

ROCK HALL

Sunshine and shadow. One of our April storms began Monday just after noon with a terrific wind and included rain, hail, snow, lightning and thunder.

A basketball game, the Rock Hall Juniors vs. the Chestertown All Stars is scheduled for next Friday evening in Jr. O. U. A. M. Hall.

Rev. W. S. Grant preached his first sermon in the beginning of his fourth year here last Sunday morning from II Corin, 4:6, "the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ," illustrating how the inner life is stamped upon the face of each individual today.

Quite a number from here attended the clinic in Chestertown Monday and hope to profit by what they learned. One little girl, Annette Blackstone, will be sent to Claiborne when the Miracle House opens in June.

Mrs. Vachel Burgess was taken ill on Sunday, March 30th, at the home of her son, James Burgess, in Washington, D. C. The cause of the trouble was given as high blood pressure.

Mrs. Joseph Downey, Sr., has returned from Havre de Grace where she spent the winter with her daughters, Mrs. Walter Davis and Mrs. Charles Baker.

Mr. and Mrs. David Ayres, having spent the winter in Camden, N. J., with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Willson, arrived home about a week ago accompanied on the trip by Mr. Willson, Mrs. William Clayton and daughter, Betty.

the former returning Sunday, the latter staying until Thursday as a guest of Mr. and Mrs. David B. Joiner, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Clothier and other relatives.

New Castle, Del. Mrs. J. W. Joiner and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wirts had as recent weekend guests Mr. and Mrs. Frank Joiner and son, Franklin, and Mr. and Mrs. Millard Sewell and son, Millard, Jr., all of Baltimore.

Mr. Albert Hudson is able to ride out but will have his neck bones supported by a mechanical contrivance for a long time yet. Wesley Chapel had a splendid success in their "Wedding of Archibald and Rosebud" and "Polly Wants a Cracker" which were presented in the church hall last Friday evening, netting fifty dollars from a packed house.

The Ladies Aid Society met at the parsonage Monday evening. Charles Miller's class and William Hastings' class staged a game of basketball last night. The Volunteer Fire Company will present their minstrel entertainment at Stevensville Thursday of next week.

Cecil Crouch and Bertie Coleman are building bungalows for their own occupancy. Sterling Crouch is having his home painted. After all, we are apparently without census enumerators, John W. Downey not having qualified for the work in the town and George Downey resigning after the first day's work in the district.

The Aiello Construction Company broke ground yesterday on the road beginning at The Narrows at Eastern Neck Island bridge. Mrs. Aiello, who is with her husband on their nearby farm, the former Richard Willson farm, not being able to lay a cornerstone, did supervise the digging of the first truck load of dirt from the borrow pit, the truck was driven (never mind if it did get stuck for a while in a swamp) by Leslie Simms, and the dumping was attended to by Mr. Aiello. Dewey Liming, of Washington, will assume the supervision of the road to replace Albert Donaldson who was with the company last fall and the early spring but will leave tomorrow for Washington where he will assume a contracting business of his own.

Mr. and Mrs. William Leary and Mrs. Maurice Willson were recent guests of relatives in Havre de Grace. Mr. George Akers, in Maryland General Hospital, has undergone a very serious operation and is doing fairly well. He has had a great many callers from Baltimore and from here. Among the latter were his wife who was in Baltimore nearly two weeks and will return there again today. Capt. and Mrs. Franklin Akers, Mrs. Andrew Stevens, also Capt. and Mrs. Hilkey Akers, of town, visited Miss Lula VanDyke and sister, Mrs. A. V. Crew on Saturday. Mrs. Wm. M.
