W. I. WALKER GETS DATA FOR BRIDGE BODY

Compiles Statistics On Wealth Of Peninsula

INCLUDES DELAWARE Hopes To Make Point For Bay Span

W. Irving Walker, former member of the Legislature from Queen Anne's county and authority on transportation along the Delmarva Peninsula, today made public a statement which he will shortly present to Governor Ritchie's Chesapeake Bay Bridge Commission in Baltimore. Some of the statistics were compiled when the subject of the proposed ten-mile span was first broached and since then Mr. Walker, who has made a minute study of the entire question during the last ten years, has shown by actual figures that the area which would be affected by the bridge on the eastern side, inof 41,501.
