CHESTERTOWN NOTES.

Emmanuel M. E. Church South will observe Sunday as Rally Day in the Sunday School at 9.30 and the preaching service at 10.30. All former scholars and members are invited to attend, as well as all who are now members of the Sunday School and church. A cordial invitation is also extended to others. A service of the same character will be held in Trinity, Millington, at 2 p. m. and 3.

Dr. Dulaney delivered two excellent sermons in Emmanuel last Sunday and preached at the evening services of Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday nights.

Mr. Harry Hamilton and brother have finished their work on the church and parsonage and returned to their home in Georgetown. They are mechanics who need not be ashamed of their work.

Miss Esther Withnans died Friday morning after an illness of two weeks. The family has the sympathy of the whole community.

Miss Ada Nowland is visiting Miss Jessie Rollison this week.

Mr. Benjamin Benton was very severely hurt by being thrown from a horse and was unconscious for some time. He is now able to be out although still nursing his bruises.

Mrs. Geo. Jones has been confined to her home for nearly two weeks with rheumatism. Her many friends will be glad to see her out again.

Dr. and Mrs. Cowman sang a very beautiful duet at Emmanuel last Sunday morning.

Mrs. Bennett left for Wilmington where she expects to remain during the winter.

Mrs. Jarman has had two buildings removed from the village. It would be a good thing for the place to build a good tenement house or two in the village. They would doubtless bring from six to ten per cent. on the money invested.

Mr. John Martin is to move out to "number ten." The neighbors about him regret that he is to leave the community.

League service in Trinity and Emmanuel Sunday night at 7.30. Preaching in Emmanuel at 8.

Messrs. Guy and Clifton Owens have returned to their studies at the Wilmington Conference Academy, Dover.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred McDorman, who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Crew, have returned to their home in Mt. Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. Fountain Crew spent several days last week with Baltimore friends.

Mr. and Mrs. John Leigh, of Baltimore, have been the guests of Mr. Leigh's mother, Mrs. Mary Ann Leigh, of Dover.

Mr. J. A. Bowman is laying the foundation for a pretty house on Bayside Land.

If the wind is blowing in the right direction for Betterton our resort will be a second Luna Park before another season opens. We trust it will do more than blow.

Mrs. Harry Jewell, of Lynch, is visiting Mrs. Daniel Jewell at Jewell Cottage.

SASSAFRAS ITEMS. Mrs. L. H. Dreka and daughter, Miss Alice, were guests of John B. Price and family, near Middletown, on Friday.

L. A. Dreka is spending some time in Baltimore.

Harry Tarbuton, of Wilmington, spent Sunday with his parents, J. F. Tarbuton and wife near town.

Mrs. Sarah Gunkle and daughter, Mrs. J. H. Price, of Warwick, spent Friday with J. F. Ernest and wife.

Douglas Ernest and Clayton Johnson, of Washington College, Chestertown, spent Saturday and Sunday with their parents in and near town.

Mrs. M. Rosin and daughter, Miss Lillian, have returned to their home in Wilmington after spending two weeks with Henry Rosin and wife.

Mrs. Williamson, of Philadelphia, returned home on Saturday, after spending some time with her daughter, Mrs. Fletcher Caulk, near town.

Mrs. Rowden Cank and two children have returned home after spending a few days of the past week with her parents, J. A. Toulson and wife, near Wilmington.

For Fruit and Vegetable Show.—The Peninsula Horticultural Society has closed a deal with Manager L. Herman Meredith, of the Centreville Opera House, to have a large exhibit of fruit and vegetables in the assembly room January 11, 12 and 13. Farmers are arranging the exhibits. S. H. Derby, of Woodside; F. C. Bancroft, of Wyoming; and F. M. Soper, of Magnolia, well-known expert apple-growers of Delaware, will exhibit some of their choice fruit.

"The suffrage amendment will not disfranchise any white voter in the State, native or foreign born."

Asbury M. E. Church, Millington.—Class meeting 9.30, leader Rev. C. W. Moore; preaching at 10.30 by pastor; Sunday School at 2. Epworth League at 6.45; preaching at 7.30 by Rev. J. A. Arters. Massey—Class meeting at 9.30; Preaching at 10.30 by Rev. J. A. Arters; Sunday School Rally at 2. Preaching at 7.30 by pastor.

Bids were opened at Dover Monday for the construction of the new church building for The People's church, Dover, and there was some spirited bidding. The contract was finally awarded to Frank P. Collins, of Dover, upon his bid of $10,700. Work will begin at once on the new site owned by the church corporation on South Bradford street in the heart of the residence section. The building will be of brick with concrete trimmings, and will be built to comfortable quarters for 400 persons beside the choir and orchestra, which will occupy a spacious platform fifteen by forty feet.

Mr. Geo. French has awarded the contract of building his new home on Mill street to Messrs. Harry and Foster Cannon, of Chestertown.
