F. H. HARPER & SON.

The continued appreciation of thousands of our customers has helped us to buy MORE

Is visiting fier dides, Dr. With and Miss Rev. and Mrs. E. E. White and Miss Cynthia Nelson, of Wilmington, are spending the week with Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Hurtt.

Miss Stella Cleaver, of Philadelphia, Miss Stella Cl EXTENSIVELY than ever for our

FALL TRADE

Where we formerly bought dozens now we Mr. B.'s brother during his absence.

Mr. H. Benneman has been in Baltimore this week purchasing his line of fall goods. Mr. Sudler Weist assisted Mr. B.'s brother during his absence.

Where we formerly bought dozens now we may be about six pounds, and he didn't have to go all over the lot to find the biggest. His yellow variety is nearly as fine in size. buy by the gross, and the wagon load orders s have given place to CAR LOAD LOTS.

Mr. J. D. Benneman is visiting relationated by the gross, and the wagon road orders was in Washington, D. C.

Mr. J. D. Benneman is visiting relationation of the doctor, both on land and water, and he is enjoying the enter-taining the doctor, both on land and water, and he is enjoying the enter-taining the doctor, both on land and water, and he is enjoying the enter-taining the doctor, both on land and water, and he is enjoying the enter-taining the doctor, both on land and water, and he is enjoying the enter-taining the doctor, both on land and water, and he is enjoying the enter-taining the doctor, both on land and water, and he is enjoying the enter-taining the doctor, both on land and water, and he is enjoying the enter-taining the doctor, both on land and water, and he is enjoying the enter-taining the doctor, both on land and water, and he is enjoying the enter-taining the doctor. This means merchandise at the lowest posthe front porch and painting, Mr. Benj.
Duling has charge of the carpenter's last week to witness the highest season, it remained for Wednesday of sible cost to our customers. Our constant work. determination is to

SERVE YOU WELL AND SAVE YOU MONEY

Thousands of pairs of Shoes have been added to our Shoe Department for our Fall Trade.

Children's and Misses School Shoes range from

Women's Dongola Kid and Kangaroo Calf, only

We can sell you a guaranteed Shoe in Ladies' Box Q1 25 carriage house and granary. Calf, a bargain

$2.50 and $2.75 Values in LADIES' FINE KID Q1 Q8 repair WELT SHOES,

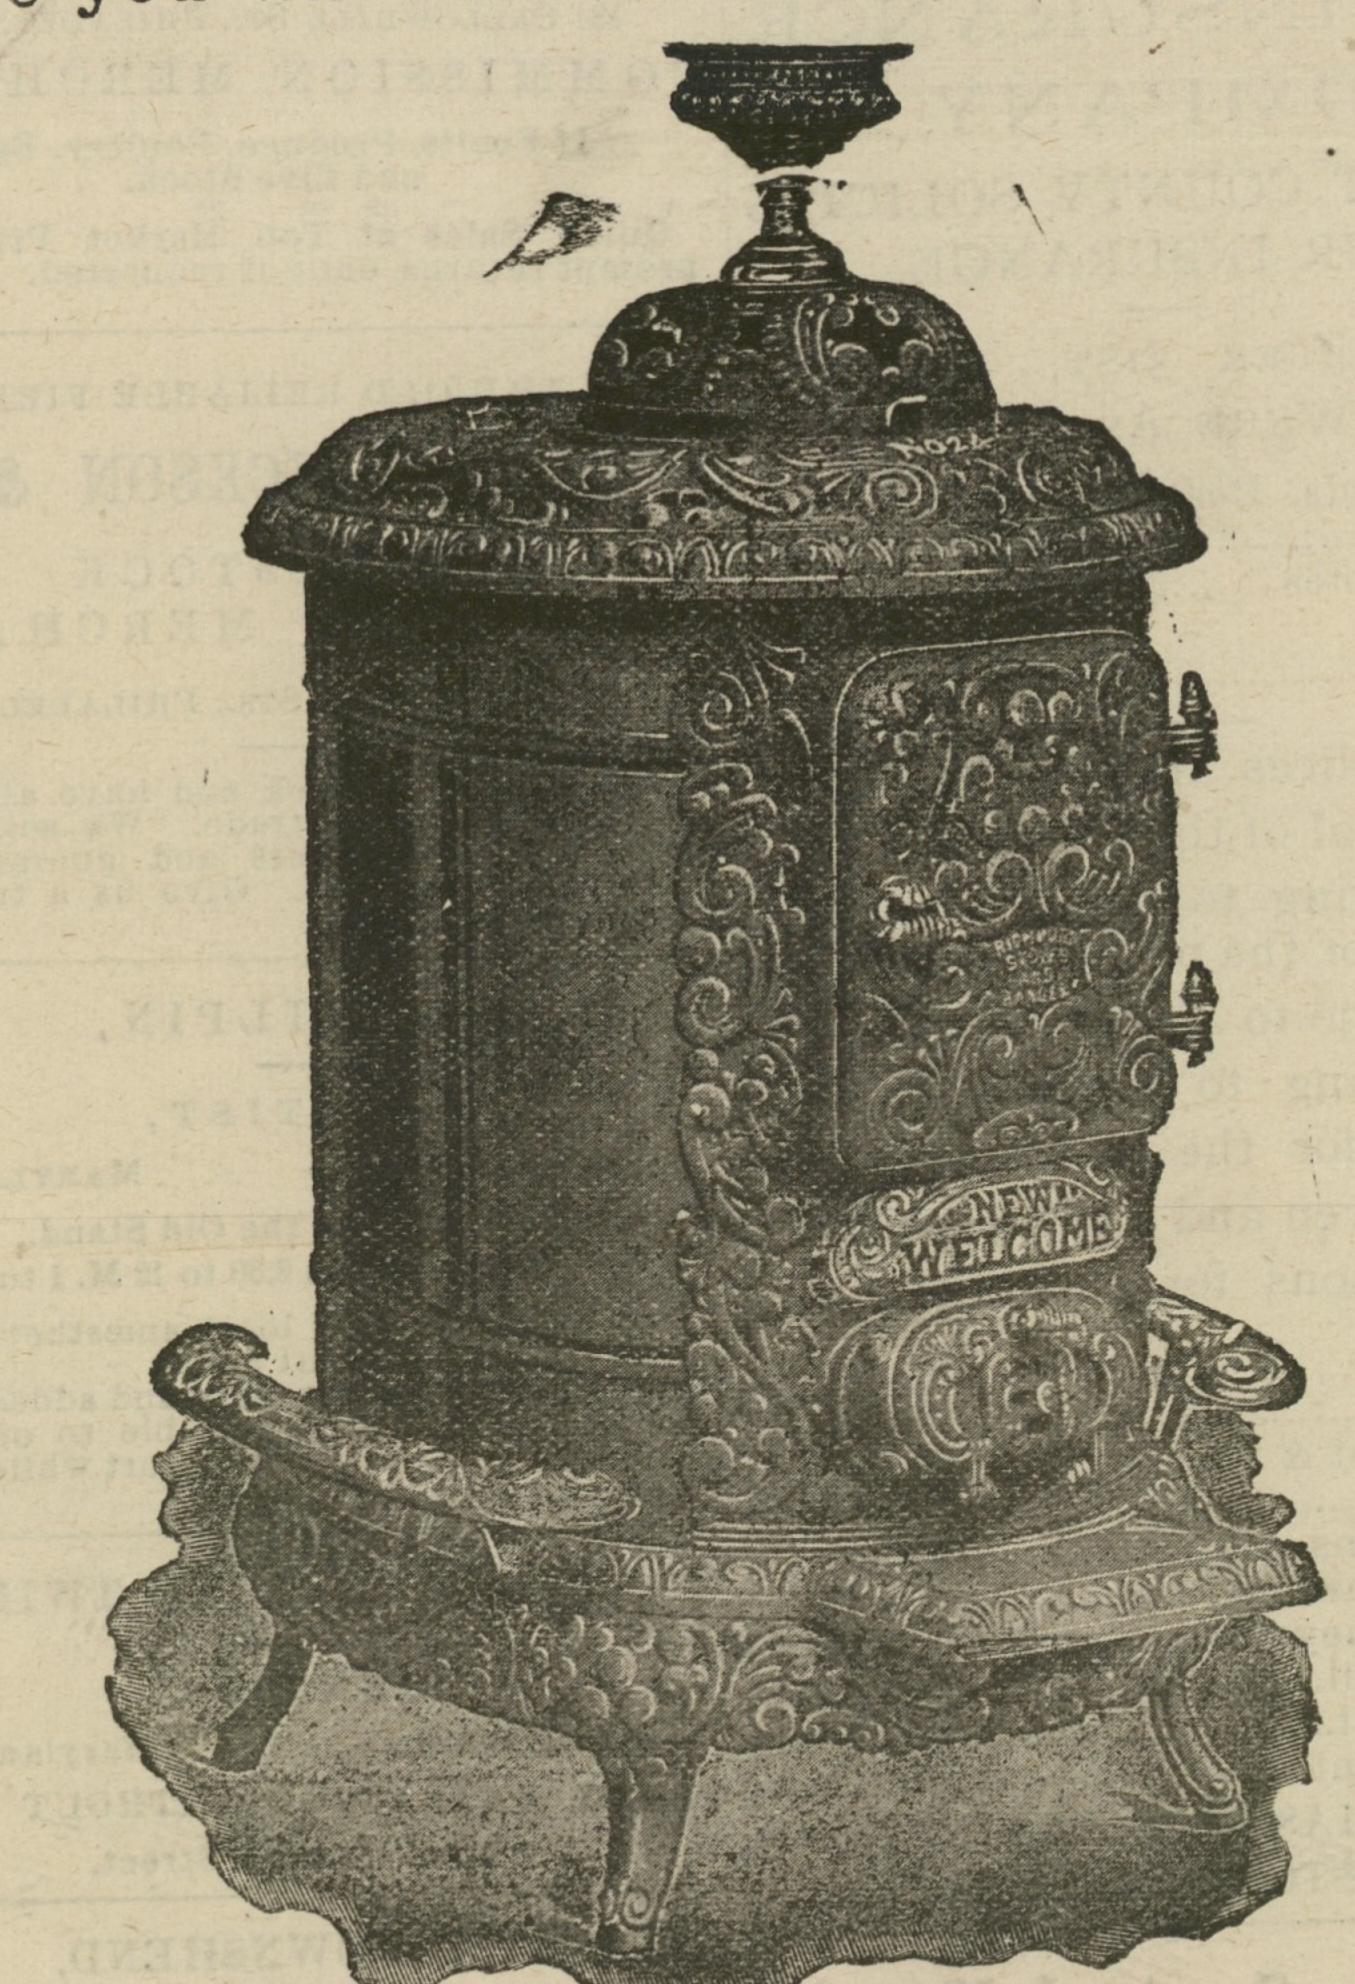

Our Men's Department has most attractive

Shoes from 98c. to $3.50.

Bargain in Boys' Ford. School Shoes, 98c. to $1.25.

When in need of STOVES learn our prices. We promise to save you money. Here is the journing at Gettysburg, Pa. Stove you will need this winter.

The best and lowest priced Hot Air Stove on the market.

F. H. HARPER & SON

STILL POND, MD.

Millington News.

Miss Stella Cleaver, of Philadelphia, is the guest of Miss Anna Talbott. Mr. C. M. Hurtt spent several days this week in Baltimore. Mr. R. E. Feddeman is spending the perfectly in order for their produce was week with relatives in New York.

several days this week in Baltimore.

ceived a fresh coat of paint.

Chesterville Notes.

Mrs. Charles Jarman is visiting Lankord and Rock Hall friends.

to Galena for the present. a week's stay at Cape May.

Mrs. Budd. Dobson is seriously ill

Mr. James Spry is building a large - Ψ1. ΔU Mr. Agnes Jarman has employed Mr.

> Mr. Davie Clements the youngest old resident of this community is enjoying and rushing things from way back.

The Lusby sale was well attended and poor fellows. The Lusby home is now and tree. goes to Sassafras with her daughter, he is a child without a home, but we withventure that he will be well cared for.

Speaking about corn, all our farmers have fine crops, and many claim sixty or-Mrs. Sadie Landon and son, Raymond, of N. J., are at Mrs. L's father's home, Miss Carrie Merritt, of Baltinore, is guest of her niece, Mrs. Samuel M.

Sassafras Notes.

Mrs Scott Rosin has been quite sick for the

Owing to the inclement weather there were no services in either of our churches on Sun-Chestertown; Mr. and Mrs. James Jefferson, Chestertown; Mr. and Mrs. William

Mrs. Royden Caulk.

Mr. Arthur Johns, of Lewes is being entertained at the home of his mother, Mrs. Caro direct communication by copper wires to Shriver, near McDonough, Del., for the past is giving entire satisfaction.

Rock Hall Locals.

Miss Florence Jacobs, of Wilmington is visiting her uncle, Dr. W. H. Jacobs: Oyster business here. A gale of wind Monday was a booming day in the Ben, Charley and Milt, three of our enterprising young farmers have for several years been blowing about their farm product and their blowing was hard to beat, but of late we hear yery Comegys returned last Wednesday after that they are not the only "Pebbles on the Beach" Since Mr. O'Pebbles on a cruise down the bay.

Miss Pearl Ahern left last week for located here on the Kerr farm, he is just Maryland College, at Lutherville, Md., taking the shine off the other fellows. where she will take up the study of He has on exhibition at Mr. Wickes' music.

Mr. H. H. Benneman has been in store a sample of his sweet potatoe crop, it is of the red variety, and weighs ment of crabs from this place for the ment was 80 barrels.

Hopkins Hospital, is a guest of Capt.

The members of the M. E. Church of this section is not given to boasting, nor exhibiting for effect samples of held a reception at the parsonage Wed-nesday evening in the honor of their pastor, Rev. J. W. Sidell and family.

of this section is not given to boasting nor exhibiting for effect samples of fruit, or truck, but the attempt of Mr. in it" when it comes to showing prize specimens of fine sweet potatoes." Mr. M. has on exhibition at the store a red Mr. Robert Lusby expects to remove potato measuring nine inches in length and about 19 inches in circumference Mrs. Agnes Jarman has returned from and weighing eight pounds; next, "come lup, or shut up."

calling, anyhow.

Shows down this way are now in order things brought good prices. The ladies were well represented and did some in the News we publish an article from spirited bidding on household goods, some of which is said to have been the following is also suggested by him: over 100 years old. Our good friend lice with turtle shell on them, is the Ohio

Mrs. Ella Watts; Mrs. Rebecca Wooters, Two sprayings-in early spring just as the Mrs. Anthony Johnson; Robert says before the buds begin to swell in the spring-

4 pounds of lime and 4 pounds of blue vitrol to 50 gallons of water.

3 pounds of lime and 2 pounds of blue vitrol and 4 pounds of paris green to 50 gallons of water.

Farmer Killed .- Andrew Spear, a farmer living near Glasgow, was struc by the Delaware City and Newark train Friday morning at 11 o'clock when crossing the tracks at Dayett's crossing, three miles from Porter's station. Mr. Spear was taking a load of apples to the cider press at Dayett's farm when the accident occured. He was driving one horse to a covered market wagon. The engine about one hundred feet, killing him instantly also striking the carriage, reducing it to splinters. Mr. Spear was struck and also thrown about one hundred feet. Miss Susie E. Ford, of Ford's Landing, is being entertained by Miss Isabel Mackail, of Elkton, Md.

Green, Centreville; Mr. and Mrs. Wm.

Baxter, Kennedyville.

Excellent Telephone Service.—This Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Davis, of near Cecilton, tal and push of the Diamond State Teleof Mabanan, N. J.

Mrs. I. A. Toulson, of near Mt. Pleasant, is being entertained by her daughter. Mr. and Denton, and all the other peninsula Kent Island and thence by five-mile Mrs. Ann Sheppard, of Middletown. was the guest of her son, Mr. and Mrs. Harry more. Any business firm in Baltimore Sheppard, on Friday last. Mr. and Mrs. George A. Ford, of Philadel- or any bank that has a telephone in its been suffering for the past three weeks.

Mr. Jesse L. Sheppard and daughter, Miss

Mr. Jesse Caulk Sheppard of Middletown were Sheppard, of Middletown, were phone Company, has been the recipient Ford, of Ford's Landing, of many congratulations from the busi-

A CAULK'S FIELD MONUMENT.

CHARLES S. SMITH.

Cooler Weather New Prices...

American Granulated Sugar, 5c. Mocha and Java Coffee, 35c.

The Southern church, Mr. C. H. Stevens' residence, Mr. W. B. Hilyards one fourth the lines at work. The shipstore house and Post Office have rement was 80 barrels.

Lemons, 3 for 5c.; doz. 17c. Bananas, 10c. doz.; bunch 50c. California Prunes, 5c. lb.; 6 for 25c.

> finest produce raised here, has caused Mr. Maslin to come out of his seclusion, and say to Mr. Leary, "Og. you are not Pillsbury's Oats, package 10c. Our Oats, none better, 5c. pkge, 6 for 28c. Aunt Mariah Pancake Flour, 10c. Pkge.

Mrs. Budd. Dobson is seriously ill with fever.

Messrs. Thos. Hurlock, Wm. Baxter who has been suffering with cancer of the stomach for some time was recently taken to the hospital for treatment, but he was found too weak to undergo an operation, we pecting to get over ten tons to the acre and have sold to the cannery at contract prices.

Mrs. Budd. Dobson is seriously ill Mr. Frank Baxter who has been suffering with cancer of the stomach for some time was recently taken to the hospital for treatment, but he was found too weak to undergo an operation, we understand that he is now at his father's home in the city with little hope of his prices.

Tarbell Cheese, the best; price right.

Mustard and Oil Sardines, per box 5c was to understand that he is now at his father's home in the city with little hope of his prices. Heinz Mustard Dressing, bottle, 15c.

The hot weather of Wednesday gave the oyster trade here a black eye. Many of the buyers on Monday realized their mistake in rushing up the prices as they did. The oyster business is a fickle Sweet Tobacco, A1, per lb. bar, 25c.

Cash Merchant Cigar, per box, 75 Cash Merchant Cigar, per box, 75c. Any Tobacco, 6 5c. cuts for 25c.

> Lowney's Chocolates, best, 50c. lb. Lowney's Chocolate Almonds, 10c bx. Lowney's Ass'td Souvenirs, 10c. box.

broken up. Mrs. Mary E. Lusby goes to Townsend to live with her daughter, wetted-about a gallon of liquid to a tree. Clark & Jones' Pure Candies, 10c. lb. C. & J.'s hand-made Taffies, ass'd 13c lb.

> Gold Medal Family Flour, bag, 35c. Harter's Family, 30c.; Smith's, 25c. Smith's Family Flour, bbl, $4.00.

-MIXED-

struck the horse, throwing the animal SHREDDED COCOANUT, best, 5c. pkge. WATER PAILS, cedar, 2 gallon, 19c. BREAD BAKING PANS, 5c.

he Mrs. Gessart, who has been quite sick, we are pleased to state is able to be out again.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Thornly have a very sick baby. Dr. Scott, of Galena, is attending.

He regained consciousness and lived about an hour. Beside his children, those who attended the funeral from a distance were: Mr. and Mrs. Charles 35c. Meat and Vegetable DISHES. 35c. Meat and Vegetable DISHES, 20c. CARRIAGE WHIPS, 10c.

> 90c Agate COFFEE POTS, 49c. 10c for Lunch Boxes, 25c for Baskets. Barlow Knives, 5c.; 25c Knives, 10c.

on Wednesday.

Mrs. John F. Ernest is entertaining her surpassed by no other isolated section of sister, Mrs. Daniel Mitchelland two children, same territorial area and equaled by few. 1 1b Box Ginger Snaps, 5c.; bx Nicnacs, 5c. Our Bread, 16 oz. or more to each loaf, 5c. Try our MOTHER'S LOAF, 5c.

Mrs. Caroline Johns, near town. Mr. and Mrs. James Mulford, of Galena, were the guests of their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Thornly, on Sunday last. Mrs. Sheppard Morris near Golts, we are sorry to report is quite sick and has

Open for inspection all evenings, except Saturentertained her daughter, Mrs. Herman B. Massey, of near Massey, and son, on Tuesday.

Mr. J. Ford Caulk, our wide-awake auctioneer, has been the guest of Mr. Walter of M Bread is made of GOLD MEDAL FLOUR--That's Enough! Yet we go further. We use the best baker, best yeast, sugar and salt, consequently the M. E. Church, will be entertained on that the Battle Marker, to secure an histori-Thursday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Harry cal memory of the battle of Caulk's Field, we give the MOST AND BEST for the money. 5c. for a 16 ounce or more loaf. CAKE in endless which will be given notice of variety, Lady Fingers, Jelly Dots, Macerones, We Kent Wafers, &c. To see them is enough. Call and

CHAS. S. SMITH,

Chestertown's Only Cash Merchant.