Farewell, Farewell my Husband dear We spent one sad and lonely year, You left me with an aching heart That sad morning you and I did part.

Torn from the heart that loved him We miss you papa, Oh, so much, You whom we loved so well.

How much we dearly loved you No one but God can tell. LITTLE SON VERNON One year has passed but still I miss him Friends may think the wound is healed But little they know of the sorrow That lies within my heart concealed

Farewell dear son, but not forever For there will be a glorious dawn. I hope we will meet to part no never, The depths of my sorry no tongue can tell At the loss of the one I love so well, While he lies in peaceful sleep

SEMI-SUMMER REDUCTION

S THE Summer is fast passing away and finds us with a few "odds and ends" in the various lines yet on hand which we will close out at a Great Reduction to rid our shelves in order to make room for the vast array of Fall Goods, which will soon begin to arrive. While the price on these "odds and ends" on exceptionally low. They are in no wise damaged or inferior, but genuine, first-class stock and as represented or money cheerfully refunded. We desire to call especial attention to the fact that the "Ladies Store" is the only Dry Goods and Notion House in the town that closes at 7 P. M. during July and August and hope the public will appreciate this and call during the day and secure some of the rare bargains offered below.

Our Millinery At Half-Price

Our Millinery Parlors must be cleared AT ONCE. We need the room, we need the money. There are some few Choice Pattern Hats, Sailor, Trimmed and Untrimmed Hats; Flowers, Ribbons, etc., here which must go. We say 50 cents on the dollar takes them; yet purses can find real bargains. Don't wait but come, inspect, but meditate not for they will not last long, the price will surely take them away.

Muslins: Muslins

We have recently purchased a job lot of Muslin Remnants—from one to ten yards to the piece. Regular price 8c, 10c and 12½c per yard, we offer them while they last at 7½ cents.

White Goods

We have just finished our largest season on WHITE GOODS and the cause for the amount of business has been the quality of the line which has been as large and as well selected as any seen in the City.

We are now ready to close out the ends and remnants at a great sacrafice
