JUST A FEW WORDS ABOUT

American Fence

It is the fence that for the past ten years has protected the crops and stock of this country. It is the fence that is purchased and used by nine-tenths of the farmers to-day, and it will remain the choice of every careful thinking man who desires protection now and for the future in a fence that "actually fences."

HOW IS YOUR

EYE-SIGHT?

Being encouraged by the citizens of Chestertown that an Eye Sight Specialist would be essential for the welfare of the town, I HAVE DECIDED TO OPEN AN OFFICE for my friends and patrons. I have rented the store next door to Mr. Hope H. Barroll's office where I will await your patronage. I use the latest and best methods for testing eyes. Use no dope that injures the eyes. I straighten cross eyes without the use of knife or drugs. I will not tell you to get glasses when I find you cannot be benefitted by them. Call at my office and I will examine your eyes FREE OF CHARGE.
Respectfully,
DR. DAVID BLOCK.

WEDDING NOTES.

CARTER—RASH.

Miss Mabrey C. Rash, daughter of Mr. B. F. Rash, of Worton, and Mr. W. Howard Carter, of Wilmington, were married Sunday April 11, 1909, in Wilmington.

LEARY—PARSONS.

The wedding of Mr. George Ellsworth Leary, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer E. Leary, of Rock Hall, and Miss Alice E. Parsons, the attractive daughter of the late Justice Thomas Parsons, took place Saturday evening at Wesley Chapel parsonage, Rev. C. A. Compher officiating. After the ceremony they went to the beautiful home of Miss Mamie Wickes to spend a few days.

LOCKWOOD—GREEN.

The residence of Mrs. George W. Lockwood, on Cass Street, Middletown, was the scene of a pretty wedding on Tuesday evening last at 6.30 o'clock, when Miss Julia Elizabeth Morton Lockwood was given in marriage to Mr. John Cochran Green, both young people of Middletown. The ceremony was performed by Bishop Monoghan, of Wilmington, assisted by Rev. C. A. Crowley, of St. Joseph's Church. The marriage took place under a large suspended floral horse shoe with lighted waxen candles and blossoms as a pretty background. The house decorations were apple blossoms, potted blooms, plants and ferns. Only immediate relatives and a few close friends of the family, forty in all, witnessed the ceremony. The wedding march was played by Mrs. John B. Cooke, of Philadelphia, accompanied by Elliott's Orchestra, of Wilmington. The young couple entered the parlor together unattended, the bride's gown was of white satin, entrain, tulle veil, and carried a large bouquet of bride roses, lilies of the valley and ferns.

The number of presents was about 300 and they were truly beautiful and valuable. It was a notable event, both families being prominent and widely known throughout the State, and the young people both being popular.

From eight until ten o'clock, one of the largest, if not the largest, wedding reception ever known in Middletown was held, the house being packed with the several hundred guests. The receiving party consisted of Mrs. George W. Lockwood, mother of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. John Cochran Green, the bride and groom; Mrs. William Green, mother of the groom; Miss Eliza Green, sister of the groom; Mrs. Dorsey W. Lewis, Miss Emma Lusby, of Cecilton; Misses Susie Foard and Justine Peverley.

TOPPING—BROOKES.

A quiet wedding took place in the parlor of the Rennert Hotel, Baltimore, at noon last Thursday, when Mr. Harvey E. Topping and Miss Daisy Brookes, of West Point, Va., were married by Rev. W. R. Russell, pastor of Waverly Baptist Church. The couple, accompanied by Mrs. William H. Bell, Mrs. R. C. Cordon, Miss Lulu Brookes and Mr. E. Boswell Clopton, arrived in the morning on the steamer Charlotte, of the Chesapeake Line.

Mr. Topping is cashier of the L. E. Munford Banking Company, and Miss Brookes is the daughter of Mrs. William Gregory Brookes. Mr. Clopton was best man, and Miss Lulu Brookes was maid of honor.

A wedding breakfast was served, after which Mr. and Mrs. Topping left for Chestertown, arriving here on Saturday, where they were the guests of the groom's brother, Prof. T. H. Topping, at his new home at the mill.

DURDING—ELMHORST.

The marriage of Mr. Maurice N Durding, of Rock Hall, and Miss Lillian E. Elmhorst, daughter of Mrs. Margaret Elmhorst, took place Wednesday evening at the home of the bride, 725 Columbia avenue, Baltimore. The ceremony was performed by Rev. G. W. Miller, pastor of the Second English Lutheran Church. The wedding march was played by Miss Margaret Hammer. The bride was attended by her sister, Mrs. Rosalie M. Elmhorst, and the groom by his brother, Mr. William Durding, Jr.

Those present were:

GIBSON—CRABBE.

A wedding of unusual interest to Baltimore and Centreville (Md.) society took place Wednesday morning at ten o'clock, when Miss Lucy Virginia Crabbe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence E. Crabbe, 813 Hamilton Terrace, Baltimore, was married to Col. Woolman Hopper Gibson, of Centreville. Rev. Dr. John Gardner Murray performed the ceremony, assisted by Rev. Walter Stehl, of Centreville, at St. Michael and All Angels' Protestant Episcopal Church. The church was beautifully decorated with palms and lilies, and the wedding march from "Lohengrin" was played as the bridal party entered the church. The bride entered the church on the arm of her father, who gave her in marriage, and was met at the chancel by the groom, accompanied by Mr. Walter T. Wright as best man. The ushers were Messrs. Charles Cox Hopper, J. Milton Lyell, Edwin Warfield, Jr., and Madison Bordley, of Centreville.

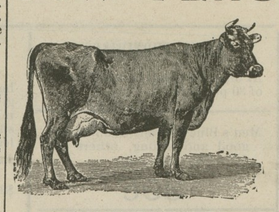
The bride wore a handsome going-away gown of burnt rose cloth, with a hat trimmed with plumes, and carried a boquet of pink sweet peas. Her ornament was a handsome broochpin, given her by the groom. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Clara Margaret Crabbe, as maid of honor, who wore a costume of pale blue silk, made Empire, with a black picture hat, and carried a boquet of white sweet peas. There was no reception, and immediately after the ceremony Colonel and Mrs. Gibson left for a trip North. They will reside in Centreville, where Col. Gibson has a beautiful home. He is prominent in politics and is one of the representative residents of Centreville.

The presents received were unusually handsome, and included cut glass, silverware, china, antiques and paintings.

Mr. J. Raymond Hersch and Miss Bertha E. Walbert, of Rock Hall, have been granted a marriage license.

BOLGIANO'S RECLEANED

COW PEAS



WILL MAKE YOU RICH.

Sow them for hay crops—for forage crops after grain crops—on vacant land. Put Cow Peas in every available piece of land you have. They will wonderfully increase the value and productiveness of your entire farm. We strongly recommend the sowing of Mixed Cow Peas. They are composed of Blacks, Whip-poor-wills, Clays and Ect. The upright growing varieties will hold up the vining varieties and will produce much better crops of vines and larger amount of forage.
