ROCK HALL

Festivals continue. Wesley Chapel supper last Thursday cleared $503.00. Such a result appears to justify all the time and energy expended. May the others do as well.

Wesley Chapel Sunday School had a hundred and twelve present, which was a good showing on such a rainy day. Then most of the adults attended the funeral services for Mrs. Susan Carter at the Methodist Episcopal Church. Next Sunday at 10:45 a. m., there will be a Rally Day Service.

Sunday afternoon found a hundred and thirty, attending the M. E. Sunday School. The weather having cleared there was a large audience in the evening to hear the Rally Day services for which the following interesting program had been prepared: Song, "We Are Coming" by choir; invocation by pastor, Rev. W. S. Grant; drill and song, "Bringing in the Sheaves" by a large number of children; recitations by Orpha Jacob, Ada Grace Thompson, "Welcome" by William Orr; by Dolores Thompson, "Welcome to All" by Henriette Rodney; by Harold Grant, "The Reeds" by Vernon Joiner, "Rally Day Girls" by Mildred Warner, "Rally Day" by Walter Parsons, "I'll Try" by Ethel Rodney, "Go Out to the Field of Gold" by three girls, by Gladys Grant; song, "Loyal to Our Sunday School" by choir; recitations "Working Together" by Virginia Rodney; "Some Glads for Rally Day" by Lorraine Warner; "Go On" by Helen Durdin; solo, "In the Garden" by Mr. Clyde Maslin; recitations Rally Day Bay by George Westcott; song, "Workers for the Master" by the Misses Lillian and Frances Orr; "Forward to His Service" by three boys; solo, "Growing Up for Jesus" for Carl Orr; address, "Rally Day Meaning" by the pastor; instrumental music, collection taken by Cora Thomas, Eva Jacob, Francis Berger and Doris Downey; duet, "Saved by His Power Divine" by Doris Downey and Eva Jacob; recitations—by Isabel Jones, "Some Rallying Reasons" by Erma Jacob; "A Lovely Sunday School" by Beatrice Berger, "Mother and Me" by Gertrude Westcott; "Higher Up" by Christine McGett; "Good Morning" by May White; "I'm Brave on Rally Day" by Elaine Bramble, "Worth Hurrying For" by Eva Jacob, "A Sunday School Family" by Frances Berger; song, "Glad Praises Bringing" by choir; invitations by several friends and pastor for all ages to become members of the schools as the hope is to increase attendance by reason of the rally. Benediction. For this fine service a number of voices had been added to the choir and the piano was assisted by several musical instruments. The chancel had been decorated by cut flowers and the jellies and canned fruit contributed were for the Strawbridge Home for orphans boys of the Baltimore and Wilmington Conferences.

The Ladies Aid Society of Wesley Chapel will be conducting this evening at the home of Miss Jennie Hadaway, she and Mrs. Helen Hague being hostesses. Dr. Paul Titsworth, of Washington, will deliver the sermon at 10:45 a. m., the morning of the 23rd.
