The ordinance was referred to the committee on health, and it is anticipated the "regulars" and homeopathics will lock horns when the committee meets to consider the proposed ordinance. The ordinance contains a long string of whereases, alleging that vaccination is not a preventive of small-pox, that it inoculates individuals with the toxine of tuberculosis, erysipelas and other diseases, that compulsory vaccina- ON GOOD REAL ESTATE in Kent county. tion is an infringement on the rights of

GALENA BRIEFS.

The revival meetings held in the large tent on the back street closed last week after a successful season of about three weeks. There were added to the church from these meetings some forty-five persons. It must be very gratifying to Mr. Fletcher to have so many converted. Some of us thought it strange that the Methodists would go to the expense of they had a beautiful church in the town. But those not spiritually inclined would not attend the church, but from curiosity would attend the tent meetings. Mrs. S. H. Todd, who was brought to the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Parr, on the 21st very ill, having been confined to her bed at her home near Tolchester for some three weeks with a fever, is convalescent and is now able to sit up some.

The Champion of Bolters.

From the Columbus (Ohio) Press. As a bolter, John M. Palmer, the talkative old man who was nominated at Indianapolis by the bolting Democrats, has quite a record. He bolted the Democratic party 40 years ago because it did not honor him over a better man. As a Republican, he bolted the Republican Senatorial caucus which nominated Lincoln for United States Senator from Illinois. He bolted the Union Army in front of Atlanta when a smell of powder filled the air. He bolted the nomination of Grant in 1872, and came over again to the Democrats. He has dispatch dated Chicago, Sept. 22, now bolted again and gone over to the says: The most important measure pre- Republicans. He may bolt his own

Looker-on Stood With Hands on Hips and Said:

Studying Hard'

TOTES, ITS BY HARD STUDY HE "GETS THERE." When you see SMITH in his office reading the newspapers of this Great North America, you can rest assured that he is looking for BARGAINS. The papers cry for CASH BUYERS, and there are so few that SMITH don't have any trouble getting BARGAINS, and the best of it is SMITH don't keep it all himself, he will sell other Merchants on a close profit, and then all can get a part of it.

No longer ago than Tuesday did he get 5,000 Pounds of Fine Granulated Sugar, and he offers to any one who comes with the CASH at $4.50 for 100 pounds, and to show you that he means to divide up with the LITTLE FISH he offers 10½ pounds for 50c., and perchance you have a spare dollar on the hip, then you get 21 pounds, strongly wrapped and packed in a Double Handle Basket, so there will be no danger of losing any of it. All for $1.00.

And so it goes. Just think of it. Last week the Rev. L. E. Toulson, of Rock Hall charge, paid SMITH for 1,200 Five Cent Boxes of Peanuts, and he's got more of them yet. Stop in and ask Charles for one of them. No longer ago than last Friday he bought 4,200 Lemons, and is selling them at 8 cents a dozen, and there's no wonder he sells goods. Over there in the corner was a lot of Three-string Brooms, and he was selling them at 10 cents. In came a lady and planked down 15 cents and carried away 2 pounds of Country Lard.

That man from Queen Anne's, when he was told the price of Salt Meat, went clean down to the latter extremity of his pocket, and took $1.08 worth—21½ pounds—and SMITH says, "Who is next?" Frazier Russell came up and demanded his turn, and says, "I want 1 cent's worth of Animal Kingdom Nicnacs." He was waited on and given a bag of them. I asked myself, "How does this fellow do it?" and I looked around and saw the Kent News, it was full of "Chestertown's Cash Buyer and Seller," and then I understood it all.

I started out and in came a gentleman who said, "I'll take a Box of Principe Cigars for 50 cents," and sure he got them. I stood amazed, and made up my mind to stay till after the papers came in, so I took a seat and listened. "Say, Mr. Mac., give me half pound Chipped Beef," and in a jiffy it was ready. Johnny, 3 bars Octagon Soap. Down went the Soap, handed Johnny 15 cents. Here, the soap is only 10 cents; 5 cents went back to the purchaser. Up came the express wagon and out rolled 3 barrels of Vienna Bread and Buns, and you would have been astonished at the number of people waiting for these goods, but the lady who all call Aunt Kate soon waited on them.

Up drove the mail wagon with Baltimore papers and I got one and SMITH was hopping around, so I asked him if he ever got tired? He answered, seldom, and I, being an old merchant, asked him how it was that he was always so busy, and he remarked that it was simply the result of Daily Study, Cash Basis, Economy, Courtesy to customers, &c. His dinner bell rang, and after inviting me to go in with him, we parted, and I am convinced that he has the correct idea of "How To Do Business," and no one will do themselves justice who do not call on

The repealing ordinance was introduced by Alderman Foster at the request, he says, of a delegation of doctors who called on him the other day. He said he lide at the said he lide at the
