

OWNING YOUR HOME The Business Way

Establishing an objective and then working to that end has brought success to more men than any other one factor. May be your objective is a nice new home all your own; maybe it is a vacation free from all cares; maybe the establishment of a reserve which in days to come will permit you to ease up and enjoy life more fully?

The way to all of these goals is through regular and consistent saving—plus the income such savings will bring you when put to work drawing interest. Here is where we can help you. Make this bank your bank for saving and the door to many opportunities will then open for you.

The Way To Begin Is To Commence!

BREVITIES

—Fine pictures at the Lyceum every night.

—The local train arrives at 6 p. m., now instead of 7 p. m., as formerly.

—Monday was the 17th anniversary of Chestertown's greatest conflagration which occurred Sept. 26, 1910.

—The fall racing season in Maryland opened at the Havre de Grace tracks this past week, and local fans are attending the meet each day.

—Mr. C. A. Jewell, well known business man of Still Pond, had two fingers of his left hand severely lacerated, on Tuesday, while loading cases of canned tomatoes at Still Pond station.

—A large dirigible passed over town early Thursday morning of last week. Due to a haze in the sky the name could not be distinguished but as the Los Angeles was out at that time on all day cruise it is thought to have been that large Navy dirigible.

—The Kent County Commissioners are arranging to attend in a body together with their attorney and road engineer, the semi-annual meeting of the Association of County Commissioners of the Eastern Shore, which will meet in Easton early in October.

—A fish story that will vie with the best of them is being told among fishermen of the Nantuxco river who battled a man-eating shark for more than two hours on Monday and finally landed the 12-foot sea monster alive after it had been dragged for a mile by a motor boat.

—The total enrollment at Washington College, which began its 148th session last week has reached 235 students, and President Titsworth states that this will be increased to 250 very shortly which will give the ancient institution the largest enrollment in its history. At the regular 11 o'clock assembly in William Smith Hall on Thursday morning Harvey J. Hill, executive vice president of the Delmarva Eastern Shore Association, will deliver an address on the subject, "Living on the Peninsula," to which the general public is invited.

DEATHS

Rock Hall was shocked Wednesday evening, Sept. 21st, when it became known that little George F. Baker, son of Mr. and Mrs. William F. Baker, had been drowned at the shore near their home. The little fellow was not quite three years old. He was playing about the yard and when missed was found with his face in the water while his feet were dry on the shore. Life was not extinct and every effort was made to revive him until the spark went out about two hours later. Funeral services were held at the home Friday afternoon, the officiating minister being the Rev. W. S. Grant of the M. E. Church. Four little boys acted as bearers at the grave in Wesley Chapel cemetery. Thomas H. Casey, undertaker.

Mrs. Angeline J. Davis, nee Colburn, wife of Capt. Charles E. Davis, who had been sick for many months most of which time was spent in Baltimore, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Willard Dodson, in Wor-ton Tuesday, Sept. 27th, 1927, aged seventy years. Mrs. Davis was a buoyant, happy Christian who cheered everyone who came under her influence. Many years she had been a member of Rock Hall Methodist Episcopal Church, a teacher in its Sunday School and connected with its Ladies Aid Society. She was also a member of the Rock Hall Council No. 25, Daughters of America and had held several offices in it. Besides her husband and daughter, she leaves four sons, Charles H., and Walter, of Baltimore, Joseph B., of Rock Hall, and Howard B., of Havre de Grace, eleven grandchildren and four great grandchildren. Funeral services will be held at 2 o'clock Friday afternoon in Rock Hall M. E. Church and interment made in Wesley Chapel Cemetery. B. R. Fellows, funeral director.

Anti-Aircraft Guns Used At Aberdeen

Many people in Chestertown and Kent County have been wondering just what the beams of light that shoot back and forth across the northern sky several evenings a month are. The rays of light are from huge searchlights at the Aberdeen Proving Grounds.

An airplane is sent aloft towing, at a distance of several hundred yards a target. The searchlights find the target and keep it in the path of their beam of light while anti-aircraft guns are fired at the target. The whole procedure, even to seeing the target and the shots, can be witnessed at Betterton and similar places along the bay shore.

"Beau Geste" Shows
Life In The Legion
Oh, for the life of the French Foreign Legion!
How many boys have thrilled with the thought of becoming a legionnaire under the flag of France, of seeing the world, fighting in strange lands, being decorated for bravery and returning home a hero.

Something of the other side of a legionnaire's life is shown in "Beau Geste," P. C. Wren's thrilling mystery story which has been transferred to the screen by Paramount and which comes to the Lyceum Theatre on Thursday, Friday and Saturday of next week.

Forced marches of 30 miles a day, carrying packs of from 50 to 65 pounds, wearing seven pound coats under blazing suns—these are common occurrences in the Legion. There are 26 crimes for which the death penalty may be inflicted in the Legion. It is no crime to steal another's equipment but it goes hard with a man whose equipment is stolen. Sometimes they even hold the bars of soap in their mouths while washing, to keep them from being taken.

Ronald Coleman, Neil Hamilton and Ralph Forbes appear as three English brothers who enlist in the Legion. Other featured players in "Beau Geste," which Herbert Brenon directed, include Alice Joyce, Noah Beery, Mary Brian, William Powell, Norman Trevor and Victor McLaglan.

Mrs. George Morris and children who have spent the greater part of the summer with Mrs. Norris's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Hubbard at Widehall, have returned to their home in Washington.

Mrs. G. Frank Clark, her daughter, and grand daughter, Mrs. L. Bates Russell, Jr., and Mary Ann, are spending the week in Philadelphia, Pa.

WEDDINGS

Davis, were married on Wednesday evening at seven o'clock at the home of the bride's father by Rev. Dr. N. O. Gibson, pastor of Christ M. P. Church. Immediately following the ceremony the couple left for a honeymoon trip to Wilmington, Philadelphia and Atlantic City, following which they will reside in Salisbury, where the groom is manager of the A. & P. store.

CHURCH NOTES

On Sunday last the beginning of the Rededication services of the Chestertown M. E. Church were held at 10:00 A. M., Sunday School was held in the new quarters and the various departments and classes were assigned to their places. There were present 262. Dr. J. H. Willey addressed the Sunday School.

At 11 A. M. the baptismal service was held. Walter Needles, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard C. Needles and little Mary Ann Russell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. Bates Russell, Jr., were baptized by the pastor Dr. W. F. Corkran. Following this the sermon was preached by Dr. John H. Willey.

The choir of twenty voices sang the old Hymns as they never sang before.

At 7 P. M. the Epworth league had charge. Mr. John N. Bennett president, presiding. Special music was rendered by the orchestra. Also several quartettes. The evening sermon was preached by Dr. Willey. The services for the rest of the week were published in the Enterprise last week.

The church has one of the most beautiful auditoriums to be found anywhere.

Christ M. P. Sunday School will begin its afternoon sessions on Sunday next.

Bishop W. F. McDowell, of Washington, D. C., will preach at the M. E. Church on Sunday morning next. And Rev. Dr. Wilson, of Brooklyn, N. Y., will preach at night.

The By-Kota Club of the M. E. Church will meet next Monday evening, Oct. 3rd, at the home of Mrs. Leonard C. Needles and will be entertained by Mrs. Needles, Misses Mildred Barwick and Sarah Ruth.

Dr. Frank Crane Says

Right Inheritance Easy To Give

Most normal men and women live for their children.

Beyond getting what satisfaction they can out of their own lives, they want to see their children get satisfaction out of theirs, they want to see they have a better chance and more advantages than they themselves had.

Just how to accomplish this requires much thought and calls for all our intelligent planning.

It is pretty well established that leaving your children a lot of money does them no good. More wrecks have been caused, more lives ruined and more characters undermined by having things made too easy for children, by giving them too many unearned advantages than by anything else.

It may be safely concluded that if any man has a grudge against his children and wants them to be failures the surest way is to leave them a lot of money.

Thinking people know that other things, such as character and the like, count more than money.

Just how to leave our dear ones what they require is rather difficult. In the first place, we ought to do what we can to bequeath to them an orderly and law-abiding society, a state in which the laws are respected and obeyed. People, therefore, that by our own character and other illicit acts which happen to be popular, are working for a state of social which will be inimicable to the coming generation.

The second thing is character. It is our duty to our children to give them a good biological inheritance. This we can do by living clean lives ourselves and, in the final analysis, most of the good we do other people depends on how well we take care of ourselves.

If the children are healthy and strong and normal physically the next thing they need is moral character.

Unfortunately, this is a more difficult thing to come at. Out of many a family with the highest ideals and the most blameless practices can come a descendant who is absolutely lacking in moral stamina. About all we can do is to give as good an example as possible and good teaching.

The result then is in the lap of the gods. We can't help it and we are not to blame if the young scion turns out crooked. It is lamentable, but it is inevitable.

Another thing we can leave our children is friendship and association with the right kind of people. This we can only do by associating with the right kind of people ourselves.

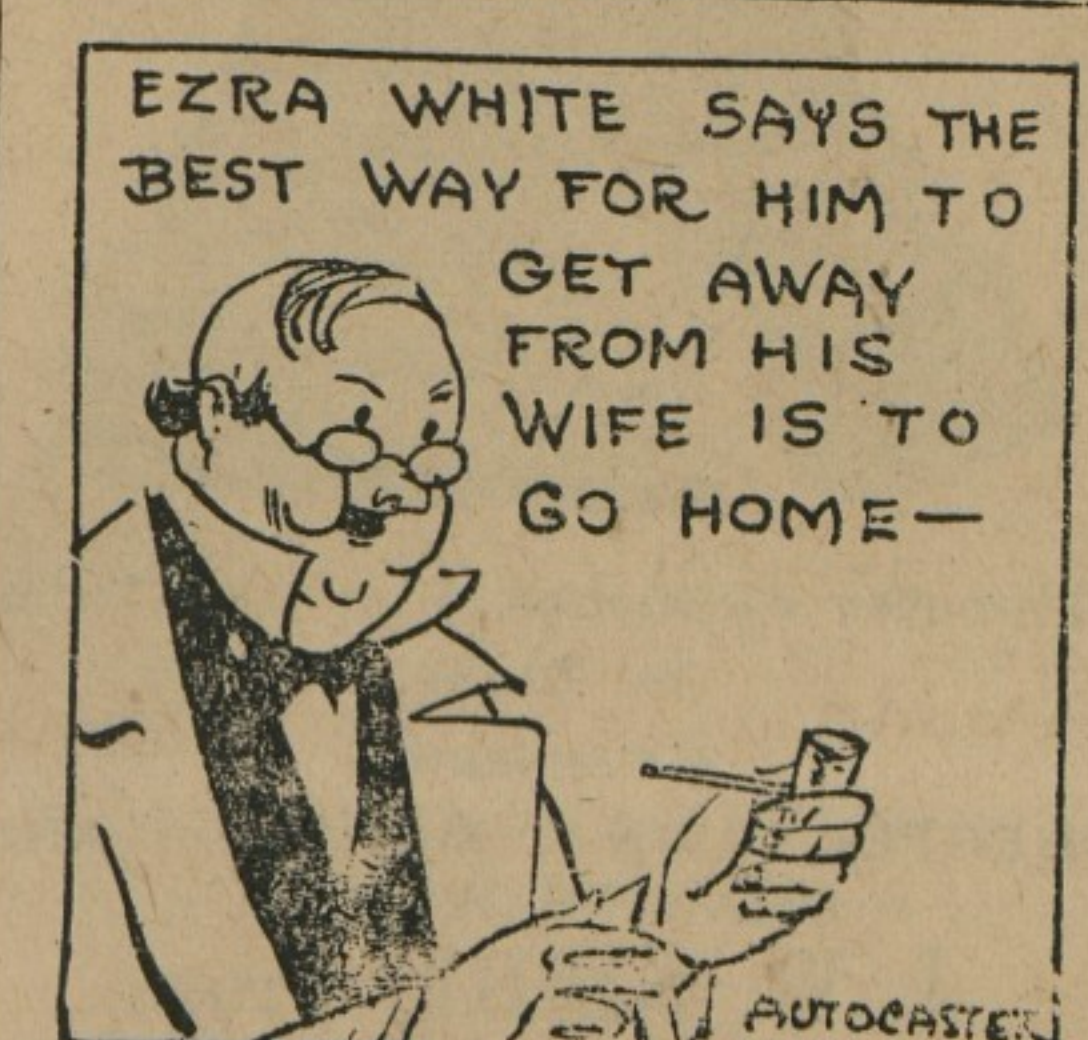

The best that can be done, in a nutshell, is a know our children, be companions with them and influence them by our own character as much as possible.

The Judge's Joke

EZRA WHITE SAYS THE BEST WAY FOR HIM TO GET AWAY FROM HIS WIFE IS TO GO HOME—

First Student: "What did your mother say when she heard you had flunked out?"
Second Student: "She became historical."
"Historical, you mean?"
"No, I mean historical. She dug up my past and reviewed all my sins."

Dizzy: "It's a shaky business."
Broad: "What is?"
"Shottin' the dice."

"ONE day a wealthy, respected gentleman clubman—and the next he found himself a member of a gang of the biggest crooks in the country—and all because of a woman"—a strange, baffling story—

by MEREDITH NICHOLSON
"I'll have you know sir, that I'm used to having people treat me like a lady."
"Do they ever discover their mistake?"
Tourist: "Say, boy, where does this road go to?"
Indignant: "It don't go anywhere. It's here every morning when I come along."
Guest: "I seem to know your face. Must have met you here before I guess."
Other: "I wouldn't be surprised. This is my house."

From Washington to Maine, to Vermont, to New York, to Ohio, to Michigan, to Illinois wended the trail of the BLACKSHEEP. Mystery—Adventure—a great Nicholson story—starting in the next issue.
