For the Cambridge Chronicle. PRIMARY SCHOOLS. No. 6.

TO THE PEOPLE OF MARYLAND.

"Be wise, O ye Kings; be instructed, ye Judges"-"If thou be wise, thou shalt be wise for thyself; but if thou scorneth, thou alone shalt bear it"-Who is wise "keep, therefore, and do them; for this is your wisdom and your understanding in the light of the nations, which shall hear of these statutes"-"How much better is it to get Wisdom than Gold-and to get understanding, rather to be chosen than Silver"-"Buy the truth and sell it shine-Wisdom is justified of her child-

The sublime and salutary influences of education were demonstrated & well established by the sacred motto & succeeding arguments of my last essay-Since which the communication of a neighbouring gentleman, alike distinguished, and preeminently so, for pure piety and profound erudition, as for courtesy of deportment, and an ardent zeal in the highest of all human callings, has furnished an opinion, and supplied matter of incallic instruction. He says, "except with of letters and languages, before even no letters and languages, letters and languag the really sordid, and such as are monally incapable of apprehending and appre- to be chosen, were deemed qualified to ciating the advantages of education, there can be but one sentiment in the commu- felt to be the true faith—the doctrine of nity upon the abstract question you are Jesus Christ and HIM CRUCIFIED. discussing and developing. The historical connection between real christianity and good letters, which you luminously their divine office; yet no one whose traced and exhibited in your No. 5, and mind has ever been raised to a just adwhich doubtless is founded in fact, presents a fine view of the subject-To which I beg leave to add, although it is but little more than echo of your own thought, that it is well known to the dearneds that Christianity was introduced into the world in an age of the highest stant, imagine that they remained ignorpental culture and phylosophy; that the ant, or unlearned.—Faith, or enthusiasm give the doctrines of our holy faith, a may do much to excite the feelings of strict though fair trial; that the trial evidently succeeded in substantiating the men must be informed with humane letclaim and truths of the Christian religion, ters to reason—to have their thoughts so and, where ever they were proclaimed, systemattically arranged as to carry pergenerally in the total wreck and overthrew of Idolatry and Superstition. It minds of others-Hence were the learnis equally well known to the learned, as ed labours of the fathers prosecutedan historical fact, that the genial soil of which nothing but enlighted reason, com-Christianity is the disciplined soul of an bined with faith, could have enabled enlightened community, and that, from them to perfect and to transmit, for the the Christian era to the present time, guidance and support of the intermedi-every distinguished revival of reli-ate, and present, Shepherds of Christ's gion, the greatest prosperity of the flock en earth. Church, has always been in an age equally distinguished for its science and liter ture. The opposition to the law in have chosen—inspired letters!—calling law ourselves a christian people, shall we refect as to its approval by the suffrages nouncing the example of Him who is t of the people. Enlightened discussion KNOWLEDGE, shut the door of Wisdom tion. will only serve to disclose its ligitimate to our brethren, and like the Jews of An character and claims: I had, before any old, in one sense, again stone the Proconversation between us on the subject, phets-God forbid!-and for what?given my humble approbation of the "Shame where is thy blush"-for the scheme you have proposed:

forth by this learned and distinguished shewn, and demonstrated. gentleman, has been overlooked, or not I have feebly essayed, in the preceedmost prevailing impression seems to have been that the origin of our religion was commanding—the highest point of all! in an era of gross ignorance, or barbar- And I have endeavoured in previous esism; and this arose, and very naturally, says, to prove that as Freemen it is our from a regard to the low standing, or or- policy, and true interest to shed abroad dinary occupations of the first Apostles the light of knowledge-to improve and President's mansion. of Jesus Christ-As many of them were strengthen the moral, and to fortify the poor Watermen, Publicans, & Taxgeth- physical sinews of the state-'THE WISE erers. We have, however, to remind MAN ALONE IS FREE, was a maxim of those who are under this impression, (and | the Stoics, and, "I would have you wise would that every neglected child of pov- unto that which is good"-was a benevoerty and ignorance could read and un lent expression of the learned St. Paul. derstand the same,) that the advent of our ever blessed Saviour, by the Divine dis pensation, occurred in an age when letters were at their highest state of culti- Princess Anne, Somerset county, ? vation-He was born under Augustus Cæsar, the fostering father of literature, and when the place of His birth, and ministry, were under the Roman government; and it might be taken for granted, if it were not verified by sacred, as well Light of Knowledge had extended to, and this title, for a former paper, and promis- Webster Crowningshield Bailey and Commingshield Bailey and Com influenced the minds of the people of her ed, if your readers like the drawing, to Webster, Crowningshield, Bailey and From his sentence, which has, however, ty, North Carolina, and his wife, to whom influenced the minds of the people of her ed, if your readers like the drawing, to Webster, Crowningshield, Bailey and From his sentence, which has, however, ty, North Carolina, and his wife, to whom provinces; and it is also worthy of re- attempt successive sketches of the scene- Everett-Mayor, Alderman, and Com- been confirmed. mark that the savrince of the Interest of the University. In the Clerk & Marshal-Professors and other er, that Ibrahim's intention is to convey suspicion of being accessary to the murhappened under the reigh of liberius, when letters had began to decline, and when ignorance and the basest mental when ign when agnorance and the busis median of Leke Superior, ber of towns-United States Navy and Thence his army may in two or three March last. a ied his subject, even into a pandemonium with the Falls of St. Mary, and the tour Army Officers--- Wilitia Officers--- Unitof SLAVERY AND CRIME; and it may not, last week, says the Apperhaps, be irrelevant here to observe The broad expanse of Lake Huron Onincy—Twelve mourning coaches with the rest of the towns in the vicinity of passing round the peninsula, would unmerican, encountered two young women, that when the Christian faith had been gives it the aspect of an inland sea .- | Quincy-Twelve mourning coaches with that when the Curistian faith had been the will it is said march upon Athens & in- other snatched at and secured his gold.

The procession was of great length. ven by the ignorance succeeding the dark sight of land, as she easily might have when the front arrived at the meeting will be succeeding the dark sight of land, as she easily might have when the front arrived at the meeting land, as she easily might have with the said march upon Athens & in a break sight of land, as she easily might have when the front arrived at the meeting land. ven by the ignorance succeeding the data of Negropont. When the front arrived at the meeting with those of the Pacha of Negropont. leaving the unfortunate man in darkness, ages; yet superstition, the child of igno- been in a breadth of water one hundred house, the citizens of Quincy opened of Negropont. ages; yet superstition, and fifty miles N. E. and S. W. if she house, the citizens of Quincy opened The position of Napoli however is so rance, perverted its sacred doctrines so and fifty miles N. E. and S. W. if she relatives & fance, perverted its sacred doctrines so that it will not easily be carried. Strong, that it will not easily be carried suitable patronage be afforded him, to estable and excels others entered the Church, the pulpit and lamentably, that the annais of the water is potable and excelcannot produce a picture of such dark
cannot produce a picture of such dark
lane. The water is potable and extensive silk
cannot produce a picture of such dark
lane. The water is potable and extensive silk
cannot produce a picture of such dark
lane. The water is potable and extensive silk horrours, as ignorant, uncultivated lent; clear as the most transparent spring galleries of which were dressed in mourn- be reduced by famine. Christians have handed down to shock, ever seen-cool in the summer solstice, ing. The house was thronged.

lips of Isaiah by the Seraphim, (Isaiah juncture of the Huron and Michigan ed an impressive Sermon, in which he have succeeded in penetrating the assailvi. 6th and 7th ver.) might be taken as a waters, lies high, and is from bound, or gave a summary of the eminent services, sublime type of the purifying effects of lined by rock, rising to the height of 300 distinguished talents, amiable life, and children that accompanied them. This to the heart and fructifies the soul as The name means big turtle, from the ioner. well as the understanding; and which shape of its case and back, and insular . The body was then borne to the burial Commerce of May 29.) would fit and qualify many a heart location. Thirteen Islands are visible, ground and deposited in the family tomb. full of the divine, but now, dormant seeds | in a clear day by help of a glass, in the of usefulness) to do the errand of his | vicinity of Mackinsw. Several curiosi-Lord-Even the poor mechanic, whilst ties are found on it. The sugar-loaf The second crop of corn has been benefitted in his ordinary occupation by rock, formed by loose stones, loam turf- planted in South Carolina from this years the fruits of education, might console his i human bones lying in horizontal strata, growth.

ability and the will .- "Come unto me dians fled from the pursuit of a hostile knowledge, which hours might otherwise | ing down, to the beach round the Island, of shall know it no more."

must have observed that in the selection lives from death. of the Apostles, the ignorant and the Let no man tempt the Lord, his God. pour, as well as the learned and rich, were chosen; and it cannot have escaped and to TEACH, UNENDOWED: they were they, although their faith entitled them teach others, that which they, themselves,

It is admitted that many of the Aposmiration of the sublime, though simple grandeur of Matthew's Gospel--the poor publican-No one who has felt his soul purified and his faith fixed by the fervent zeal, and powerful exhortations of which even savages are endowed-But manent convictions and belief to the

Shall we then, my fellow citizens, see-| fear of that-taxation-for which, in | An interesting and important fact, set | fact, there is no cause of fear, as has been

Your ob't. faithful servant, LITTLETON D. TEACKLE. Md. July 12, 1826. CONTRACTOR SCHOOLSELY

With high respect,

For the Cambridge Chronicle. PICTURES WITHOUT PLATES.

weary hours of labour by reflecting up- and shrubbery growing out at the skull on passages of that book, which all can hole or excavation under a stupendous I find time to read, if they have but the rock, whither a retreating party of Inall we that labour, and are heavy laden, tribe and perished -- in all fifty or up- Bayard, has arrived at New-York from and I will give you rest."-And if his wards. Their bones have been scattertaste for reading has been at all cultivat- ed about the mouth of the hole, and there | Havre, whence she sailed on the 1st June ed, he will employ his hours of leisure are handled by every curious traveller. The Paris papers are to the 31st May. or recreation in useful researches after | The natural arch, formed by the shelvthe hold I have taught you statutes" be spent in low and debasing occupation of a cylindrical mass of earth lying just before the Chamber of Deputies, for an es were crowded together, it spread with That you should do so in the land" ons-But if the poor, the majority of our within its periphery, which left the rim- a lowance to the French Consuls in the such rapidity, that in a few hours above youth, are left to grope in hopeless igno- of the Island standing for an arch, and a Levant of a sum of money, to redeem 1000 buildings were reduced to ashes, in rance, how many a future holy agent will layer of perpendicular rock, on each side, Greek Captives, was rejected by a great spite of all the exertions of the inhabitwant the inspiring touch of sacred fire & for its pillars. This is 225 or 300 feet | majority. Out of 300 present not more | ants, although it was in the middle of the remain dumb to the call -"whom shall I above the level of the Lake below -- but than 50 rose in its favor. In the course day. send, and who will go for us?"-My it is not very wide-The arch, perhaps, of the discussion (which was curious,) M. countrymen-"the harvest truly is plen- is two feet thick. A heroine, wife of an de Villele, in opposing the proposition, teous," and "the labourers" cannot be officer at that post, and a soldier, are the said, in relations to the Greeks, "diplotoo many in this, nor in any other high, only persons who have had the hardy macy will soon put an end to the evils The great prizes of $30,000, and $10. nor useful calling, for which an univer- presumption and wicked temerity to ven- that are deplored, and will obtain that | 000, in the Grand State (Odd and Even) sal extension of education might prepare | ture across it. Had they fallen from this | pacification which seems so much desired; | Lottery, drawn in Baltimore on Wedminds, which without it, would vegetate | dizzy height and been precipitated to | the Cabinets of Europe have not been so | nesday week, were both sold at the office "as grass" which "the wind passeth ov- the rocks below, hardly could they have | indifferent to the interests of the Greeks of Messrs. J. I. Cohen, jr. & Brothers,-er" "and it is gone," and the place there- | hoped, that a Providence, kind, but not to be trifled with, would have borne up | declare this much." Every person who read the Scriptures | their feet from injury and saved their |

> The distance to Lake Superior from Mackinaw, is 100 miles, and by water were called they went not out to preach | the access is dangerous. The river con- | to prevent any communication with the necting the Lakes Superior and Huron | coast. Ibrahim according to the Jourwas called by the devoted Jesuits, Hennamed of their Juno, their "Queen of ants, in order to complete the number of Heaven;" and trading posts on the margin of the river by the name of Joseph-st. of course. The first Island, at the mouth | to Constantinople. It appears he could | ing. of this river, is Drummond's, on the not make up his number at Missolonghi. north, lately ceded to us after an accurate determination of the boundary line. It is barren and bleak--and except as a | the Divan to the demands of the Russian | military post or a trading place, offers no inducements for a visit. Passing up, too small lakes, called St. George, intersperced with groups of small islands, are traversed. The water becomes rapid beyond them -- current very strong. Ten or twelve hours were spent in rowing 24 | the provisions of the treaty. miles, with four or five able bodied men > > roll down a bed of shivered rocks, and of the treachery of two of his captains, ling, in the Steam boat from Baltimore, toss with fearful precipitancy, for half a are confirmed. mile, in a descent of fifty feet, perhaps. any other sailors, or with any other skiffs | was on his way to Havre, to embark for | but those of birch bark, of the lightest | the United States. structure, it would be inevitable wreck and ruin. They fish just at the foot of the rapid, while it foams, and curls, and dashes all around.

> > INTERMENT OF MR. ADAMS. were entombed at Quincy, with every on the pretext of visiting his estates in crushed to death .-- S. E. Post. token of veneration, respect and affec. Italy, Germany, and the Netherlands; The loan of $350,000 to complete the > > bled from various parts of the state. - | tertained that the decree of banishment, | immediately taken at a premium of 3 26. Several carriages were from Salem and issued against a number of the inhabit- 100 per cent. The offers exceeded the more remote towns.

> > Mount Wallaston, fired minute guns pected, orders were given to the Comduring the whole time of the funeral ser- missaries of Police of the capital, to ex- the late celebration in Boston. The vice, and several similar tokens of res- pel from Madrid all the persons compre- shoemakers of the revolution-they risk pect were heard in the odjoining towns; hended in the decree issued at Port San- their little all upon the great end and the bells of which were tolled, and the ta Maria on the 1st of October, 1823, gave short quarters to the fee, in "the flags on various gun houses, &c. were whose residence in the capital has not heisted half-staff.

hall, organized, and moved in a body to A packet of papers seized in Biscay, is the vicinity of the mansion house, when | said to disclose a plot formed between | about 4 o'clock, the Funeral Procession | the Constitutionalists of the Peninsula, was formed under the directions of sev- | and those who have taken refuge in Eneral Marshals, composed of gentlemen | gland and Portugal. of Quincy.

ORDER OF PROCESSION. taker-Corpse-Pall-bearers, Judge Da- | was condemned on the 21st of March last | vis, President Kirkland, Governor Lin- by the Court of Assizes of West Flandcoln, Hon. Mr. Greenleaf, Judge Story, ers, to six year's imprisonment, a fine of | Charleston papers as a candidate to supand Lt. Gov. Winthrop-Male Relatives | 200 florins, to stand in the pillory, to be | ply the vacancy occasioned by the death -Members of the Honourable Council - brand-marked, and to pay the costs, hav- of Mr. John Gaillard, in the Senate of the Senators-Speaker and Members of the | ing knowingly made use of forged re- | United States, from the State of South MR. Scott--I sent you No. I, bearing | House of Representatives -- Secretary & ceipts. The old man, who had hitherto | Carclina, mon Council of Boston-City Auditor, It appears says the Austrian Observ- now confined in the jail of that county on and to warn the minds of men.

It must have occurred to every en- that the traveller can scarce allay his with anthems. The Rev. Mr. Whitney, for the calemity of Miscolanahi The Rev. Mr. Whitney, for the caleman The Rev. Mr. Whi

Foreign Summary.

as orators have proclaimed. I venture to The great luck in the sale of prizes at by the Turks and Egyptians. There is | pleasure is the greater now to learn that reasion to hope a portion of the garrison | a portion of the capitals of this Lottery of Missolonghi escaped. This hope is I have fallen to our favoured city. founded upon the solicitude of Ibrahim nal des Debates, given orders to kill all swivel, on the morning of the 4th inst six thousand heads and pairs of ears, that the Sultan had ordered him to send | dent in Milton, Mass. on the same mornwithstanding the feigned submission of of a cannon on the 4th. cabinet, the Turks continue to victual the fortress on the Danube: The Russian forces are also held ready for a campaign. M. de Minziackly was expected at Buch arest, to ascertain whether the provinces had really been evacuated according to

The death of Canaris, by a cannon bal in a naval engagement, and the failure of The falls of St. Marie come in view | the attempt to invest the fortress of Cawithin 15 miles of Lake Superior .-- they rababa, by Col. Fabrier, in consequence arrived in Philadelphia, on Monday morn-

Mr. Boardman, of the house of Board-The Indian will pass down this rapid by | man and Pope, of Boston, died suddenly his skill in steering and rowing, under on the 27th of May near Rouen. Mr. the protection of a merciful God-but to B. had been travelling in Europe, and last advices.

The cordon sanitaire, established by Austria upon the frontiers of Moldavia had been withdrawn.

but it was believed that it would not be | Chesapeake Canal for which subscrip-An immense body of citizens assem- accepted by the King. A hope was en- tions were opened in this city, was all ants of Madrid, would be revoked; con- | sum required, we understand, by more A corps of Artillery stationed on trary to which, however, when least ex- than $175,000 .-- ib. been authorised by the King. A sort of The relatives of the deceased, the So- Anti Apostolico-Carlist Junta had been cieties, and others, assembled at the late | formed, for the purpose of resisting or thwarting the measures of the ultra par-The citizens of Quincy met in the town | ty for the extermination of the negros. -

Sieur P. X. Ryckebus, advocate in the ci-devant Council of Flanders, and an-Marshal-Citizens of Quincy--Under- | cient Magistrate at Ipres aged 65 years, days march, reach Napoli de Romania | A gentleman passing through Broadand commence the siege, while the fleet | way, New York, last week, says the A-laying on of the "live coal" upon the Mackingw, the Island, lies just at the Throne of Grace in prayer,, and delivering army, and saving the women and healthy. Few European or North Amerchristian virtues of his venerated parish- precious remnant of an heroic population cans escaped the black vomet. Com-

> the 18th May, furnish no political news. were, we understand, paid down in cash Copious rains were destroying the locusts | to the Great Unknown, by an eminent and the Swiss troops march in religious Bookseller, in Paternoster row, for the processions, their muskets behind their copyright of the Historical Novel Woodbacks, and their caps under their arms | stock.

At Munich, on the 13th ult. the able naturalist, Dr. Von Spix, whose name is well known from his travels in Brazil, in FROM FRANCE.—The packet ship | company with Dr. Martius, died of a nervous fever.

On the 15th ult. a fire broke out at the Great Hungarian market town of Nagy Koros. The high wind prevailing, and The proposition of M. de Noailles' | the fire having commenced in a stable in which at our last accounts was pending | the middle of the town, where the hous-

that office, we have very frequently had Napoli and Athems are both menaced occasion to notice heretofore, and our

> Sat. Ev. Post. Accidents .- Four men were wounded in Dedham, Mass. by the bursting of a

A man was killed by a similar acci-

I'wo men were also severely wounded A letter from Bucharest says, that not- | in Canton, by the accidental discharge

The wollen factory and machine shop of Mr. Thomas Hurd, of Lowell Mass. was consumed by fire on the 30th ult.--Loss estimated at $15,000.

The amount of duties paid into the State Treasury by the ten Auctioneers of the city of Philadelphia, for the quarter ending on the 31st day of May, exceeds thirty-five thousand dollars.

The President of the United States and proceeded at noon, in the Trenton Steam boat, to New York, on his way to the late residence of his deceased Father.

The steam boat Norfolk, made her second trip to Cupe May on Friday last, with 128 passengers. Fifty-two ladies seated themselves at the dinner table, and were waited upon by the gentlemen.

The gable end of a house, being built on Apple street, above Poplar Lane, Northern Liberties, suddenly gave way, Order was restored at Rouen at the on Tuesday afternoon, while the workmen were employed in their labour .--A private letter of the 18th May from I I'wo men were precipitated from the Agreeably to arrangements made, the | Madrid, states that the Duke del'Infant- | top of the house-one escaped with some remains of the Hon. JOHN ADAMS, ado had again sent in his resignation, up- | injury; the other, Mr. Isaac Herbert, was

The following sentiment was given at I time that tried men's soles."

Died and was buried, on the 2d May, in the old burial place of the Mohegans, in Norwich, Connecticut, Ezekiel Mazeen, aged 27, great grand son of the GREAT UNCAS, who was the friend and protector of the whites, in the infancy of the settlement.

The horse on which General Packenham rode at the battle of New Orleans. and upon which that unfortunate commander received his death wound, is now owned by an inhabitant of Hebron, Con-

Judge Smith is announced in the

A gentleman named Blanc, intends, if A rumour is circulating in Paris, which sents the climate and mulberry trees of > Vera Cruz is represented as very unseamen.

Letters and papers from Madrid to | Six thousand eight hundred pounds

AND EASTERN SHOP ADVERTISE

Cambridge, SATURDAY, Ju Printed and Published LUTHER MARTIN N. E. corner of High and Popla COUNCIL CHAM

Annapolis, July

live Council on the first pay of August next. THO: CULBRE' We are authorised to s Martin L. Wright is a ca present Dorchester count

There will be a meeting

General Assembly of Mary We are authorised to Daniel Sullivane as a can next Legislature of this st

We are authorised to Alexander H. Parsons, county, as a candidate to county in the next Genera Maryland. PARTITION STATEMENT STATEM

We have good autho that the statement publish respecting Messrs. McDu ett, is altogether unfounde tracted from a Philadelph

MEXICO.—By the fas ner Vellott, capt. Gold, a terday in 17 days from have intelligence that C has excepted the offer o Government, and has t Commander in Chief of th vy. We regret to learn continued very sicklydull for every kind of pr ulactures, and money sc

The two Patriots who of our National Jubilee, left behind them abundar American history. The 13, especially, was in the ing a journal throughout of his public life, which invaluable document to e trate many parts of our h now be made more famil vate motives and spring guided our revolutionary struggle for independer this subject, we cannot from all parts of the c the tidings have reached from constituted author cations for citizens to a solemnize that melanc event which deprived the ni two of our most value An extraordinary prom

FERSON and of ADAMS The Philadelphia that the apparent cont different papers with r at which the Declara dence was adopted, an promuigated, can easil It was adopted by Cor hours of twelve and dence Hall, it was firs to the people about 5 ternoon, in the State I Its author lived fift adoption; its advocate

alter its promulgation

mity to testify sorrow fo

to mark all classes of ou

Party feeling itself beco

the urns that contain t

The only addition have received in relat JOHN ADAMS, the "a the Congress of 1776 of our Independence letter we have seen, which we make the "After two days of s by an accumulation broat, which he was off, he yesterday for poke of all the men sked to have letter the President | and irely sensible. At fiternoon his spirit is calmy, as an in Jelieve has found a world."