The funeral of Mr. D. S. Davis was held at his late home Monday afternoon at 130. It was largely attended. The burial was in Crumpton. Mr. Davis had been a great sufferer, but patient to the last. His end was that of the truly righteous man. He stood on the Eternal Rock. He had been a member of Emmanuel since 1889. For several years and until incapacited by his illness he was Supt. of the Sunday School. Ths people who knew him since his changed life believed in his profession. His life was not a sham under a cloak of religion. He looked his fellows squarely in the eye fearless of being charged with sly tippling or other insincerity. D. S.
