REBEL POETRY. GOD SAVE THE SOUTH.

God save the South, God save the South, Her altars and friends, God save the South; Now that the war is nigh, Now that we arm to die, Chaunting our battle cry "Freedom or death!"

God be our shield, At home or afield, Stretch thing arm over us, Strengthen and save. What tho' they're three to one, Forward each sire and son, Strike till the war is won, Strike to the grave.

God made the right Stronger than might; Millions would trample us Down in their pride. Lay Thou their legions low. Roll back the ruthless foe, Let the proud spoiler know God's on our side.

Hear Honor's call Summoning all, Summoning all of us Unto the strife. Sons of the South awake. Strike till the band shall break, Strike for dear Honor's sake, Freedom and Life.

Rehels before, Our fathers of yore; Rebel's the righteous name Wushington bore,

Why then, he ours the same, The name he snatched from shame, Making it first in fame, L'oremost in war.

War to the hilt, Their's be the guilt, Who felter the freeman To ransom the slave. Up then, and undismayed, Sheathe not the battle blade, Till the last foe is laid Low in the grave.

God save the South, God save the South, Dry the dim eyes that now Follow our path. Still let the light feet rove Safe thro' the orange grove, Still keep the land we love Safe from thy wrath.

God save the South, God save the South, Her altars and firesides, God save the South. For the great war is nigh, And we will win or die Chaunting our battle cry, "Freedom or Deathl"
