LEBER BUSSEL CEERS.

I'm glad to hasten to my Bank,

"Why don't you oft'ner come?

And when you draw a little note,

Why live so niggardly and poor?

Your Bank contains a plenty;

Why come and take a one pound note,

When you might have a twenty?

"Yes, twenty thousand ten times told,

To what your Father has laid up,

Secured in God his Son."

I have no cause to borrow,

And draw again to-morrow.

And never was rejected;

Why not a larger sum?

Is but a trifling sum,

And beg a little note.
