

ROCK HALL

Thank Heaven that when zero weather strikes Maryland it doesn't make a long visitation. A couple of mornings the mercury registered 6 degrees above zero here at Rock Hall.

Presumably Aberdeen guns shook and rocked our dwellings, their contents and inhabitants Monday.

There were lots of bright eyes and smiles here on St. Valentine's Day. With Lincoln's birthday a thing of the past we will honor Washington next Saturday.

Mayor Adolph Keller has received notice from Warren T. Hannum, Lieut. Col. Corps of Engineers, District Engineer, that the application from the Kent County Commissioners to erect an L shaped pier and timber pier 50 feet long, 48 feet outer end and 20 feet at the shore end on public land at Rock Hall will be open until the 12th instant if any one believes it will unreasonably interfere with navigation and will give the beneficial to such opinion.

Judge Henry Thompson is afflicted with rheumatism.

Mrs. James Durling is under the weather with a cold.

Rev. P. C. MacSorley's sudden death at Middletown was quite a shock to the older members of the M. E. Church here where he was stationed when a young man.

Mr. Winfield Wilson came from Washington one day last week, accompanying the body of Howard Brooks, a colored man of this place who has been a house servant for years of Mr. Wilson's mother, Mrs. Thomas Wilson, who for several summers has conducted a boarding house at Gratitude near here.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jude find have word that their son, Mr. Allan Jude, who has been confined in a hospital at Takoma Park for five weeks with scarlet fever, has now been released and returned to his boarding house.

There are many expressions of sadness and regret here at the news that Samuel, familiarly known as Uel Wilson, died Monday of pneumonia, at St. Agnes Hospital in Baltimore.

Uel is a son of Mr. and Mrs. B. Neal Wilson and spent most of his life here until about a year ago when he began studying nursing at St. Agnes.

Mr. Francis Willson from Linwood, Pa., spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. Bennett of Baltimore. Our young visitor has for some time been employed in laboratory work with the du Pont Company in New Jersey.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Elwood Burgess, their son, Mr. Randolph Burgess, Mrs. William Francis and daughter, June Francis, motored to Baltimore Saturday and back in the evening. It was a chilling experience.

Miss Blanche Henderson, of Howard County, is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Marion Miller.

Mr. and Mrs. K. DeVon Johnson spent from Saturday afternoon to Sunday as guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Davis, returning by motor to Lancaster, Pa.

Mrs. Alice Hadaway, who has been sick from paralysis for six weeks at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Thompson, does not seem to improve. She was visited Monday by her sons, Messrs. Webster and John Hadaway, from Chestertown.

Mrs. Thomas Hogans is spending some time in Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. Noble Jones and little Nelda, from Chestertown, were guests Monday evening of Mrs. Jones' mother, Mrs. David E. Joyner and Mr. Joyner. Mr. Jones showed moving pictures in the K. of P. Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kendall and Mrs. Oliver Kendall visited Centerville Monday evening where they went to see Mr. and Mrs. John Pinder and the elder Mrs. Kendall's mother, Mrs. William Dadds, at the home of her son, Mr. James Dadds.

Mrs. Thomas Kendall is reported as doing finely after an operation at a Baltimore hospital but may not be at home for another week or two.

Carl, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Orr, attempting to crank a car Sunday afternoon, had his right arm broken when the machine kicked.

Rock Hall is quite indignant at the treatment accorded Orville Davis who, with a friend Thomas Farmer, left Fort Eustis, Va., where they are privates in Battery A 51st Coast Artillery, in a borrowed car for a visit to Mr. Davis' parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Davis, on a two and half days leave of absence. They left Fort Eustis at 4:30 Monday and arrived here at 6 a. m. Tuesday. That evening a telegram was received by Sheriff Hadaway in Chestertown from Corp. Mike Furin, owner of the car, that the two young men had taken the car without permission. State Roads Officer Storm came to Rock Hall and took the two men to Chestertown where they were held at the jail for forty-eight hours when Corp. Furin reached Chestertown via Tolchester Thursday evening and there acknowledged before the Sheriff and State's Attorney Collins that he had loaned the car. All three at once left for the fort to arrive there within the extended time, Friday, which had been granted by Capt. Walsh of their brigade. Letters and telegrams from the military authorities at Camp Eustis say there has not at any time been any complaint lodged against Privates Davis and Farmer but Capt. Day of the Military Police promises to make a very thorough investigation of Corp. Furin's case. That was certainly a very poor holiday, the first since November and that spent undeservedly in jail, and a very upset family it created here.

Mr. Leonard Grant, of Wilmington is on a visit with his parents, Rev. and Mrs. W. S. Grant.

Miss Charlotte Hubbard and a friend, Miss Kynes, student nurses from St. Agnes Hospital, spent Sunday with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tilgham Hubbard.

Elder U. D. Pickard, of the S. D. A. Church, arrived at this home in Catonsville Monday from Florida and is now here for a couple of days attending to church affairs. He is a guest of Capt. and Mrs. William Witt.

Evening of St. Valentine's Day Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jacquette gave a party in honor of the sixteenth birthday of their daughter, Miss Edna, who received many pretty presents from those present and entertained them with games, vocal and instrumental music and served refreshments. Among the guests were noted the Misses Jean Leary, Jane Hatcher, Christine Moffett, Thelma Chairs, Katherine Shirley, Edna Shirley, Elizabeth Francis, Marie Jacob, Doris Downey, Ellen Jones, Blanche Coleman, Rose Ella Leaveron, Alice Thompson, Helen Warner, Bessie Warner, Dorothy Glenn; Messrs.
