Col. John H. Evnns and Mr. James Brice Enjoying a Visit to Florida.

In a private letter to friends in Chestertown Mr. James Brice who is in Tampa, Florida, writes of hunting for quail. He says, "I left Tampa and drove 17 miles in the pine woods without seeing man or house, you see some razor back hogs and a few cattle. Five miles is fast driving in the pine roads. We got some birds, built a big fire of litre wood and sat down on the ground and ate supper. We talked until 8 p. m., then spread out blankets on the ground and lie down to sleep. It was my first night out and as I could not sleep I kept up a big fire all night. We had birds for breakfast and although

A GRAPE CREAM OF TARTAR BAKING POWDER

It makes the most delicious and healthful hot breads, biscuit and cake

FREE FROM ALUM, LIME OR PHOSPHATIC ACID

Alum baking powders are unhealthful. Do not use them for raising food under any circumstances. So detrimental are alum baking powders considered, that in most foreign countries their sale is prohibited. In many States in this country the law compels alum powders to be branded to show that they contain this dangerous acid, while in the District of Columbia, Congress has prohibited the sale of all food that contains alum. Alum baking powders are sold to consumers at from 10 cents a pound to 25 ounces for 25 cents, or 25 cents a pound, and when not branded may generally be distinguished by their

JEFFERSON

"JEFFERSON BUILDING"

The Spring Opening of White Goods which has been going on during the present week at Jefferson's has indeed proven a most wonderful success. The store has been crowded each day with eager purchasers from far and near to take advantage of the stupendous bargains offered in this sale. Our motto: "One price to all alike and goods as advertised," has been carried out to the letter, and we feel very grateful to the public. There yet remains one day of this gigantic sale, in which the thoughtful buyer may secure the spring necessities at unheard of prices.
