By George W. Sherwood.

TERMS:-Two dollars and fifty cents per snnum pavable within the year. No sub acription will be discontinued until all ar rearages are settled, without the approba tion of the publisher.

OF ADVERTISEMENTS not exceeding square, inserted three times for one dollar, and twenty-five cents for every subsequent insertion, larger ones in the same proportion. 33-111 communications to insure attention, should be post paid if sent by mail. Postmasters will please give us prompt notice of any refusal to take the paper from their office.

POET'S CORNER.

"To charm the languid hours of solitude. He oft invites her to the Muse's lore."

JESUS. A LIGHT our darkened steps to guide; A Refuge, where from storms we hide: A Hope, to cheer us midst our gloom; A Portion for the world to come. A Strength, to stay the fainting soul; A Balm, to make the sin-sick whole; A Song, to cheer in death's dark vale; Victor, when earth and nature fail. All this, and more will Jesus be, To every soul that bends the knee: That hears the cross, that runs the road, In truth and love, which leads to God. Then bear the cross in morning's dawn. 'Twill cheer thy soul when morning's gone Bear thou that cross in sorrow here, Pledge of a crown in glory there.

> -----AN ANGEL OF LIGHT.

BY SOLITAIRE. It seem'd that from the god of day Her hand had pluck'd a golden beam, And twin'd around the glittering ray The gentle moonlight's silent gleam,-With angel chaplet bright as this, She did her spotless brow adorn, And moonheam sofily seemed to kiss, Where rested bright the ray of morn.

On mission sent, with God's own light, She hover'd like a heavenly sign, Dispelling the dark shades of night, With a sweet power all divine;-She paus'd beside the drooping soul, To shed her holy influence there, And pointing to a brighter goal, Whisper'd "Oh have but faith in prayer."

SONG.

BY MRS. HEMANS. If thou hast crushed a flower, The root may not be blighted: If thou hast quenched a lamp, Once more it may be lighted; But on the harp or on the lute, The string which thou hast broken, Shall never in sweet sound again Give to the touch a token.

If thou hast loosed a bird, Whose voice of song could cheer thee, Still, still he may be won From the skies to warble near thee; But if upon the troubled sea Thou hast thrown a gem unheeded, Hope not that wind or wave shall bring The treasure back when needed

If thou hast bruised a vine. The summer's breath is healing, And its clusters yet may grow, Through the leaves their bloom revealing; But if thou hast a cun o'erthrown With a bright draught filled-oh! never Shall earth give back that lavished wealth

To cool the parched lips fever. The heart is like that cup, If then waste the love it here thee, And like that lewel gone. Which the deep will not restore thee; And like that string of harn or lute Whence the sweet sound is senttered, Gently, oh! gently touch the chords

Too soon forever shattered!

Miscellaneous.

A SHARK STORY.

the torture of my disappointment, "may and threw out my hands, and talked to please him-except receive company in reward vour inhumanity!" The them as friends and brothers, members of her every day clothes. When a woman crew answered my prayer with a coarse, my family, cousins, uncles, aunts, people loves, she loves with a donide-distilled low laugh; and the cook asked me thro' waiting to have their bills paid. I scold- devotedness; and when she hates, she hates a speaking trumpet, "If I was'nt afraid of ed them as my servants. I abused them as on the high-pressure principle. Her love catching cold"-the black rascal! It was duns: I implored them as jurymen, sitting is as deep as the ocean, as strong as a hemnow time to strip; for my knees felt the on the question of my life; I congratulated pen halter, and as immutable as the rock cool tide, and the wind dving away left a and flattered them as my comrades upon of ages. She won't change it is in a very heavy swell, that swaved and shook the some glorious enterprise: I sang and ran- strong fit of jealousy; and even then it linbox upon which I was standing, so that I ted to them, now as an actor in a play- gers, as if loth to part, like evening twilight had occasionally to stoop and paddle with house, and now as an elder in a camp at the windows of the west. Get married my hands against the water, in order to meeting, in one moment roaringpreserve my perpendicular. The setting "On the cold flinty rock I will lay down my fish upagainst 'doing the deed,' arn't worth. sun sent his almost horizontal streams of fire across the dark waters, making them and in the next, giving out to my attentive if blest with health and enjoyment, if you gloomy and terrific by the contrast of his hearers, for singing, a hymn of Dr. Watt's are not able to support a wife, depend upamber and purple glories. Something gli- admirably appropriated to the occasion: on it, you are not able to support yourself. ded by me in the water, and then made a "On slippery rocks I see them stand, sudden halt. I looked upon the black While fiery billows roll below." mass, and as my eyes ran along its dark What said I - what did I not say? - Prose is strength. Get married, I repeat young been gathering upon the features of the in- There are 240 known species of fishes. outline I saw with horror that it was a and poetry. Scripture and drama, romance man! Concencentrate your affections upon shark—the identical monster out of whose and ratiocination—out it came—Quamdim, one object, and not distribute them amongst mouth I had just broken my book. He Catalina, nostra patienta abutere?—I sung a host of Susans, Sarahs, Marys, Elizas, Do you know me?—did you ever know A single house fly produces in one sea- and be unequal to your sufferings—to ly orly waiting for the tides to rise high brave associates, partners of my toil"-so each scarcely enough to nibble at. Get enough above the rocks to glut at once ran the strain. On which side soever I married, and have somebody to cheer you his hunger and revenge. As the water turn my eyes-"Gentlemen of the jury"- up through this 'lowly vale of tears'continued to rise above my knees, he see- 'I come hear not to steal away your bearts' somebody to scour up your dull melan-At last he made a desperate dash, and ap- but'-Ho!-"Begin ve tormentors, your and whatever line you possess, in some proached within an inch of my legs, turned threats are in van-Good and kind friends, sort of a Sunday-go-to-meeting order. upon his back, and opened his huge jaws let me not stir you up to any sudden flood' Young woman! I need not tell you to be consarn'd!" and away he walked out A man is taller in the morning by half you excite compassion or horror—a whole thrust the end of my rod violently at his ing sides'-'Ladies and gentlemen'-'My you are fixing contrivances to catch one, News. mouth; and the brass head, ringing against very noble and approved good masters"— and are as naturally on the watch as a cat his teeth, threw him back into the deep 'Avaunt! and quit my sight; let the earth is for a monse. But one word in your ear current, and I lost sight of him entirely .- hide ve'-Lie lightly on his bed, O earth!' if you please. Don't bait your book with This, however, was but a momentary re- Oh, heaven and earth, that it should come an artificial fly of heauty; if you do, the like Bible where the girls are commanded leaner. pulse; for in the next minute he was close to this'-The torrent roared and we did chance is ten to one you will catch a gudbehind my back, and pulling at the skirts buffit it with lusty sinews, stemming it a- geon-some silly fool of a fish that isn't of my fustain coat, which hung dropping side, and oaring it with hearts of contro- worth his weight in saw dust. Array the into the water. I leaned forward hastily, versy'-Give me some drink, Titania'- inner lady with the garments of virtue, them." and endeavored to extricate myself from Drink, boys, drink, and drown full sor- modesty, truth morality, wisdom and unthe dangerous grasp; but the monster's sow'-for liquor it doth roll such comfort sophisticated love; and you will dispose of teeth were too firmly set, and in his 1m- to the soul'-"Romans, countrymen, and vourself quicker, and to much better admense strength nearly drew me over. So, lovers, hear me for my cause, and he silent vantage than you would if you displayed down flew my rod, and off went my jack- that you may hear"-Fellow-citizens, as- all the gewgaws, flipperjigs, fol-de-rols et, devoted peace offerings to my voiaci- sembled as we are upon this occasion, im- and fiddle-de-dees in the universe, Reous visitor. In an instant the waves all pressed with truth and heauty"-"Isle of member, it is an awful thing to live and war up in the clouds between two hot around me were lashed with froth and heauty, fare the well"-"The quality of die a self-manufactured old maid. foam. No sooner was my poor old sport- mercy is not strained"- Magna est veritas My hearers, divide off into couples, e- were pourin' down 'lasses upon me. By ing friend drawn under the surface, than it et prevalebit"-"Truth is potent, and"- qually, as soon as possible, if you would golly!" was fought for by a dozen enormous com- most potent grave and reverend seigniors" add considerably to your own happiness,

POLITICS, GENERAL NEWS, ADVERTISING, ETC.

Volume 5-No. 13.

EASTON, MD.-TUESDAY, JULY 22, 1845.

Whole No. 223.

The battle raged upon every side. High The dint of pity; these are precious drops black fins rushed now here, now there. Kind souls, what, weep you when you behold should be passed as righteonsly and plea- which are so in viting and so eagerly sought by those who froth, and brine was thrown up in jets, "Ha! ha! ha!"—and I broke out in a fit of will permit. Get married while you are ence of which Gen. Jackson's mother is erything around me seemed to be cheerful and eddied, and curled, and fell, and swel- most horrible laughter, as I thought of the vonng, and then, when the frosts of age said to have exerted in implanting the reli- and happy;—the horse was bounding over led, like a whirpool, in Hellgate. Of no mince-meat particles of my lacerated jack- shall fall and wither your affection, the gious sentiments into his character. ed that the prize contended for contained shaking and vibrating upon my uncertain will surround and grace the parent tree, spoke of his mother in a manner that conder grass. The day was welcomed not as nothing edible but cheese and crackers, foothold, I felt the cold nose of the captain like ivy entwining and adorning the time vinced me that his mother never ceased to intruder on our enjoyments, but as a day of whose radii were sharks! I was the un- out the remaining organ of vision. He o- for all you have." "Well," said the man, think he was was about 70 when he united seemingly free from care, whilst others were the circle. He seemed to be a sort of captain or leader of the band, or rather he acted as the coroner for the inquisition that ted as the coroner for the inquisition that the circle. He seemed to be a sort of captain of the bottom.

Well, gentlemen, I suppose you'd think it a hard story, but it's none the less a fact then wrote as follows, and gave it to him:

I a hard story, but it's none the less a fact then wrote as follows, and gave it to him:

I a hard story, but it's none the less a fact then wrote as follows, and gave it to him:

I a hard story, but it's none the less a fact then wrote as follows, and gave it to him:

I a hard story, but it's none the less a fact then wrote as follows, and gave it to him:

I a hard story, but it's none the less a fact then wrote as follows, and gave it to him:

I a hard story, but it's none the less a fact then wrote as follows, and gave it to him: low that kept within the circumference of and gave him a hard shove, and he glided body. He glided round and about, and nineteen sharks in the same fashion. They every now and then would stop and touch all came up to me one by one, regularly his mose against some of his comrades, and in order, and I scooped their eyes out, by agree to pay him seven per cent pre- deeply, and choose more deliberately. and seemed to consult or give instructions and gave them a shove, and they went off as to the time and mode of operations .- into deep water, just like so many lambs. Occasionally he would skull himself to- By the time I had scooped out and blindwards me, and examine the condition of ed a couple of dozen of them, they began my flesh, and then again glide back and to seem so scarce that I thought I would rejoin the troop, and flap his tail and have swim for the island, and fight the rest for The appearance of the man satisfied the every minute. another confabulation. The old rascal fun on the way; but just then, Tim Titus had, no doubt, been out in the highways hove in sight, and it had got to be almost and hywavs, and collected this company dark, and I concluded to get on board and of his friends and kin-fish and invited rest myself. them to supper. I must confess, that horribly as I felt. I could not help but think of a tea party of demure old maids, sitting EXTRACT FROM A SHORT PATENT but honorably taught, took the silver, right. in a solemn circle, with their skinny hands in their laps, licking their expecting the important functions of her prepara-condiment, which is about to be submitted to criticism and consumption. exquisite indeed; but I will not attempt to gerous. A good wife is the most constant us." describe them. I was neither hot nor cold, and faithful companion you can possibly frightened nor composed; but I had com- have by your side while performing the bination of all kinds of feelings and emo- journey of life-a dog isn't a touch to her. tions. The present, past, future, heaven, She is of more service, too, than you may earth, my father and mother, a little girl I at first imagine. She can 'smoothe your knew once, and the sharks were all con- linen and your cares' for you-mend your fusedly mixed up together, and swelled trowsers, and perchance your mannersmy crazy brain almost to bursting. I cried sweeten your sour moments as well as and laughed, and shouted and screamed your tea and coffee for you-roffle, perfor Tim Tims. In a fit of most wise mail- haps, your shirt bosoms, but not your temness, I opened my broad bladed fishing per, and instead of sowing the seeds of knife, and waved it around my head with sorrow in your path, she will sew buttons an air of defiance. As the tide continued on your shirts, and plant happiness instead to rise my extravagance of madness mount of harrow teeth in your bosom .- Yes, and will you?" ted. At one time I became persuaded that if you are too confounded lazy or too proud my tide waiters were reasonable beings, to do such work vourself, she will carry who might be talked into mercy and hu- swill to the hogs, chop wood, and dig pomanity, if a body only could hit upon the tatoes, for dinner, for her love for her hus-"Heartless villain" I shricked out, in right text. So I bowed and gesticulated, band is such that she will do anything to med to grow more hungry and familiar .- You are not wood, you are not stone, cholv moments, and keep your whole life, long duration, however, was this fishy et. In the meantime the water had got well leaves of connubic love will still be In a conversation with the writer of this sing in the meadows;—the faithful dog, fond tourney. It seemed soon to be discover- up towards my shoulders, and while I was ments came to the surface, the waves sub- perately, and without any definite object, I sided into their former smooth condition, struck at one of his eyes, and by some sin-Not till then did I experience the real ter- gular fortune, cut it out clean from the rors of my situation. As I looked around socket. In an instant hope and reason What advertised for Spanish milled dol- died not long after his birth, little prescient nature's God. me to see what had become of the rob- came to my relief, and it occurred to me bers, I counted one, two, three-ves, up to that if I could only blind the monster I bury farmer came into town for manure, his mother with his scanty patrimony twelve successively, of the largest sharks might vet escape. Accordingly I stood rea-I ever saw, Awating in a chicle around me, dy for the next anack! The loss of an eve like divergent rays, all mathematically e- did not seem to effect him much, for after qui-distant from the rock, and from each shaking once or twice, he came up to me other; each perfectly motionless, and with again, and when about half an inch off, "Yes." said the merchant; "have you got and answer as contained in the Westminis- or city; at least such is the practice in the gloating, fiery eve, fixed full and fierce u- turned his back. This was the critical pon me. Basilisks and rattle-snakes, how moment. With more unaccountable presthe fire of their steady eves entered into ence of mind, I laid hold of his nose with my heart! I was the centre of a circle; my left hand and with my right I scooped sprung, or rather unchewed game, at pened his hig mouth, and champed his "I should like to have you just clap down with the church. Few of his friends will slowly wending their way on foot, apparentwhich a pack of hunting sea dogs were long teeth at me in despair. But it was making a dead point! There was one fel- all over with him. I raised my right foot

From the N. Y. Sunday Mercury.

SERMON.

tions. With what an eye have I seen such married. Don't think of doing any thing a dozen dollars." appurtenances of humanity survey the location and adjustment of some especial My sensations began now to be most know that delays, like wild hoars, are dan- it is this .- Appearances oftentimes deceive Babylon was 15 miles square. Its walls collected in the yard now came pouring in. by all means All the excuses con can a spoonful of pigeon's milk .- Mark this-

Therefore so much more the need of annexation; for in union, as in an onion, there ("Oh, now you weep, and I perceive you feel and a little to posterity. Your days upon earth are but short at the longest, and they santly as the weather and circumstances New York Observer, respecting the influ- dwell in small towns or crowded cities. Ev

APPEARANCES.

mium for all such dollars as he may pro-

G——A——," counted. The merchant somewhat restive, ning tables, on their arms, eating with their tered the Holy of Holies-"that I was now consideration give way to that of getting ance, that you could have more than half wounded.

else. Keep poking among the rubbish of Mr. S. took up his check, and replied in and 54 high. Never think of delaying the matter; for you standing in the world ought to know, and abreast.

A SECRET.

"How do you do, Mrs. Tome-have food. you heard that story about Mrs. Ludy?

-never. Hope to die this minute." that her sister's husband was told by a land, imbedded in stone. person who dreamed it, that Mrs. Trou- Fossil remains on the Ohio prove that ble's oldest daughter told Mrs. Nichens it was once covered the by sea. that she got from her third sister's second ter; and when green, shallow. that it was reported by the captain of a vears before Christ, is still in existence. lands, that the mermaids about that sec- of years, is the coldest day in the year. pickled eels' toes!"

is only a dime a week, and really, sir, I mon at the distance of two miles. think you will be very much pleased with A hand used for horses is 4 inches.

me to subscribe for a paper?" The carrier sloped towards the door.

thumb, and giving his fingers a significant twirl, he replied: in here when I want socks; nor neither men to make fifty horse shoes, each weigh- is never to germinate—to find even your writer says: "There is but one passage in lean man becomes fatter, and the fat man the future-Oh, what a cloud of wretchedto kiss the MEN; and that is in the golden The atoms composing a man are believ- such a deplorable victim of sorrow. tule, 'Whatsoever ye would that men ed to be changed every forty days, and the should do unto you, do ye even so to bones in a few months.

Girls, do you hear that?

"How am you Bob?" "Sweet as butter."

"How is you, old rosin heel?" "Ah! nigger! I's in love-I feel as if I buck wheat cakes, and all de leetle angels

No man has a right to do wrong.

green; and perchance a jovous offspring article, some years since, Gen. Jackson of his master, was sporting about the yard, scathed oak. So mote it he! Dow, JR. exert a secret power over him until his rest from the toils and labors of the weekheart was brought into reconciliation with as a day of peace and repose, when the mind God. She had three sons, Hugh, Robert might abstract itself from all wordly thoughts Some years since a merchant on Long and Andrew, the youngest, whose father and, through nature, hold communion with lars. The premium was high. A Rox- of the future same of his poor boy, whom and who took pride in appearing like a could scarely educate. But he said that past we commenced making the necessary poor man, with a shovel on his shoulder, she inculcated religious truth upon his preparations for church, the morning services called at the counting room of the man, mind The leading doctrines of the Bible of which, the reader is aware, commence at and asked him if he wanted silver dollars, were taught him in the form of question an earlier hour in the country than in town any?" "Not with me.' replied the farmer, ter Catechism. In those truths he expres- Parish of * * * * "but I think I have a few at home. What sed his decided belief. But their saving do you give?" "Four per cent," said the power does not seem to have been felt for to church. The farmers were flocking in evmerchant; and added, "I will give seven more than half a century afterwards. I ery direction,—some in their gay equipages, on paper how much you give, and the probably claim for him the possession of ly absorbed in pleasing reflections. Now number of your shop, or I shall be puz- piety while he was the occupant of the and then might be seen issuing from the zled to find it." "Yes, said the merchant, presidential chair, however much in such skirts of the woods and lawn, an interesting "Edward Summer, of Roxbury, says due the passions of the conspicuous incum- countenances, and a beautiful simplicity in that he thinks he has some Spanish half bent of that coveted seat. In retirement, their manners which could not fail to attract dollars at home, but don't know. I here- it was different, there he could reflect more the eye even of a careless observer. You

INTERESTING FACTS.

"If I find any," said the cartman, "I The population of the earth is estimated ding, situated in a grave-yard, not far from will call with them to morrow morning, at one thousand millions. Thirty millions the main road, and surrounded by a number at 9 o'clock; if I dan't, you won't see me. die anuually, 8,421 every hour, and 57 of large trees whose spreading branches af.

stocking full was carried up and emptied the two sexes always to eat separately. dread stole insensibly over my mind;—I felt on the table, till seven thousand were The Romans lay on couches at their di- as did the Jewish High Priest when he en-gave a check for the amount, with seven It is estimated that 245,000 persons have Each rude passion was calmed, and I was Young man! if you have arrived at the per cent, added; pleasantly remarking, "I been annually killed in battle for the last endeavoring to prepare myself for engaging lips, while their hostess bustles about in right point of life for it, let every other really did not suppose from your appear- four thousand years, to say nothing of the Noah's Ark was 575 feet long, 91 broad, rupted by the sound of a small bell which were 75 feet thick and 30 high. The largest pyramid is 481 feet high. A clean skin is as necessary to health as

On one of the peaks of the Alps there is Never have I seen a congregation manifest "Why, no, really, Mrs. Gab, what is it a block of granite weighing, by estimate so much devotion. There was scarcely a 441.568 tons, so nicely balanced on its single person who did not respond and whose "O. I promised not to tell for all the centre of gravity, that a single man may heart did not appear to be deeply engaged.

"Why. I'll never tell on't, as long as I sprinkled in a room, corrects puttidity.

"Now you won't say anything about it Gold may be beaten into leaves so thin, clear and distinct, his manner solemn and that 280,000 would be only an inch thick. impressive:-"No. I'll never open my head about it The earth is 7916 miles in diameter, and a Truth from his lips prevailed with double 24.880 miles round.

"Well, if you'll believe. Mrs. Funday Forests of standing trees have been dis- And fools, who came to scoff, remained to told me last night, that Mrs. Trot told her covered in Yorkshire. England, and in Irethat her grandmother heard by a letter When the sea is a blue color, deep wa-clam-boat just arrived from the Feejee Is- The 14th day of January, on an average among the people. And now tion, wore shark-skin hustles stuffed with In water, sound passes at the rate of 4.-

"Mr. --," said our polite carrier ves- In the Arctic regions, when the thermo-it; come, now, let me put your name | Ezekiel's reed was 10 ft. 111 inches long. A Sabbath day's journey was about two he is a follower of Christ." Mark that,

The bones of birds are hollow and filled son 20.080,320.

on his faithful errand .- [Columbia (Tenn.) an inch than he is at night,

Never look at the girls. Oh no, they can't bear to be looked at; they re gard it as an insult. They wear their fections, that they may know and love fine feathers and bustles merely to gratify their mammas, that's all. Gosh!

SimElizabeth, I should say you were Miss Browns."

and I mean he shall keep it too."

[For the Star.] A SABBATH IN THE COUNTRY

"God made the country, and man made the town - towper. "How still the morning of the hallowed day! Mute is the voice of rural labor, hush'd The plough boy's whistle, and the milkmaid's song." - Grahame.

It was a beautiful Sabbath morning in the month of July. The sun arose in unclouded splencor-darting his rays upon the tall trees which surrounded the dwelling ofand tinging with radiant purple the half-enlightened clouds. I was on a visit to the ountry for the purpose of recruiting my health, and tasting the charms of nature the verdant lawn, and the cattle were brow-

I arose with a cheerful heart, but did not forget the solemn injunction contained in the might easily perceive that they were strangers to vice, and had been early taught to 'remember the Sabbath day to keep it holy.' At length we reached the venerable builford a most delightful shade The Church perchant that his dollars would be scarce. A bushel of wheat weighing 62 pounds is an ancient building, reared by the hands of men who, doubtless, have long since been At 9 o'clock the next day, however, the contains 550,000 kerners.

man appeared, and stocking full after In Greece it was the custom at meals for entered its sacred walls a feeling of religious in the immediate presence of Jehovah." in the sublime and beautiful services of the church with feelings suited to their solemnity, when my thoughts were suddenly interseemed to proceed from behind the readthe world till you have stirred up a gem his own peculiar emphatic style. "Sir, I'll The walls of Ninnevah were 100 feet ding desk. I soon discovered its meaning; worth possessing in the shape of a wife tell you a truth which a man of your high and thick enough for three chariots it was the signal that the services were about commencing, and those who had gradually In a short time all again was solemn silence. The Rector now entered and commenced the morning service:-

"With meek and unaffected grace, His looks adorned that venerable place." world! No, I must never tell ou't. I'm give it a rocking motion.

afraid it will git out."

Vinegat boiled with myrrh or camphor He gave a beautiful description of the West. He gave a beautiful description of the "last live, just as true as the world; what is it, Hops entwine to the left, and beans to present at that holy ordinance, and the reasons why it was instituted. His voice was

After the sermon the Rector descended from the pulpit and prepared to administer the holy communion. About one third of the congregation went forward and, devoutly kneeling at the altar, partook of that holy sacrament. I have often witnessed the celhusband's oldest brother's step-daughter, A map of China, made one thousand ebration of the Lord's supper in the country, but never have I seen so much solemnity

> "The service past, - around the pious man, With steady zeal each honest rustic ran; 608 feet per second. In the air, 1,142 feet And pluck'd his gown to share the good man's smile," terday to a monied gentleman not a thou- meter is below zero, persons can converse ness that my time had not been unprofitably I now returned home with the conscioussand mile from the public square, "will at more than a mile distant. Dr. Jamesson spent. The solemn scenes which I had that you not subscribe for our daily paper, it asserts that he heard every word of a ser- morning witnessed lest impressions upon my mind which can never be forgotten. East on, July 12th, 1845.

83" Man is no farther a christian than

A FRAGMENT.

To enter this world without a welcome stand a sad and silent monument amid the The flea jumps 200 times its own length joys of others, which you cannot underand touching the end of his nose with his equal to a quarter of a mile for a man. stand nor conceive of—to carry within The black ostrich stands seven feet high. your bosom the buried seeds of happiness In the human body there are 240 bones. which are to grow, of intelligence which is "Well I did'nt, horse; but I shan't walk There is iron enough in the blood of 42 never to burst forth, or usefulness which existence without one cheering sound-Water is the only universal medicine; by without one welcome accent—without one it all diseases may be alleviated or cured. exhilirating thought-without one recol-SCRIPTURE FOR IT .- A distinguished Above the age of thirty-six, it is said the lection of the past-without one hope of ness covers, surrounds and overwhelms

Now, to throw over such a benighted being the sweet rays of intelligence-to open the intellect, and let it gush forth to streams of light and joy-to rouse the af-God, the giver of all things, and merciful in all his chastisements-to enlighten the soul that it may see its origin and destiny -to cause the lips to smile, though they without a heart, by the way you treat the cannot speak; the eye to glisten with other emotions than those of sorrow, and the "I can't help that, mother. Bill Jones mind to understand, although it cannot stole my heart more than six months ago, hear-Oh! what a beautiful supplement to the benevolence of Heaven.