WHAT IS INDIAN SUMMER?

An intelligent farmer and close observer of events seeing an article on "Indian Summer" in the News sends TUESDAY, November 12th, 1901 the following interesting item:

"After we have had several frosts and some freezing weather, vegetation has All That Lot Of Land been killed, flies and insects put to flight, trees become bare and then comes situated in Piney Neck, in the Fifth Election District of Kent county, Md, containing a spell (sometimes of 2 or 3 weeks duration, generally from 10th of Nov., to 23 PERCHES OF LAND, Dec. 21,) of warm weather, this is Indian more or less, being the same land which was Summer. The Indians can go forth and John V. Crosby and wife by deed of February kill their game, deer, etc., and dress it 18, 1893 and recorded in Liber S. G.
