ROCK HALL ITEMS

The oyster industry already suffering with a black eye was almost completely knocked out last week by the "Home Coming" festivities in the city. No sales, no demand, everybody and everything in holiday attire, made the oyster market sick indeed. This week the outlook is more hopeful as the packers have begun steaming. Our buyers are taking larger jags while the prices are still very low, regularity in sales will enable the joystermen to put in more time and (1) make fair wages barring bad weather. The numerous festivals through the county is encroaching on the time and business of candidates and politicians as they have to attend them all in order to get close to the "dear people" or lose deal. Ex-Sheriff Casey is making the political fur fly now, that his better half is in the city of Brotherly Love. He is using no money, but he is making cigars tell which way the wind blows, and if he doesn't come out a winner it will not be Jim's fault. Some of the hustlers on both sides are wishing that the battle of the ballots was fought. These frosty mornings put kinks in them and they will not put on thicker duds until after

Mrs. Minnie Durding was removed to the hospital on Friday of last week to be treated for cancerous effections, and we learn that an operation has been performed and she is slightly better. Many prayers and good wishes are expressed for her recovery.

Revival services are being held this week in the M. E. Church. Rev. Mr. Burr will have the assistance of Evangelist Clark, of Va., as long as the meetings will justify his presence. Rev. Mr. Jefferson, of Baltimore, and Dr. Corkran will also assist during the progress of the extra services. The meetings are having good effect so far.

THE OFFICIAL BALLOT.

The copy of the official ballot appears in this issue. As will be seen, the ballot is a very large one, and one that will require a good deal of care in voting. There are nineteen Democratic candidates on the ticket, so that to vote the entire Democratic ticket will require nineteen separate crossmarks. We urge upon all our readers who are voters to make a careful study of the ballot and be sure they understand fully how to vote. If Chestertown, in doubt, consult some good Democrat RY a plate of oysters at Jenkins' Restauran in your neighborhood.
