he U. State. SIDENT LINGHUYSEN.

& PRINCIPLES. 1. An honest and economical administration | majority is 1452. of the government.

"2. A sound currency, of uniform value. "3. Fair and moderate, but certain and stab! encouragement to all branches of industry. 1.4. Peace and union; peace as long as it can gain 306. be preserved with honor, preparation for vigorous war when it is inevitable; union at all hazards. "5. Men boly of character, fidelity, and ability appointed to public office. ecutive power. '7. A distribution of the proceeds of the sales and liberal terms. "8. A just administration of our common Constitution, without any addition to, or abstraction from, the powers which it fairly confers, by forced of their local and peculiar institutions."

interpretation.

4th of November.

litical struggle the Whigs have been victorious. Although our majority is small, yet when we look at the the sacrifice and comfort of health. The money time affords him a market superior to the foreign marmeetings, and from the kernel of the offence. On these strong and decided measures are taken, there will be gross frauds perpetrated in Baltimore City by our op- that has been expended by such persons for the ket on account of its proximity, stability and certainty. points the judges were unanimous. Seven out of the no safety for either life or property at Canton. ponents, and the unfair means resorted to throughout last two or three years, if taken proper care of, Now let us see how the protective policy operates in nine were of opinion that the bad and the informal The Tahiti question has been amicably settled, how, gainst Col. Pratt, we view ours as a signal triumph.— would now place them in comfortable circumstant this respect. The people of the North and East are counts did not, nevertheless, vitiate the judgment, is not yet known. All cause of war between any of We were under the impression before the State election ces, if not be sufficient to purchase dwellings to emphatically a manufacturing people. The sterility while two-Mr. Baron Parke and Mr. Justice Colt- the powers of Europe seems to be removed. took place that it the Loco Focos were defeated they shelter them in the decline of life. would surrender, and let the election of Clay in Maryland go by default. But we see by the spirit of their papers they have determined to make a desperate strug- ver scant your belly to cover your bick, and gle to give James K. Polk the electoral vote of Mary-land. Do you hear that, Whigs of Maryland? We make a fine appearance. Your wise neighbors the home market, and fortifies them against a ruinous seems extraordinary. One good count in the indict-Minister Plenipotentiary of the United States of Amercall upon you again to burnish your arms and prepare but laugh at your folly, while those you strive to and unequal competition with foreign pauper labor.— ment, say they, was sufficient to uphold the judgment, ica is at present on a tour in Scotland. for the contest. Maryland, with an "honest ballot imitate look upon you with contempt. Don't la. So long as this is done they will continue to manufact because the Irish Judges were presumed to know which Mr. Henry Wheaton, our Minister at Berlin, had ar-Whigs, we deem perpectly certain for Clay. But as bor to conceal your poverty. It is tar preferable ture. These eight hundred thousand persons, with were the bad and which the good counts, and to have rived in Paris on a visit, fraud and violence came near depriving us of victory to wear a fourpenny calico to meeting, and have their wives and children, making in all about four mil-sentenced the traversers accordingly. the will of the people set at naught & Maryland placed it paid for, with plenty to eat, than to dash about the formers of the middle and western States for their the farmers of the middle and western States for their along side of New Hampshire, Missouri &c. Let the in silks, which have been credited to you, while the farmers of the middle and western States for their this excellent reason, that the Irish Judges on the trial Whigs throughout Dorchester keep their Clay Clubs you have scarcely a decent meal in your house.in active operation. Let more light be diffused upon the subject of the Tariff. Let the people understand Pride will ruin you sooner or later, so be wise and sustained and perpetuated. By the returns of the last This was the state of matters at the sailing of the the effort now being made by England in conjunction divest yourself of folly, and dress according to your census it appears that the manufacturing States con last steamer. When the House met again on the with the Loco Foco party, to break down our manufacturing states con tures, and as a consequence to deprive our farmers of tures, and as a consequence to deprive our farmers of tures, and as a consequence to deprive our farmers of the less of you for some about 300 millions of agricultural productions, Wednesday, the discussion was confined to the law their best and almost only market for the products of your calico dress, cape bonnet, and hard hands purchased exclusively of the farmers of our own countheir industry. And let every tax payer in Dorchester which tell plainly that the dish cloth and the wash try. Is it no plain therefore that the home market is Campbell, and Denman. The two first named lawknow that James K. Polk and his party are opposed to the distribution of the proceeds of the sales of the publiplands among the States, to relieve the people from direct taxation.

1844

	1044.
	T. G. Pratt. (W.)	Jas. Carroll. dem.
Alleghany	1443	1513
Anne Arundel	1730	1650
Baltimore city	7968	9190
Baltimore county	2153	2902
Calvert	462	395
Carroll	1831	1730
Charles	761	560
Prince George's	1027	749
St. Mary's	764	492
Frederick	3133	. 3105
Harford	1490	1411
Washington	2633	2578
Montgomery	1083	903
Cecil	1524	1585
Kent	701	544
Queen Anne's	760	745
Caroline	659	639
Talbot	773	753
Dorchester	1328	976
Somerset .	1304	1031
Worcester	1487	1044
	35,035	34,495
	34,495
n	710

Pratt's majority

This is the largest vote ever taken in the State. to feel rather queer. At the Presidential election in 1840, the whole vote of the State was 62,280-of which the Whigs obtained 33,528 and the Locofocos 28,752. The swim?" Whig vote now has increased 1,507, whilst that of "Yes, sir, he can for I have tried him from next number I will present some additional facts in the judgment of the Irish court was intense. Great derived from the Tariff of 1842, we still have extherefore gets more votes than was ever given to any man in Maryland, and his vote proves that the Whig party is stronger in Maryland than it by your house can swim and you can swim ever was.

THE SENATE.

The following is a correct list of the Senators, show- punches for my friend Mr. C., and myself." ing the date of the expiration of their respective terms "Mr. C.," continued the Judge, "I drink success of service:

St. Mary's County-James T. Blackistone,	1850
Kent-William S. Constable,	1850
Calvert-John Parran,*	1848
Charles-John Matthews,	1848
Ahne Arundel-John S. Sellman,	1848
BaltimoreHugh Ely,*	1846
Talbot-Samuel Hambleton, Jr.,	1850
Derchester-Francis P. Phelps,	1850
Somerset -William Williams,	1848
Cecil-George R. Howard,	1846
Prince George's-William D. Bowie,*	1848
Queen Anne's-John Palmer,	1846
Worcester-Teakle Townsend,	1846
Frederick-Casper Quynn,*	1850
Harford-James Moores,	1850
Caroline-Jacob Charles,	1848
Washington-John Newcomer,	1846
Montgomery-Wm. Lingan Gaither,	1848
Alleghany-John Beall,	1846
Carroll-William Roberts,	1850
Baltimore City-William Frick.*

Wednesday by the accidental discharge of his gun. haps from the creation

Those marked with a * are Democrats.

ENNSYLTANIA FLECTION .- The Steamboat arrived resierday evening we had not time to give the iews from this State in detail. Returns have been recerved from Philadelphia and from 20 counties leaving Mr. Epiron: -In my last article published in your Markle's (W.) majority 1519. This is a Whig loss of paper an accidental omission occurred which I wish to The Caledonia arrived at Boston from Lay rosol 1 State by 343. The 25 counties to be heard from in 1 1840 gave Van Buren a majority of 1802, and if they stating the amount of agricultural produce exported to London and Liverpool. give the same vote now will elect Shunk by about 300. the whole world to be $16,472,424 for the year 1842. The Queen of England embarked at Woolwich on There is a report that Huntington county one of the 25 I omitted to make the exception of cotton and tobacco, the 9th, for a tour through Scotland, accompanied by marked not heard from had made a gain upon the vote which staples were not included in the amount stated. Prince Albert, and the usual royal cortege. She arriextremely doubtful who is elected Governor.

NEW JERSEY ELECTION .- We have received fu retu ns from the election in this State, Stratton's (W.)

Оню Election.—The following returns from Ohio are decidedly favorable to the Whigs.

42 it gave 1 Whig majority; Whig gain 199. Harrison county gives 224 majority for Bartley; in of the public lands among all the Strtes, on just above returns are compared, Shannon, the Democratic Governor, was elected by a majority of 3,443.

"9. The preservation exclussvely by the States ver a new leaf and live as they ought. The mem bers of such families are proud and extravagant, amount for the consumption of her people—and the close by the decision of the highest page of history as American Consul, Mr. Forbes. Subsequently the moh changed into the general ticket system, the time of their pride. The children in such families are tur- can undersell us on account of the cheapness of their pride. The children in such families are tur- can undersell us on account of the House of Lords on the law of the was shot. At 10 P. M. the Chinese soldiers made their holding the election was altered from the 2nd. to the 1st. nished with every thing to gratify their folly, as if labor? Monday of November. This law is still in force, and the outward appearance were a sure guarantee of their respectability and future success. If there is any thing we despise it is the union of pride price of every thing the farmer has to sell," necessarily the jury, and two to be radically bad. The bad counts thorities appear to have no power whatever over the THE ELECTION IN MARYLAND.—After a violent po- and poverty - the keeping up of appearances to increases the price of his productions, and at the same are the sixth and seventh, which charge the monster mob, and it seems to be thought that, unless some Friend, if you are poor don't be proud. Ne

A Law Student in Alabama - An exchange says, time benefits the farmer? that Mr. C., who studied law in the office of a In order to exhibit this point more plainly by con delivered an elaborate opinion, in which he strongly with them, at their recent Mass Convention in that days anxiously waiting for the Judge at the-Exchange, alias grocery, alias doggery. After the formality of an introduction, the Judge said:

admittance to the bar."

"Yes, sir."

keeper, give us two juleps."

"Mr. C., can you swim?"

"Yes sir, I can," said C, greatly surprised. "Well, sir, let's take another drink-bar-keeper, | two cocktails."

The cocktails vanished; and the judge said-"Mr. C., have you got a horse?" "Certainly sir," said C.

The toddies disappeared, and C, owns he began

"Mr. C." said the Judge, "can your house the farmer or he will not sell.

and by --, think you are well qualified for an Alabama lawyer. Give me your commission, and as to your admission to the Alabama bar."

The Motive Power of the Cataract of Niagara: - its foliage is less lively than that of smaller tress, calcusted tend to support Clay and Frelinghuysen for President tend to be detailed to the age of trees this resident of the United States. Mr. Caleb Atkins, of Columbia, Pa. was killed on lated by all the data applied to the age of trees, this palar and Vice President of the United States.

Respectfully,

COMMUNICATED.

FOR THE CHRONICEE. correct, before I proceed further with the subject. In Thursday morning, with dates to the 19th till from The omission does not weaken the force of my conclu- ved at Dundee on the 11th, and her reception in all the sions, nor impair the integrity of my arguments, yet it towns thro' which she passed, was most enthusias. is due to truth that it should be corrected.

It will be recollected that I am now liscussing the The Queen's visit to Ireland, which was prominent; effect of a protective tariff on the agricultural interests. ly announced a few weeks since by the Ministerial pa- er basis, without imposing any inconvenient restrictions and endeavoring to show that it does not "diminish the pers, has been indefinitely postponed. Belmont co. gives a majority of 211 for Bartley, the price of every thing the farmer has to sell." In my The state of trade in the manufacturing districts is Whig candidate. In 1842, 95 Loco majority; Whig former article upon this branch of the subject I shewed satisfactory. With the exception of printing cloth by facts and statistics that the foreign market cannot be which is in dull request, nearly all descriptions of Man- Powers, assurances of their friendly disposition. Guernsey co. gives 200 majority for Bartley. In 18- relied upon by the farmer for the sale of his surplus chester goods have experienced an improved deproductions. Throwing aside the articles of cotton and mand. 1842 it gave 34 maj. for Shannon (Loco); whig gain tobacco, foreigners purchase of the farmers of the Uni-Pride and Poverty.—There are hundreds of fam- 1842 we sold no more to foreigners than we did during as extraordinary as they were unlooked for. Few e- were quoted at 63, coupons off. ilies that have no small income, and yet are poor the following year when the tariff was much higher. vents have caused greater excitement. Upon the peo--and will remain so for life, unless they turn o Where then is the farmer to look for a market for the ple, whose leader Mr. O'Connell is, the effect has been were angry because an arrow, as a wind vane, had sale of his produced Britain? She raises astounding. The proceedings connected with the mon- been placed on the top of the United States flag staff.

[HENRY CLAY. and expend a large amount to keep up appear- deficiency in the other articles of agricultural production the most singular in their character, and the most uncollected and broke into the square of the American We see it stated in the tables of elections printed ances, and continue in the ranks of fashion. We tion is comparatively small. And for the supply of fortunate in their results ever instituted by a Govern-factory and endeavored to pull down the United States in almost every paper, that the election takes place in can point to many such people, who might now this deficiency she looks to her own colonies and the ment. Maryland on the 2nd. Monday of November. This is be in independent circumstances, were it not for countries bordering on the Baltic and Black seas, which The day the last steamer sailed, the judges had given ed out to be an innocent and unconcerned shopkeeper, of the soil—coldness of the climate—and density of the man—held that the whole proceedings ought to be set The King of the French was expected to embark at population, are the causes which have made them so. aside. The view which the majority of the judges Treport on the third of this month, and cross the chan-The policy of a protective tariff secures these manufactook of the proceedings has been severely criticised, and nel on a visit to the Queen of England at Windsor.

senior member of the bar, in some town of some trast, let us suppose the protective policy abandoned, denounced the illegality of the whole proceedings, and town. State, emigrate I to Alabama for his examination. and these eight hundred thousand manufacturers driv- characterised the treatment which the traversers had "Judge P.," said Mr. C.'s friend, "is now in the en to agriculture as the most leasible means of support. received in the matter of the jury list, "mockery, a devillage; will you go and stand your examination?" What would be the effect upon our fara ers here. And lusion, and a snare!" Ultimately, the Lord ('hancel ceived at this place) and thank you for the invitation Of course C. consented. He had been several let us at the same time admit, for the sake of the argulor bor put the question, when the judgment was reversed with which I am honored to be present, and take part ment, that the necessaries of life would be reduced 25 by a majority of one of the law Lords—three to two.— in a Mass Convention to be held at Lynn, on the 4th per cent. The home market is destroyed. Those who Some of the lay peers wished, in this emergency, to of September. I wish from my heart that the state of had hitherto been consumers are now producers, and rush to the assistance of the government, but they were my health would permit me to accept it, and in accorinstead of wishing to purchase wheat, corn, flour, beel, restrained by Lord Warncliffe, who showed them that dance with your wishes offer such views as I entertain. "Well, Mr. C., you want to be examined for pork, &c. &c., they have these articles to sell. Where bad as was the reversal of the judgment, their interfer- ed upon the subject of the protection of American labor. are our farmers to sell their surplus productions? For- ence, by voting, would be worse-more damaging to I am however forbidden the satisfaction of being with eign countries do not want them. The home market the constitution and to the peerage. "Well, sir, let's take something to drink. Bar- is destroyed. Wretched, indeed, would be his situa- This result came upon every one so unexpectedly- public assemblages at this time. You will therefore I tion! What to him then would it avail that articles of the opinion of the majority of the judges delivered on trust on the present occasion take the "will for the food and clothing could be purchased a little cheaper the previous Monday against the traversers, having deed." There are many men in our own and other than before? He depended upon his crops to raise been universally regarded as decisive of the question— States, who have brought more ability to bear upon money to buy necessaries for his family; his crops, that the world could not credit the announcement.— the great question of the protection of our own labor alas! are valueless! He has no market for them and The sensation which the news produced in London than myself, but I cannot yield to any one in sin ere they must rot upon his hands. What consolation will and the other large towns where it became known, has devotion of my best energies to the maintenance of the it be to him that goods are a trifle cheaper when he rarely been equalled in modern days, and when it cros- Tariff policy, or the fidelity with which I have pursued has no means to buy them at any price? He cannot sed the channel, and reached Dublin, men could not it for nearly twenty years; and amidst trials, which at go to the merchant and get so many yards of calico, or credit its truth. Gradually, however, the incredulity some periods seemed almost too great to be surmounted. "Very good," said the Judge as soberly as any given quantity of the necessaries of life for a given disappearing, was succeeded by the most unbounded I rejoice now, and congratulate the country on though charging a Grand Jury. "Mr. C., if you quantity of wheat or corn or rye or oats or wool or flax. expressions of joy, and with respect to the wild delight the establishment of a system, that I hope may so please, we'll take a drink. Bar-keeper, two tod The merchant could no more find a market for these which reigned in the capital of Ireland, a glance at the far recommend itself to the people, as to insure at things than the farmer himself. The goods are puraccounts in another column will give an idea of its in all times a full reward for the wages of labor. On cles. Money alone can purchase the goods of the foreign importer, and this the merchant must have from

I will not now pursue this subject further. In my became known that the House of Lords had reversed high duties, and low duties, and the advantages "Then sir." said the Judge with increasing grav- benefits the farmer. In the mean time I ask of that et arrived before 5 o'clock; some repeal agents on board, of the protection of labor, and yet are ready to cast written. It is no "fancy sketch," but such a picture by the House of Lords-O'Connell is free!" the crowd est office in the gift of the people, who avows his realities that would await the farming interest from an I will sign it. Meanwhile, bar-keeper, give us two abandonment of the protective policy.

HARRISON.

To the Editor of the Cambridge Chronicle:

Sir-I have carefully reviewed the principles of the The Repeal Association held a special meeting to con- es in Congress, and those delivered in Tennessee, A paragraph in Silliman's lournal says the motive Loco Foco and Whig parties, and so tar as I am ca- cert measures for giving eclat to the occasion; and it where he lost his election for Governor. power of the cataract of Niagara exceeds, by near- pable of judging of the merits of the principles profes was resolved to escort Mr. O'Connell from goal in We have a candidate for President with whom I ly forty fold, all the mechanical force of water and sed by the Clay party I am constrained to say they are procession. steam power rendered available in Great Britian, the most useful and permanent; and if carried out— The order for the liberation of the traversers reached ance, and, I say with perfect confidence that I for the purpose of imparting motion in their ma- which I believe will be done-will promote the best Unblin on Friday the 6th inst., on the evening of know not the man in this world who is so likely chinery, that suffices to perform manufacturing la- interest of the country and ultimately result in preserv- which O'Connell left the prison privately, accompan to restore to the Government and country its lost bors for a large portion of the world, including also ing it from the grasp of an inveterate foe. It does not lied by his sons. John and Daniel. The other travers- honor, and bring us back to those good old times, the power applied for transporting these products only interest those who occupy public stations in life.— er: also left in the course of the day. O'Connell was by steamboats and steam cars, and their steam No. I conceive that it will benefit the most private soon recognized, and as he passed along a crowd colships of war to the remotest seas. Indeed, it ap citizen, no matter how humble his situation may be.— lected and followed him; forming a great concourse the early Presidents for the good of the whole peopears probable that the law of gravity, as establish ed by the Creator, puts forth in this single water— It may be urged by some that I have heretofore called when they all reached Merrion Square. Having gain— ple, and not for the "spoils of party." fall more intense and effective energy than is ne- myself a Loco Foco. I do not claim the title. I am a ed his home, he came out into the balcony, and made I wish to see once more dignity and honor seat cessary to move all the artificial machinery of the Democrat in full, and would be glad if I could see a short speech; containing little besides an expression of ed in the Presidential chair. In the person of Democratic principles carried out by either party, I thanks for the tranquility which the people had main- Henry Clay we have them united. Let us then should be one of that party. I frankly admit that I tained during his incarceration. On being dismissed, go for Clay and Frelinghuysen—the American blem of age in the forest, is the cypress which stands have always claimed to be a Democrat, but deny that the crowd quietly dispersed, near Santa Maria del Tule, in the province of Oaxaca, I have ever been a Loco Foco. I have until very re The announcement that Mr. O'Connell and his Republic of Mexico. This tree was measured by Bar- cently intended to support certain men belonging to on Humboldt, and found to be one hundred and eigh- the Loco Foco party, but owing to my having been companions in captivity would attend the weekly meeteen feet in circumference! This makes forty feet in misrepresented by certain men of the opposite party. ting of this body on the 9th inst., caused the conciliadiameter. This tree has no sign of decay, and though I have resorted to this means to show them that I in toon hall to be crowded almost to suffocation. It is sta-

LATEST FROM BUROPE.

THE WAR IN MOROCCC

LIBERATION OF O'CONNELL. ousies of wheat a sufficient ster trial, from their first commencement to their final On the 6th of May it was taken down by order of the supplies of breadstuffs &c. This then is the market in declared emphatically, those counts to be good which the only reliable one for the farmer, and that by foster- yers were for sustaining the judgment of the "Court- The following letter was addressed by the Hon. Abing and building up this a protective tariff at the same below;" the other three for reversing it. Lord Den- bot Lawrence, to the Lynn Whig Committee of Arman, the Chief Justice of the English Queen's bench, rangements, in answer to a letter of invitation to be

IRELAND.

THE LIBERATION OF O'CONNELL.—PUBLIC FEEL-ING IN IRELAND. The excitement in Dublin when it holding up white flags, inscribed "Judgment reversed their votes for a man proposed to occupy the highhurraed—the news spread—and cheers re-echoed hostility to the protection of our labour, besides throughout the city. Mr. O'Connell's rooms in Rich being in favor of the immediate annexation of Texcongratulators. He is said to have born the intelligence VIENNA, Sept. 23rd. '44. "with the same calmness that it was manifest he would ance with Mr. Polk, and every man may possess. have shown had it been of an opposite nature."_ the same knowledge by reading his printed speech.

whilst thousands of others were assembled without un-

Connell; accompanied by the Lord Mayor of Dublin. LIBERATION OF O'CONNELL-CLOSE OF and others, entered the hall, and his reception was in a manner beyond the power of language to convey. He addressed the multitude, and suggested, in detail, a plan for the municipal government of Holland.

In the address of Queen Victoria, on the occasion of the prorogation of the British Parliament to the 5th of October, the following passages occuri

Her Majesty has given her cordial assent to the bill which you presented to her Majesty for regulating the issue of bank notes, and for conferring certain privileges upon the Bank of England for a limited period. Her Majesty trusts that these measures will tend to place the pecuniary transactions of the country upon a sound on commercial credit or enterprise.

We are directed to inform you that her Majesty continues to receive from her Allies, and from all Foreign

Her Majesty has recently been engaged in discussions with the Government of the King of the French, Just limitations and restraints upon the Ex 258. Making a gain for the Whigs in the first 3 country and ing and friendly relations between this country and not quite one twentieth of the surplus raised. Now it ders will not be less surprised than were the inhabi- France. You will rejoice to learn, that by the spirit At the Governor's election of 1842, with which the cannot be said that the limited amount of our exports tants of the British Isles at the reversal, by the House of justice and moderation which has animated the two is owing to the tariff, because I have shewn from offi- of Lords, of the judgment of the Irish Court of Queen's Governments, the danger has been happily averted." cial documents that during the extremely low tariff of bench, the circumstances attending which have been At London, on the 18th ult., Maryland 5's Sterling, > point submitted to them. Of the eleven counts which appearance and cleared the square. The populace The farmer then must look to the home market for composed the monster indictment, they pronounced continued in a state of great exsitement, and Canton the sale of his productions, and whatever policy fosters | more than half to be either informal or bad. Four of was placarded with threatening notices that the factoand builds up a home market, so far from reducing the the counts they held to be informal by the finding of ries would be attacked and burnt. The Chinese au-

Gaod Eating .- A friend assures us, says the N. Y. Republic, that on Tuesday evening, while refreshing himself at Tammany Hall, he saw a southern gentleman eat in a short time, and without intermission, 18 shilling plates of a la mode beef, which he washed down with copious libations of claret wine, London porter, Croton water and coffee. The statement is given as a substantial fact.

MR. LAWRENCE'S LETTER.

this system of the protection of labor rests, in my humble judgment, the prosperity and happiness of this mighty Empire. In all our experience withas. These facts I know from porsonal acquaint-

System—and the Union as it is.

I have written more than I intended. I pray you to pardon me, and accept for the Committee and yourself, the assurances with which I remain

ABBOTT LAWRENCE. J. W. RAWLINGS. | able to obtain admission. About 1 o'clock, Mr. O' To Daniel S. Baker, Esq. and others, Committee, Relative Popularity -the evidence. - In 1 remarks on the charge 'al character and after and malicious, he all bort that has been ext adopted son, and cont ed overwhelining evic nessee has been wi Gen. farkson-Nashiv Hero of the Hermitag son in the hotte of nee for a stranger-even residence, refused lon Magician, and turne help. But when on of Kentuckey faltered of Clay? When, or town of Lexington, (1 Favelte, ever deserte TY YEARS Henry Cla inent in the affection State, county and to gift has been freely once has his consituer . jealous of their own, d son to repent placing morality, his honor, "certificate" of charac est men to frown indi politicians who prate acter." If the slight æd his own neighbors it, and knowing to seem that men livin charge Mr. Clay with unknown to his neigh We hear nothing sa Mr. Polk's standing a is obvious. In 1841 wanied to be again me -and was defeated by he tried the experime frated, by over 4 0001. about Mr. Polk's popu Harrisonburg Repub.

MR. POLK AND to an invitation to atte tion at Macen, Ga., Locofoco Mavor of Ch

"It is the policy of t Democrats, too, to re protectionist, in conse to Mr. Kane, of Philad ever more unfounded. whole tenor of his pol all his speeches and vo a long series of years.' Mark A. Cooper, Governor of Georgia, a vitation to the same c admitted that the party the Turiff party."

See the Globe of the What will 'the Dclaim Mr. Polk as a h Clay, say to this? POLK FUR III

The following passas J. K. Polk, in reply to in Tennessee, defines point distinctly .- V. "To your fourth inte words, viz: "Are you in favor passed by Congless in

I answer that I am; some length on the sub published addresses, "t the one bearing date or the other on the 25th o

LIFE AND ITS ILLUSI that our friends may cr and had taste; we gi may hereafter find faul lar; we give parties th ny may rail at their stu acquaintance may rever by finding fault with or if well, it was interestwe die, and even that but done so and so, or ; accident would not have cepts a bill for his frien tion is held trifling. " fails-sou have to pay against your folly. Oh surmount your obstacle pointments-to believe illusions?

American Criticism Boston paper, May 111 of the Methodist Episco of a sermon by the Rev "It was Southern in eve forcible, right ahead. if I am to hear, or a preach. It's none of y physical, wire-drawn, g erations. But, here storm-the-citadel, take i don paper. TO BE CONTESTED .senator, and Mr. Biser, county, are to be conte votes in favor of Mr. Bu didates, were thrown or quence of the words "fe being omitted on the tic 12 votes in his tavor ha covered, which would by 4 majority, Mr. Re Mr. Quynn on the grou account of some or his consequence of his na rectly .- Clipper.