THE hardest part of refinishing your floors is getting around to doing it. After that it's easy enough.
Just get a can of LAVA-VAR FLOOR FINISH and try it out. You'll be surprised at the results. And you'll be surprised at the way it stands the wear. It leaves a mirror-bright, waterproof surface, that won't turn white and won't show heel marks, etc.
We have just the brush you'll want to use, too. Stop in and see us. It won't obligate you in the least.

A NICKEL IS ENOUGH!
Now It Will Buy You a Smoke That is a Smoke. Read All About It!
When men begin talking about a good cigar for five cents, somebody always says, "Not any more—it can't be done." No wonder smokers talk that way when there are so many near cigars on the market at that price. Well, men in spite of all that, there is a good cigar, made from ripe tobacco, selling at a nickel right here and now! It's Havana Ribbon.
People say, "How can you do it?" The answer is volume. We used to sell Havana Ribbon for more than a nickel. Now we sell so many that five cents is the price. And, believe it or not, the cigar is better than ever!
All we ask is that you spend one lone nickel to find out for yourself. A five-cent piece won't break you or make us—but it will start you on Havana Ribbon for keeps. You'll get favor, fragrance, a really satisfying smoke. Do it today!

"Beau Geste" Truly Great Cinema Play
Hardships Vividly Depicted In Paramount's Master Mystery Melodrama

RONALD COLMAN as "BEAU GESTE"
Add one more title to the list of truly great motion pictures.
With the appearance of Paramount's "Beau Geste," which comes to the Lyceum Theatre Thursday and Friday and Saturday of next week, it becomes necessary to enlarge the roll of screen masterpieces.
This story of the French Foreign Legion, breathes an immortal flame that any director might forfeit his life to obtain. The action hinges on the wonderful devotion of three young Englishmen, each of whom deserts from home in order that the blame for the theft of a famous sapphire may fall on him although he believes one of his brothers to be guilty.
By common impulse all enlist in the Foreign Legion. Two find themselves at an isolated Sahara fort which must meet an Arab attack with only 40 defenders. The sheer fearlessness of these wonderful soldiers in their pitiable brave defense adds to the drama of the story.
Ronald Colman as "Beau" gives a portrayal which many are sure to place above his wonderful work in "The White Sister," the picture that started him toward the commanding place in the screen world he now holds. No more romantic figure has ever flashed across the screen.
Rivaling Colman are Neil Hamilton and Ralph Forbes, the other two brothers. A magnificent character is brought to life by Noah Beery as "the cruelest man and bravest soldier" in the Legion.
Acting honors also belong to all the others on the long list of players—to William Powell, Alice Joyce, Mary Brian, Norman Trevor and the rest. Few pictures in the history of the screen have contained so many marvelous characterization opportunities.
Paramount's "Beau Geste" is a great picture—dramatically, pictorially and entertainingly.

Dr. Frank Crane Says
This Is The Age Of Romance
It is quite common to hear people regret that they live in this prosaic age, this age given up to dollar worship and so void of anything heroic. They wish they had lived in former times when men were more occupied in glorious deeds than they were in making money.
This illustrates the fact that you have a perspective in order to judge anything properly. The trouble with our impression of this age is that we are too close to it.
Putting our mind in the position of fifty years from now and looking back upon this time we would see that we are living in the most romantic age of the world.
We have progressed more in the last twenty-five years than the world had previously progressed in twenty-five centuries.
For the first time in history men, such as Byrd and Amundsen, have flown over the North Pole.
This is the day when Lindbergh flew alone from New York to Paris and amazed mankind.
It is really an age when men care more for great deeds than for dollars or life.
It is an age when the League of Nations was forming and the sentiment of world consciousness was gradually taking shape. It is an age when women were given rights of citizenship and for the first time in history were released from their bondage.
It is the first time when any nation was able to shake itself loose from the liquor habit and the foremost republic of the world adopted prohibition.
It is an age when more men have given themselves up to scientific and medical research than ever before.
Charles R. Price, of Forest City, N. C., challenges the claim of Layton Mitchell, of Pawhuska, Okla., as being the youngest Chief of Police in the U. S. Chief Price is four months, or from February to June, younger than Mitchell. Both are 17 years old.
