

ROCK HALL

The March wind of Sunday and Monday was still going strong Tuesday morning, making a hitting... The Jr. O. U. A. M.'s had the new hardwood floor in their dance hall completed in time for the firemen to hold their barn dance there last Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Godwin entertained the classmates and a few other friends of their son, Joe, at their home the evening of Sunday week. They played some interesting games in which their teacher, Prof. C. H. Robinson, joined heartily.

The play, "The Beantown Choir," presented by members of the Methodist Episcopal Church in Junior Hall Thursday evening was very much provoking. The rehearsal was a very comical affair and the finished concert worth hearing.

I send me," the subject being "A good man made better." A point brought out was that a good Christian serves God, not in his own way but in God's way. During the good weather last week considerable plowing was done. Even before that the work had been begun that the sod may have some time to fertilize the ground before planting time.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Hudson spent from Saturday until yesterday in Baltimore on a trip of pleasure and business. Mrs. Lee Magnus and son, Stephen, were at their summer home in Swan Creek for the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Adkins spent Saturday and Sunday with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Williams, and were accompanied home by Mrs. Adkins' sister, Mrs. Charles H. Jones, Jr., who will make a visit with them at Sparrows Point.

Mr. W. R. Crow visited her daughter, Mrs. Adele Yeoman at Denton for a few days. Mrs. J. Roger Kennedy has been sick in bed at her mother's for some time, but was able to go to her own home on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Groves, of Chestertown, visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James H. Groves, Sr., on Sunday. Mrs. Groves sang two beautiful solos Sunday night at the Grace Presbyterian Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Miller, Jr., and children, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Walter Elburn, of Chestertown. Miss Daisy Ford, of Wilmington, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Ford this week end.

Mr. Harry Johnston led the Christian Endeavor last Sunday evening, and as usual gave a good service on the local moving picture theatre. It is hoped that it will be in working condition by this Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Lockerman and daughters, Margaret, Eleanor, and Mrs. Harry S. Redmile entertained the Sr. Club last week on Thursday at their home. Miss Manie Peters, of Baltimore, visited Mrs. Mary W. Spry, for a short while.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Ford, of near Massey, visited Mr. Will Fogwell and family on Saturday. Mrs. Elwood Baker, of Chestertown, spent Monday with her mother, Mrs. Augusta Hessner.

Mr. and Mrs. George M. Glenn, of the Ladies Aid Society will be entertained at their next meeting by the Misses Scotten. Mrs. Jesse Wilson, of Annapolis, is visiting her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Kelley.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert L. Hague and little daughter, Adele, have been right sick for the last few days. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Rutter visited her niece Mrs. Morris and Mr. Romie Morris on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Hill, visited Mrs. and Mrs. Jarvis in Wilmington on Sunday. Mrs. Pearl Walls and daughter, Harriett spent Sunday with relatives in Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Powell, of Warwick, Md. Mr. Howard Teat is sick at her home on West Cypress street. The moving picture in Town Hall on Wednesday evening will be especially good. It is entitled "Flight" and will begin promptly at 8 p. m.

There will be a play in Comegy's Hall on Friday evening. It is entitled, "The Beantown Choir." For some time work has been going on installing a vitaphone in the local moving picture theatre. It is hoped that it will be in working condition by this Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Crew entertained at cards last Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Ewell Wilmer. Mrs. Frances Owens won the prize for the highest score.

Ernest Brice and son, of Philadelphia spent the week end with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Brice. Mrs. R. S. Turner has been spending several days with her sister, Mrs. Effie Spry, in Chestertown.

Several from here attended the party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Glenn near Still Pond last Friday evening. Mr. and Mrs. William Davis and daughter, Halle Mae, of Phoenixville, Pa., were week end guests of her sister, Mrs. Archie Crew and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Crew entertained at cards last Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Ewell Wilmer. Mrs. Frances Owens won the prize for the highest score.

JR. O. U. A. M. HALL

Rock Hall, Md. PICTURE PARLOR SATURDAY, MARCH 8th Universal presents LAURA LA PLANTE in "THE LOVE TRAP" The delightful daring comedy-drama of a beautiful chorus girl who knew her millionaires.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 12th

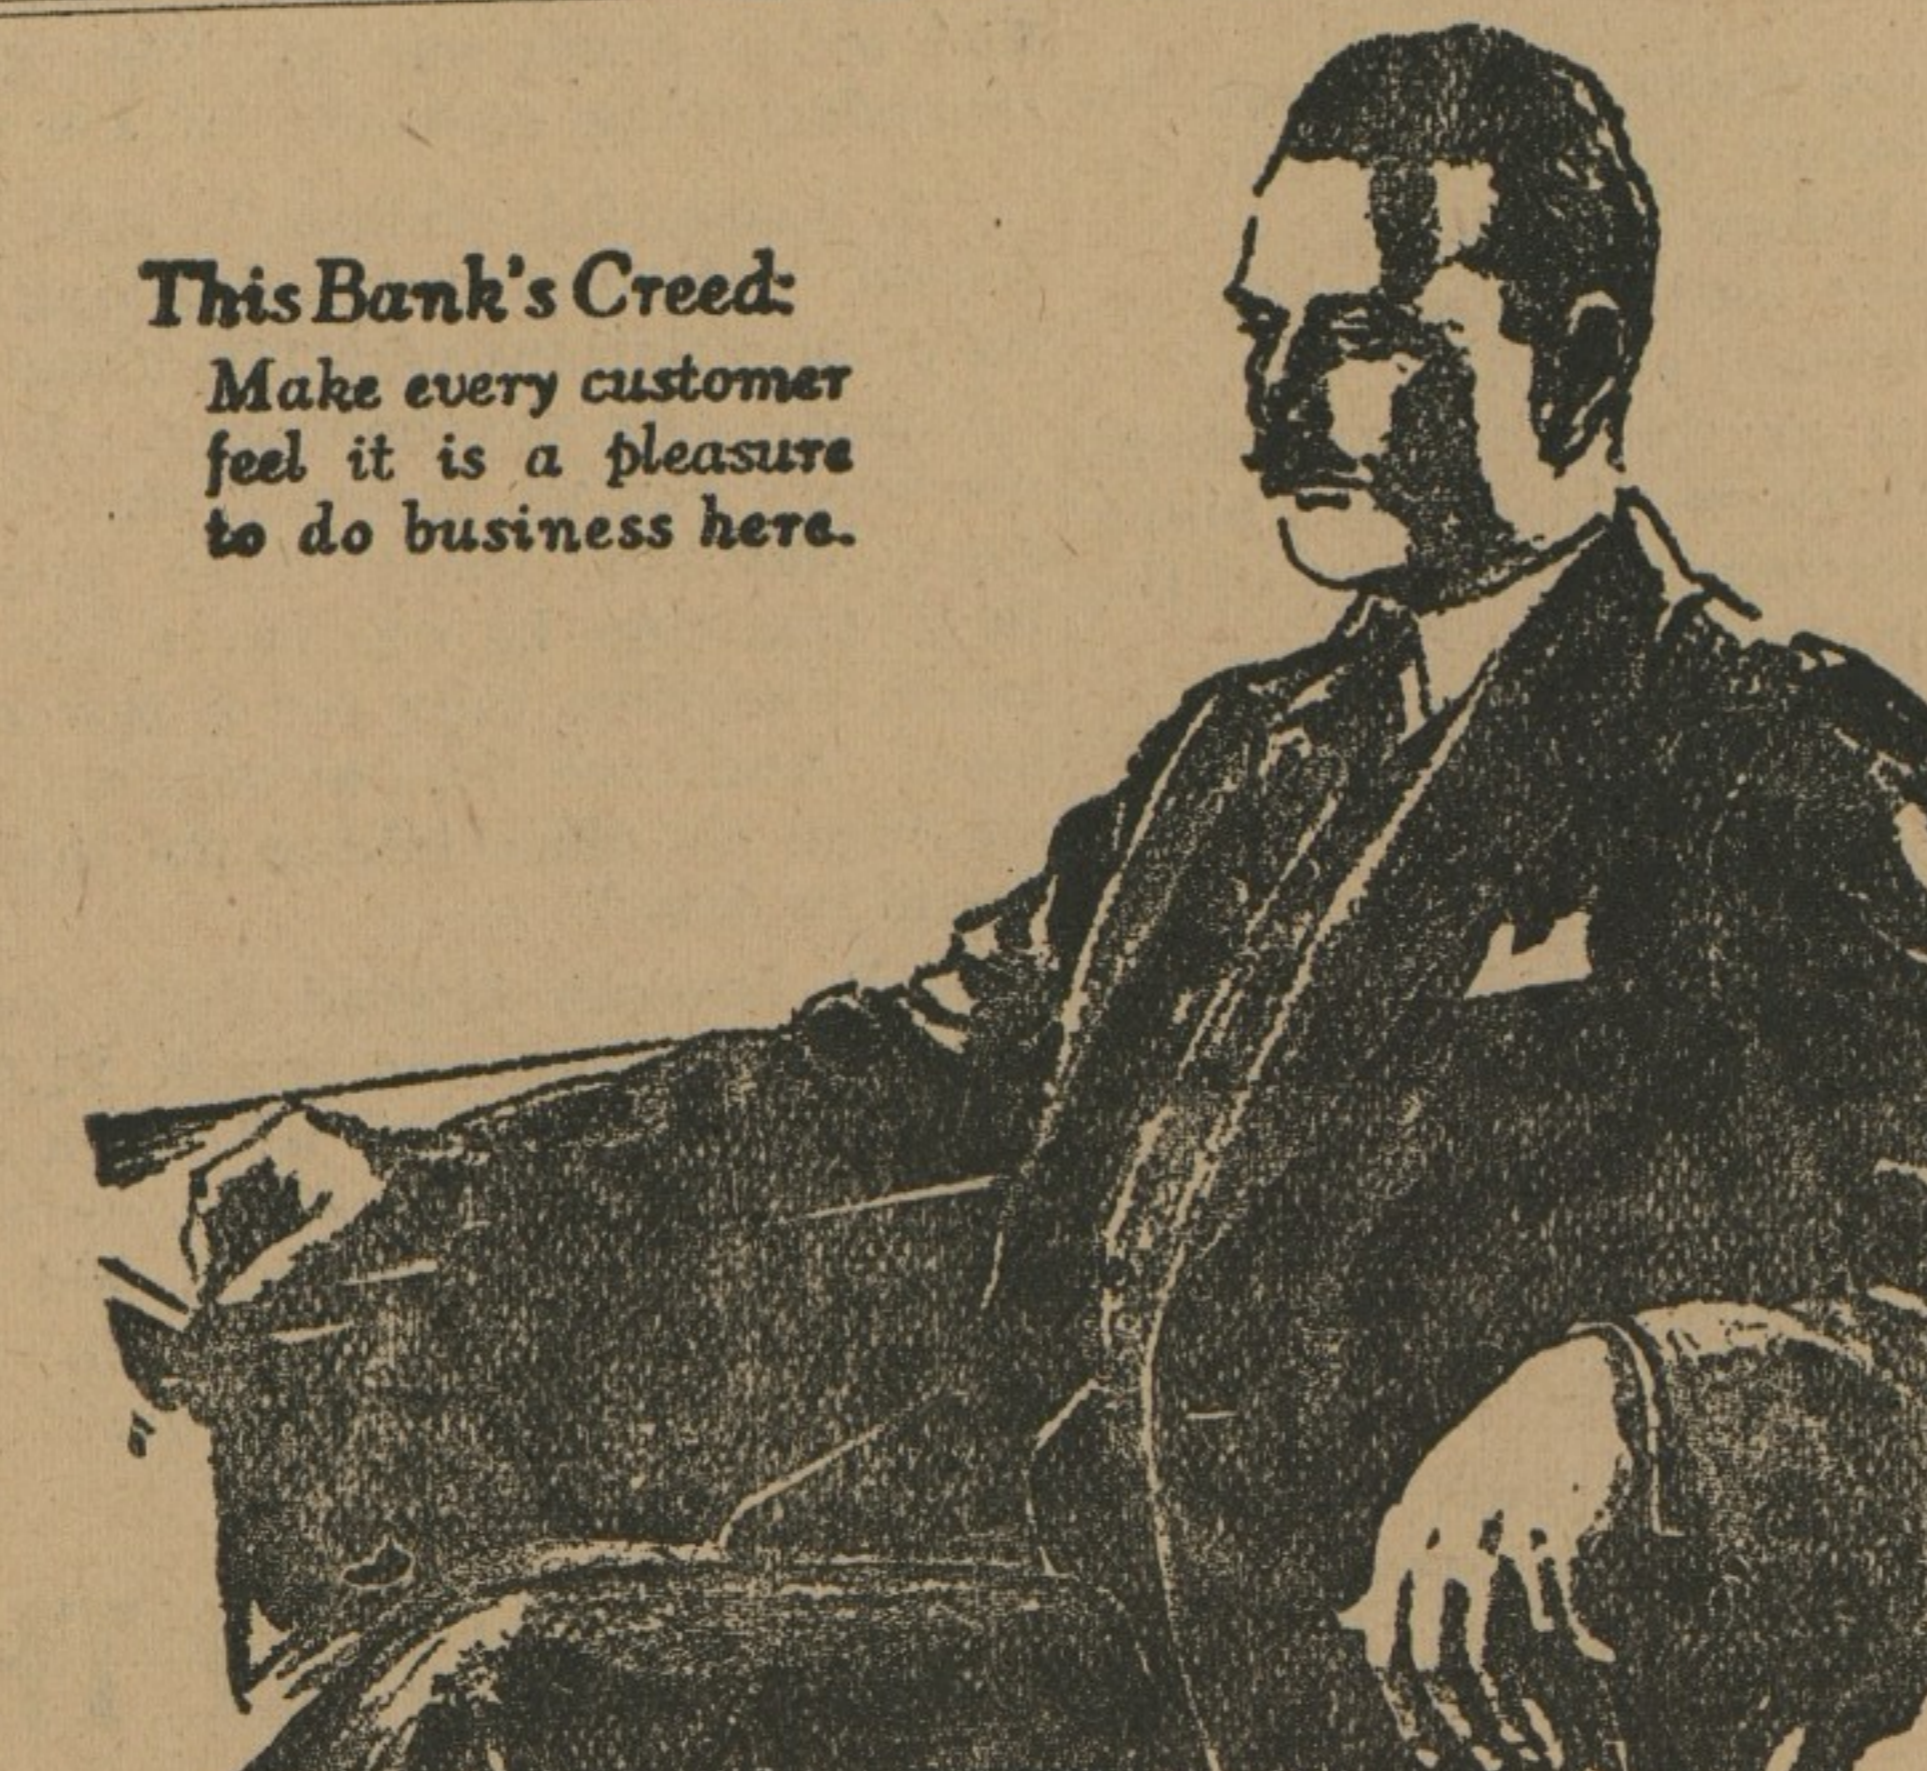

Paramount presents WILLIAM POWELL JAMES HALL LOUISE BROOKS and JEAN ARTHUR in "THE CANARY MURDER CASE" One of the most baffling and surprising stories ever written, and you see the tense, gripping drama.

KENNEDYVILLE

Mr. W. A. Price who has been quite ill in the South returned to his home at Betterton on Sunday. Mr. W. T. Jewell and Mr. R. R. Hill met Mr. Price and Mrs. Stark at Wilmington, in a large car, and brought him on to his home, where relatives had the home opened and comfortable fires burning.

THINKING BUSINESS MEN

realizing the value and importance of the RIGHT banking connection, are more and more being attracted to this strong bank. The Citizens Bank Chestertown Maryland

This Bank's Creed: Make every customer feel that it is a pleasure to do business here.

STILL POND

Mrs. Ella Pennington, is spending some time in Baltimore. Miss Henrietta Matthews spent the past week end at her home here. Mr. John Boulden entertained her Sunday School Class to dinner at her home on Sunday.

MILLINGTON

Mr. and Mrs. Jessie Slaughter and daughter, Miss Margaret, and Mr. and Mrs. Millard Slaughter, of Elkton, Md., spent Sunday with friends and relatives in town. Mr. Millard Porter, of Wilmington, Del., spent the week end with his mother, Mrs. Eva Marvel.

PRICE REDUCED

Floor Coverings! Felt Base Regular Value 50c sq. yd NOW 25c sq. yd Felt Base Regular Value 60c " " NOW 45c " Felt Base Regular Value 75c " " NOW 50c " Printed Linoleum " " $1.00 " " NOW 75c " 9x12 RUGS NOW $6.75 Large Selection of AXMINSTER RUGS Bedroom Suites Beautiful 4 piece Suites, Walnut Finish Priced $117.00 Up. JOHN BARTLEY Phone 76 Chestertown, Maryland

SPRINGTIME DEMANDS NEW CLOTHES

We have put forth every effort to have just what our friends and customers might desire. For the Spring season we are showing dresses of great value and newest mode in three prices: $6.50 $10.75 $15.75 And Coats, in style and cloth to meet everyone's need and taste, at prices ranging from $10.50 to $37.50 HARRY F. JEFFERSON "THE WOMAN'S SHOP"