RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT

In the death of the late Robert R. Cooper, the Rev. and Mrs. A. B. Parish feel that they have met with a loss, the greatness of which they are unable to express in words. His regular attendance upon the services of the church, quiet but deep interest in all that went on, and above all his readiness and dignity in the performance of his duty as our Junior Warden, were object lessons to one and all of us.

There is not a member of our congregation who will not sadly miss him in our Sunday morning gatherings. This fair promise of a man of high principles and dignity of carriage has been suddenly blighted in its bud. Why, no infinite mind can explain. We fall back upon our faith in the wisdom and love of the Infinite.

Resolved, That in expressing our deepest sympathy with the parents and sisters in the supernaturally untimely ending of their dear son and brother, we are expressing also our own irreparable loss. Resolved, That a copy of these proceedings of our Vestry be sent to the family, and that they be placed in the hands of the bereaved.

REV. S. R. HEPPELURN, J. D. P. A. M. BROTHERS, Secretaries for the Vestry.

MEMORIAM

In sad but loving remembrance of our dear husband and father, George W. Davis, who left us nine years ago July 29th, 1914.

Yes, I am lonely and weary, and my troubles are many, that the world should seem so dreary, but death hath robbed me of my pride, and tears have washed away my grief. For life has changed and joy has fled, as I walk alone must needs I grieve, as I walk alone must needs I grieve, as I walk alone must needs I grieve, as I walk alone must needs I grieve.

Since that sad day, when our dear father, he was always patient, loving and kind, what a beautiful memory To leave behind.

His Loving Wife and Children.

The Luxury of A Meal in A Dining Car

Good food, well cooked and served in an attractive manner are recognized features of Pennsylvania Railroad's Dining Car Service.

$1.00—ONE DOLLAR MEALS—$1.00

One dollar will buy a lunch or a dinner on a Pennsylvania Railroad dining car.

Four "special combinations" are provided on each luncheon and dinner menu in addition to the usual a la carte features. Over one hundred different combinations are used and changes are made every week in order to afford a variety of choice. Each "special combination" consists of meat, fowl or fish, two vegetables, rolls and coffee, tea or milk. The portions are ample for one person and are served on separate dishes the same as a la carte orders.

This service not only meets the desires and conveniences of railroad travelers, but also effects a reduction in dining-car prices notwithstanding the continuing high cost of dining-car service.

Persons interested in the cost of serving meals in dining cars should read the pamphlet "Food at 50 Miles an Hour Costs"—reprinted from The Nation's Business. Copies of this pamphlet may be had, free of cost, by writing to D. N. Bell, Passenger Traffic Manager, Broad Street Station, Philadelphia.
