this character—and such we munication to the Porte, containing pronion, as communicated in his the further progress of the troops would tercourse with the grand ju- be prevented. 1. Reparation for inju-

which had been practised, in 1827. th very unjustly has been gen- | jected.

FOREIGN.

TEST FROM EUROPE.

regiments had left the capital | destroyed. course, and less serious than | Scio by the Greeks. Col. Fabvier had

t supposed.

one portion of the inhabi- and prompt success." ary opinion.

n, breakfasts and then re tal. orse and again exercises the favorite manœuvres, which s, without any relaxation.

for their reception. The concentrated by the 27th | Yet mournfully, surviving all, o d'Istra has liberated both sexes, whom the tained as prisoners.

papers to the 12th and mour, 'they tell me I'm here for a centuhe 13th ult.

nd theroupon sent a com-

ries sustained by Russian subjects in sign and object of the new law, | Constantinople, and the seizure of Rusinformed, was to relieve the sian vessels and cargoes. 2. Security Sun rises 35 minutes after 4-Sets 25 minutes after 7. raders by a comparative reduc- against the future recurrence of such e rate of license; and, at the injuries. 3. The fulfilment of the treaty See Postscript. e, to prevent those shameful e- of the allied powers of the 6th of July, arts of the state, to the great | The moderation of these terms is such will sit on Monday next. the honest dealer; and, when | that the English editors doubt their sincial effects of its operation shall | cerity, as they were so reasonable that proved, that spirit of discon- it was impossible that they should be renanifestation of public grati are busily constructing bridges, and re- are unavoidable crowded out. applause. The law relates to inforcements of horse and foot are drawwho open, set up, or keep a ling nearer the Purth. It is supposed, terday from Constantinople, have disap

-some say, as seriously as was the crop hundred thousand dollars. And, if the treacherous hostile language. This terday from Constantinople, have disap of last year; which, however, we trust whole amount of American claims on I subjoin the statements of Col. Ben is the series of injuries of which Turship Pallas, Brown, at New pointed those who still clung to the hope and are inclined to believe, is not the that Government has not yet been obm Havre, the editors of the that the peace of Europe might be pre- fact. Corn, too, has been acrested and tained, we are persuaded that the delay Ohio, which have been already published, of the treaty of Akerman up to this day, al Advertiser have received served by the adoption of a more moder- considerably injured by the worm. d Paris' advices, to the 9th ult. ate tone on the part of the Sultan. He and Turkey.—Letters from is determined upon war, and though he The managers of the Bible Society of justice. burgh, of the 18th April, state is acquainted with the sentiments of the which was created some time since for publicly declaring mydecided approbation Emperor still occupied his win- allied powers, he still thinks that they the distribution of the Bible throughout er foreign Powers, from which American was not contained in my former publi- nation. will not suffer the Turkish Empire to be this county, met on Monday last, at the citizens have been long seeking, through cation: Also, two letters written by me "But all patience has its limit. The

Don Miguel, of Portugal, is involving proceeded to fill the vacancies which manifested the same just disposition with have been published by the gentlemen to of the empire—the inviolability of its n capital, as it has been every his country every way. The Courier occurred by non acceptance of previous the Emperor of Russia and king of Den- whom, respectively, they were address- rights, and that of our national glory these six months, that the declares that the Constitution is, in fact, appointment—and also to elect the of- mark. We cannot but hope that the ed. rmy would very shortly occu abolished; the Regency has been destroy- ficers required by the constitution of circumstances which have hitherto deia and Wallachia, and it would ed; and Don Miguel has, in fact, and in their association. The Hon. Charles layed the satisfaction which is due, will ne itself in demanding the ex- | deed, if not in words, assumed the crown. the treaty of Ackerman. The The Courier de Smyrne confirms the the Pruth was considered as a | intelligence of the entire evacuation of arrived at Syria. re about the usual number of | Havre, 10th May. - The news of the eports and counter reports, passage of the Pruth by the Russians, y, Bucharest and Odessa, on was again circulated to day on change, Sea. It is stated from Buchaupon the faith of letters of which the au21, that up to the evening of thenticity was guaranteed—and which

Rev. Stevens will join with our prayers, the mence that stupendous work, the Baltied overboard and was drowned. Some most ardent wishes, for the success of the most ardent wishes, for the success of the succes othing unusual was remarked was confirmed by an article from the ders of the Pruth, "but they | Messager des Chambres, republished by looking for the most decisive the Moniteur, which added this remarkable paragraph; "As to the rest, never from Constantinople to the was a campaign against the Turks un-, received at Bucharest, fur | dertaken with more of the elements of nteresting details of the siru- success. The line vies with the guard. t capital since the declaration | The whole army, exercised to rare perwas known there. The great | fection, is provisioned as is said, for two inhabitants received the in- | years to all objects which can be provided with an indifference bordering | beforehand. To these material elements t. The grandees of the em- of success, must be added that of a firm contrary, were struck with and clear will that directs operations, it, and viewed future events f and that of experience acquired in remess. The Grand Seignor | cent wars. The causes of the delays ear alarmed, and was resol- and insufficiency of forming campaigns on the war with energy. -- | against the Turks have been examined he general state of things up | into and this one is regulated accordingmeeting of the Divan, which ly. The Russians know their adversary; n the 30th uit. and in which | they have been ruminating for six years of the empire, under exis- on the war they are now about to enter nstances, was discussed - upon, and upon the best mode of making the public mind appears more it. One may predict, therefore, decisive osed for war, while another | According to the reports above alluded to, the passage of the Pruth was efd Seignior himself, without | fected by the Russians with the exclaraged, discovers in his con- mations of the whole army composed in emotion which does not chiefly of soldiers who have before crosvi h the surpassing calmness | sed the Danube. The different corps e received the Russian de- have ere this laid siege to the strong plade orders out his troops at | ces, that might impede the moving upon exercises them himself till 9 | Constantinople—the object being to ob-

n he goes to the seraglio, tain immediate possession of that capi-The Brigand Leader and his Wife. BY MRS. HEMANS. Dark Chieftain of the heath and hieght! n remains with his soldiers | Wild feaster on the hills by night! s of their provisions; and Seest thou the stormy sunset's glow. heir meals are finished he Flung back by glancing spears below? exercises, and does not re- Now for one strife of stern dispair! Seraglio till evening. He | The foe hath tracked thee to thy lair.

ear contented unless among Thou against whom the voice of blood. coops; but he never goes a- | Hath risen from track and lonely wood; itia and the Kourdes. It And in whose dreams a man should be, his troops do not manifest | Not of the water nor the tree; that was anticipated, and | Haply thine own last hour is nigh; re a decided aversion to Yet shall thou not forsaken die.

There's one that pale beside thee stands, orgh Gazette, ander date More brave than all thy mountain bands! says, "We have received | She will not shrink in doubt and dread, nat their Royal Highnesses | When the balls whistle round thy head; re the last of this month or Nor leave thee, though thy closing eye of next. Every prepara- No longer may to her's reply.

only remain a few days Oh! many a soft and quiet grace. eed immediately for the ar- | Hath faded from her soul face: And many a thought, the fitting guest, ss will remain here till the Of woman's meek, religious breast. ampaign. All the troops Hath perished in her wanderings wide; in divisions and corps, Through the deep forest, by thy side.

they will be able to open A flower upon a ruined wall, The weather is now fa- A friendless thing, whose lot is cast, ads being in excellent or- Of lovely ones to be the last; laden with provisions de- | Sad, but unchanged through good and ill, Kilia, where the imperi- Thine is her lone devotion still.

assembling to support the And, oh! not holy lost the heart, Where that undying love hath part; istruction of the bridges Not worthless all, though far and long of the Pruth on the 17th; From home estranged, and guided wrong; the Grand Duke Michel is Yet may its depths by Heaven be stirr'd Its prayer for thee be poured and heard!

Irish Wit .-- When the French landed at Bantry Bay, an Irish peasant, who tte is announced as Pres- was posted, with a musket, upon one of st Bureau de Chambre. | the cliffs, and had wandered a little out of his position, was accosted by an En-FROM ENGLAND. | glish officer with 'What are you here ship Birmingham, captain for?' 'Faith, your honour,' said Pat, w York from Liverpool, with his accustomed grin of good hu-said to have reached Lon- BULTIMORE PRICES CURRENT ning of the 10th, that the Grain, Wheat, white per bush. 95al 00 87a 92 Corn 31a 55

ed to have been the substance positions by a compliance with which CIBIBONICE

SATURDAY, JUNE 21.

The Orphans' Court of this County

Harvest .- A number of our farmers | the Pearl.

tollowing gentlemen compose the board | tions with those powers. of managers as now organized, viz. The that the managers are provided, each, persons desirious to become members of this Society can do so, by calling on any one of the managers, and subscribing one dollar and affixing their names to the articles of association.

A Charleston (S. C.) paper of the 28th | and imposing. ultimo, states that the British vessels in | Order of Procession, 4th July, 1809.

neighbors. the operation of the act.

cial says:-

a few days since, wrote to the Acting United States Courts, the Clergy and Varna, the corps of General Pascovich, Secretary of War, insisting upon the ar- | Doctors. rest of Major Gen. Macomb, for issuing erders to him; or in case the President should decline this measure, Gen. S. insisted on being arrested himself, and re quested that the court martial to be de- phlet form, to the address of Henry Clay, sians, it is said, would cross the Danube tailed should be selected by ballot from | to the public, which was published in De- about the same time into Bulgaria, and thirty officers to be designated by the cumber 1827, "exhibiting further evi- push forward as rapidly as possible, sup-Executive for that purpose-Gen. S. of dence in refutation of the charges against porting their main army by a landing course reserving his right of challenge- him, touching the last presidential elec- near the Gulf of Verona. and that a highly respectable' Judge Ad- | tion made by Gen. Andrew Jackson." | Extraordinary Supplement to the Rusvocate should be designated to conduct | The following is the only preface to the the trial. The letter to the Acting Sec- | conclusive documents which it embraces: retary was written in the most respectful terms, and in language showing that In my address of December last, to ing official documents: he honestly believes that Gen. Macomb the public in relation to the charges a- Manifesto of his Majesty the Emperor. Distressing Accident - Yesterday af. property of the said Roberts, will be has no right to command him. To these gainst me. concerning the last presiden- By the Grace of God, we, Nicolas I, ternoon, about half past 6 o'clock, a par- sold as above. Terms cash. need of his services.

says the National Intelligencer, the cor- the following explanation. respondence which we this day present examination he was induced to make in ascribed to him, improper designs." consequence of representations made by

Court house in Cambridge, when they | their government, a just indemnity, had | which had escaped my recollection, and | honor of the Russian name—the dignity Goldsborough was elected President, the | yield to a sense of justice, and to the re-Rev. Jonathan Judd, Vice President. | spect which belongs to the United States Brice J. Goldshorough, Esq. Secretary | We shall be most happy to be able to and John Donovan, Esq. Treasurer. The announce such an issue of our negotia-

H. Eccleston, James Thompson, Samu- with great pomp and ceremony. For witnesses of the distressing scene. el Corkran, Joseph Stewart, Dr. Antho- | which occasion, they have, for some | ny C. Thompson, Samuel Travers, Wil- | weeks, been making preparations for a liam Craft, Solomon Kirwan, Joshua | Civic Procession, with that spirit and Humphriss, Curtis Anderson, John Muir | harmony peculiar to those of the "monand Arthur Willis. We are informed umental city." The Order of Procession determined upon, is that of 1809, which with a copy of the constitution, and all | we annex. The venerable CARROLL, the only surviving signer of the Declaration | nesses on his return. of Independence, will be present to participate in the festivities of the day-He will commence the road-break the ground and lay the first stone. The

that port, wore their colors at half mast, Farmers-Gardeners-Millers-Baas a mark of disapprobation of the new | kers-Vituallers-Brewers and Distiltariff. This act of the British vessels | lers_Tailors_Blacksmiths and White- | From the N.Y. Com. of Monday afternoon, | between the Buenos Ayreans and Bra- | now lives; half a mile from the former, & is not only uncourteous, but a palpable smiths - Weavers - Carpenters and Joi - The packet ship Pacific, capt. Crocker, zilians had been broken, in consequence about the same distance from that beauandignity to this country. John Bull ners-Stone Cutters-Stone masens, and arrived this morning from Liverpool should be cautious how he pokes-Uncle | Bricklayers-Painters and Glaziers- | whence she sailed on the 16th May. | and stolen a large number of cattle. It | bacco-Stick. This land is nearly alk Sam knows how to retaliate. Nor is he Plaisterers-Cabinet Makers-Uphol- By this arrival we have received London was daily expected that General Lecor | newly cleared, and is among the best in to be tariff-ied by the temerity of his | ters--Tanners and Curriers-- Boot and | papers to the 15th inclusive. | Shoe Makers-- Hatters-- Wheelwrights | Important from Portugal .- A teleand Turners-Coopers---Saddlers and graphic despatch from Bayonne announ-GEORGIA. -- The Milledgeville Harness Makers -- Coachmakers, &c .- | ced, on the 10th ult. that Don Miguel Republican have forwarded us, says the Southron contains a spirited appeal to Leather Dressers and Glovers-Copper- had been proclaimed King without oppo- Baltimore American of yesterday, unthe people of the South on the subject smiths, Tin Plate workers and Brass sition in Combra and several other towns. der date of 11th instant, a proof slip of the balance of the of the Tariff. It thinks it high time for Founders-Printers-Tobacconists -- The Courier remarks that he is now every man, who has a spark of patriot. Potters-Sugar Refiners-Silver Smiths, traitor to his niece, the legitimate Queen, from Central America: ism in his bosom, to brace himself up | Watch Makers and Jewellers-Comb | Don Pedro having Abdicated on March | for sacrifices, and to prepare to breast | Makers -- Barbers -- Tallow Chandlers | 8th, in favor of his daughter, Donna Ma. | is virtually dissolved. The President | dresser, and coat scourer, from Baltithe storm. It calls up the Southren and Soap Boilers-Ship Carpenters- ria, charging Don Miguel, as his lieuten- has resigned; but the act was in some more, who some weeks since, so barba-States to turn to other defences than | Ship Joiners Block and Pump Makers | ant and Regent of the kingdom, with the | degree compulsory. The civil war conthose of petitions, or remonstrance, and -Rope Makers-Riggers-Sail Makers | execution of the decree. to push the spirit of resistance to the very __Methematical Instrument Makers_ | An Armistice, was concluded on the Guatamala to St. Salvador. verge of the Constitution. And for this | Boat Builders-Pilots-Ship Captains, 12th between Don Pedro and the Buepurpose, it recommends, that a Congress | Mates, Seamen-Draymen-Merchants | nos Ayrean government, through the me- 80 miles of Ocana, where the convenassemble from all the states opposed to and Traders, Clerks, &c. Mayor and diation of the English government, by tion was in session. This is the consti a protecting Tariff, in order to devise | City Council and their Clerks-Register | the agents of the two powers in London. | tutional distance prescribed. Although | hereby ordered to parade on the Green and recommend such measures, consis- and Collector-City Commissioners and Russian Declaration of War. The at present it is supposed that there are in front of Mrs. Sarah Bradshaw's Tatent with the Constitution, as may be their Clerks-Inspectors of Flour, Pork, long threatened crisis has at length arri- in the convention a majority opposed to vern, Cambridge, on the 4th of July best calculated to protect them against Fish, Lumber, &c. &c.—Clerks of the ved: The die is cast: and the Muscovite Bolivar's views, still it is thought next, at 10 o'clock precisely. The roll to | Markets and city Constables--Collec- | advances upon the Ottoman. tors-Naval Officers-Surveyor, Depu- The Russian Declaration of War is His object is supposed to be not only to Every member is requested to attend In relation to the recent conduct of ties, Clerks and Inspectors of the Port received; and the Manifesto by which get himself appointed Dictator for life, in full uniform. General Scott, in consequence of the ap | _ Constables, Sheriff and Marshals' Offi | it is accompanied, will be found below. | but to establish an hereditary succession. pointment of Major General Macomb as cers-Sheriff and Marshal-Clerk's As- We have not time to give the Dec- The first might easily be obtained; the Commander in Chief of the Army of the sistants and Clerks of the Courts-Jus laration. Wittgonstein's army crossed success of the latter is doubtful. United States, the New York Commer- tices of the Peace-Students of Law- the Pruth on the 26th or 27th of April, the Bar, Judges of Orphans' Court, Jud and is in full march towards Constanti-Contrary to the advice of many of his ges of the Court of Oyer and Terminer, nople. While the large naval armament be Treasurer of the United States, in the friends, as we are informed, Gen. Scott, Judges of the county Court, Judges of of Sebastopol co-operates on the side of

> From the National Intelligencer. DEFENCE OF MR. CLAY.

ADVERTISEMENT.

PART I. to them, between Mr. Secretary Clay | Exhibits the statements of Messrs. | tramples under foot the Voung man who was drowned hours of 8 and 10 o'clock, and Baron De Krudener, by which it | William Sample, isaac Bennet, the Rev. | Arkerman, and with that all preceding | with them. They all three were seen to will appear that claims of American cit- | A. Wylie, John Keel, Cuthbert T. Jones, | Treaties.

izens amounting to more than two hun- | and J. U. Waring. Upon perusing them, | "Lastly, the Porte does not hesitate to | dred and fifty thousand roubles, origina- in connexion with statements on the declare that it accepted the conditions ting as far back as 1807, have been final- same subject, which I formerly publish- of this peace only as a mask to conceal your highly useful paper I beg leave to ly liquidated and paid by the Russian ed, the public will be able to judge of its intentions and its preparations for a inform the citizens of Derchester, that I Government. It is a circumstance of the accuracy of General Jackson's asser- new war. Scarcely is this remarkable am willing to serve them as a represenparticular gratification, that this act of | tion, that the "origin—the beginning of | confession made, when the rights of the | tative in the next general assembly of justice springs directly from the Empe | this matter, [the charge of bargain] was | Russian flag are violated—the vessels | this state. In appearing before the pubror, who personally examined the claims, at my own house and fireside, where, which it covers detained—and the car- lic and soliciting the suffrages of my feland over ruled the previous decision of surely, a freeman may be permitted to goes made the previous and low-citizens, I assure them that I am inhis own tribunals against them. That speak on public topics without having arbitary government. Our subjects found fluenced, by no motive of ambition, other

Mr. Clay to the Baron De Maltitz;, and | Consists of the statements of Messrs. | try. The Bosphorus is closed—our To Correspondents.-The communi- by Mr. Middleton to the Russian Minis- George Robertson, and Charles S. Todd, | trade annihilated-our southern provincations of "Fair Play," "Observer," "Se- try. An arrangement was made between of Kentucky, and Daniel Wertner and ces deprived of the only channel for the Calamities which the ignorance and subnex," and "Incog," are received, and the late Baron De Tuyll & Mr. Clay, by A. W. Woolley, of Mississippi, and B. | exportation of their produce, are threatof fostered, as we fear, for very The most active preparations are make shall be attended to-some of which another claim of an American citi- S. Forrest, of Maryland: the four former ened with incalculable injury. Nay purposes, will be converted in ling by the Russian army. Pontoniers were prepared for this day's paper, but | zen, amounting to a considerable sum, | narrating conversations between other | more! At the moment when the negotiawas admitted and paid by the Russian gentlemen and me, long antecedent to tions between Russia and Persia are Government. We allude to the case of the late presidential election, in which I nearly concluded, a sudden change on freely expressed my opinion respecting the part of the Persian government, ore, booth, stall, or other place, that a double operation will take place have already commenced reaping their | While on this subject of American | Mr. Adams and Gen. Jackson. Mr. For- | checks the course of them. It soon aple of liquors, or other merchan- at the same time; that whilst the Rus- grain-by Wednesday next, perhaps all claims on foreign Governments, we can- rest's statement proves that Col. Benton, pears that the Ottoman Porte exerts itto none others--LET NONE BE sians on the Purth will take possession of them will have commenced. A few not pass by the fact that Mr. Wheaton on his way to Congress, in the fall of self to make Persia waver, by promising WITHOUT CAUSE. - Som Iris. of the Principalities, the grand army will weeks ago, wheat looked unusually well has recently obtained from the Govern- 1824, declared "that it was impossi- powerful aid; arming in haste the troops cross the Danube and Reni and Israel. and promising; but, we regret to add, ment of Denmark satisfaction for one ble that Mr. Clay could vote for Gen. in the adjoining provinces, and prepar-The London Courier of May 9, says: that it is now much injured by the rust | class of claims, amounting to nearly one | Jackson and expressed much surprize at | ing to support, by a threatening attack, is ascribable to the condition of its finan- | without having been previously commu- | and this is unhappily the fruit of the ces, rather than to any want of a sense | nicated to me; and of D. White, Esq. | sacrifices and the generous exertions by the only representative from Kentucky, which Russia has incessantly endeavour-

Washington, 10th June, 1828.

Leeds must have been lost in the ice.'

Hon. C Goldsborough, the Rev. J. Judd. The Baltimoreans have determined to was on her passage to Hartford, a pas- the law of nations. B. J. Goldsborough, J. Donovan, the | celebrate the approaching Anniversary | senger, Col. Waters, of Colchester, Conn. | "We are convinced that our faithful | ward Griffith, John Brohawn, Thomas I. | more and Ohio Rail Road, conjunctly, of his family who accompanied him, were our enterprise, and they will implore

A fearful threat .- John Gowen, an ald offender who had previously served seven years at Botany, was transported for life at the Sussex Sessions for duck stealing; when sentence was pronounced he threatened to thrash one of the wit-

POSTSCRIPT.

By last evening's steam boat we rewhole ceremony will doubtless be grand and Thursday, as well as the daily American of yesterday--from which we copy the following highly interesting intelli-flushed with its recent triumphs in Persia, is to advance through the southern be Secretary of Legation at Paris, in the between the hours of 10 and 4 o'clock, frontier of Turkey. But this is not the only important operation with which the A supplement has appeared in pam- war is expected to commence. The Russian State Gazette. Berlin, May 4 .- We have received to day from St. Petersburg the follow-or to leave without delay a hostile coun-

H. CLAY. have prescribed to us the bounds of it.

their fullest extent the duties imposed | the cause of virtue and the people. The N. Y. Mercantile of Wednesday on us by imperative necessity, and insays:- It was believed in England when spired with the greatest confidence in the Pacific sailed, that the packet ship the justice of our cause, that we have ordered our army to advance, under the servant. THOMAS COLSTON. Melancholy occurrence. On Friday Divine protection, against an enemy who We are authorised to announce John night, while the steam boat Macdonough | violates the most sacred obligations of | G. Abbott, as a candidate for the next > the Almighty to lend his support to our brave soldiers, and to shed his Divine blessing on our arms, which are destined to defend our liberty, religion and our beloved country.

"Given at St. Petersburgh, the 14th | [26th] April, in the year of our Lord, 1828, and the third of our reign.

[Counter signed the Vice Chancellor.] COUNT NESSELRODE." The Declaration which follows the ceived Baltimore papers of Wednesday foregoing Monifesto, enters into a more ample review of the conduct of the Porte.

says:--By the brig Quill, Parnelle, from | ed to the neighborhood. RUSSIAN DECLARATION of WAR! Rio Grande, we learn that the armistice | Also, the FARM where Mrs. Gore of the former having crossed the lines | tiful and healthy village called Towould attack the Buenos Ayreans.

Our correspondents of the Savannah persons. Apply to

The Government of Central America tinues, but the seat of it is changed from the Clerk's, Register's, or Chronicle Of-

Bolivar with some troops, was within they will be brought over to his measures. be called at half past 10 o'clock, a. m

Appointments by the Prisident. William Clark, of Pennsylvenia, to place of Thomas Tudor Tucker, decea-place of Daniel Sheldon deceased. Secretary of Legation at Madrid, in the place of John Adams Smith, transferred | gig and harness, 1 grey horse, 1 clock, to Paris. Helwich Janson of Norway, to be Consul of the United States for the Port Bergen, in Norway in the place of Henry Janson, resigned. John Pulis, of Malta, to be Consul the United States for the Island of Malta, in the place of Joseph Pulis, resigned.

questions, as we are informed, an an- tial election, which originated with gen. Emperor and Autocrat of all the Rus- ty, consisting of two women and four swer was returned, reminding Gen. S. Jackson and some of his friends, I stated sias, &c. &c. The Treaty of Bucharest, men very imprudently attempted to June 16, 1828. that he was now on furlough, and direc- that I had been disappointed in the re- concluded in the year 1812 with the Ot- cross to Kaighn's Point from Swedes' ting that as soon as that expired, he shall ceipt of some testimony which I had ex- toman Porte, after having been for six- church, in a small boat calculated only proceed to his post at the west; and in- pected; and that if, I should subsequently teen years the subject of reiterated dis- to hold four persons. When within two | The pected; and that if, I should subsequently teen years the subject of reiterated disforming him that if he did not think pro- obtain it, I would present it to the public. putes, now no longer subsists, in spite hundred yards of the Jersey shore, the | v for cash, in New-Market, on the per to resume his command and submit | laccordingly received several statements | of all our exertions to maintain it, and | boat filled, and the two women, together | 12th July next, all Charles Lecompte's to the orders from the department, the from different gentlemen, some of which to preserve it from all attacks. The with one of the men, were drowned -- the following property, United States would have no further were communicated without solicitation. Porte not satisfied with having destroy- other three were saved. They were all to with one negro man, Jeffrey, one wo-Deeming them highly important, I pre- ed the basis of that I reaty, now defies from Jersey, and what renders it more man Comford; taken as the property of sent them to the public in this supplement, Russia. and prepares to wage against it distressing, the two females had been to said Lecompte, to satisfy an execution Our readers will peruse with interest, without a single comment. I offer only a Bellum internacionem; it summons its the city to purchase their wedding at the suit of Hayward, use of James people in a mass to arms; accuses Rus- clothes, and one of the two females, (both Webb, and one at the suit of Robert sia of being its irreconcilable enemy and sisters) was to be married in two weeks | Keys. Sale to commence between the sink together.—Phil. Gaz.

MR. Epiron-Through the medium of themselves compelled to break their oath. | than the good of my country. Her languishing state convinces me, that the present crisis calls, most imperiously, for wisdom and integrity in Legislation. tle devices of former legislatures have afflicted, require to be speedily eradicated, or the fair fabric of our independence must totter and fall to the ground. These reflections added to the anxious solicitations of my numerous friends are alone sufficient to call me from the shades of a peaceful and dignified relirement, to mingle in the disagreeable scenes of a Legislative-Hall. It becomes you, then, fellow-citizens, to know that wisdom in legislation is the shield of cia this treacherous hostile language. This lators those who will fearlessly and co-

As the candidates have generally sig-| nified their preference for one or other of the distinguished individuals who are now aspiring to the presidential chair, I of the services and qualifications of Gen. Andrew Jackson. His chivalrous spirit and patriotic devotion eminently enti-I tle him to your support; and I hope to co operate with his other avowed friends. "It is not till after having weighed in | in effecting his election, and promoting With this synopsis of my political creed, I present the public with assurances of my fidelity; and remain their obedient from Cambridge, on the road lead. ing from Cambridge to little Black Was ter Bridge. This Farm is laid off in five fields containing sixty thousand corn hills each. June 21

Legislature.

PHYORENT, for the ensuing year, or a number of years, that small FARM, whereon Noah Dixon, esq. now lives; sitluated immediately on the head waters of Tobacco-Stick Bay, in a good healthy | neighborhood-where oysters, fish and fowl abound. The buildings on this farm are good, comfortable and convenient. The situation is desirable, and is a good The New York Journal of Commerce | stand for any mechanical business, suit-that neighborhood. The terms will be made low and reasonable to industrious

WM. M. ROBINSON.

Town-Point, June 21, 1828. 3w containing the following intelligence | vear, the SHOP adjoining the dwelling of Mr. Devenish, lately occupied by negro John H. King, barber, hair-

ATTENTION!

MIDDLETOWN TROOP, you are

W. H. YATES, O. S.

Sheriff's Sale. Y virtue of a writ of fi. fa. at the Suit of Thomas R. Brooks and John Randell, use of Henry Nicols, against St. George E. Roberts, will be sold at John Adams Smith, of New York, to public sale, on Saturday, 12th July next. at the house of said Roberts, in New-Charles S. Walsh, of Maryland, to be Market, all his right, title and claim of in and to the following property, viz: 1 I sow and pigs, 6 hogs, more or less, k carpet, 6 beds and furniture, 12 chairs, 3 cows, 2 pied hiefers, 11 sheep, 1 cart and oxen, and all the balance of his household property. Also all the said Roberts' right to the one third part of the real estate of P.oger Hooper, dec'd. I negro girl named Sarah, to serve 13 years; being seized and taken, as the Constable's Sale.

June 21 1828.