WEDDING BELLS.

NEWNAM—HUGHES.

On Wednesday morning, January 1st, at 10 o'clock at the home of the bride, Miss Henrietta Knapp Hughes, of Rock Hall, became the wife of Mr. William Pieron Newnam, of Chestertown. The ceremony was performed by Rev. C. Morgan Compher, pastor of Wesley Chapel M. P. Church. Owing to the recent death of the bride's father, the wedding was a quiet one, only the immediate relatives being present. The bride was beautifully attired in white silk trimmed with lace. The happy pair left at once on their wedding trip when upon returning they will make their future home in Chestertown, Washington avenue. The groom is efficient superintendent of the Sewing Machine Company, of which bride is the daughter of the late Hughes.

KNIGHT—FORD.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Ford, in Quaker Neck, was prettily decorated Thursday in honor of the wedding of their daughter Miss Ford, to William O'Brien Knight, Mrs. Joanna Knight, now of Washington, D. C. The ceremony was performed by Rev. S. F. Hilyard, of St. Paul's, while the wedding march was played by Miss Stella [illegible].
