Winding

The Remainder of my Spring and they are being put in repair. Summer Line of

I have appreciated your liberal town, is visiting relatives in this village.

The Misses Zenker, of Philadelphia, are visiting their grand-parents opposite patronage with me this season, Mrs. Wm. Maslin is ill at her home, at Fairlee landing. and it is a great pleasure to know here to start, soon, for the gold fields, that those who availed them- but a good many have gone right into the study of Geography in order to locate the developing territory. selves of the opportunity offered had a good horse to fall down the bank them, are money in pocket. Now, which resulted in its death.

Mrs. Ada Duyer's little child has been I am with you for about another month, during which time I shall quite sick, as has also Lionel, youngest child of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Keyser.

Mr. Hyson Dill, we hear, has rented Mr. Sewell's farm, Humphreys Point, for 1898, and Mr. Vincent Lee to take offer far greater inducements in Not so many summer boarders around further appreciation of the patronage extended me in the past sixteen or seventeen years. Cost no backened the farmers with their threshconsideration. My one object is thresh, while others have stacked, but because of the long continued rains to dispose of the remaining stock the shock. Some farmers are afraid thousands of bushels of wheat for them. of goods.

First comes the broken lots of Mr. Horace Seward and sisters, Mary and Mabel spent Sunday with friends of Mr. Horace Seward and sisters, Mary and Mabel spent Sunday with friends of Mr. Horace Seward and sisters, Mary and Mabel spent Sunday with friends of Mr. Horace Seward and sisters, Mary and Mabel spent Sunday with friends of Mr. Copper, the teacher last year of our public school, will not return. Mr. Copper of Seward and Men's and Youth's Suits, $3.25, in Millington.

Mrs. Dill, of Wilmington, is visiting her son, Mr. Willard Dill, the merchant. he will return as our teacher for another $4.37 and $5.00. Some of these Spry, of near Galena, have been spending a week with their aunt, Mrs. Elmer sick list for two or three weeks. are worth double the price, but Mrs. Crittendon spent Sunday and Monday with her mother, Mrs. Burris, near Smyrna.

They must go. Next, a line better assorted, and consist of Fancy

The proof of the health of the price of t big line of Men's Trowsers, excel- delphia are spending the summer with lent values, some all wool ones Sunday with friends near Masseys.

Miss Viola Moffitt is visiting her sisamong them, to go at 98c. More ter, Mrs. Myers. Some farmers have the distemper at $1.50, $1.87 and $2.00, worth Mr. Thomas Clements and daughter, Miss Nellie Lewis, of Richmond, Va., Maggie, and Miss Evelyn Brinsfield are paid a flying visit to her cousin, Miss twice what I ask for them.

All those Zinc Trunks
Paper Cover'd Trunks
With Tray, Worth

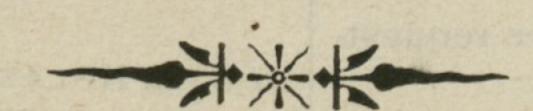

Heavy showers, accompanied by rattling hail and vivid lightning, visited this community last Friday, 23d inst. No damage done so far as we have heard. Rain is the order of the day, and the man who has laid up something for this heighborhood the past week.

This is the time of the year for visiting and it is undoubtedly on hand with Mrs. J. W. Corey has returned home of the shell below the past week.

TABLE SYRUP for 44 cents. We consider this heighborhood the past week.

This is the time of the year for visiting and it is undoubtedly on hand with Mrs. J. W. Corey has returned home of the year for visiting and it is undoubtedly on hand with J. W. Corey has returned home of the year for visiting and it is undoubtedly on hand with J. W. Corey has returned home of the year for visiting and it is undoubtedly on hand with J. W. Corey has returned home of the year for visiting and it is undoubtedly on hand with J. W. Corey has returned home of the year for visiting and it is undoubtedly on hand with J. W. Corey has returned home of the year for visiting and it is undoubtedly on hand with J. W. Corey has returned home of the year for visiting and it is undoubtedly on hand with J. W. Corey has returned home of the year for visiting and it is undoubtedly on hand with J. W. Corey has returned home of the year for visiting and it is undoubtedly on hand with J. W. Corey has returned home of the year for visiting and it is undoubtedly on hand with J. W. Corey has returned home of the year for visiting and it is undoubtedly on hand with J. W. Corey has returned home of the year for visiting and it is undoubtedly on hand with J. W. Corey has returned home of the year for visiting and it is undoubtedly on hand with J. W. Corey has returned home of the year for visiting and it is undoubtedly on hand with J. W. Corey has returned home of the year for visiting and it is undoubtedly on hand with J. W. Corey has returned home of the year for visiting and it is undoubtedly $3, are to go at $2. Tray, only $1.20.

Telescopes, all sizes to 24 inches, only 75c.

The remainder of those 50c.

Scotland's Cheviot Mountains struck up the touching song of "Annie Laurie" they all joined in, and, says the late Bayard Taylor, "they all sang Annie Laurie." So, when the talk turns to the indeeship they all sing James A Pearce.

The remainder of those 50c.

Scotland's Cheviot Mountains struck up the touching song of "Annie Laurie" where I was called to make an investigation of an insect that is doing serious damage to corn. The principal outbreak is upon the extensive farm of the sassafras river, where I was called to make an investigation of an insect that is doing serious damage to corn. The principal outbreak is upon the extensive farm of the sassafras river, where I was called to make an investigation of an insect that is doing serious damage to corn. The principal outbreak is upon the extensive farm of the sassafras river, where I was called to make an investigation of an insect that is doing serious damage to corn. The principal outbreak is upon the extensive farm of the sassafras river, where I was called to make an investigation of an insect that is doing serious damage to corn. The principal outbreak is upon the extensive farm of the sassafras river, where I was called to make an investigation of an insect that is doing serious damage to corn. been selling at 39c. will be run off judgeship they all sing James A. Pearce, who would wear his judicial robes un young at 39c. will be run off judgeship they all sing James A. Pearce, who would wear his judicial robes un25 acres of corn have been completely Is a full value article, sold 25 per cent. less than any other Yeast Powat 33c. In fact Everything that is Mrs. E. A. Crittenden and son, and Mrs. C. G. Carey returned home Months at Contract the surface of the ground. A large der. Our price 4c bottle, 7 for 25c. left will be sold at a Great Sacri- day from near Smyrna, where they had been on a visit to Mrs. Thos. Burris. fice.

Yours for Greater Bargains,

A. Friedman & Co., The Reliable Clothiers.

NOTICE—All persons indebted to us will kindly call and settle their accounts, either by cash or note, on or before August 15th, 1897. on page 5.

FAIRLEE NOTES.

surance Company, of Kent county, Mr. a change. A. M. Kendall has insured about seven- Mrs. John Joe Maslin, our Post-Misunthreshed wheat.

teacher, is spending her vacation North, and will be joined in a few days we will be for rent. learn by her sister, Miss Minnie.

Quite a number of visitors in town. Mrs. Heisler and daughter, Louise, of Balto., are visiting the Misses Bramble. Mrs. Owens and son, of Whitfield, are visiting Mrs. G. W. Bramble.

village church green on last Sunday evening. These services will be held during the warm weather, the lamps sheating the audience room making it very uncomfortable, begining at 7.30

Much sickness among the children. Some have been sadly afflicted and bereaved by the death of dear little ones. Mr. James Bramble, on Fairlee farm, place. raised 5,000 bushels of wheat and received 15 cents more per bushel than

Master Hiram K. Jones, of Chester-

Chesterville Items.

The long spell of wet weather has ing. Only a few have been able to The farmers are wearing long faces the greater part of the wheat is still in which have destroyed or damaged they will have a great deal of damaged They say it is the longest wet season wheat on account of the wet weather. Misses Minnie and Rachel Moffitt, of here with gasoline which works well.

Mrs. Hogan and daughter, of Phila- "Christ and the Samaritan Woman."

Mr. Pete Stevens and family spent on the sick list.

ner witnessed the game of baseball in Copper has been quite sick the past few your town last Monday.

Boston, is visiting Mrs. Thomas Jones. of her vacation with relatives at Lank-Miss Carry Benson, of Millington, is ford. Miss Estella Jarman.

man who has laid up something for that occasion must be pretty well out of Camp. provisions. The prospect of a further Miss Hattie Lewis, of Fairlee, is spendrise in wheat fondly hoped for by those ing a week with little Miss Blanche who have not sold, and blighting effects Lewis, of Buck Neck. of rain are much talked of.

Politics, of course, creep in, and this candidate's and the other's prospects are confidentially predicted. When the allied armies of Europe were encamped

Cornstalk Roser in Kent

Master Edwin Bennett is visiting his grand-father, Mr. Cooper, of near Mil-Ginger Snaps

Cornstalk Roser in Kent around Sebastapol during the Crimean war, the soldiers in their leisure moments would often chant their favorite

Mrs. E. G. King has almost recovered from her illness.

Pond, Messrs. Medders & Co., seem to the State need not have any very grave command success with their efforts. At fears from the pest next season.

Lankford Items.

As Surveyor for the Mutual Fire In- Our little village is undergoing quite teen thousand dollars worth of property tress, a very popular lady who has been a resident of our village for a number Farmers are very anxious about their of years, expects to remove to Chestertown, where she will reside with her The roads are washed very badly, but daughter. The P.O. will be removed to J. V. Kilbourn's, a popular merchant Miss Carrie J. Smyth, our school of this village. Mrs. Maslin's residence

> Mr. B. A. Bryan who has been visiting relatives and college chums in Baltimore has returned home.

Mrs. Wm. Gale and daughter, who have been visiting in the "city of monuments," have returned. Miss Emma Broughton, of Norfolk, Va., is visiting Mrs. Welch Crew.

Miss Gale started on Thursday July Lantern Globes almost free .

29 for an extended visit to Philadelphia, Battle Ax or Dundee Rolled Oats Pittsburg and other points of interest.

Mr. I. Freeman Gale and wife spent Enterprise Coffee

Mrs. I. F. Walbert has quite a number Mrs. W. T. Colescot and daughter, of Philadelphia, are visiting Mrs. Joseph

Miss Florence Haines who has been visiting Mrs. Thos. Skirven has returned to Philadelphia after spending a most delightful trip in "Maryland my Maryland."

Mr. Abe Gale is very ill with the typhoid pneumonia. A speedy recovery is the wish of his many friends. The farmers of this neighborhood have about finished threshing. Most of the shipments of last week brought 83 cents. Mr. I. F. Walbert received 85 cents, the highest on record. A colored man while ploughing for Mr. Richard Bryan had quite a runaway on Monday last, caused by the horses coming in contact with a bumble-bee's nest. One of the horses got away and ran about six miles, taking up at Mrs. A. Corey's. The horse received several severe cuts from the harness on it when it took its flight.

Mr. Al. Bramble, of Baltimore, spent Sunday with his mother. Miss Ada Skirven is visiting friends

Sassafras Items.

Melitota Items.

Miss Mollie Greenwood, of the Monumental city, is at present the guest of Mrs. M. Rash.

Fannie Lewis, this week. Messrs. Enoch King and Frank Cra The infant daughter of Mrs. Walter days, but is at this writing convalescent. Mr. John Jones, professor of music, of Miss Pansy Lecompt is spending part

Master Edwin Bennett is visiting his

Cornstalk Borer in Kent.

Prof W. G. Johnson, the State Ento- Mint Lozengers national songs, and when a soldier from mologist, says: "I have just returned amount of material was collected and the parent insect which produces the worm will be bred in my laboratory. am of the opinion that the trouble is Miss Ethel Solloway expects to resume caused by the so-called stalk borer. As her school at Pomona, where she has soon as the adult is reared and specific taught successfully for two years. She determination made, a remedy will be thinks the safest plan when you have suggested. The pest has been very comtrees to be inspected."

Cent Per Ounce That's All!

**→>> ****

Yes, TARBELL CHEESE 1 cent oz.

15 Cents Pound. 15 Cents Pound.

Miss Broughton and Mr. B. A. Bryan spent Monday with Miss Florence A. Six Foot Carriage Whip 10 cents Lantern Globes almost free 9 cents 6 cents Package 11 cents Pound last week with Mrs. Wm. Gale of this California Prunes, worth 10 cents . 5 cents Pound

Always Fresh, Mason's Cream and Soda Crackers. Tarbell Cheese 1 cent oz., 15 cents Pound

MM Rut Drices: MM

China Cream Pitcher, Gold Lined, Pink Tint	5 cents
Same in Plates,	5 cents
Gent's Whisk Broom in Leatherette Case	The state of the s
Smith's Family Flour nor Day	10 cents
Smith's Family Flour, per Bag.	15 cents
China Milk Pitcher, marked down	9 cents
Nutmegs, think how low, per ounce.	5 cents
Octagon Soap this week. 7 Bars	25 cents
Craves Laundry Starch, 7 Pounds for	25 cents
Both Lots for 48 cents.	-3
I Agate Wash Basin, I Padlock and Key and ½ 1b. Candy	25 cents
I Box Best Writing Paper at Smith's .
T Roy Good Writing Donor at Smith?	10 cents
Box Good Writing Paper at Smith's	5 cents
I Bottle Vasaline, I Box Insect Powder and I Box Tacks	10 cents
I Cob Pipe, Stem and Bag Tobacco.	5 cents
	HAME THE

Have You One?

A One-quart Mason's Fruit Jar, Top and Rubber, filled with ICE-CREAM TABLE SYRUP for TEN CENTS.

LOMBARDY CIGARS was $2.50 per box, today we offer you them Millington, spent Wednesday with their Mr. W. H. Spry took a trip to the sea- at $1.25 per box, 3 for 5 cents. Twenty-five Cent Style Ruble Pipe down to 5 cents. Greenback, Gold Bug, Fruits and Flowers, Fashion, Sensation, Kids or Wild Rose Smoking Tobacco, all this week 35c. lb.

Slaughtered Prices:

Plaid Worsteds, Cassimeres, Plain

Mrs. Frank Thompson and two children, of Richmond, Va., and Wilmer Dill, of Fairlee, spent several days last

Our Gold-lined Cream Pitcher at 5c is wonderful. Mason's Fruit Jars Cheviots, &c., at $4.75, $5.87 and Week with their aunt, Mrs. J. Martin.

Miss Ethel Solloway is visiting Mrs.

M. Bride, on Kent Island.

Miss Ethel Solloway is visiting Mrs.

M. Bride, on Kent Island.

Miss Ethel Solloway is visiting Mrs.

M. Bride, on Kent Island.

Miss Ethel Solloway is visiting Mrs.

M. Bride, on Kent Island.

Miss Ethel Solloway is visiting Mrs.

M. Bride, on Kent Island.

Miss Ethel Solloway is visiting Mrs.

M. Bride, on Kent Island.

Miss Ethel Solloway is visiting Mrs.

M. Bride, on Kent Island.

Miss Ethel Solloway is visiting Mrs.

M. Bride, on Kent Island.

M. Bride, on Kent Island.

Miss Ethel Solloway is visiting Mrs.

M. Bride, on Kent Island.

Miss Ethel Solloway is visiting Mrs.

M. Bride, on Kent Island.

Miss Ethel Solloway is visiting Mrs.

M. Bride, on Kent Island.

Miss Ethel Solloway is visiting Mrs.

M. Bride, on Kent Island.

Miss Ethel Solloway is visiting Mrs.

M. Bride, on Kent Island.

Miss Ethel Solloway is visiting Mrs.

M. Bride, on Kent Island.

Miss Ethel Solloway is visiting Mrs.

M. Bride, on Kent Island.

Miss Ethel Solloway is visiting Mrs.

M. Bride, on Kent Island.

Miss Ethel Solloway is visiting Mrs.

M. Bride, on Kent Island.

Miss Ethel Solloway is visiting Mrs.

M. Bride, on Kent Island.

Miss Ethel Solloway is visiting Mrs.

M. Bride, on Kent Island.

Miss Ethel Solloway is visiting Mrs.

M. Bride, on Kent Island.

Miss Ethel Solloway is visiting Mrs.

M. Bride, on Kent Island.

Miss Ethel Solloway is visiting Mrs.

Miss Ethel ing will be sold at half price. A Mr. Boggs, of Philadelphia are visiting hear him preach. He has announced to go hear him preach. He has announced to preach next Sabbath evening on Pail to sell at 20 th a more Parabella Control of Pail to sell at 20 th a more Parabella Control of Pail to sell at 20 th a more Parabella Control of Pail to sell at 20 th a more parabella Control of Pail to sell a to preach next Sabbath evening on Pail to sell at 3c fb., 2 more. Baseball Goods at your price, 25c. Boy's Mask 13c. Finest Mackerel in town at 5c, see them. Our Flour Bin is filled with low price while prices are advancing. Come and see us for FLOUR. Dried Apples, about 40 pounds left, go at 3c. White Beans, about 2 Bushel left, go at 10c gallon.

BANANAS TEN CENTS DOZEN.

Whoever Heard of This Before?

A One Gallon Glass Oil Can, Tin-covered, Filled with Coal Oil for 29 cents; or with Red or Mr. Harry Hurlock has been visiting friends of this neighborhood the past White Vinegar for 39 cents; or with ICE-CREAM

This the Last Week:

13 cents pound 5 cents pound 10c. Pound, 3 Pounds for 25 cents Chocolate Cream Drops 10 cents pound - 10 cents pound Only one pound to any one, no less or no more.

ICE-CREAM TABLE SYRUP:

Wm. Price, of Fairlee, got another barrel. This is how it sellf. It been engaged to take charge of a school mon in sections of lower and upper Kent sells itself. Price, of Fairlee; Downey, of Rock Hall; Shuster, up is to have the matter reduced to writing.

Enterprise. — The hustlers at Still is local and farmers in other sections of Negative Moddows & Co. seem to Sense Works and Sense

Yours, respectfully,

present their mid-summer sale is meeting with a large patronage from all over the county, and they are recording large sales on their Special Hand Made Carmuch of my time to the middle of Sepriage Harness at $9.75. See their advt. The county is their mid-summer sale is meeting with a large patronage from all over the nurseries of the State Tuesday of next week. This work will occupy much of my time to the middle of Sepriage Harness at $9.75. See their advt. The county is real from the pest next season. The cars from the pest next season. The county is real from the pest next season. Chestertown's Only Cash Merchant.