ETEL EQUIDED.

"MUCH YET REMAINS UNSUNG."

THE FAITHFUL FRIEND. My father left ten thousand pounds, And will'd it all to me;

As kind, as kind could be. This sent a buck, and that a bear; And some the Lord knows what; In short I thought, I could declare No man such friends had got.

They ate my meat, they drank my wine, In truth so kind were they, That be the weather wet or fine, They'd dine with me next day.

They came—and like the circling year; The circling glass went round; Till something whispered in my ear, "Ah, poor ten thousand pounds!" "Pshaw! stuff!" cried I "I'll hear it not"

"Besides, such friends are mine, "That what they have will be my lot, "So push about the wine. The glasses rung, the jest prevailed, 'Twas summer every day; "I'ill like a flower by blight assailed,

My thousands dropt away. Alas! and so my friends dropt off, Like rose-leaves from the stem; My fallen state but met their scoff, And I no more saw them.

One friend, one honest friend remain'd, Alive to every tender feeling, When all the locusts flew, feign'd, My faithful DOG!—'twas you.

DEATH OF MARY. By the author of "Lines on the burial of Sir Thomas Moore."

1 might not weep for thee; But I forgot, when by thy side, That thou couldst mortal be: It never through my mind had passed, That time would e'er be o'er,

When I on thee should look my last, And thou shouldst smile no more. And still upon that face I look, And think 'twill smile again; And still the thought I will not brook, That I must look in vain-

But when I speak thou dost not say What thou ne'er left'st unsaid; And now I feel-as well I may, Sweet Mary, thou art dead!

If thou would stay, ee'n as thou art, All cold and all serene, I still might press thy silent heart, And where thy smile has been-While ee'n thy chill, bleak corse I have, Thou seemest still mine own, But there-I lay thee in the grave,

And now-I am alone!

I do not think, where'er thou art, Thou hast forgotten me; And I, perhaps, may soothe this heart, In thinking still of thee! Yet there was round thee such a dawn

Of light ne'er seen before, As Fancy never could have drawn, And never can restore.

No. 1-Always welcome. than the trunk.

THE PLAGUE IN LONDON.

In its malignancy, it engressed the ill of all other maladies, and made doctors despicable. Of a potency equal to death, and was itself the death of every other with all its infirmities, steals impercepti- your seed on the ground with the flax, mortal distemper. The touch, yea, the bly upon us, what is better calculated to very sight of the infected, was deadly; | make life's latter end tolerable, than and its signs were so sudden, that fami- | companion who will illumine our many | lies seated in happiness at their meals | dark hours, and participate in our joys; | ground is kept from exposure to the have seen the plague-spot begin to red- one to whom we can say as did the father sun through the heat of the summer, den, and have wildly scattered them- of mankind, to our mother Eve, "bone which certainly injures the land more selves forever. The cement of society of my bone, and flesh of my flesh." was dissolved by it. Mothers, when they saw the sign of the infection on the babes at their bosom, cast them from them with abhorrence. Wild places were sought for shelter; some went into ships, and anchored themselves afar off on the waters. But the angel that was pouring the vial, had a foot on the sea as well as on the dry land. No place was small number of marriages; and even 5th year. so wild, that the plague did not visitnone so secret that the quick-sighted pestilence did not discover-none could fly that it did not overtake.

It was as if Heaven had repented the making of mankind, and was shoveling them all into the sepulchre. Justice was torgotten, and her courts deserted. The terrified jailors fled from the felons that caps. Steer clear of old Bachelors. Re- cession, as above stated, you will soon were in fetters; the innocent and the sort not to Rouge to give your cheeks a see the result by turning down a clover guilty leagued themselves together, and color; throw away your corsets, that sod every year for corn and winter grain, kept within their prisons for safety; the cause you to resemble hour glasses, and thereby enriching your farm, not grass grew in the market-places; the cat- and false curls, and the above prediction only by turning down clover, but by rais- chester county, this is to give notice, Editor of the Cambridge Chronicle, who tle went moaning up and down the fields, | may be verified. wondering what had become of their keepers; the rooks and rayens came into | Value of Printing .- In 1274, the of your farm. the towns, and built their nests in the price of a small Bible, neatly transcribmute belfries; silence was universal, save ed, was 30 pounds, a sum equal to at | DIRECTIONS FOR RAISING CABBAGE. when some infected wretch was seen least 2 or 300 pounds of our money. A Take from the stumps of old cabbages | deceased. All persons having claims | clamouring at a window.

fins and shrouds; but even that ended. ed, that the building of the two arches they have sufficiently expanded them- vouchers thereof, to the subscriber, on Shrift there was none; churches and of London Bridge cost only 25 pounds, selves, and set them out in the same or before the 25th day of Oct. next, they BUSINESS in the above town, in all chapels were open, but neither priest nor | which is 5 pounds less than what a copy | mode you do your plants, and they will | may otherwise by law be excluded from | penitent entered; all went to the carnal of the Bible sold for many years after- immediately take root and afford you a all benefit of said estate. house. The sexton and the physician wards. These facts afford a curious very early and luxurient cabbage. Those Given under my hand this 11th day line, such as Silks, Muslins, Crapes, Ribwere cast into the same deep and wide | commentary on the changes and advan- who have tried this method affirm that of April, anno domini, 1825. grave; the testator, and his heirs and ex- | tages produced by the extraordinary in- | they are earlier & far uperior to any that | ecutors, were harled from the same cart | vention of printing which has done so | can be raised from the plants. They into the same hole together. Fires be- much to altar or shake all the justitu- must be broken from the stumps, and not] came extinguished, as if its elements | tions of the world, wherever the press | cut off, as their small fibres greatly fa- | estate are requested to make immediate | ions. too had expired; the seams of the sailor- has appeared.

less ships yawned to the sun. Though doors were open, and coffers unwatched, there was no theft; all offences ceased, and no crime, but the universal wo of Selected for the Cambridge Chronicle. the pestilence was heard of among men. The wells overflowed, and the conduits ran to waste; the dogs banded them- | Cast Steel to itself or to Iron at heat litselves together, having lost their mas- | the above red heat, which low temperaters, and ran howling over all the land; ture is essential towards preserving the wood, supposed to have been dropped horses perished of famine in their stalls; | quality of the steel, has long been prac- | from a lady's bosom; as there is nothing old friends but looked at one another, tised as a secret by Mr. Augustus Seibe, when they met, keeping themselves far of London. It is thus effected: In a principal value is in its solid contents; the sive weeks, in the newspaper printed in aloof; creditors claimed no debts, and clean crucible borax is melted, and then courtiers performed their promises; little | with one tenth of its weight of pounded | wharf near Wheeler's Point, and if not | children went wandering up and down, | sal-ammoniac is mixed, and incorporated and numbers were seen dead in all cor- over the fire; the mixture is then poured | sidered as a donation to the fuel society. the plague so raged; it travelled over a glass like substance is pulverised, and year of the late king's reign, a man of have hereunto set my Hand the world and the source of life.

WOMAN.

O, give me, Heaven, to sweeten latter life, And mend my wayward heart, a tender

Who sooths, although herself with anguish wrung,

What is there more calculated to give us frail beings, a foretaste of heaven, while journeying through this world, than an amiable and affectionate wife,

To deeds of mercy ever prone,

Woman, lovely woman, sweet soother of our cares amidst the storms of adversity and affliction, ever willing to pour the balm of consolation into every wound, leaving no means untried, to chase away if I had thought thou couldst have died, the gloom which may have gathered around the brow of a beloved husband, from the cares and fatigue of the day; owner. who can withstand the enrapturing sight, when, with all thy charms about thee, thou meetest the beloved partner of thy affection, and bidst him welcome to his

being, the last and most perfect of God's | boiled, there shall be two or three gallons | week, and let the twenty-five cents go | and that the same be published once in works, treated with brutality and con- of liquor; let it become sufficiently cool, towards discharging the debt." tempt, shocking to human nature! We | then open the wool along the centre of see the man conduct the lovely virgin, the neck and back of the sheep, and with beaming in all the pride of youth, beauty a bunch of tow or some other spungy & innocence, to the altar, with vows of un- | substance, put on the decoction until the alterable attachment; months and years | skin becomes thoroughly moistened theremay roll away in domestic felicity, but as | with, and in a short time the ticks will his appetite is satiated and cold, silent all be destroyed, and the sheep, instead contempt clouds the brow of the once lov- of pulling out and wasting their wool, by ing husband. The regular hour of his ap- | fruitless exertions of self defence, will fectionate wife to pass many a long, mis- their fleece to remain to be taken off by erable hour in sorrow and tears. She the shearers. droops and withers beneath the stroke, For many years I have taken this mewonted nourishment from the earth, and of their lambing, and have always found eyes are open when yours are shut.' withering under the scorching rays of a | it to have the desired effect. I very to the bosom of a tender and anxious | force of habit; yet I annually raise a few | ven afterwards." grasps the exhilirating bowl, and dashes | would recommend to every one who and SWERS to ENIGMAS in our last. | the light-built expectations of his friends | keeps these useful, animals to do the | Methinks they are both tightly brac'd & family, down to the region of despair, same. No. 2 The bark is more valuable & too often do we see her consigned to an untimely grave, the sad victim of a husband's profligacy. Woman was not form- in the following manner; first fence your ed by an all-wise being to bear the frowns farm in five fallows or fields, and you Joys and sorrows.

GOOD NEWS FOR THE LADIES.

myself that the ladies will not be displeas- ensuing spring. ed at my informing them, that Venus 1st year. | Corn, will be the prevailing planet in the spring 2d year. Flax, &c. and summer months of 1825; which cir- 3d year. | Clover, cumstance is calculated to occasion no 4th year. some ladies who were not reckoned on the list, because their charms were on Clover, the decline, may have occasion to re- Corn, member with pleasure, the results of the Flax, &c. year 1825. Such is the voice of the Clover,

Ladies be on the look out .- Set your | And keeping on so five years in suc-

good and clearly printed Bible may now | which you generally set out early in the | against said deceased, are hereby warned | Respectfully informs the inhabitants of For a time, all commerce was in cof- be had for 2 or 3 shillings .- It is relat- spring, the most prominent shoots, after to exhibit the same, with the proper Vienna and its vicinity, that she con-

THE ECONOMIST.

IMPORTANT TO BLACKSMITHS.

Welding of Steel &c .- The welding of | paper; it is worth preserving as a memoners. Nor was it only in England that out on an iron plate, and when cold, this third part of the whole earth, like the mixed with an equal weight of unslack- the name of George King, was convicted shadow of an eclipse, as if some dread- ed lime and preserved for use. The in Dublin of a capital felony. He drew ful thing had been interposed between | pieces of steel or iron intended to be | up a memorial to the King, which he joined, being raised to a low red heat, forwarded with the following lines:are to have their surfaces strewed over | George King to King George sends his with the above mixture, which will melt and run over them like sealing wax. Hoping King George will pity poor Geo. These pieces are then to be returned to the fire and further heated, but not nearly to the usual welding heats, and quickly on withdrawing them, they are to be joined and beaten by the hammer un-Nor renders ill for ill, nor tongue for | til the welding is perfect. [Nat. Gaz.]

From the New England Farmer. TICKS IN SHEEP.

One that ne'er shrunk, nor friendship | The wounds of pain and sorrow healing, | the sheep is not the only evil which they | spectacles? With soft compassion's sweetest tone. occasion; for the poor animals, when greviously annoyed by these obnoxious vermin, are, almost continually, combating their assailants, but instead of overcoming the enemy or effecting any thing had a proposal to make, which he believmore than a momentary relief from their suffering, they gradually pull out and waste their wool, and in this way diminish their fleece, to the no small loss of the

be, the remedy is both simple and easy. being so chargeable to you has given me Boil a small quantity of tobacco, perhaps | great uneasiness, for God knows what it what grows on one good thrifty stalk | will cost you in the end; therefore, what would be enough for half a dozen sheep, I would propose is this: You shall let me by law for the creditors to exhibit their But how often do we see this lovely in so much water as when it is sufficiently out of Jail, and allow me one dollar per claims against the said deceased's estate pearance at home passes by, leaving his af- | become easy and contented, and suffer vertical sun. Perhaps, some unfortunate much dislike the foolish practice of wife, who might mitigate his anguish, he plants for the benefit of my sheep, and A YEOMAN.

To FARMERS.—Cultivate your fields of man, but to be the participator of his can every year have two fields with clover, one with your harvest, one with corn In the decline of life, when the gay and one with flax, oats, or millet. By and fascinating amusements, which pleas- proceeding in the following manner, you ed us in our youth, lose that charm, will every year have a clover sod for which once they had with us, & old age, | corn, also for wheat and rye, by sowing and so letting it lay the same length of time that you do the clover sowed on your winter grain; and by this means the than if a crop of clover were standing on it. In the first place, suppose you have ministrator of William Lowe, late of he will sell on the most accommodating ner: two with clover, one with harvest, dered, that he give the notice required terms. He respectfully invites the mer-Moore, in his Almanac, says-"I flatter one with corn, and the other with flax the by law for the creditors to exhibit their

Clover, Green grain, Clover, | Green grain | Corn, &c. Clover. | Flax. Same directions as above.

Flax, &c. | Green grain Clover, Clover, Green grain Corn, | Flax, &c. Green grain | Corn. Clover.

ing so much straw to make manure of, that the subscriber of Dorchester county, will give the necessary information. that you can raise wheat on every part hath obtained from the Orphans' court of

I cilitate their taking root.

LEGHT READINGS.

Advertisement - Extra .- The following advertisement appeared in a Boston

I rial of the fashions of the times. "Found near the Mall, a large piece of curious in the workmanship about it, its each week for the space of three succesowner may have it by applying at a wood the town of Cambridge. called for in three days, it will be con- In testimony that the foregoing is truly

Singular Petition .- About the second | = SEAL.

humble petition, King's condition;

a long day, George King for King George for ever will pray.

An ignorant fellow, seeing several persons reading with spectacles, went to buy a pair to enable him to read. He | gainst said deceased, are hereby warned It is a common thing for sheep to be | tried several, and told the maker, they | to exhibit the same, with the proper infested with ticks, which frequently | would not answer; as he could not read | vouchers thereof, to the subscriber, on prove very troublesome to them, especi- | with them. Can you read at all? asked | or before the 25th day of Oct. next, they ally in the spring season of the year. But | the other. No: says he; if I could, do | may otherwise by law be excluded from the pain, and vexation which they cause you think I would be such a fool as to buy all benefit of said estate. - Given under

The following anecdote is worth a dollar or two for its ingenuity. A debtor being confined in Jail, sent to his creditor to let him know that he ed would be for their mutual benefit.-The creditor called on him to hear it .-"I have been thinking, (said the former) that it is a very bad thing for me lie here. and put you to the expense of one dollar As great an evil as this may seem to and twenty five cents per week. My

A DRUNKARD'S SAVING CLAUSE.

ly swore, That while he bretahed, he never would drink more; Dick daily tipsey grows, nor perjured

Himself, but says, he breathes not whilst | this 11th day of April in the year of our he drinks.

A person taken up for a robbery, being asked by the justice in what manner he like a lily of the field derived of its thod with my sheep, just before the time lived, very significantly answered, 'My

Matrimony.—Tobin, in his Honey adventure has plunged the object of her chewing, snuffing and smoking the poi- Moon, says, "all women are angels be- ty, hath obtained from the Orphans' affections into distress and misery, & in- senous weed, at least no better reason fore marriage, and that is the reason stead of confiding the cause of his trouble | can be given for so doing than fashion or | why husbands so soon wish them in hea-

THE DANDY AND HIS TAILOR. In life's disagreeables—ah, Honey! The one has long stays for his waist; The other long stays for his money.

MARYLAND.

Dorchester County Orphan's Court, ? April 11th, 1825.

your fields divided in the following man- | Dorchester county, deceased, it is orclaims against the said deceased's estate, he can supply them on as pleasing terms each week for the space of three successive weeks, in the newspaper printed in the town of Cambridge.

In testimony that the foregoing is truly Madishabilitation copied from the minutes of the proceedings of Dorches-SEAL. ter county Orphan's Court, for a BLACK WOMAN who has been accustomed to Cooking, Washing and Hand and the Seal of my office affixed, Ironing, and can be well recommended this 11th day of April, in the year of our for her honesty, sebriety, industry and Lord, 1825. Wm. W. ECCLESTON, | cleanliness. She is wanted for a prisaid county, in Maryland, letters of administration on the personal estate of William Lowe, late of the said county,

ARTHUR LOWE, Adm'r.

All persons indebted to the above | Pelisses, &c. made up in the latest fash-Payment.

MARYLAND.

Dorchester County Orphan's Court, ? April 11, 1825. On application of George Graham, administrator of Zebulon Graham late of Dorchester county, deceased, it is ordered, that he give the notice required by law for the creditors to exhibit their claims against the said deceased's estate. and that the same be published once in Mulle alle de copied from the minutes of proceedings of Dorchester and the Seal of my office affixed, this 11th day of April in the year of our Lord, 1825. WM.W. ECCLESTON. Reg'r of Wills for Dorchester c'ty.

IN obedience to the law and the orde of the honorable Orphans' Court of Dor chester county, this is to give notice, If King George to George King will grant | that the subscriber of Dorchester county, hath obtained from the Orphans' court of said county, in Maryland, letters of administration on the personal estate of Zebulon Graham late of said county deceased. All persons having claims amy hand this 11th day of April, anno GEO. GRAHAM, domini, 1825.

> Administrator de bonus non. april 16 All persons indebted to the above estate are requested to make immediate MARYLAND. Dorchester County Orphan's Court,?

April 11th, 1825. On application of Nathan Corkran, administrator of Jesse Eaton, late of Dorchester county, deceased, it is ordered, that he give the notice required each week for the space of three successive weeks, in the newspaper printed in town of Cambridge.

Dick, often drunk, when sick, most grave- | In testimony that the foregoing is truly the proceedings of Dorches-SEAL. E ter county Orphan's Court, I have hereunto set my Hand and the Seal of my office affixed. Lord, 1825. WM. W. ECCLESTON, Reg'r of Wills for Dorchester c'ty.

> IN obedience to the law and the order of the honorable Orphans' Court of Dorchester county, this is to give notice, that the subscriber of Dorchester coun-Court of said county, in Maryland, letters of administration on the personal estate of Jesse Eaton, late of said county, deceased. All persons having claims against said deceased, are hereby warned to exhibit the same with the proper vouchers thereof to the subscriber, on or before the 25th day of Oct. next, they may otherwise by law be excluded from all benefit of said estate. Given under my hand this leth day of April, anno domini, 1825. NAT'N CORKRAN, april 16-3t Administrator.

All persons indebted to the above estate are requested to make immediate payment.

China, Glass & Queensware.

A. GROVERMAN,

Market, a few doors above Liberty st BALTIMORE,

Keeps constantly on hand an extensive and elegant assortment of CHINA. chants of the Eastern Shore, to call and as any house in the city.

N. B. Particular attention paid to packing.

A Cook Wanted.

A generous cash price will be given Reg'r of Wills for Dorchester c'ty. | vate and small family in Baltimore, and not with a view of selling again. For IN obedience to the law and the order | such a one, a liberal price will be given. of the honorable Orphans' Court of Dor- and for further particulars, apply to the

MILLINERY.

MRS. CATHARINE REDHEAD, tinues to carry on the MILLINERY its various branches; and will keep for sale a constant supply of articles in her bons, &c.

3t - 14 Silk and Straw Bonnets, Cans. Vienna, April 15, 1825.

VOL. ZII.

To Travellers and Othe

WM. C. RIDGAWAY Begs leave to inform his friends and public generally, that he continues to cupy that large and commodious E House, situated on the corner of 1 and Gay streets, in Cambridge, imn ately opposite the store of Samuel compte, esq. in the most pleasant fashionable part of the town.

His table will be constantly furni with the richest profusion of all the cacies of each season, and attende waiters, polite, obliging and attenti Attached to the establishment ar cellent Stables, and plenty of good vender of every description, and a dustrious and honest Ostler. Gentlemen and Ladies travelling be accommodated with private a

Private parties can also be acco dated with Dinners and Suppers, s up with equal promptitude and

The STAGE a ed to the Mar 安治 Steam Boat lin Annapolis and more, leaves the above Hotel on I days and Sundays at 6 o'clock, and arrives on Wednesday and day afternoons. Travellers can on cheap terms b veved to any part of the adjacent try, with Horses, Gigs, and carefu

MARYLAND

Will commence her regular ro Wednesday next, 2d March, at 7 from the lower end of Buchanan's (immediately adjoining Major M steam mill on Smith's wharf) for polis and Easton, by way of Cas ven; and on Thursday, 3d Marc leave Easton by way of Castle Ha the same hour for Annapolis and more, leaving Annapolis at 2 and continuing to leave the above as follows: Buchanan's wharf, Bal on Wednesdays and Saturdays, a ton on Sundays and Thursdays clock during the season. Passengers wishing to proceed adelphia will be put on board the Line of steam-boats in the Patap er, and arrive there by 9 o'clou morning. The Maryland will commence h lar route from Baltimore to Que and Chestertown on Monday, 7th leaving Buchanan's wharf at 9 every Monday, and Chestertow Tuesday at the same hour for town and Baltimore during the Horses and Carriages will be t board from either of the above p cept Queenstown. All baggag risk of the owners. All persons ing small packages or other fre send for them when the boat arr freight and take them away. Levin Jones, at Castle Haven w horses and carriages for the co of passengers to and from Caml

Passengers between Cambri Castle Haven will settle the far conveyance with Captain Jones From the commencement of suing season the rates to be cha passage money to be as follows From Easton and from Castle Baltimore-and from Baltim ther of these places, - -From Easton and from Castle L ven to Annapolis-and fr

Annapolis to either of the places, - - - -From Annapolis to Baltimore a from Baltimore to Annapoli

The Fare between Baltimore a Chestertown the same as he Dinner on board, - - -

> CLEMENT VIC $100 Reward

Ranaway from the subscri 13th instant, a Negro WOMA ANNE, about 24 years old, she is of a dark brown color, a black and a light mulatto; notable scar between her ey when she went away, a co dress with a copperas stripe also carried with her a blue p tic dress. Whoever will app negro, shall ireceivef taken i tv. a reward of 20 dollar above reward if taken out o and delivered to the subscrib ed so that he gets her again.

WM. STEVEN