The impress made by the fire of Friday morning week was simply awful and the incidents connected with the big blaze has made doubly apparent the need of a thoroughly equipped and drilled fire brigade. Had such a requisite been in existence at that time the dwelling of Mr. Durding could have been saved as easily as Mr. Ayres' was. The people at the scene, however, are Two Per Cent. What? here at last! Come in, come in. Well, Admiral, how be yer? Yer're welcome home from 'cross the foam, We're mighty glad ter see yer. It does seem good ter have yer back With us, yer blood relations, Yer've been away so long, ter stay Amongst them jurren nations

We've heard from yer quite frequent since Yer took our Eastern tiller; We read it yit, that note yer writ So plain upon Manila. We liked that message that yer sent Them folks who riz yer dander, It showed direct, we'd git respect Where you was our commander.

We sent yer off, a commodore, Few knowed or cared about it; But now yer name is bright with fame And all the world can shout it. Yer went away an unknown man, Yer public praise was—zero; But now it's flung from every tongue, You're back agin, a hero.

> Yer actions show us what yer be-A plain man, though a bold one; They show us that yer wear a hat No bigger than yer old one. We love yer, not alone because Yer fought a fight and won it; It seems ter me lots more ter be The manly way yer done it.

No use, we Yankees like a man Who's there all kinds er weathers— Who doesn't shirk, but does his work Without the fuss and feathers, That's why, George Dewey, we're here terday, Ter clasp yer hand and shake it, With this address, "The hull U.S. Is yourn; step in and take it."
