a good apple orchard, with a variety of other fruit trees; some meadow in quantity and more may be made at a very trifling expence; there are many advantages attending its situation too tedious to mention among the number the convenience to markets, and for fishing and fowling, as in the season there are a great abundance of fine fish, crabs, oysters, and wild fowl. Likewise to be sold, a number of negroes, some of which are very valuable house servants, also some excellent horses fit for the road or draught. For terms enquire of the subscriber, living on the premises.

NOTICE is hereby given, that I intend applying to the next general assembly, for a title to confirm my right to part of a tract of land called Deed's Good-will, containing 261 1/2 acres, the property of the late Henry Hister, deceased, who devised it to public sale, which was complied with, but his executors' decease before the execution of a deed makes this step necessary to be taken, by
