and Helen Hurlock. A Championship Town.—In addition to having a champion ball team, the the fastest crack shooters and speediest race horse in the county, Sudlersville now lays claim to having the champion eater. According to the statement of Dr. Foster Sudler and Mr. R. Oscar Roe of that town, Mr. George A. Hazell, a popular farmer of that place, at a single meal ate 67 tea cakes, 33 Maryland biscuits and 2 large bowls of blackberry jam. Sudlersville always was a championship town. But it lays it all over the county in this incident, more than it ever did.—Observer.
