sabbath. While here he was a guest at the home of Capt. Joshua Thomas. Mr. Groves, of Catonsville, field secretary of the conference, a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wright, also addressed the congregation on the subject of his work. Elder Wiertz, Mrs. Frank Sewell, Mrs. Ethel Downey, Mrs. John Bramble, Mrs. Edgar Joiner, Mrs. Joshua Thomas, Mrs. Marvie Hubbard, the Misses Ione Blackiston, Millie Jones and Hazel Baker; Messrs. Harry Wright, Joseph Jones, Robert Wright and John Thomas, Jr., have gone to Cape Charles, Va., on a Harvest Ingathering Campaign.

Wesley Chapel is about the first to plan for their fall supper and festival, and will have their advertisement in this issue of The Enterprise.

Services at the Methodist Episcopal Church Sunday were resumed at their regular hours: Sunday School 9:30 A. M., preaching 10:45 A. M., Epworth League 7:30 P. M., preaching 8:15 P. M., Monday evening class meeting and Wednesday evening prayer service. There was a good attendance that is hoped to be bettered by next Sunday. The morning subject was "The Changeless Christ" from Hebrews 13:8, evening "The Two Roads" from Matt. 7:13. Epworth League was led by Miss Catherine Ayres. There were duets: "Rock of Ages" by Mrs. James Rodney and Miss Nellie Willis and "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere" by Miss Lillian and Miss Frances Orr, later Miss Willis sang "Nearer, My God, to Thee."

Oyster season opened on the first with little enthusiasm here. The first few days seldom produced a good market and most of the oystermen begin work a week or so later.

Labor Day added to the carnival and the regular week end, produced a wonderful home-coming to many homes in the town. If a carnival is promoted again next year it is hoped to include Labor Day in its program.

A few nights ago some people were rather startled to see a man up and down the road east of town at 2 A. M. It was later learned that Charles Andrews had had a check cashed earlier in the night and some colored men were apparently after the money so that he was afraid to pass a lonely part of the road into daylight. A close watch will be kept on these men. Much better to prevent trouble than punish people after wrong doing. It is sincerely hoped these men have done some sensible thinking and decided to stop right where they are.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis F. Gossett have been entertaining their sons, Messrs. Howard and Guy Gossett, their wives and Guy's son, of Baltimore, all of whom have enjoyed being present at the carnival. A grand son Walter Weaver is getting along nicely now with his left wrist which he broke three weeks ago while gathering pears.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ashley and son Donald, of Philadelphia, spent the week end with the former's mother, Mrs. Mary C. Ashley and were accompanied home by their daughter, Miss May Ashley, who has returned from a few days in Centreville as a guest of Mr. and Mrs. John Ashler.

JR. O. U. A. M. HALL Rock Hall, Md. PICTURE PARLOR

SATURDAY, SEPT. 10th
Carl Laemmle presents
"JACK HOBIE in
"THE RAMBLING RANGER"
It starts with a rush and it ends with a rush. Plenty of thrills when Hoxie's accused of kidnapping the little girl he saved from death. Something new, startling, stimulating.
Also Comedy.

WEDNESDAY, SEPT. 14th
Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer presents
PAULINE STARKE, OWEN MOORE, LIONEL BARRI-
MORE and DOUGLAS FAIR-BANKS, JR., in
"WOMEN LOVE DIAMONDS"

Here's a picture that will be the talk of the town. See it, then get in the argument! Whether you agree or not, you'll be interested in this brilliant film of a gold-digger who wins redemption in the one honest love of his life.
Also Chapter 4 of "The Return of the Riddle Rider," and Comedy.

The Rock Hall carnival closed last night with a great crowd still present to hear how the drawing of prizes would result. The first article was a mattress which went to Mrs. Walter Clark, of Rock Hall. Second a bed spring to Jesse Hadaway, of Wornton. The third name was called Walter Clark who received a handsome eight piece bedroom suite of walnut. The next prize was a kitchen cabinet that went to Mrs. Oliver Kendall who had won a beautiful Spanish Shawl earlier in the evening. The last prize to go was a beautifully enameled six piece breakfast set, Mrs. Alice Bowers, of Wornton, being the fortunate winner. The frigid-aire offering had not taken enough money to justify letting it go and it will be taken to the Chestertown carnival.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Johnston, is entertaining Miss Rayne, of Washington, D. C.

Mrs. Granville Ward and children and Miss Anna Caldwell have been spending some time with relatives here.
