ROCK BALL ITEMS

From the text "We should live soberly, righteously and godly in this present ? world," Pastor Burr, of the M. E. church on Sunday morning delivered a plain practical and brief sermon on Christian living which was well received by a good congregation. Sunday afternoon was so rainy that less than one hundred attended Sunday School service. The superintendent formed them into one class and conducted the exercises himself with | satisfactory effect. Prayer meeting and teacher's meeting being held on the same evening has caused more or less confusion among the prayer meeting participants, in that some thought the prayer meetings were being displaced. The church attendants could never relish long the idea of two different services on the same evening as one or both would be rather hurried and non-effective of good results.

Rock Hall has been noted as one of the ? cleanliest and neatest town on the Shore but she appears to be getting away from that honor. It seems that residents are being annoyed by the accumulation of waste paper and other litter on or about |  their premises brought there by the wind. They wonder where it comes from and trace it to the multiplicity of mercantile establishments whose proprietors sweep the waste paper and other refuse into the street then the winds scatters it helter skelter to the annoyance of residents and travelers. of our merchants we know are mindful to burn their sweepings. Suits for the Little Woman

The little woman has heretofore had two alternatives to face. Either she must wear a young girl's suit and look, perhaps, unduly youthful. Or she must have a larger suit altered—practically remade which was not always satisfactory. Now, we can fit the little woman perfectly—in suits that are women's suits—smaller repicas of the full size garments—perfectly proportioned, and needing, in most cases, no alteration whatever.
