County News. FIFTH DISTRICT REGISTRATION

FAIRLEE NOTES.

I would just like to know why it is that Democratic politicians are constantly reminding the negro man of mixed Reaver, John T., Rock Hall Beaver, John T., Rock Hall schools, &c. It really seems to be an issue in the present campaign. For 30 Bedwell, John, near St. Paul's Church years this question has been agitated and Camp, Wm., has been effective only with the imbecile Craner, Moses, Price's Mill Connor, Thomas A., Popular Neck and "the monomaniacs of earth. The Coleman, Wm. R., Graytown negro man prefers to be to himself and Crew, Milton, near Lankford Crouch, John W.. Pine Neck wouldn't send his children to a white schools if he could. I am surprised at any party, and especially the Demo-Coleman, Stonewall J., Rock Hall Clayton, William W., Crouch, Richard P., Pine Neck Coleman, Howard, Crouch, Alfred S., Broad Neck cratic fraternity for constantly keeping Davis, Edward, Rock Hall Davis.
