elow to be correct, that the envoy proposition to lay before our goassist in cutting a canal so as to in-America, by the junction of the Pacific waters, a proposition which ded with such mighty effects on e with the Indies, that the imaost reels under the magnitude of on, It is worth our while occaist our eyes from our petty politibroils, to know what is passing on on which we tread; one gigantic ives birth to another project more until the mind in the contemplasame solemnity and salutary awe, elt at that thunder peal which so ned us. The moral world parevolutions of the planetary orbits, mperors, Princes and Potentates, minated the Holy Alliance or not, attempt to stop with their hands, lovements of the earth, as the rehe mind .- Balt. Chron.

THE PROVIDENCE PATRIOT. wing was handed us by a genhis town, who has had such of obtaining the information tains, as should give it full the public, and as such, we iders will find it interesting, as it relates to a part of y little known. d Provinces of the centre of hich by the basis of the Conagreed upon, will be called States of the centre of Aat present composed of the Nicaragua, Honduras, San ostarica, Guatimala, and go. At present, three citihe head of the government, particular title, although in eside monthly, and the precalled, for the time being, There is a representation of from each Province, which sional Congress. The basis ution is very similar to that States, with the exception hed religion, which is the lic, any other public mode ing prohibited. They will ent, Senate and House of es, elected in the same rs, and for the same length the principles of the Conas purely Republican, in xcepting religion, as those States. Slavery is not to and every one arriving of the Republic, becomes anding army is reduced to se stationed at the differ-ts to over 80,000 effective on importation are triffing, oduce of the country is alsported free of duty, exd silver, indigo, balsams, m-gold and silver pay the others a very moderpopulation of the six present united, is more and the population of Chiapa, which is about to the others, has about province is situated beand Guatimala, and was co, but has withdrawn garrisons. The armed

Extraordinary, recently country, is D. Antonio h D. Fernando Valero, as sgation. A young Ameolinas, son of their Envoy of Colombia, came with or the purpose of receivhere, and expects to re-sea ports in the Repuba and Isabel, in sweet e Dulce,) Omoa, Truxillo n the Atlantic, and Rea-as brought a plan of a anal, from Lake Nicaraic Ocean, shewing that only require to be 5 or ngth, and thus open a between the Atlantic vessels of 4 to 500 tons. st eligible points for the U. States. The counhit'would run is thought ichest and most fertile d, indeed, the greater citory of the Republic, e valuabie productions, able and mineral world, istant period, become a part of the globe, to the ablished their indepenstruggle with the mod Spain has no troops tory, but such is the siuntry and character of at it would undoubtedarger army than Spain send to reconquerit.

in the United States .--Society appeals to you, the most humane, belanthropic master. It ember, on the day conkful recollection of our ence and the high priitical existence, those out a name, and whose s country must be perpon Christian friends rding to their ability, to plan which will raise ate, the ignorant, and knowledge and virtue injustice and supersticruelly oppressed our ou to aid in a work of nature, both in this frica-- to remove obact the march of freethe traffick in humau up the cross, the sign salvation, before the nighty continent. It policy and interest. Consider the condition and prospects of our country.— boy. The mate of a vessel also was reprove injurious to his election. Tis but perior to Mr. Adams, in the talants and beral wages. ments of destruction. Let us then, by military honors.

a magnanimous effort, mantain and which will afford to those who may be transferred to it, invaluable blessings, and, while it contributes essentially to our national felicity, will prove us benevolent-prove us just. Two hundred and forty emigrants were, by the most recent accounts, in health at Monrovia. They rejoice in their situation, and invite their brethern to become members of their society. It is with you Chris-except seventy-one ships; of course, that proved to impeach the integrity of the Secreta- duty. He nobly does it, regardless of sons at said meetings, which the society 2dly, nine hundred and sixty-nine vesry, or to bring into doubt the general correcttheir applause or censure, he proudly reaforesaid have hitherto made every efsolution, his mind had long been prepared in its principles his feith established—his hopes sels were broken up. sold. condemned, ness and ability of his administration of the tires in the consciousness of rectitude, fort in their power to prevent in vain— &c. between 1814, and 1820; Sdly, that public finances. To this point, as the main ob. well knowing that posterity will at least Therefore, or even one sixth of the number of ships that Mr. Edwards, appointed minister to Mexibe destroyed, which is here stated, the destruction must be immense.

been stated in the papers, that Jacob and before the President had time to read the Hook, a rich man in the western part of report and evidence through. Pennsylvania; who committed a most bloody murder a few months since, has William McRec, late a Colonel in the army was received with great amazement by the President of the United States, to be Sur- in Florida and Spanish treachery, and five dollars, for the second offence ten Remaining in the Post Office at Cambridge, Md. some were realized. The New York | sas, vice William Rector. Censor, published in Chautauque county, explains the matter by stating that

The United States brig Spark, Lieut. Newwould not act as ambassador to the court Quarterly meeting, within two miles of Josiah Bayly, 3 ty, explains the matter by stating that ton, was so sail from Havana for New York on of any usurper? A tyrant because he which such offence or offences may be Letisha Corner and the Zadock Croppe exhibited at his trial, and which reflects the 20th ult. officers and crew all well. nothing but disgrace on the judge and Cheap Travelling.—The proprietors of the Ambrista, two British incendiaries, who may be committed, in the same manner Zeb. Foxwell, 2 jury who tried him. As a serious conBoston and Albany Stage, advertise to carry in time of peace urged on refugee neas small debts out of court are now reDaniel Jones Forman Sarah Stevens
Julianne Hutchingson Ann M. Scott firmation of this, we have to state, that passengers from Boston to Northampton, 100 groes and ferocious savages to murder covered, and the penalty for said offen- Julianna Hutchingson Ann M. Scott who has have for $2.75, and from Northampton, to our defenceless and inoffensive country- ces when recovered shall be paid over John Hooper Mark Harper the morning after the trial. He was George Washington Adams, son of John Quin- try." He was calumniated because he SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That it Solomon Jones Solomon Jackson, 3 heard to say, before his death, that he cy Adams, will deliver an Oration before the executed the gallant Andrew, and Bri- shall be the duty of the clerk of the Ebin Kinnerd bribery, and that he might as well die as live. On being asked how much money he had received, he replied that he had | -of which eleven were by the small pox. received no more than the rest of the Jury. Mr. Dunn's wife found a sum of currently reported that Judge Moore, ed States. who presided at the trial, also received Nicholas Stonestreet, esq. has been announc- hospitable mansion, unite in declaring hinder any ordinary keeper, or licensed a large sum of money from Hook; but ed as a candidate for elector of President and him the most amiable and engaging of retailer from selling liquors and other this, by some, is not believed. Hook, Vice-President of the United States, and, if men, the most affectionate husband, to things in their respective dwelling houses since his trial, appears haughty and im elected, will vote for Gen. Andrew Jackson, his adopted children, the most kind and or stores. the effusion of blood did not stop here."

On Thursday the 10th inst. the house of Jonathan Smith, Esq. of Farrington, Ontario county, New York, was destroy- | Cambridge, during the last week, comed by fire. The Palmyra Sentinel says | mencing on Saturday, the 26th ult. the family were unsuspectingly enjoying Thermotheir comfortable repose, when, at about 3 o'clock, they were alarmed by the discharge of a gun in the house occasioned by the fire, and found themselves surrounded by the flames. The fire had made such progress that it was with considerable difficulty any one escaped, and, sad to relate, a boy eight years old, who was asleep in an upper room, was burned alive! Nothing of consequence was saved and; Mr. S's loss of property is estiestimated at about $6000—a trifling loss when compared with that of his son!-The fire is supposed to have been the work of an incendiary, and a person suspected of the foul crime, has been arrested and committed to jail to await his trial.

Duel .-- We are grieved to learn, by letters from Arkansas, that Hon. Joseph | a gust in the evening, from a cloud from N. W Selden, a Judge of the United States accompanied with thunder and lightning. Court for that Territory, was killed in a Duel on the 26th ultimo. His wife and one child are already on their way to Virginia, where Judge Selden was born, bred, and married. This gentleman was a dis drew Jackson, we see combined every been made-Mr. Adams, in the hour of in 20 hours. late war, and previously to his leaving the Army for the nursuits of civil life the Army for the nursuits of civil life the arms and previously to his leaving the late war, and previously to his leaving the late war, and previously to his leaving late war, and previously to his late war, and previously to his late war, and p had, reached the brevet rank of lieuten- rity precludes the indulgence for a mo- See Letters between Mr. Monroe and Geneant Colonel. He has left a numerous cir- ment, of suspicion of intrigue—He pre- ral Jackson.

at Quebec, the city was visited by a thun- the purity of his motives in every pub- nole war was published, the General de- Carpenters, in this port, have turned out ware, and evidence against said thief or thieves, der cloud, from which an unusual quanter lie act of his life, he beholds with philo- clared, "he hoped he should live to see for higher wages, in consequence of the by tity of the electric fluid was discharg- sophic disinterestedness, the numerous Mr, Adams in the Presidential chair" activity in that branch of business, at the ed, at two flashes only, upon the inhabi- wilful misrepresentations of them, by Every person has read General Wash- present moment. We believe they have would influence you not only by motives | iron, but without a conductor. In one | charge against him out of the number, | fill any diplomatic trust of the govern- | quested by a master-builder to state, of duty and charity, but also by these of wing, Ensign John D. Cogan was killed, which, they so eagerly yet privately did ment. He decidedly expresses his opin- that 100 ship carpenters and axe-men to lend your aid, on the Sabbath which Methodist church, at this place. must excite the warmest gratitude of built, of 104,366 tons; and in 1822, only 723 ships, of 65,534 tons, not much above one half the tonnage actually built 4 years one half the tonnage actually built 4 years one half the tonnage actually built 4 years one to the result, which has now been stated, and they have timidate Andrew Jackson a patriot of the most unblemished intention of the genuine beautiful to the property will at least to his motives. Merited praise to his motives to his motives. Merited praise to his motives to his motives to his motives. Merited praise to his motives to his motives to his motives to his motives. Merited by the General his motives to his motives to his motives to his motives to h co some time since, communicated his resignation immediately after the Report of the Inves. Trial of Jacob Hook.—It has already | tigating Committee was sent to the President, been tried and acquitted. His acquittal of the United States, has been appointed by erously interposed between our settlers forfeit for the first offence the sum of Robert Wright, esq. is an electoral candidate money which she could not tell how or for the district of Kent and Queen Ann's, in where he received. The deceased has this state, and, if elected, will vote for WILleft a large family of children. It is LIAM H. CRAWFORD, as President of the Unit-

For the Cambridge Chronicle.

Meteorological Observations, taken in meter. Sun 2 rise. P.M.	WEATHER.

26, 75°, 86° S. W.	Clear.
27, 80°, 91° S. 28, 79°, 90° S.	Clear.
28,79°, 90°S.	Clear in the morning,
	heavy cloud in the ever ing from N. W. air high ly charged with electr
20 760 0000 777	city, much rain & wind
29, 76°, 88° S. W.	Different clouds from th
THE RESERVE OF THE RE	North, each accompaned with much rain, so vere thunder and ligh
	ning.
30, 78°, 88° S.	Clear in the morning
	heavy gust in the eve
	ing from N. W. wit
July	much thunder & ligh
CONTROL OF THE PROPERTY OF THE	ning.
1,76°, 87° N. W.	Clear.
2,73°, 86° S. W.	Clear in the morning, an
a gust in the avening	from a aloud from MY XX

THE PRESIDENCY, No. 2.

To the Editors of the Cambridge Chronicle. Gentlemen—In the character of An- Department of State, that could have fatigue one hundred and seventy miles is a good saddle and harness creature.—The cle of connections and friends to mourn sents himself to the people as did his When the letter of Mr. Adams to Don Messrs. Cohen's office.]—Amer. compatriot Geo. Washington, disdain- Onis, the Spanish minister, which coning popularity at the expense of virtue, tained the able and eloquent defence of Awful Visitation .- On the 9th inst. justice and public weal .- Conscious of General Jackson's conduct in the Semi-

The rapid increase of our colo ed popula- ported to be killed, and many persons an empty presumption, and will ere qualifications which constitute a statestion portends misery, if not roin. We were prostrated by the shocks. The long prove to those busy gentlemen, those man. cherish within the midst of us the ele- deceased were all enterred together, with champions of misrepresentation, those The celebrated Erskine, in the trial of in our last. worthy workers of public prosperity, no Tom Paine, quoted the writings of Mr. small source of merited mortification Adams, as replete with genius and poli- Prices of Country Produce strengthen our African Colony-a Col- CAMBRIDGE CHRONICLE and disappointment, while the freemen tical wisdom. of the Union (I say freemen because | The opinions of such men, are entitled | their actions have and still declare to more weight than a cart load of newsthem such) will add fresh and undenia- paper fustian and puerile rodomontade. ble proofs to the unnumbered many now existing, that they are descendants of Communicated for the Chronicle. the heroes and marturs of '76—that they Messrs. Stone & Co. have not depreciated or departed from You will please publish the subjoined Wheat, white, per bushel, AND EASTERN SHORE the political and exalted examples set act of Assembly for the protection of Do. red, do. ADVERTISER. by their illustrious forefathers, and that Camp and Quarterly Meetings in this Indian Corn, they are willing to reward superior county. The season is fast approaching Oats, - - -SATURDAY EVENING, July 3, 1824. merit, and capable of selecting from the when such meetings will be held, and it Rye, tians, to decide whether this settlement contending garden of the presidential is but just, the provisions of the law shall live and prosper. The funds of On Wednesday evening last, we were visited candidates the most brilliant, perma- should be made known, that all concernthe Colonization Society are exhausted. by one of the most severe thunder storms with nent and useful flower-a flower which ed "may have due notice thereof and It therefore, in the name of humanity in our recollection, accompanied with heavy has braved the blast of many a blighting govern themselves accordingly." Several ecclesiastical bodies have, much dous peals of thunder. A carriage house in Fruit and other articles within two miles of an inveterate complaint, which medical aid was to their honour, requested their Churches this town, belonging to the heirs of the late Jackson his opponents have not publicto contribute in aid of the Colonization | Mrs. Campbell, was struck by the lightning | ly announced one charge founded on Society on the Fourth of July. Minis- and consumed, together with a chaise, and a principle and truth, that can even aters of Jesus! we ask you, in the name quantity provender, owned by the Rev. Mr. | mount to an objection to him. They aof millions in this land and in Africa, to to lend your aid on the Sabbath which to lend your aid on the Sabbath which which to lend your aid on the Sabbath which which to an objection to min. They are to lend your aid on the Sabbath which which riety of capacities, as a Magistrate correct and no man has the chalice of calumny been at different times sustained great distur- just-as a Representative to the state Legislamore deeply drained. Obliquy and cen- bance and vexation at their Camp and ture, possessing abilities by no means ordinary, the Patriot and truest devotion of the Report of the Committee of Investigation.—Not sure have been heaped on him, by those Quarterly meetings from the conduct and latterly a Judge of the Orphans' Court of Christian, to this great cause of God and having published the first Report of the Committee of Investigation.—Not having published the first to delight in hon- of licentious persons who attend their he bore the numerous deprivations and dismittee of the House of Representative, appoint oring him. I blush for my country, to meetings: and whereas the existing appointments which this earthly pilgrimage is By order of the Board of Managers, ted to investigate the charges preferred by Mr find some calumniators base enough to laws on the subject are found by experiments inflicted by the hand of heaven R. R. GURLEY, Agent. Edwards, against Mr. Secretary Crawford, on declaim Jackson a tyrant! The reptile rience to be inadequate to prevent the chastisements inflicted by the hand of heaven, with Christian resignation. He seemed to British Navy—An article in the last account of its great length, we cannot with propriety give that of the 21st June last as it aphilosophic eye, always reaping instruction London Monthly Magazine, on "Naval frequently refers to the former—We therefore the man whom the unmeaning clamours society, but has drawn down upon it the man whom the unmeaning clamours society, but has drawn down upon it the their eventuation. lar assertions: 1st, that all the British Na- content ourselves by stating, that the Committee of chicken-hearted, fire-side politicians censure of the public immoralities practities prac vy have been consumed since the peace, tee say, in their opinion, nothing has been can restrain from the performance of his tised by disorderly and irreligious per-

> saved the earnings of the hardy frontiers- dollars, and for each succeeding offence man? A tyrant because he refused an the sum of twenty dollars, to be reco- Samuel R. Barnes, 3 stopped the effusion of American blood | committed, before any justice of the | Zadock Cropper by the execution of Arthbuthnot and peace in the county where the offence James Chamberlain Hooper Rauleigh men?—If so, he is such a tyrant as was to the clerk of the county for the use of Mark Harper

All the intimate acquaintance of Jack- tor by the clerk. son, as has been said by those who know | SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That noindulgent father-The ardent friend, ARISTIDES. Cambridge, June 29.

FOR THE CAMBRIDGE CHRONICLE. Mr. Monroe's opinion of John Q. Adams.

General Jackson's opinion.

one half the tonnage actually built 4 years come to the result, which has now been stated, the most unblemished integrity, pure a booth for the purpose of selling, or bore to society—as husband, father, friend and master were all by him conscientiously dissaved his country from the savage toma- | chief manager of the Camp or Quarter- | never die! hawk, and the yet more savage fury of a ly meeting within two miles of which British army? A tyrant because he gen- either of said articles shall be sold, shall

> tain was loud in her denunciations; but county upon the reception of any fines | Cambridge Lodge In New-York last week there were 63 deaths were denouncing Jackson, even Britain act, to inform the Levy Court of the John Miller whilst some of our pretended patriots imposed and recovered by virtue of this Dr. John Langrell acknowledged the justice of the sentence | county when they meet to lay the asby which Arthbuthnot and Ambrista sessment of the county, of the amount died;—Yes Andrew Jackson is such a of fines received by virtue of this act and respecting the payment of their little postage true it is, "envy can never behold supe- the U. S. schooner Porpoise, It. comd't. the Cambridge Chronicle office. rior merit without endeavoring to black- | Charles W. Skinner, went to sea from en virtue into vice," and equally true | Hampton Roads on Sunday afternoon, that it was the fate of Washington to be bound to the Coast of Africa. The Rev. Hugh vilified, and when offered for the Presi- Mr. Gurley, agent for the American Codency to be denounced by some as a lonization Society, went passenger. The military chieftain who would prostrate follwing list of the officers of the Porthe civil authority. But his country ele-vated him—and so, if true to herself, their friends:—Lt. Com. Charles W. a she elevates her second Washington .- | Skinner; Lieuts. Richard Hunter, Thos. "Strong in the affections of the people, Brown, Edward S. Johnson, Sailing Mas- WIRE SAFES of the most approved kinds; Andrew Jackson would present a rocky ter, Charles Lowndes; Purser, John C. rolling and standing SCREENS for merchant adamant, against which the waves of De Hart; Surgeon, George Terrill; Cap- mills and flax seed; RIDDLES and SIEVES, tain's clerk, G. Giberson; Midshi pmen, for corn, coal, ore, barley, rye, oats, flax and Cutts, Abbot, Hoff, Whetcroft, Missroon, clover seeds, wheat, cockle, lime, sand, snuff, and Fairfax.

Baltimore, June 29. Expeditious Traveling .- The great "I shall take a person for the depart- facility experienced in the despatch of ment of State from the Eastward, and business since the establishment of steam Mr. Adams' claims by long experience in our diplomatic concerns, appearing to entitle him to the preference, supported particular notice. Mr. D. Within the preference, supported particular notice. Mr. D. Within the preference of the subscribers, on Wednesday night, 21st particular notice. Mr. D. Within the preference of the subscribers of the subscribers. entitle him to the preference, supported particular notice. Mr. P. Withington by his acknowledged ability and inte- of Kingston, New Jersey, left home on grity, his nomination will go to the Sunday night last at half past 9 o'clock, One a sorrel, 8 years old this spring, well formand reaching Philadelphia, took the ed, with a blaze in his face, and his left leg steam boat yesterday morning and arri- ed on the left shoulder and left thigh, with "I have no hesitation in saying, you ved at Baltimore in the afternoon at a letter on each, not particularly recollected, have made the best selection to fill the half past five having travelled without but believe they are H. B. The above Horse > on Thursday last, and in a few minutes | right fore-leg, just below the knee, resembling after his arrival realized his good for- that of the splint; his natural gates, a trot and tune, on presenting the ticket at the canter, but will rack a little. The person

> Philadelphia, June 22. Turn Out!-The Journeymen Ship | will be given be subscribers at Bridgeville, Dela-

Bank Note Eachange the same as given

Corrected weekly for the Cambridge Chronicle,

BY M'FADON & HARRIS, Commission Merchants, Exchange Building, Wednesday, June 30.

FLOUR, Howard-street, pr. bbl. $5 75

[Communicated for the Chronicle.] OBITUARY.

Departed this life, on Monday morning last, P. | the 28th ult. at his seat, Stepney View, ROSER HOOPER, Esq. in the 49th year of his age. He Fruit and other articles within two miles of an inveterate complaint, which medical aid was any Methodist Camp or Quarterly Meeting | summoned in vain to heal, and which at length in Dorchester county, and to suppress riot- put a period to his terrestrial existence. ous and disorderly behaviour at those places | Through the extent of his valuable and impor-

principles, his faith established-his hopes

with the unanimous concurrence of the mem- and spottess, whose hard-earned fame who shall from a wagon, cart or carriage, master, were all by him conscientiously discharged. As a husband, he was tender and These statements are stretched and extravagant; but, if one half, one fourth, whose mard-earned lame extravagant; but, if one half, one fourth, every point is Jackson invulnerable.

We learn from the National Intelligencer, or other extables within two as a parent, kind and indulgent; as a parent, kind and indulgent; as a friend, true and consistent, and as a mas-"The armour of Achilles not only co- oysters or other eatables within two ter, the love and respect his servants bear his miles of any Camp or Quarterly meet- memory, prove how tender and how kind he It has been well asked, Is Andrew Jackson a tyrant, because he led our armies to victory? A tyrant because he permission signed by the managers or But his soul is happy as it is immortal, and can

A List of Letters

James Nichols, 2 Dr. Geo. W. Pratt, 2 Reubin Phillips Col. Thomas Pitt Wm. Robinson Jonathan R. Torbert Reubin Tall Absalom Thompson William Turner Susan White Eliza Waggaman Louis White Lewis R. White

Elijah Young. CFI wish to remind those, who for several tyrant as was George Washington. | the same shall be paid over to the collec- accounts, that I have to account with the Post Master General, quarterly, and the amount thus advanced for many individuals, amounts to a very inconvenient sum

JAMES CHAPLAIN.

Wanted Immediately, WOMAN servant—one who understands the practical and professing Christian: We learn by the Norfolk Beacon, that rally, may hear of a place, by applying at

At the Sign of the Fan and Screen, No. 12, SOUTH CALVERT-ST.

BALTIMORE, TANUFACTURES and sells the following starch and brick dust; WOVEN WIRE for milk houses and cellar windows; together with all kinds of WIRE WORK.

150 Dollars Reward.

TWO HORSES,

which is strongly suspected, is William Claw. who is now lodged in Cambridge jail for passing counterfeit money. The above reward will be given for the Horses and thief, if deli-JOHN WILSON, Carpenter, aud

AUSELM D. CANNON. tants. The principal streams fell on the barracks, which were covered with sheet trouble to investigate perhaps one single to his father, as every way qualified to To Ship Carpenters.—We are re
Delaware, July 1st, 1824. S

N. B. One hundred dollars for both Horses, or is proportion for one. july 3—3t Bridgeville, Sussex County, ?