ROCK HALL

Schools are open. Country children have the happiness of enjoying the lovely fields and hedges of golden rod, late summer blooming flowers and all the many beauties of early September, so they enter the school room with happy hearts and bright faces after the long summer vacation. If they will work as they have played there will be no failures when examination time comes around. Summer visitors are returning to their homes and the town is settling down to fall occupations.

Children, there were only a hundred and seventy-three present at the M. E. Sunday School and six of them were visitors. Does that hurt the absentees to think of? Come show your appreciation of the beautiful lessons and songs and school rooms. Make it two hundred and fifty next Sunday. The resident minister, Rev. W. S. Grant gave a beautiful sermon from II Timothy 2:15, "Study to Show Thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth."

Mr. William Elburn has had several improvements added to his house in Green Lane.

Mark Pettibone has moved into his new bungalow which is nearing completion.

Benjamin Durdning new dwelling and store have assumed fine proportions and the stucco is very pretty work as is also that of Marion Coleman's east of town, where the painting in green and white will make a pretty trimming.

Every day we are expecting Dr. Selby and family to move into his bungalow that looks complete to passers-by as even the awnings are in place.

Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Wharton and children, Elsie and Albert, of Centerville, Mr. and Mrs. Emory Wolf and nephew, Charles Wolf, of New Freedom, Penna., were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. J. Beck at their home in Denbigh.

Capt. Hilary Akers spent a happy time home with his family and visited the carnival where he had one of the times of his life trying to throw a ring over the head of a live duck. After a wonderful trip to Canada, going by way of Lake Champlain, St. Johns Rapids, up St. Lawrence River and Champlain Canal, which has nine locks to lower vessels eighteen feet to the St. Lawrence, the yacht proceeded to Montreal. During his stay at Quebec, Capt. Akers was a guest of Col. J. W. Lome, of Massachusetts, aboard the liner "Shawnee," there being several hundred American tourists aboard the liner. The Capt. Akers brought some pretty souvenirs made by the Chiconiti Indians also two beautiful hand woven blankets. Mrs. Akers had as recent guests over the week end Mrs. Edward Rodeni and son, Charles, of Baltimore. Thursday guests were Mrs. Frank Akers, Mrs. Louise Akers, Mrs. Louise Akers and family and Mr. and Mrs. John Rodeni and children.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman B. Wamshier of Trooper, Pa., were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar N. Culley from Saturday to Monday, Labor Day, when they motored to Washington taking Miss Grace Culley with them. Tuesday they went sight-seeing around Washington and Arlington, Va., and then motored to Gettysburg and Trooper. They took daily trips to many interesting places including Reading, Harrisburg, Valley Forge, Philadelphia, Mt. Penn, Blue Mountains and coal mines. They returned Saturday bringing home Miss Culley who has now returned to Galena to take up the last year of high school studies. Mrs. Clinton Guthrie and little daughter, Betty, have returned home to Galena after a few days visit with her parents. Mr. Alfred Culley took up his duties Sept. 6th as principal of West Friendship High School, Howard County. Rev. and Mrs. William H. Revelle, daughter and son, Miss Sarah and William Revelle, of Wilmington, were over night guests of Mr. and Mrs. Culley. Capt. and Mrs. William Witt took their son, Karcher, and nephew, Wendell Witt to Virginia where the two boys will enter Shenandoah Valley Academy as students. Capt. and Mrs. Witt and daughters, Iva Mae, returned Sunday.

Mrs. Charles Hymson and son, George, have returned from Balti-

Our natty band and equally handsome fire ladies went to the first men's parade at the Chestertown Carnival last night, so did all the rest of Rock Hall who owned a car or could beg, borrow or steal a ride. Well, anyway, if that is too broad a statement, no one can deny that there were a lot of us there for where our men go our loyal women go, too, and everybody likes to watch uniforms in drills. Rock Hall isn't rich but it knows how to extract much quiet pleasure from small sums.
