WOMAN.

BYARTOUR

Woman dear woman in whose name, Wife, sister, mother meet; Thine is the heart, by earliest claim, And thine its latest beat.

In thee the angel beauties shine, An angel's form to thee is giv'n; Then be an angel's office thine, And lead the soul to Heav'n.

From thee we draw our infant strength, Thon art our childhood's friend; And when the man unfolds at length, On thee his hopes depend.

For 'round the heart thy pow'r has spun, A thousand dear mysterious ties; Then take the heart thy charms have wen, And muse it for the skies.
