The country girl's the girl for me, I see her bounding o'er the lea, -Like the fawn, wild and free. She's cheerful as the bright sun-ray, Gentle as summer winds at play, Her light form graceful as a fay, Decked with wild flowers, a rich array, Gathered in distant fields away, The while she trips along so gay-Oh she's the girl for me!

The country maid's the maid for me, Her glowing cheeks I'love to see Oft' blushing modestly. Her tresses free and unconfined, No fillet to restrain or bind, They gently wave to the soft wind, With warm affections true and kind; Search through the world you cannot find A maid more guited to my mind-Oh she the girl for me!

And forth to the fight are gone; Your place in the ranks awaits you; Each man has a part to play; The past and the future are nothing In the face of the stern to-day.

Arise from your dreams of the future-Of gaining a hard fought field; Of storming the airy fortress; Of vidding the giant yield; You future has deeds of glory, of honor (God grant it may!)

Or need as now-to-day. Arise! If the past detain you,

Pat your arm will never be stronger,

Rise! rise! for the foe is here! Stay not to brighten your weapons Or the hour will strike at last; And from dreams of a coming battle, You will waken, and find it past.
