Two Views of the Future.

Ex-candidate Willis publishes a letter in the Easton Star to say-

"No man in Talbot county deprecates republican control of our county, State and national administrations more than Through its agency, all the trusts, monopolies and unholy combines now in existence in our country, have been fostered until now, it is almost impossible to make a respectable living in any industrial pursuit conducted on legitimate principles."

Mr. Willis then goes on to outline the policy by which all Democrats may get together, and that is "to have but one common platform" * * * "those who cannot endorse that should not have a place in our party." This is the Willis-Stewart policy. It is simply "my way , or no way!"

Here is another view. It is from Hon. T. Frank Turner, of the same county with Willis and Stewart, and one of the Make Your Selections ablest silver men in the State. In a letter in the Baltimore News he says:

"I am a Democrat, and desire to see the Democratic party control this State and this country, and I am willing to secure that end to make some compromise with those who don't agree with me in order that ail who believe in Democratic principals shall come together, and meet upon some common ground. The first thing to be done is to get Maryland into line. We cannot accomplish anything with a Republican majority in Maryland against us.

Maryland is a Democratic State and it is a shame that there is not some way by which men of the same household of faith and professions cannot come together and labor to a common end-that of redeeming Maryland from the rule of Republicanism.

There is something else in politics and in the broad domain of Democratic politics besides the silver question, and I am willing as a silver man to lay that question aside until 1900. Let the issue here in Maryland be Democratic supremacy—a government of the people, by the people and for the people, in contradistinction of the present mongrel rule where a comparatively few white men, backed by 50,000 colored voters, have assumed control of both city and State governments, and rule more than 100,000 white men. It is to this end I am willing, as a Democrat, to meet the Democrats of Maryland, of whatever shade of opinion they may be; surrendering no convictions of my own, I am willing to stand shoulder to shoulder with them in an earnest effort to put Maryland where she of right belongs-once more in the Democratic
