hired help could not be obtained—and cler- to censure in the arrangements. gymen, and merchants and lawyers often Robert Wilson's house stood about two to be realised. In one year from the time to a space barely sufficient for a passage.—

In Philadelphia, it has been for some time in successful operation. From the great as Robert was turning this rock, Mary, utland wore the appearance of a pleasant, cul- tered a wild shriek, was either torn or fell number of complaints of illegal voting by tivated farm. The trees had nearly all disappeared from an area of twenty acres, and at the same instant, and while Robert, calaborated from an area of twenty acres, and at the same instant, and while Robert, calaborated from an area of twenty acres, and at the same instant, and while Robert, calaborated from an area of twenty acres, and at the same instant, and while Robert, calaborated from an area of twenty acres, and at the same instant, and while Robert, calaborated from an area of twenty acres, and at the same instant, and while Robert, calaborated from an area of twenty acres, and at the same instant, and while Robert, calaborated from an area of twenty acres, and at the same instant, and while Robert, calaborated from an area of twenty acres, and at the same instant, and while Robert, calaborated from an area of twenty acres, and at the same instant, and while Robert, calaborated from an area of twenty acres, and at the same instant, and while Robert, calaborated from an area of twenty acres, and at the same instant, and while Robert, calaborated from an area of twenty acres, and at the same instant, and while Robert, calaborated from an area of twenty acres, and at the same instant, and while Robert, calaborated from an area of twenty acres, and at the same instant, and while Robert, calaborated from an area of twenty acres, and at the same instant, and while Robert, calaborated from a same acres. all concealed by a luxuriant harvest. There his steed, a gun was discharged by an In- per, it will be seen that a Whig member of Correspondence of the Baltimore Chron- of twenty armed oyster boats from Phila- its consequences.—The Banks overdealt mand of the said Staunton, to the company of grenadiers; with pumkins and of the rein on his breast, and he fell back- with one or two exceptions voted in the nesquashes innumerable, reposing on the ward upon the rider. ground quietly ripening in the mellow heats of August.

On a gently rising ground, in the middle of the young plantation stood a small dwelling; I wish I could, with propriety, call it a cottage, because to many young ladies it the inside divided into two apartments, mount of each of said banks, with one little closet, and the whole lighted Which was read,—and with one little closet, and the whole lighted by three small glass williumwo. side of this dwelling rose a large elm tree, and several small ones were on the lawn in the commissioners appointed at the last dollars. front of the house, purposely left standing session to examine and ascertain what Those who left Baltimore in the steamspared or transplanted by Robert, to give 233. additional beauty to his rural seat. Thick, dark forests and hills crowned with trees, formed the boundary on every side; but in charming relief to the eye, after it had wife Elizabeth L. Harris; dwelt on the gloom of the surrounding wil-

To a person always accustomed to the city's elegance or the retreats of ease and currency are hereby authorized and cloa- to Baltimore. opulence, this wild place would doubtless | thed with ample power to examine into have looked like a dreary prison-gloomy, the accounts of the directors of the difflonely and terifying; but to Robert, who erent banks of the State, and also to ascerwould almost call it the creation of his own tain whether or not, there is any connexhands, it was a little Paradise, and when his ion between the brokers and said banks; The Vice President laidbefore the Senate he loved a "good hater," and methinks bird of beauty should be within his bower, he would not have exchanged his home in the woods for those stately halls his mother payments, and for the last six months had often told him of right should have since that period and report to this missioners of Pensions: which were ordered been his habitation.

The wedding at length arrived. It had no arguments addessed to the reason can

There were great preparations for the wed- Senators as on yesterday. The proceed- found in the treaty. It was then suggestding. Captain Waldron liked a parade, ings of yesterday were read. and his wife liked to show her housekeep- The President laid before the Senate a the preservation of slavery among Indian occasion to gain popularity by a display of member elect of the council, accepting tions, which at the desire of Mr. Sevier, had hospitality. Three o'clock was the hour the appointment.

that these were very fashionable then, and ferred to the committee on divorces. not to occupy much share in a story so brief, for the events it chronicles, as this must be.

The Rev. John Reyner officiated as clergyThe Rev. John Rev. John Rev. The Rev. John Rev. The Rev. John man; and then the whole party sat down to It was read the second and by special modifications of his resolution, at the suggood things which the country could sup- to the house of delegates.

ply. At the head of the feast stood an enor- The Senate adjourned until to-morrow lowing: had held undisturbed for thousands of ages. mous Indian pudding, (not made of Indi- morning ten o'clock. And in the recesses of those dark old ans, as an Englishman once inferred such woods, often lurked the wily savages, more a pudding might be,) served up in a huge terrific and bood thirsty than the prowling li- pewter platter. The plates were of the on or the crouching tiger. However Rob- same substantial material, all shining like ert Wilson surveyed the trees and thought silver from a recent scrubbing—then they of the Indians without shrinking. He had had roast beef and lamb, and wild game and been bred to consider labor, hard hand la- fowls, and all the fruits and varieties of the bor, honorable, even for gentlemen of the season. But they had no wine nor strong first standing and best educations. The drink of any kind, and the most ultra temearly colonists were all obliged to labor, for perance advocate would have found nothing put their own hands to the spade and the miles from that of Captain Waldron's, and axe. And Mr. Wilson had always inten- more than half a mile from any habitation. ded Robert for a farmer, as he obrseved This distance was not considered much, that he was not over fond of study, and but then it was the thick old woods, and the next to being a herald of the Gospel, a til- road was only cut and freed from the obler of the ground was the most righteous struction of trees. No carriage could have and happy calling, in his estimation, a man | rolled over the rugged road, but that was no matter, as not a wheel vehicle of any kind, Such were the father's sentiments, and excepting great lumber carts, had ever Robert was prepared to illustrate them in been seen in Dover. So the gentlemen the worthiest manner. He had a light mounted their goodly steeds, and each gal- ting in the city of Baltimore. Now it wil heart, a strong arm, a sharp axe, and a sure lant taking a lady behind him, set off, with be admitted by every unprejudiced person, that any attempt of Congress Lieut. Brook and Lieut. Centre, all of heart, a strong arm, a sharp axe, and a sure lant taking a lady behind him, set on, with that this practice should be broken up, if the bridegroom and bride at the head of the practicable. The Elective Franchise is the drews and Lieut. Walker, of the Missisthan would the obstructions of thistle down smiles and good wishes of those who could Government, the ballot box is the instruhis path of life gave him no more concern cavalcade in great style, followed by the dearest right of freemen. In a Republican in his road to church. He was a tall finely not join for lack of steeds. Their progress ment of the sentiment of the states sustaining that domestic institu- has since died. in his road to church. He was a tall finely formed young man, of twenty one, with eyes as black as a thunder cloud, and their eyes as black as a thunder eyes as a black as a thunder eyes as black as a thunder eyes as a black as a thunder eyes as black as a thunder eyes as a black as a thunder eyes as a black flash very much like its lightning. His more sober pace became necessary; but offices, are responsible to the people alone. who have been permitted to settle with and ans near Fort Lane. flash very much like its lightning. This more sober pace became necessary, but hair was as black as his eyes, and his rather hair was as black as his eyes, and his rather dark complexion wore such a glow of health, still pressed on at a rate which soon carried where there is a great floating population of clause the people of any such where there is a great floating population of clause the people of any such where there is a great floating population of clause the people of any such where there is a great floating population of clause the people of any such where there is a great floating population of clause the people of any such where there is a great floating population of clause the people of any such where there is a great floating population of clause the people of any such where there is a great floating population of clause the people of any such where there is a great floating population of clause the people of any such where there is a great floating population of clause the people of any such where there is a great floating population of clause the people of any such where there is a great floating population of clause the people of any such where there is a great floating population of clause the people of any such where there is a great floating population of the people of any such where there is a great floating population of the people of any such where there is a great floating population of the people of any such where there is a great floating population of the people of any such where there is a great floating population of the people of any such where there is a great floating population of the people of any such where and his whole countenance and demeanor him several rods in advance of the party.— and a mixum gatherum of all nations, it of slavery therein, and because, that when the times are indeed propentious. On all other.—They ought to decide for them. so much of happiness and frank confidence, The path just before entering the clearing has been found very difficult to restrain its any such Territory shall be admitted into sides there is discontent indirect aggres- selves, and u pon the strength of the read s that all who saw him prophesied, and, inthat all who saw him prophesied, and, inthat all who saw him prophesied to as the creating the cleaning deed, wished succes to the handsome and near the river, the curve being made to a- law obliging every person to have his name void a large rock that rose like a wall on the registered, and the register book subject at sively for themselves. Their wishes and his own seemed likely north side of the road, confining its width all times to the scrutiny of every one, had this salutary effect to a very one, had this salutary effect to a very one, had the substitute was agreed to by the the surface was covered and stumps nearly ling on his wife, was endeavoring to rein so. By reference to the first side of our pawas the golden wheat, the bearded rye dian from behind the rock. The ball struck bill for the establishment of the system aand tasseled corn as tall and straight as a the horse as he was rearing from the effect bove mentioned. The Van Buren members

(to be continued.)

MARYLAND LEGISLATURE. HOUSE OF DELEGATES.

THURSDAY, January 11th 1838. The Speaker laid before the house, a would give such a romantic interest to my communication from the Treasurer of the story—but truth compels me to confess that | Western Shore, in obedience to an order their real cottages, it was not at all like a stant, enclosing an exhibit of the numtheir real cottages, it was not at all like a stant, enclosing an exhibit of the numcottage of the imagination. It was a building ber of banks in this State, where they secured by a screw in a beam, and ever since boat, armed with cannon in the full deonly supposed to be venual then but e spectors may hold their office. The twenty feet by twenty-four—formed of neat- are located, and the amount of States the Legislature met he has been turning it spectors may hold their office. The termination to drive the boatmen from ly hewed logs, the roof covered with boards Stock in each of them, and also the a- round always the same way, till he loosen- majority of the committee, to whom the Chesapeake, even at the cost of lives which

Which was read,—and On motion of Mr. Eccleston, referred front of the house the clearing extended to bill, originated in and passed by the Sen- lis, Mr. Richard Sands, was more fortu- cial depositories. "We are sorry that our the Cocheco, whose bright waters were ate, entitled, an act to divorce William Baltimore, and gave information of the ac- pose from the anxiety of so many to be nate. The evening before, and gave information of the acdancing in the sun beams, thus affording a Harris, from Talbot county, from his cident to the Captain of the Relief, who, as relieved from the marriage vow that "the sion in the revenue boat he caught the gret in the bosom of General J., but we con-

Which was read, and referred to the committee on divorces.

On motion of Mr. Risteau, and furthermore to enquire into the issues of said banks for the last six months covering the annual report of the Colonel swain in this case. preceeding their suspension of specie of the Ordnance, and a report of the Comhouse as early as practicable.

On motion of Mr. Risteau. Ordered, that it be considered a part lution: would bring unalloyed happiness: but Mary of the duty of the committee on the cur- Resolved, That the committee on claims Within a few years divorces have been of the wild catamount; I'm a real catasrency, in their investigations and examibe directed to inquire into the expediency of granted with but little objection, for al- trophe—a small creation, Mount Vesuforeboding of misfortune, come over her of the State's portion of the surplus revelations; my eyes are two blast furnaces—of Ransom Pritchett, late of Dorhad often felt a sadness, something like a nations of those banks in which any part reporting a bill for the liquidation of the most any cause, and the indifference inc. mind whenever her marriage was alluded nue has been deposited, to enquire into sessustained at his plantation, 'LangSyne,' sign," of the absence in the majority of tears red hot melted iron, and every chester County, Maryland, deceased, the cause of this depression; it was not that a portion of their report to this house, in the years 1835 and 1836, in consequence the members of the proper feeling as to tooth in my head a granite pillar; my lead a granite pil she felt any doubt of Robert's character of whether said sums of money so deposi- of the war with the seminole Indians. or affection: she loved him better than all ted, in their sound discretion and judgement, are perfectly safe or not.

the world besides, and trusted in him as a catholic does in his saint—nor did she fear to dwell in the wilderness, there had not for along time been an along time been along ti

SENATE.

ing, and the marriage afforded a justifiable letter from Thomas H. Hicks Esquire, a Nations, as one of their domestic Institu-and lastly all the wedding guests who had

Which was read and referred to the consideration of the house of delegates.

A bill entitled, an act to divorce N would be very monstrous now, and a minute description of antiquated attire ought not to occupy much share in a story so brief

Mr. Hambleton from the committee of divorces.

Mr. Hambleton from the committee of divorces.

Mr. Hambleton from the committee of divorces.

Mr. Hambleton from the committee of Mr. Clay, as modered on the substitute of Mr. Clay, as moder

SATURDAY MORNING, Jan. 20, 1838.

The Orphans Court of this county will sit on Monday the 29th January.

THE ELECTIVE FRANCHISE. There have been many charges by both this salutary effect to a very great degree. following vote;—

subversive of the rights of American citi-zens. Quere—Do the Van Buren Dele- Judge Buchannan is also in this city. gates think there is danger of losing Balti-

ANNAPOLIS, Jan. 13, 1837-The splendid chandelier, in the Senate

ed the screw sufficiently and down it fell— this subject was referred, by the chair- if necessary. Which was read,—and

On motion of Mr. Alexander, referred to the public deposites ought to be "animomittee on the currency."

Mr. Eccleston presented a report from

Mr. Eccleston presented a report from

Mr. Eccleston presented a report from to the public deposites ought to be "animomittee, I understand, will make a country of the repeal. The minority of the combiling certain in relation to their proceedings. Mr. Eccleston presented a report from ever, he repaired for a sum—fifty or sixty mittee, I understand, will make a counthear proceedings.

> reached here. Just after the boat got out gine broke. Fortunately a vessel bound Doctors."

TWENTY-FIFTH CONGRESS. IN SENATE.

to be printed.

Mr. Pierce submitted the following reso-

MR. CALHOUN'S RESOLUTIONS.-The unfinished business of yesterday, being the why is it that, at times, a shadow will fall on the spirit which no efforts of the mind, on the spirit which no efforts of the mind, on the spirit which no efforts of the mind, on the spirit which no efforts of the mind, of the substitute offered by Mr. Clay it be the city of Baltimore. One divorce, from navigating the same under the sole to the fifth of Mr. Calhoun's resolutions.—

That part referring to the treaty of 1819, as guarantying slavery in Florida, under the sole to the fifth of Mr. Clay it be the city of Baltimore. One divorce, from navigating the same under the sole to the fifth of Mr. Calhoun's resolutions.—

That part referring to the treaty of 1819, as guarantying slavery in Florida, under the sole to the fifth of Mr. Clay it be the city of Baltimore. One divorce, from navigating the same under the sole to the fifth of Mr. Clay it be the city of Baltimore. One divorce, from navigating the same under the sole to the fifth of Mr. Clay it be the city of Baltimore. One divorce, from navigating the same under the sole to the fifth of Mr. Clay it be the city of Baltimore. One divorce, from navigating the same under the sole to the fifth of Mr. Clay it be the city of Baltimore. One divorce, from navigating the same under the sole to the fifth of Mr. Clay it be the city of Baltimore. One divorce, from navigating the same under the sole to the fifth of Mr. Clay it be the city of Baltimore. One divorce, from navigating the same under the sole to the fifth of Mr. Clay it be the city of Baltimore. One divorce, from navigating the same under the sole to the fifth of Mr. Clay it be the city of Baltimore. One divorce, from navigating the same under the sole to the fifth of Mr. Clay it be the city of Baltimore. One divorce, from navigating the same under the sole to the fifth of Mr. Clay it be the city of Baltimore. One divorce, from navigating the same under the sole to the fifth of Mr. Clay it be the city of Baltimore. One divorce, from navigating the same under the sole to the fifth of Mr. Clay it be the cit The Senate met. Present the same no such guaranty, on examination, being ed by Mr. Clay to strike out a clause for been inserted yesterday. The question was then taken on striking out this paragraph, Mr. CLAY's recent course in the Sen-

That any interference with the subject of sway almost unlimited, over the judg- startled, but thought his farm wanted some slavery in the United States, in which it ments and the hearts of the Senate. knew how to make rale good bread. Now DASHAW_A Jack of fine form may exist; is inhibted by all the considera- Were it not for the blind infatuation of don't,' said Jonathan. 'If I should'—said condition and a beautiful cream tions in regard to the rights and interests of the inhabitants of said Territories, the second him, with curity of the slaveholding States, and the state of the danger to the Union, which are mentioned all their hearts, in his conservative ef- in' that game, you better tell feyther.'in the preceding resolution, as forbidding a- forts .- Balt. Chron. ny interference with, or action on, the subject of slavery in the District of Columbia; and for the further reason, that the people of those territories, when admitted into the Union as states, will be exclusively entitled to decide the question of the existence of slavery within their respective limits for them-

Yeas-10. Nays-29.

After further discussion; the question was substitute, modified to read as follows:

Yeas-33 Nays-9

Annapolis, Jan. 10th, 1838. tem of corruption, fraught with great dan- ers under the law, arrived here on Tues- ance, a party of them is said to have lan- lic deposites—and it is said, that Mr. said property will be taken and

The bill confirming the "Reform act" more city, if all illegal votes are excluded. of the last session was reported by MI. of such high handed outrage of our rights ted on the public deposites to the full Ford from the committee on the Con- roused the indignant feelings of a num- capacity of their charters, they were institution, on Monday.

The Thomsonian question is again be-

The clerk of the Senate delivered a for Baltimore, passed about this time, and The Custom-house officer of Annapo- rate the public funds from the Banks, as spenow hate each other with a "brotherly iff.—See advertisement. hate"-What this last is you will find January 11, 1838. on reference to Byron's letters—he said

> 'Tis melancholy, and a fearful sign Of human frailty, folly, also crime, That love and marriage rarely can the sanctity of the marriage rite. guaran: ying slavery in Florida, under the a score of others pending. It is enough left but a hole three feet in circumfertitle of private property,' was stricken out; to make one believe in the truth of the ence and no end to the depth. My gig | L. S. | court, I have necessary to make one believe in the truth of the ence and no end to the depth. My gig | * name and the seal of my office

> "Marriage is like a ramble route Those that are out would fain be in, And those that are in would be out."

it is easy to discover that he exercises a arm an involuntary hug. He was a leetle

From the Savanna's Georgian. January 6th, 1838. 2 o'clock P. M.

Garey's Ferry, arrived this morning, we indelicacy of assaulting General Jack names to the Chronicle office before learn that on the 28th ult. between Peas son, its late patron and demigod. In a season commences. After which, a long discussion ensued up- Creek and the Big Cypress Swamp, a late letter. the Expresident, with a mildon this proposition, and it was rejected, as small party of Indians were seen and pursued and when the pursuing party ness altogether new to him, expresses reached the hammock, the Indians were his "regret at the attitude occupied by discovered in great force, and a severe Mr Rives and Mr. Ritchie" in relation by Solomon Robinson esqr. a justile of the pursuing party his "regret at the attitude occupied by discovered in great force, and a severe Mr Rives and Mr. Ritchie" in relation contest immediately ensued, in which to the Sub Treasury scheme. The En. of the Peace of Dorchester county 28 of our gailant troops were killed, and taken on the second branch of Mr. Clay's 117 wounded. Among the killed are quirer republishes the letter and com- to the sheriff directed, at the suit of Col. Thompson. Capt. Van Swearingen, ments upon it in these terms .-

The loss of the Indians not ascertained or of the Cincinatti Advertiser. But we acres more or less; "Senster," conta but presumed to be large. A few days empt from these unpleasant disturbances. judgment. West River.

The Steamboat reached Annapolis on founded upon it. for ornament, and wild rose bushes and loss was sustained by Joseph Ennals, in loss wa have been presented from the western ne Arundel county, with a formidable Mr. Rives is also willing so facto disconof the river Patapsco, the shaft of the en- counties, in favor of the "Vegetable possey embarked, and scoured the waters of Rhede, West, and South rivers without meeting one of the maruders.

soon as possible thereafter, started for the place of happiness is the single station." crew of a neat little schooner napping, fess we do not yet see our error, and cannot with their dredges. &c. on board and relief of the Maryland, took the passengers —There are some curious cases before curing all hands below, brough in his therefore shift our attitude, even from rest off and brought them to Annapolis, and the House. One from from the Eas- prize which was tried and condemned pect to Gen. J. We suspect, too, that Mr. Ordered that the committee on the then returned and towed the Maryland back tern shore sets forth that the parties quar- next day by our magistrates court, and Rives is as unfortunate a schismatic as relled "the day after the wedding," and is now offered at public sale by the sher- ourselves. Both of us can repeat, Amicus

> WOT A CRITTER HE MUST BE .- Ac- our friend." a Mississippi roarer in that peaceful vil- for the name of General Jackson." And mmunications from the War Department he would have been enraptured with the lage, who ought to be quiet, if possible or they will see harder times there than the alwives when they get into General been, but is no longer? Court. The description which the 'crittur gives of himself, is this .-

'I'm very like a whale, with a little shade of the big elephant—and a touch feet are Virginian plantations—legs, by law for all creditors to exhibit their I believe no one part of the State is rocky mountains, and arms, with liberty and that he cause the same to published my team is a tandem of sea-serpents, of our Lord, 1838. with rattle snake reins, four roaring lions for body-guards; and I advance and retreat like a hurricane.'

JONATHAN AND PRUDENCE.

A SHORT COURTSHIP. course of which Mr. Clay assented to some Upon this question Mr. CLAY's powers lin warnt no fun: Prudence guessed that Jan. 1837. dinner—the long table covered with all order the third time, passed and returned gestion of Mr. Hubbard and Mr. Walker. are ever awake—and notwithstanding than the the country could support to the house of the second and by special modifications of his resolution, at the sug-Mr. Rives offered as a substitute the fol- the advantages of his political position, Now don't, said Pru, and guv Jonathan's were 'my old man' and 'my old woman.'

The Richmod Enquirer has, we are January, 20 deeply pained to see, added the sin of in N. B .- As the terms will be very rea gratitude to its other offences. It has able, all those who feel inclined to en Disastrous intelligence.—From captain Mills of the Steamer Camden, from at length permitted itself to commit the rage the Jack will please hand in entertained for the name of General next, between the hours of 10 and (on our last page) his letter to the edit- of the said Satchell, to the following regret to see him so often dragged forth 29 3-4 acres, more or less. Take into the public prints-To clear up er the property of the said Jno. W. Sat rors of statement is one thing—to influ- and will be sold to satisfy said writ War in the Chesapeake.—The signs of ence the opinions of a free people, is an-

While Pennsylvania is rigidly bent on Gen. Jackson has criticised the Banks the Judges of the District Cour having a few citizens of Harford County in the severest manner. He has chararrested and tried for the crime of felony ged them with treachery to the govern- as Staunton, I will offer at public bringing them away in violation of a law ment—but whatever was their miscon to the higest and best bidder for cas of the State, made in direct contradic- duct, the People, as well as the Govern- the 10th day of February next; at t tion of the provisions of a law of the U- ment, participated in the error, as well o'clock, all the right, title, claim, delphia are at this very moment fishing -and so did the People. The Govern whereon he now lives, lying and be in our bay with rakes for Oysters in open ment, too, stimulated them at one re-Gen. Emory one of the Commission- content with setting our laws at defided and burned down a house belonging Gallatin, in the late Bank Convention, satisfy said fi. fa. and costs due gers to our Republican Institutions, and day in the steamboat from Baltimore; to Mr. Harwood in the neighborhood of stated as a fact, that when the three De-As might be supposed, the intelligence posite Banks of New York has discounber of our citizens, and on Tuesday last structed to transfer to other Banks the A Strenuous effort will be made to if we are rightly informed, proceeded balance of the deposites, with a view of needs so much capital, it was then sup-Balt. Gazette. to be given for commercial operations > nect the Banks as to prevent their discounting on the public deposites—but not to sepe-Plato, sed magis amica Veritas! Andrew Jackson is our friend-but Truth is more cording to the Taunton Whig they have "The great respect we have entertained Jackson so fallen that the respect in which he was held is spoken of as a thing that has Oh mighty Ceasar! art thou so low?

Are all thy triumps, conquests, glories,

Shrunk to this little measure?

MARYLAND. Dorchester County Orphans' Court ?

is a wild-cat, with hoop snake wheels— affixed, this 15th of January in the year WM. W. ECCLESTON, Reg.

Wills, Dorchester County. In compliance with the above order, This is to give notice, that the subscriber of Dorchester County hath obtained from the Orphans' Court of Dorchester County horses were invited to join and escort the voung couple to their dwelling,

Of the wedding dresses. Let "

A Show I Court of Dorchester County and it was stricken out—yeas 31—nays 10 the Urphans' Court of Dorchester County and it was stricken out—yeas 31—nays 10 the Urphans' Court of Dorchester County and it was stricken out—yeas 31—nays 10 the suggestion of Mr. King, all refer-him friends in every direction. It would from her husband Josiah Rayley Ir ence to the compromise act, limiting slavery be fortunate for the country, if every vo. sidled off. He went closer and axed her if Of the wedding dresses I shall only may, hat these were very fashionable then, and ferred to the compromise act, limiting slavery be fortunate for the country, if every volume to the compromise act, limiting slavery be fortunate for the country, if every volume to the compromise act, limiting slavery be fortunate for the country, if every volume to the well close that the description of the compromise act, limiting slavery be fortunate for the country, if every volume the well close that the description of the well close that the w mitted. The year and nays being then or- in person, and there observe his uncea- right arm round his. Jonathan felt allover- exhibit the same, with the vouchers

HENRY BIBBY, Adm'r. of Ransom Prithett, deceased.

NOTICE.

terms and other particulars will be m

MARTIN GOLDSBGROUGI Talbot County, M

SHERIFF'S SALE.

is Ross, against Jno. W. Satchell, "The great respect which we have on Saturday the 10th day of Feb. petry to wit: "Tryall," containing 1 costs due and to become due. Wm. H. AKE

SHERIFF'S SALE Dy virtue of a writ of fieri facias iss 1. and to the sheriff directed at th Dorchester county, let it be kno whatever name or names it may,

> Wm. H. AKI Jan. 20. 3w

REPUBLICAN ROTEL

a ces to his friends and the generally, that he has taken th at the cross roads, formerly occi ing an establishment for the ac dation of all, and every person v favor him with their patronage. ble will always be furnished pest the market affords. He ways keep on hand Oysters, T &c. in their season: His bar will furnished with the best liquors will afford. His stables are in der and his ostlers careful and N. B. Boarders taken by the da

The public's obedient s J. W. SATO January 20 1838.

To Rent, OR the present year, the h Il' occupied by Mr Solomo as a store and dwelling.—Also the ballance of the year, two wo girl, one with a child. As I have received considerable late, from persons trespassing of near Applebay, I do hereby for the sons from trespassing on said la E. S. CHA Jan. 20.

IN CHANCERY, 27th D ORDERED, That the sale m ported by Henry Page, Trus sale of the real estate of Fran and others be ratified and con less cause to the contrary be fore the 6th day of March ded a copy of this order be in in each of three successiv some paper before the 6th da ary next. The report states of sales to be $1 000. True copy,

RAMSAY W. January 13

IN CHANCERY, 27th RDERED, that the s reported by Henry 1 for the sale of the real estate ton Elliot, be ratified and con cause to the contrary be the 6th day of March ne. copy of this order be ins each of three successive paper, before the 6th day next. The report states sales to be $50. RAMSAY